Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in Section 4.01 hereof, each Term Lender severally agrees (a) to make to the Borrower on the Closing Date one or more Closing Date Term Loans denominated in Dollars in an aggregate principal amount equal to such Term Lender's Closing Date Term Commitment on the Closing Date, (b) to make to the Borrower on the Amendment No. 4 Effective Date one or more 2017 Refinancing Term Loans denominated in Dollars in an aggregate principal amount equal to such Term Lender's 2017 Refinancing Term Loan Commitment on the Amendment No. 4 Effective Date and (c) to make to the Borrower on the Amendment No. 5 Effective Date one or more New 2017 Refinancing Term Loans denominated in Dollars in an aggregate principal amount equal to such Term Lender's New 2017 Refinancing Term Loan Commitment on the Amendment No. 5 Effective Date. Amounts borrowed under this Section 2.01(1) and repaid or prepaid may not be reborrowed. The Closing Date Term Loans may be Base Rate Loans or Eurodollar Rate Loans, as further provided herein.

(2) Revolving Borrowings. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, each Revolving Lender severally agrees to make loans denominated in Dollars or one or more Alternative Currencies pursuant to Section 2.02 from its applicable Lending Office (each such loan, a "Revolving Loan") to the Borrower from time to time, on any Business Day during the period ~~from~~, with respect to each Class of the Revolving Facility, from (x) in the case of the Original Initial Revolving Facility, the Closing Date and (y) in the case of the 2017 Initial Revolving Facility, the Amendment No. 6 Effective Date, in each case, until the Maturity Date with respect to such Class of the Revolving Facility, in an aggregate principal Dollar Amount not to exceed at any time outstanding the amount of such Lender's Revolving Commitment under the applicable Class of the Revolving Facility; provided that after giving effect to any Revolving Borrowing, (a) (x) the Total Original Initial Revolving Outstandings shall not exceed the aggregate Original Initial Revolving Commitments and (y) the Total 2017 Initial Revolving Outstandings shall not exceed the aggregate 2017 Initial Revolving Commitments (b) the aggregate principal Dollar Amount of Total Revolving Outstandings denominated in Canadian Dollars will not exceed $25.0 million and (~~b~~c) the aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Revolving Loans of any Lender, plus such Lender's Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement of the Outstanding Amount of all L/C Obligations, plus, in the case of each Lender other than the Swing Line Lender, such Lender's Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement of the Outstanding Amount of all Swing Line Loans, shall not exceed such Lender's Revolving Commitment. Within the limits of each Lender's Revolving Commitment, and subject to the other terms and conditions hereof, the Borrower may borrow under this Section 2.01(2), prepay under Section 2.05 and reborrow under this Section 2.01(2). Revolving Loans may be Base Rate Loans, Eurodollar Rate Loans or CDOR Loans, as further provided herein. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties hereto agree that each Revolving Borrowing (including Revolving Borrowings pursuant to Section 2.04(3)) shall be made on a ratable basis among all Classes of Revolving Commitments then in effect.

SECTION 2.02 Borrowings, Conversions and Continuations of Loans.

(1) Each Term Borrowing, each Revolving Borrowing, each conversion of Term Loans or Revolving Loans from one Type to the other, and each continuation of Eurodollar Rate Loans and CDOR Loans shall be made upon the Borrower's irrevocable notice, on behalf of the Borrower, to the Administrative Agent (provided that the notice in respect of the initial Credit Extension, or in connection with any Permitted Acquisition or other transaction permitted under this Agreement, may be conditioned on the closing of the Merger or such Permitted Acquisition or other transaction, as applicable), which may be given by telephone. Each such notice must be received by the Administrative Agent not later than 12:00 p.m., New York time, (a) three (3) Business Days prior to the requested date of any Borrowing or continuation of Eurodollar Rate Loans or CDOR Loans or any conversion of Base Rate Loans to Eurodollar Rate Loans and (b) on the requested date of any Borrowing of Base Rate Loans; provided that the notice referred to in subclause (a) above may be delivered on or prior to the Closing Date in the case of the Closing Date Term Loans. Each telephonic notice by the Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.02(1) must be received a copy of such L/C Application from the Borrower and, if not, such Issuing Bank will provide the Administrative Agent with a copy thereof. Upon receipt by the relevant Issuing Bank of confirmation from the Administrative Agent that the requested issuance or amendment is permitted in accordance with the terms hereof, then, subject to the terms and conditions hereof, such Issuing Bank shall, on the requested date, issue a Letter of Credit for the account of the Borrower (or, if applicable, any Restricted Subsidiary of the Borrower) or enter into the applicable amendment, as the case may be. Immediately upon the issuance of each Letter of Credit, each Revolving Lender shall be deemed to, and hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees to, purchase from the relevant Issuing Bank a risk participation in such Letter of Credit in an amount equal to the product of such Lender's Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement times the amount of such Letter of Credit. For the avoidance of doubt, each risk participation in a Letter of Credit shall be made on a ratable basis among all Classes of Revolving Commitments then in effect. In furtherance of the foregoing, on the Amendment No. 6 Effective Date (after giving effect to Amendment No. 6) the risk participations in the Letters of Credit outstanding on such date shall be reallocated amongst the Revolving Lenders such that, after giving effect to such reallocation, each Revolving Lender shall hold risk participations in each such Letter of Credit equal to such Revolving Lender's Pro Rata Share of the Revolving Facility (after giving effect to Amendment No. 6). Upon a Maturity Date under any Class of the Revolving Facility (other than the tranche with the latest Maturity Date of all Revolving Facilities then in effect), provided that no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, the aggregate amount of participations in Letters of Credit held by Revolving Lenders in respect of the Class of Revolving Commitments terminating on such Maturity Date shall be reallocated to the Revolving Lenders holding Revolving Commitments of each other Class of Revolving Commitments then in effect, such that, upon such reallocation, the participation of each remaining Revolving Lender in outstanding Letters of Credit shall be in proportion to its respective Pro Rata Share; provided that in no event shall such reallocation result in the aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Revolving Loans of any Lender, plus such Lender's Pro Rata Share of the Outstanding Amount of all L/C Obligations, plus such Lender's Pro Rata Share of the Outstanding Amount of all Swing Line Loans exceeding such Lender's Revolving Commitment. If, on the Maturity Date with respect to any Class of the Revolving Facility, the reallocation described above cannot, or can only partially, be effected with respect to any outstanding Letter of Credit as a result of the limitations set forth herein, the Borrower shall, in accordance with Section 2.03(7), Cash Collateralize the portion of any such Letter of Credit that cannot be so reallocated.

(c) If the Borrower so requests in any applicable L/C Application, the relevant Issuing Bank shall agree to issue a Letter of Credit that has automatic extension provisions (each, an "Auto-Extension Letter of Credit"); provided that any such Auto-Extension Letter of Credit must permit the relevant Issuing Bank to prevent any such extension at least once in each twelve-month period (commencing with the date of issuance of such Letter of Credit) by giving prior notice to the beneficiary thereof not later than a day (the "Non-Extension Notice Date") in each such twelve-month period to be agreed upon by the relevant Issuing Bank and the Borrower at the time such Letter of Credit is issued. Unless otherwise agreed in such Letter of Credit, the Borrower shall not be required to make a specific request to the relevant Issuing Bank for any such extension. Once an Auto-Extension Letter of Credit has been issued, the applicable Lenders shall be deemed to have authorized (but may not require) the relevant Issuing Bank to permit the extension of such Letter of Credit at any time to an expiry date not later than the applicable L/C Expiration Date, unless the Outstanding Amount of L/C Obligations in respect of such requested Letter of Credit has been Cash Collateralized or back-stopped by a letter of credit reasonably satisfactory to the applicable Issuing Bank; provided that the relevant Issuing Bank shall not permit any such extension if (i) the relevant Issuing Bank has determined that it would have no obligation at such time to issue such Letter of Credit in its extended form under the terms hereof (by reason of the provisions of Section 2.03(1)(b) or otherwise) or (ii) it has received notice (which may be by telephone or in writing) on or before the day that is seven (7) Business Days before the Non-Extension Notice Date from the Administrative Agent, any Revolving Lender or the Borrower that one or more of the applicable conditions specified in Section 4.02 will not be satisfied on the applicable date of the Credit Extension.

(d) Promptly after issuance of any Letter of Credit or any amendment to a Letter of Credit, the relevant Issuing Bank will also deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent a true and complete copy of such Letter of Credit or amendment.

(3) Drawings and Reimbursements; Funding of Participations.

(a) Upon receipt from the beneficiary of any Letter of Credit of any notice of a drawing under such Letter of Credit, the relevant Issuing Bank shall promptly notify the Borrower and the Administrative Agent thereof (including the date on which such payment is to be made). Upon the same day of any payment by an Issuing Bank under a Letter of Credit with notice to the Borrower (each such date, an "Honor Date"), the Borrower shall reimburse, or cause to be reimbursed, such Issuing Bank through the Administrative Agent in an amount equal to the Dollar Amount of such drawing; provided that if such reimbursement is not made on the date of drawing, the Borrower shall pay interest to the relevant Issuing Bank on such amount at the rate applicable to Base Rate Loans (without duplication of interest payable on L/C Borrowings). The relevant Issuing Bank shall notify the Borrower of the Dollar Amount of the drawing promptly following the determination or revaluation thereof. If the Borrower fails to so reimburse, or cause to be reimbursed, such Issuing Bank by such time, the Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each Appropriate Lender of the Honor Date, the Dollar Amount of the unreimbursed drawing (the "Unreimbursed Amount") and the amount of such Appropriate Lender's Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement thereof. In such event, in the case of an Unreimbursed Amount under a Letter of Credit, the Borrower shall be deemed to have requested a Revolving Borrowing of Base Rate Loans to be disbursed on the Honor Date in an amount equal to the Unreimbursed Amount, without regard to the minimum and multiples specified in Section 2.02 for the principal amount of Base Rate Loans but subject to the requirements for the amount of the unutilized portion of the Revolving Commitments under the applicable Revolving Facility of the Appropriate Lenders and the conditions set forth in Section 4.02 (other than the delivery of a Committed Loan Notice). Any notice given by an Issuing Bank or the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section 2.03(3)(a) may be given by telephone if immediately confirmed in writing; provided that the lack of such an immediate confirmation shall not affect the conclusiveness or binding effect of such notice. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties hereto agree that each L/C Borrowing shall be made on a ratable basis among all Classes of Revolving Commitments then in effect.

(b) Each Appropriate Lender (including any Lender acting as an Issuing Bank) shall upon any notice pursuant to Section 2.03(3)(a) make funds available to the Administrative Agent for the account of the relevant Issuing Bank in Dollars at the Administrative Agent's Office for payments in an amount equal to its Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement of the Unreimbursed Amount not later than 1:00 p.m. on the Business Day specified in such notice by the Administrative Agent, whereupon, subject to the provisions of Section 2.03(3)(c), each Appropriate Lender that so makes funds available shall be deemed to have made a Revolving Loan that is a Base Rate Loan to the Borrower in such amount. The Administrative Agent shall remit the funds so received to the relevant Issuing Bank.

(c) With respect to any Unreimbursed Amount that is not fully refinanced by a Revolving Borrowing of Base Rate Loans because the conditions set forth in Section 4.02 cannot be satisfied or for any other reason, the Borrower shall be deemed to have incurred from the relevant Issuing Bank an L/C Borrowing in the amount of the Unreimbursed Amount that is not so refinanced, which L/C Borrowing shall be due and payable on demand (together with interest) and shall bear interest at the Default Rate then applicable to (i) prior to the date of termination of the Original Initial Revolving Facility in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the Original Initial Revolving Loans and (ii) from and after the date of termination of the Original Initial Revolving Facility in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the 2017 Initial Revolving Loans. In such event, each Appropriate Lender's payment to the Administrative Agent for the account of the relevant Issuing Bank pursuant to Section 2.03(3)(b) shall be deemed payment in respect of its participation in such L/C Borrowing and shall constitute an L/C Advance from such Lender in satisfaction of its participation obligation under this Section 2.03.

the Borrower will Cash Collateralize, or cause to be Cash Collateralized, the then Outstanding Amount of all relevant L/C Obligations (in an amount equal to such Outstanding Amount determined as of the date of such Event of Default or the applicable L/C Expiration Date, as the case may be), and shall do so not later than 2:00 p.m. on (i) in the case of the immediately preceding clauses (a) or (b), (x) the Business Day that the Borrower receives notice thereof, if such notice is received on such day prior to 12:00 p.m. or (y) if clause (x) above does not apply, the Business Day immediately following the day that the Borrower receives such notice and (ii) in the case of the immediately preceding clause (c), the Business Day on which an Event of Default set forth under Section 8.01(6) occurs or, if such day is not a Business Day, the Business Day immediately succeeding such day. At any time that there shall exist a Defaulting Lender, immediately upon the request of the Administrative Agent or the applicable Issuing Bank, the Borrower will Cash Collateralize all Fronting Exposure (after giving effect to Section 2.17(1)(d) and any Cash Collateral provided by the Defaulting Lender). The Borrower hereby grants to the Administrative Agent, for the benefit of the Issuing Banks and the Revolving Lenders of the applicable Facility, a security interest in all such Cash Collateral. Cash Collateral shall be maintained in blocked accounts at the Administrative Agent and may be invested in readily available Cash Equivalents selected by the Administrative Agent in its sole discretion. If at any time the Administrative Agent determines that any funds held as Cash Collateral are expressly subject to any right or claim of any Person other than the Loan Parties or the Administrative Agent (on behalf of the Secured Parties) or that the total amount of such funds is less than the aggregate Outstanding Amount of all relevant L/C Obligations, the Borrower will, forthwith upon demand by the Administrative Agent, pay, or cause to be paid, to the Administrative Agent, as additional funds to be deposited and held in the deposit accounts at the Administrative Agent as aforesaid, an amount equal to the excess of (A) such aggregate Outstanding Amount over (B) the total amount of funds, if any, then held as Cash Collateral that the Administrative Agent reasonably determines to be free and clear of any such right and claim. Upon the drawing of any Letter of Credit for which funds are on deposit as Cash Collateral, such funds shall be applied, to the extent permitted under applicable Law, to reimburse the relevant Issuing Bank. To the extent the amount of any Cash Collateral exceeds the then Outstanding Amount of such relevant L/C Obligations and so long as no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the excess shall promptly be refunded to the Borrower. To the extent any Event of Default giving rise to the requirement to Cash Collateralize any Letter of Credit pursuant to this Section 2.03(7) is cured or otherwise waived, then so long as no other Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the amount of any Cash Collateral pledged to Cash Collateralize such Letter of Credit shall promptly be refunded to the Borrower. If at any time the Administrative Agent determines that Cash Collateral is subject to any right or claim of any Person other than the Loan Parties or the Administrative Agent as herein provided, or that the total amount of such Cash Collateral is less than the applicable Fronting Exposure and other obligations secured thereby, the Borrower or the relevant Defaulting Lender will, promptly upon demand by the Administrative Agent, pay or provide to the Administrative Agent additional Cash Collateral in an amount sufficient to eliminate such deficiency.

(8) Existing Letters of Credit. Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, (a) Letters of Credit may be issued on the Closing Date to backstop or replace letters of credit outstanding on the Closing Date or (b) all letters of credit issued for the account of the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary and outstanding on the Closing Date and issued by an entity that is an Issuing Bank under this Agreement, which, by its execution of this Agreement, has agreed to act as an Issuing Bank hereunder and is listed on Schedule 2.03(8) (each, an "Existing Letter of Credit") shall automatically be continued hereunder on the Closing Date by such Issuing Bank, and as of the Closing Date the Revolving Lenders shall acquire a participation therein as if such Existing Letter of Credit were issued hereunder, and each such Existing Letter of Credit shall be deemed a Letter of Credit for all purposes of this Agreement as of the Closing Date without any further action by the Borrower.

(9) Letter of Credit Fees. The Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of each Revolving Lender for the applicable Revolving Facility in accordance with its Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement, a Letter of Credit fee for each Letter of Credit issued pursuant to this Agreement equal to the Applicable Rate set forth in the "Eurodollar Rate, CDOR Rate and Letter of Credit Fees" column of the chart in the definition of "Applicable Rate" with respect to such Class of the Revolving Facility times the daily maximum Dollar Amount then available to be drawn under such Letter of Credit (whether or not such maximum amount is then in effect under such Letter of Credit if such maximum amount decreases or increases periodically pursuant to the terms of such Letter of Credit); provided, however, that any Letter of Credit fees otherwise payable for the account of a Defaulting Lender with respect to any Letter of Credit as to which such Defaulting Lender has not provided Cash Collateral satisfactory to the applicable Issuing Bank pursuant to this Section 2.03 shall be payable, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable Law, to the other Lenders in accordance with the upward adjustments in their respective Pro Rata Shares allocable to such Letter of Credit pursuant to Section 2.17(1)(d), with the balance of such fee, if any, payable to the applicable Issuing Bank for its own account. Such Letter of Credit fees shall be computed on a quarterly basis in arrears. Such Letter of Credit fees shall be due and payable in Dollars on the last Business Day of each March, June, September and December, commencing with the first such date to occur after the issuance of such Letter of Credit, with respect to each Revolving Lender, on the L/C Expiration Date with respect to the Class of Revolving Commitments of such Revolving Lender and thereafter on demand. If there is any change in the Applicable Rate set forth in the "Eurodollar Rate, CDOR Rate and Letter of Credit Fees" column with respect to a Class of the Revolving Facility of the chart in the definition of "Applicable Rate" during any calendar quarter, the daily maximum amount of each Letter of Credit shall be computed and multiplied by the Applicable Rate with respect to such Class of the Revolving Facility separately for each period during such calendar quarter that such Applicable Rate was in effect.

(10) Fronting Fee and Documentary and Processing Charges Payable to Issuing Banks. The Borrower shall pay directly to each Issuing Bank for its own account a fronting fee with respect to each Letter of Credit issued by such Issuing Bank equal to 0.25% per annum (or such other lower amount as may be mutually agreed by the Borrower and the applicable Issuing Bank) of the maximum Dollar Amount then available to be drawn under such Letter of Credit (whether or not such maximum amount is then in effect under such Letter of Credit if such maximum amount increases or decreases periodically pursuant to the terms of such Letter of Credit) or such lesser fee as may be agreed with such Issuing Bank. Such fronting fees shall be computed on a quarterly basis in arrears. Such fronting fees shall be due and payable in Dollars on the last Business Day of each March, June, September and December, commencing with the first such date to occur after the issuance of such Letter of Credit, on the L/C Expiration Date and thereafter on demand. In addition, the Borrower shall pay, or cause to be paid, directly to each Issuing Bank for its own account with respect to each Letter of Credit issued for the account of the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary the customary issuance, presentation, amendment and other processing fees, and other standard costs and charges, of such Issuing Bank relating to letters of credit as from time to time in effect. Such customary fees and standard costs and charges are due and payable within ten (10) Business Days of demand and are nonrefundable.

(11) Conflict with L/C Application. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in this Agreement or any L/C Application, in the event of any conflict between the terms hereof and the terms of any L/C Application, the terms hereof shall control.

(12) Addition of an Issuing Bank. There may be one or more Issuing Banks under this Agreement from time to time. After the Closing Date, a Revolving Lender reasonably acceptable to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent may become an additional Issuing Bank hereunder pursuant to a written agreement among the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and such Revolving Lender. The Administrative Agent shall notify the Revolving Lenders of any such additional Issuing Bank.

(13) Provisions Related to Extended Revolving Commitments. If the L/C Expiration Date in respect of any Class of Revolving Commitments occurs prior to the expiry date of any Letter of Credit, then (a) if consented to by the Issuing Bank which issued such Letter of Credit, if one or more other Classes of Revolving Commitments in respect of which the L/C Expiration Date shall not have so occurred are then in effect, such Letters of Credit for which consent has been obtained shall automatically be deemed to have been issued (including for purposes of the obligations of the Revolving Lenders to purchase participations therein and to make Revolving Loans and payments in respect thereof pursuant to Sections 2.03(3) and (4)) under (and ratably participated in by Revolving Lenders pursuant to) the Revolving Commitments in respect of such non-terminating Classes up to an aggregate amount not to exceed the aggregate principal amount of the unutilized Revolving Commitments thereunder at such time (it being understood that no partial face amount of any Letter of Credit may be so reallocated) and (b) to the extent not reallocated pursuant to immediately preceding clause (a) and unless provisions reasonably satisfactory to the applicable Issuing Bank for the treatment of such Letter of Credit as a letter of credit under a successor credit facility have been agreed upon, the Borrower shall, on or prior to the applicable Maturity Date, cause all such Letters of Credit to be replaced and returned to the applicable Issuing Bank undrawn and marked "cancelled" or to the extent that the Borrower is unable to so replace and return any Letter(s) of Credit, such Letter(s) of Credit shall be backstopped by a "back to back" letter of credit reasonably satisfactory to the applicable Issuing Bank or the Borrower shall Cash Collateralize any such Letter of Credit in accordance with Section 2.03(7).

(14) Letter of Credit Reports. For so long as any Letter of Credit issued by an Issuing Bank is outstanding, such Issuing Bank shall deliver to the Administrative Agent on the last Business Day of each calendar month, and on each date that an L/C Credit Extension occurs with respect to any such Letter of Credit, a report in the form of Exhibit R, appropriately completed with the information for every outstanding Letter of Credit issued by such Issuing Bank.

(15) Letters of Credit Issued for Holdings and Subsidiaries. Notwithstanding that a Letter of Credit issued or outstanding hereunder is in support of any obligations of, or is for the account of, Holdings or a Restricted Subsidiary of the Borrower, the Borrower shall be obligated to reimburse, or cause to be reimbursed, the applicable Issuing Bank hereunder for any and all drawings under such Letter of Credit. The Borrower hereby acknowledges that the issuance of Letters of Credit for the account of Holdings or such Restricted Subsidiaries inures to the benefit of the Borrower, and that the Borrower's businesses derives substantial benefits from the businesses of Holdings and such Restricted Subsidiaries.

SECTION 2.04 Swing Line Loans.

(1) The Swing Line. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Swing Line Lender may, in its sole discretion and in its individual capacity, make revolving credit loans in Dollars to the Borrower (each such loan, a "Swing Line Loan"), from time to time on any Business Day during the period beginning on the Business Day after the Closing Date and until the Maturity Date of the Revolving Facility in an aggregate amount not to exceed at any time outstanding the amount of the Swing Line Sublimit, notwithstanding the fact that such Swing Line Loans, when aggregated with the Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement of the Outstanding Amount of Revolving Loans and L/C Obligations of the Swing Line Lender, may exceed the amount of such Swing Line Lender's Revolving Commitment; provided that, after giving effect to any Swing Line Loan, the Revolving Exposure shall not exceed the aggregate Revolving Commitment. Within the foregoing limits, and subject to the other terms and conditions hereof, the Borrower may borrow under this Section 2.04, prepay under Section 2.05, and reborrow under this Section 2.04. Each Swing Line Loan will be obtained or maintained as a Base Rate Loan (bearing interest at the Base Rate*plus* the Applicable Rate for Base Rate Loans under the 2017 Initial Revolving Facility) unless Swing Line Lender agrees to a lower interest rate;provided that (a) Swing Line Lender may not agree to a different rate if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and (b) upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default under Section 8.01(1), the Swing Line Loans will, at the option of Swing Line Lender, bear interest on past due amounts at a rate per annum equal to the Default Rate to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Laws. For the avoidance of doubt, each risk participation in a Swing Line Loan shall be made on a ratable basis among all Classes of Revolving Commitments then in effect.

(2) Borrowing Procedures. Each Swing Line Borrowing shall be made upon the Borrower's irrevocable notice to the Swing Line Lender, which may be given in writing or by telephone. Each such notice must be received by the Swing Line Lender not later than 2:00 p.m., New York time, on the requested Borrowing date and shall specify (a) the amount to be borrowed, which shall be a minimum of $100,000 and (b) the requested Borrowing date, which shall be a Business Day. Each such telephonic notice must be confirmed promptly by delivery to the Swing Line Lender of a written Swing Line Loan Notice, appropriately completed and signed by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower, together with substantially simultaneous notice (by telephone or in writing) to the Administrative Agent. If the Swing Line Lender agrees to provide such requested Swing Line Borrowing, unless it has received notice (by telephone or in writing) from the Administrative Agent (including at the request of any Revolving Lender) or it determines that (i) after giving effect to any Swing Line Loan, the Revolving Exposure will exceed the aggregate Revolving Commitment or (ii) one or more of the applicable conditions specified in Section 4.02 is not then satisfied, then, subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Swing Line Lender will, not later than 3:00 p.m., New York time, on the Borrowing date specified in such Swing Line Loan Notice, make the amount of its Swing Line Loan available to the Borrower.

(3) Repayment or Refinancing of Swing Line Loans.

SECTION 2.05 Prepayments.

(1) Optional.

(a) The Borrower may, upon notice to the Administrative Agent by the Borrower, at any time or from time to time voluntarily prepay any Class or Classes of Term Loans and any Class or Classes of Revolving Loans in whole or in part without premium (except as set forth in Section 2.18) or penalty; provided that

(i) such notice must be received by the Administrative Agent not later than 12:00 p.m., New York time, (A) three (3) Business Days prior to any date of prepayment of Eurodollar Rate Loans and CDOR Loans and (B) on the date of prepayment of Base Rate Loans;

Each such notice shall specify the date and amount of such prepayment and the Class(es) and Type(s) of Loans to be prepaid (and, for the avoidance of doubt, may indicate the prepayments by more than one Borrower on such date in such amounts so specified, which, individually, may be below any minimum or multiple, but which, in the aggregate amount on any given date, shall satisfy such minimum and multiple requirements). The Administrative Agent will promptly notify each Appropriate Lender of its receipt of each such notice, and of the amount of such Lender's Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement of such prepayment. If such notice is given, the Borrower shall make such prepayment and the payment amount specified in such notice shall be due and payable on the date specified therein. Any prepayment of a Eurodollar Rate Loan or CDOR Loans shall be accompanied by all accrued interest thereon, together with any additional amounts required pursuant to Section 3.05. (b) [Reserved].

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Borrower may rescind any notice of prepayment under Section 2.05(1)(a) if such prepayment would have resulted from a refinancing of all or a portion of the applicable Facility, which refinancing shall not be consummated or shall otherwise be delayed.

(d) Each prepayment in respect of any Term Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(1) may be applied to any Class of Term Loans as directed by the Borrower. Voluntary prepayments of any Class of Term Loans permitted hereunder shall be applied in a manner determined at the discretion of the Borrower and specified in the notice of prepayment (and absent such direction, in direct order of maturity, including any remaining scheduled installments of principal). For the avoidance of doubt, the Borrower may (i) prepay Term Loans of any Term Loan Class pursuant to this Section 2.05 without any requirement to prepay Extended Term Loans that were converted or exchanged from such Term Loan Class and (ii) prepay Extended Term Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05 without any requirement to prepay any Term

(i) each prepayment of Term Loans required by Sections 2.05(2)(a) through (d) shall be applied to each Class of Term Loans then outstanding on a pro rata basis or a less than pro rata basis (but not greater than pro rata basis) with any other Term Loans (in each case, other than pursuant to a refinancing or with respect to greater than pro rata payments to an earlier maturing tranche);

(ii) with respect to each Class of Loans (other than Revolving Loans), each prepayment pursuant to clauses (a) through (d) of Section 2.05(2) shall be applied to remaining scheduled installments of principal thereof following the date of prepayment as directed by the Borrower and specified in the notice of prepayment (and absent such direction, in direct order of maturity); and provided that with respect to the allocation of such prepayments under this clause (e) between a Class of existing Loans and a Class of Extended Loans, the Borrower may allocate such prepayments as the Borrower may specify, subject to the limitation that the Borrower may not allocate to such Extended Loans any such mandatory prepayment (other than in the case of a refinancing of Extended Loans) unless such prepayment under this clause (e) is accompanied by at least a pro rata prepayment, based upon the applicable remaining scheduled installments of principal due in respect thereof, of the Term Loans of the same Class, if any, from which such Extended Loans were converted or exchanged (or such Term Loans of the existing Loan Class have otherwise been repaid in full).

(f) Subject to Section 1.10(2), if for any reason (x) the aggregate Outstanding Amount of Revolving Loans, Swing Line Loans and L/C Obligations at any time exceeds the aggregate Revolving Commitments then in effect, the Borrower shall promptly prepay Revolving Loans and Swing Line Loans or Cash Collateralize the L/C Obligations in an aggregate amount equal to such excess; provided that the Borrower shall not be required to Cash Collateralize the L/C Obligations pursuant to this Section 2.05(2)(f) unless after the prepayment in full of the Revolving Loans and Swing Line Loans (as applicable) such aggregate Outstanding Amount of L/C Obligations exceeds the aggregate Revolving Commitments then in effect~~.~~, (y) the aggregate Outstanding Amount of Original Initial Revolving Loans at any time exceeds the aggregate Original Initial Revolving Commitments then in effect, the Borrower shall promptly prepay Original Initial Revolving Loans in an aggregate amount equal to such excess and (z) the aggregate Outstanding Amount of 2017 Initial Revolving Loans at any time exceeds the aggregate 2017 Initial Revolving Commitments then in effect, the Borrower shall promptly prepay 2017 Initial Revolving Loans in an aggregate amount equal to such excess.

(g) The Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent in writing of any mandatory prepayment of Term Loans required to be made pursuant to clauses (a) through (c) of this Section 2.05(2) at least three (3) Business Days prior to the date of such prepayment. Each such notice shall specify the date of such prepayment and provide a reasonably detailed calculation of the aggregate amount of such prepayment to be made by the Borrower. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify each Appropriate Lender of the contents of the Borrower's prepayment notice and of such Appropriate Lender's Pro Rata Share of the prepayment or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement. Each Term Lender may reject all or a portion of its Pro Rata Share, or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement, of any mandatory prepayment (such declined amounts, the "Declined Proceeds") of Term Loans required to be made pursuant to clauses (a) and (b) of this Section 2.05(2) by providing written notice (each, a "Rejection Notice") to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower no later than 5:00 p.m., New York time, two (2) Business Days after the date of such Lender's receipt of notice from the Administrative Agent regarding such prepayment. Each Rejection Notice from a given Lender shall specify the principal amount of the mandatory repayment of Term Loans to be rejected by such Lender. If a Term Lender fails to deliver a Rejection Notice to the Administrative Agent within the time frame specified above or such Rejection Notice fails to specify the principal amount of the Term Loans to be rejected, any such failure will be deemed an acceptance of the total amount of such mandatory prepayment of Term Loans. Any Declined Proceeds remaining shall be retained by the Borrower (or the applicable Restricted Subsidiary) and may be applied by the Borrower or such Restricted Subsidiary in any manner not prohibited by this Agreement.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Section 2.05(2), (A) to the extent that any or all of the Net Proceeds of any Asset Sale by a Foreign Subsidiary giving rise to a prepayment event pursuant to Section 2.05(2)(b) (a "Foreign Asset Sale"), the Net Proceeds of any Casualty Event from a Foreign Subsidiary (a "Foreign Casualty Event"), the Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds of any Specified Sale Leaseback Transaction by a Foreign Subsidiary (a "Foreign Sale-Leaseback") or all or a portion of Excess Cash Flow are prohibited or delayed by applicable local law from being repatriated to the United States, the portion of such Net Proceeds, Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow so affected will not be required to be applied to repay Term Loans at the times provided in this Section 2.05(2) but may be retained by the applicable Foreign Subsidiary so long, but only so long, as the applicable local law will not permit repatriation to the United States (the Borrower hereby agreeing to cause the applicable Foreign Subsidiary to promptly take all actions reasonably required by the applicable local law to permit such repatriation), and once such repatriation of any of such affected Net Proceeds, Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow is permitted under the applicable local law such repatriation will be promptly effected and an amount equal to such repatriated Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow will be promptly (and in any event not later than two (2) Business Days after such repatriation) applied (net of additional taxes payable or reserved against as a result thereof) to the repayment of the Term Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(2) to the extent otherwise provided herein and (B) to the extent that the Borrower has determined in good faith that repatriation of any or all or the Net Proceeds of any Foreign Asset Sale or Foreign Casualty Event, the Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds of any Foreign Sale-Leaseback or Excess Cash Flow would have an adverse tax consequence (taking into account any foreign tax credit or benefit actually realized in connection with such repatriation) with respect to such Net Proceeds, Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow, the Net Proceeds, Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow so affected may be retained by the applicable Foreign Subsidiary.

(i) Interest, Funding Losses, etc. All prepayments under this Section 2.05 shall be accompanied by all accrued interest thereon, together with, in the case of any such prepayment of a Eurodollar Rate Loan or CDOR Loan on a date prior to the last day of an Interest Period therefor, any amounts owing in respect of such Eurodollar Rate Loan or CDOR Loan pursuant to Section 3.05.

Notwithstanding any of the other provisions of this Section 2.05, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, if any prepayment of Eurodollar Rate Loans or CDOR Loans is required to be made under this Section 2.05 prior to the last day of the Interest Period therefor, in lieu of making any payment pursuant to this Section 2.05 in respect of any such Eurodollar Rate Loan or CDOR Loan prior to the last day of the Interest Period therefor, the Borrower may, in ~~their~~ its discretion, deposit an amount sufficient to make any such prepayment otherwise required to be made thereunder together with accrued interest to the last day of such Interest Period into a Cash Collateral Account until the last day of such Interest Period, at which time the Administrative Agent shall be authorized (without any further action by or notice to or from the Borrower or any other Loan Party) to apply such amount to the prepayment of such Loans in accordance with this Section 2.05. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default, the Administrative Agent shall also be authorized (without any further action by or notice to or from the Borrower or any other Loan Party) to apply such amount to the prepayment of the outstanding Loans in accordance with the relevant provisions of this Section 2.05. Such deposit shall be deemed to be a prepayment of such Loans by the Borrower for all purposes under this Agreement.

SECTION 2.06 Termination or Reduction of Commitments.

(1) Optional. The Borrower may, upon written notice by the Borrower to the Administrative Agent, terminate the unused Commitments of any Class, or from time to time permanently reduce the unused Commitments of any Class, in each case without premium or penalty; provided that

(a) any such notice shall be received by the Administrative Agent three (3) Business Days prior to the date of termination or reduction,

(b) any such partial reduction shall be in an aggregate amount of $5.0 million or any whole multiple of $1.0 million in excess thereof or, if less, the entire amount thereof ~~and~~,

(c) the Borrower shall not terminate or reduce (A) the Original Initial Revolving Facility if, after giving effect thereto and to any concurrent prepayments hereunder, the Total Original Initial Revolving Outstandings would exceed the Original Initial Revolving Facility or (B) the 2017 Initial Revolving Facility if, after giving effect thereto and to any concurrent prepayments hereunder, the Total 2017 Initial Revolving Outstandings would exceed the 2017 Initial Revolving Facility; and

(d) ~~(c)~~ if, after giving effect to any reduction of the Commitments, the L/C Sublimit or Swing Line Sublimit exceeds the amount of the Revolving Facility, such sublimit shall be automatically reduced by the amount of such excess.

Except as provided above, the amount of any such Revolving Commitment reduction shall not be applied to the L/C Sublimit or Swing Line Sublimit unless otherwise specified by the Borrower. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower may rescind or postpone any notice of termination of any Commitments if such termination would have resulted from a refinancing of all of the applicable Facility, which refinancing shall not be consummated or otherwise shall be delayed.

Each of (i) the Closing Date Term Commitment of each Term Lender on the Closing Date, (ii) the 2017 Refinancing Term Loan Commitment of each 2017 Refinancing Term Lender on the Amendment No. 4 Effective Date and (iii) the New 2017 Refinancing Term Loan Commitment of each New 2017 Refinancing Term Lender on the Amendment No. 5 Effective Date, shall be automatically and permanently reduced to $0 upon the making of such Lender's Closing Date Term Loans, 2017 Refinancing Term Loans or New 2017 Refinancing Term Loans, respectively, to the Borrower pursuant to Section 2.01(1). The Revolving Commitment of each Revolving Lender shall automatically and permanently terminate on the Maturity Date for the applicable Class of the Revolving Facility.

(3) Application of Commitment Reductions; Payment of Fees. Upon any reduction of unused Commitments of any Class, the Commitment of each Lender of such Class shall be reduced by such Lender's Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement of the amount by which such Commitments are reduced (other than the termination of the Commitment of any Lender as provided in Section 3.07). Any commitment fees accrued until the effective date of any termination of the Revolving Commitments shall be paid on the effective date of such termination.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, it is agreed as follows:

SECTION 1. Amendments to Credit Agreement.

(a) New Term Loans.

(i) Subject to the satisfaction (or waiver) of the conditions set forth in Section 2 hereof and in reliance upon the representations and warranties set forth in Section 3 hereof, the New Term Loan Lenders severally, but not jointly, hereby agree to make the New Term Loans to the Borrower on the Seventh Amendment Effective Date (as defined below) in the aggregate principal amount of such New Term Loan Lender's New Term Loan Commitment (as defined below). The New Term Loans being made pursuant to this Seventh Amendment shall constitute Term Loans as defined in the Credit Agreement and shall be added to, and thereafter constitute a part of, the same Class of Term Loans as the Existing Term Loans for all purposes under the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents (including without limitation ranking pari passu in right of payment and of security with the Existing Term Loans and maturing on the same date that the Existing Term Loans mature). The New Term Loans are intended to be treated as being fungible with the Existing Term Loans for U.S. federal income tax purposes and will trade under the same CUSIP number as the Existing Term Loans. The New Term Loans will (x) amortize at the same rate of amortization as the Existing Term Loans, resulting in the New Term Loans having a Weighted Average Life to Maturity not less than the Existing Term Loans and (y) otherwise be on the exact same terms applicable to the Existing Term Loans.

(ii) The Administrative Agent has prepared a schedule attached hereto as Schedule I (the "New Term Loan Commitment Schedule") which sets forth the allocated commitments received by it (collectively, the "New Term Loan Commitments") from the New Term Loan Lenders. The Administrative Agent has notified each New Term Loan Lender of its allocated New Term Loan Commitment, and each lender that holds a New Term Loan Commitment is a signatory to this Seventh Amendment.

(iii) The Borrower and each New Term Loan Lender agree that the New Term Loans will be issued at a price equal to 100% of the aggregate principal amount thereof.

(iv) The Borrower hereby acknowledges that all of the New Term Loans are being incurred in reliance on the Ratio Amount under Section 2.14 of the Credit Agreement.

(b) New Revolving Loans.

(i) Subject to the satisfaction (or waiver) of the conditions set forth in Section 2 hereof and in reliance upon the representations and warranties set forth in Section 3 hereof, each New Revolving Lender and each Increasing Revolving Lender severally, but not jointly, hereby agrees to establish New Revolving Commitments on the Seventh Amendment Effective Date such that, after giving effect to the establishment of such New Revolving Commitments, the total Revolving Commitment of such New Revolving Lender or such Increasing Revolving Lender, as applicable, will be the amount set forth opposite the name of such New Revolving Lender or such Increasing Revolving Lender, as applicable, on Schedule I hereto. The (x) New Revolving Commitments shall comprise a single Class with the 2017 Initial Revolving Commitments and (y) if and when Revolving Loans are incurred under the New Revolving Commitments, such Revolving Loans shall comprise a single Class with the 2017 Initial Revolving Loans, in each case, with terms and provisions identical to the 2017 Initial Revolving Commitments and 2017 Initial Revolving Loans, as applicable (including without limitation ranking pari passu in right of payment and of security and maturing on the same date).

(ii) Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that (i) the Administrative Agent may take any and all actions as may be reasonably necessary to ensure that all of the Revolving Lenders (including the New Revolving Lenders) participate in each outstanding Letter of Credit and Swing Line Loan, if any, pro rata on the basis of their respective Revolving Commitments (after giving effect to the New Revolving Commitments), including by assigning to each New Revolving Lender or Increasing Revolving Lender, as applicable, a portion of each then-existing Revolving Lender's participations under the Credit Agreement in outstanding Letters of Credit and Swing Line Loans, if any, and each New Revolving Lender and Increasing Revolving Lender hereby automatically and without further action shall be deemed to have assumed a portion of such existing Revolving Lender's participations, such that, after giving effect to each deemed assignment and assumption of participations, all of the Revolving Lenders' (including the New Revolving Lenders' and the Increasing Revolving Lenders') participations in Letters of Credit and Swing Line Loans shall be held ratably on the basis of their respective Revolving Commitments (after giving effect to the New Revolving Commitments) and (ii) the Administrative Agent may cause all existing Revolving Lenders to assign Revolving Loans to each New Revolving Lender and each Increasing Revolving Lender, and each New Revolving Lender and each Increasing Revolving Lender shall purchase such Revolving Loans, in each case to the extent necessary so that all of the Revolving Lenders participate in each outstanding Borrowing of Revolving Loans pro rata on the basis of their respective Revolving Commitments (after giving effect to the New Revolving Commitments).

(iii) The Borrower hereby acknowledges that (1) $42,000,000 of the New Revolving Commitments are being established in reliance on the Ratio Amount under Section 2.14 of the Credit Agreement and (2) $68,000,000 of the New Revolving Commitments are being established in reliance on the Fixed Incremental Amount under Section 2.14 of the Credit Agreement.

(c) Interest; Interest Periods. The Applicable Rate for the New Term Loans and the New Revolving Loans shall be the same as the Applicable Rate that applies to the Existing Term Loans and the Existing Revolving Loans of the same Type, respectively. All Interest Periods applicable to Existing Term Loans and Existing Revolving Loans shall continue in effect after the Seventh Amendment Effective Date. The New Term Loans shall be initially incurred pursuant to a single Borrowing of Eurodollar Rate Loans, with such Borrowing to be subject to (x) Interest Periods which commence on the Seventh Amendment Effective Date and end on the last day of the Interest Periods applicable to the Existing Term Loans and (y) the Eurodollar Rates applicable to the Existing Term Loans for such Interest Periods. The New Term Loans of each Lender shall be allocated ratably to such Interest Periods (based upon the relative principal amounts of Borrowings of the Existing Term Loans subject to such Interest Periods immediately prior to the Seventh Amendment Effective Date), with the effect being that the New Term Loans that are funded in cash on the Seventh Amendment Effective Date shall be ratably allocated to the various Interest Periods as described above. The Administrative Agent shall record the New Term Loans in the Register, and the principal amounts and stated interest of the New Term Loans owing to the New Term Loan Lenders and their subsequent permitted assignees. From and after the Seventh Amendment Effective Date to the first Interest Payment Date to occur after the Seventh Amendment Effective Date, the Administrative Agent shall make all payments in respect of interest on the New Term Loans to the New Term Loan Lenders for amounts which have accrued on the New Term Loans from the Seventh Amendment Effective Date to but excluding such Interest Payment Date (and to the extent any New Term Loan Lender assigns all or any portion of the New Term Loans during such period, such payment shall be made in accordance with Section 2 on Annex 1 to the applicable Assignment and Assumption).

(d) Use of Proceeds. The Borrower will use the proceeds of the New Term Loans and the Revolving Loans (if any) incurred on the Seventh Amendment Effective Date to (i) pay fees and expenses in connection with the preparation and negotiation of this Seventh Amendment and the funding of the New Term Loans, (ii) to prepay Revolving Loans and (iii) for working capital or other general corporate purposes not prohibited by the Loan Documents.

(e) Additional Credit Agreement Amendments. Subject to the satisfaction (or waiver) of the conditions set forth in Section 2 hereof and upon the making of the New Term Loans, the Credit Agreement is hereby amended as follows:

(i) Section 1.01 of the Credit Agreement is hereby amended by replacing "$50.0 million" with "$60,000,000" in the definition of "L/C Sublimit".

(ii) Section 1.01 of the Credit Agreement is hereby amended by replacing "$75,000,000" with "$90,000,000" in the definition of "Swing Line Sublimit".

(b) On and after the Seventh Amendment Effective Date, (i) each reference in the Credit Agreement to "this Agreement," "hereunder," "hereof" or words of like import referring to the Credit Agreement shall mean and be a reference to the Credit Agreement, as amended by this Seventh Amendment and (ii)(w) each New Term Loan Lender shall constitute a "2017 Refinancing Term Lender", a "Term Lender" and a "Lender", (x) each New Revolving Lender and each Increasing Revolving Lender shall constitute a "2017 Initial Revolving Lender", a "Revolving Lender" and a "Lender", (y) the New Term Loans shall constitute "New 2017 Refinancing Term Loans", "Term Loans" and "Loans" and (z) the New Revolving Commitments shall constitute "2017 Initial Revolving Commitments", "Commitments" and "Revolving Commitments", in each case, under (and as defined in) the Credit Agreement after giving effect to this Seventh Amendment.

(c) The Credit Agreement and each of the other Loan Documents, as specifically amended by this Seventh Amendment, are and shall continue to be in full force and effect and are hereby in all respects ratified and confirmed. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Collateral Documents and all of the Collateral described therein do and shall continue to secure the payment of all Obligations of the Loan Parties under the Loan Documents, in each case, as amended by this Seventh Amendment.

(d) The execution, delivery and effectiveness of this Seventh Amendment shall not, except as expressly provided herein, operate as a waiver of any right, power or remedy of any Lender or the Administrative Agent under any of the Loan Documents, nor constitute a waiver of any provision of any of the Loan Documents.

(e) This Seventh Amendment may not be amended, modified or waived except pursuant to a writing signed by each of the parties hereto.

SECTION 7. Governing Law. THIS SEVENTH AMENDMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

SECTION 8. Counterparts. This Seventh Amendment may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto in different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Seventh Amendment by telecopy or other electronic imaging (including in .pdf format) means shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Seventh Amendment.

SECTION 9. Electronic Execution. The words "execution," "signed," "signature," and words of like import in this Seventh Amendment or in any amendment or other modification hereof (including waivers and consents) shall be deemed to include electronic signatures or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

(i) Subject to the satisfaction (or waiver) of the conditions set forth in Section 2 hereof and in reliance upon the representations and warranties set forth in Section 3 hereof, the Extending Revolving Lenders severally, but not jointly, hereby agree (x) to establish Extended Revolving Commitments by converting their respective Existing Extended Revolving Commitments into Revolving Commitments under the 2021 Initial Revolving Facility (as defined in the Credit Agreement after giving effect to this Eighth Amendment) in an amount equal to their respective Existing Extended Revolving Commitments (the "Extending Revolving Commitments"), (y) that automatically upon the effectiveness of this Eighth Amendment on the Eighth Amendment Effective Date and without any further action by any Person, each Extending Revolving Lender's Existing Extended Revolving Loans outstanding on the Eighth Amendment Effective Date shall be deemed to have been converted into, and, for all purposes of the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents, shall constitute, Extended Revolving Loans (the "Extending Revolving Loans") under the 2021 Initial Revolving Facility in an outstanding principal amount equal to such Extending Revolving Lender's Existing Extended Revolving Loans and (z) that the Administrative Agent may take whatever administrative actions it deems necessary and appropriate to reflect the foregoing in the Register.

(ii) The Administrative Agent has prepared a schedule attached hereto as Schedule A (the "Extending Revolving Commitment Schedule") which sets forth (x) the Existing Extended Revolving Loans of each Extending Revolving Lender and (y) the Existing Extended Revolving Commitments of each Extending Revolving Lender.

(iii) (x) The Extending Revolving Commitments shall be designated as a new Class of Revolving Commitments under the Revolving Facility and (y) Extending Revolving Loans shall be designated as a new Class of Revolving Loans under the Revolving Facility, in each case, with terms and provisions identical to the Existing Revolving Commitments and Existing Revolving Loans, as applicable, except as set forth herein.

(b) 2021 Refinancing Term Loans.

(d) Lender Replacement. The Borrower hereby notifies the Administrative Agent and Term Lenders who are party to the Credit Agreement immediately prior to the Eighth Amendment Effective Date and not party to this Eighth Amendment (each, a "Non-Extending Lender") that hold Term Loans (all such Term Loans held by Non-Extending Lenders, "Non-Extended Loans") that, pursuant to Section 3.07 of the Credit Agreement, it has elected to replace each such Non-Extending Lender with respect to such

Non-Extended Loans by assignment. (d) the Administrative Agent shall have received a certificate executed by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower certifying compliance with the requirements of the preceding clause (c);

(e) the Administrative Agent shall have received no fewer than three Business Days prior to the Eighth Amendment Effective Date (x) a Committed Loan Notice, duly executed by the Borrower, for the Borrowing of the 2021 Refinancing Term Loans pursuant to this Eighth Amendment and (y) a prepayment notice pursuant to Section 2.05(1)(a) of the Credit Agreement;

(g) the Administrative Agent shall have received an opinion from (i) Latham & Watkins LLP, special New York counsel to the Loan Parties and (ii) Faegre Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP, special Minnesota counsel to the Loan Parties, in each case in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and addressed to the Administrative Agent, the Extending Revolving Lenders and the New Refinancing Term Loan Lenders;

(h) the Borrower shall have issued senior secured notes yielding net proceeds in an amount at least sufficient, when combined with the net proceeds of the 2021 Refinancing Term Loans and cash on hand of the Borrower and its Restricted Subsidiaries to make the payments set forth in the succeeding clause (j);

(i) the Administrative Agent shall have received a fully executed copy of the Amendment No. 8 Intercreditor Agreement; and

(j) the Administrative Agent shall receive, simultaneously with such funding, funds sufficient to (i) refinance in full the principal amount of all Existing Term Loans (other than Converting Term Loans), (ii) refinance in full the principal amount of all outstanding Revolving Loans, and (iii) pay, in connection therewith, all accrued and unpaid interest on all Existing Term Loans and outstanding Revolving Loans.

SECTION 3. Representations and Warranties. To induce the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Bank, the Swing Line Lender, the Extending Revolving Lenders and the New Refinancing Term Loan Lenders party hereto to enter into this Eighth Amendment and each Refinancing Lender Consent, each of the Borrower and Holdings represents and warrants to the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Bank, the Swing Line Lender, the Extending Revolving Lenders and the New Refinancing Term Loan Lenders party hereto on and as of the Eighth Amendment Effective Date:

(a) all of the representations and warranties of each Loan Party contained in the Credit Agreement and the other Loan Documents are true and correct in all material respects on and as of the Eighth Amendment Effective Date; provided that, to the extent that such representations and warranties specifically refer to an earlier date, they shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such earlier date; provided further that any representation and warranty that is qualified as to "materiality," "Material Adverse Effect" or similar language shall be true and correct (after giving effect to any qualification therein) in all respects on and as of the Eighth Amendment Effective Date or such earlier date; and

(b) no Default or Event of Default exists as of the Eighth Amendment Effective Date, or would result from the establishment of the Extending Revolving Commitments, the conversion of the Existing Extended Revolving Loans into the Extending Revolving Loans, making of the 2021 Refinancing Term Loans or the respective application of the proceeds therefrom.

SECTION 4. Reaffirmation of Guaranty. Each Guarantor reaffirms its guarantee of the Guaranteed Obligations (as defined in the Guaranty) under the terms and conditions of the Guaranty and agrees that such guarantee remains in full force and effect and is hereby ratified, reaffirmed and confirmed. Each Guarantor hereby confirms that it consents to the terms of this Eighth Amendment, including, without limitation, the extension in whole or in part of the Existing Revolving Loans under the Credit Agreement in the form of Extending Revolving Loans and the refinancing in full of the Existing Term Loans under the Credit Agreement in the form of 2021 Refinancing Term Loans and each of which constitute "Guaranteed Obligations" of such Guarantor under the Guaranty as amended by this Eighth Amendment. Each Guarantor hereby (i) confirms that each Loan Document to which it is a party or is otherwise bound will continue to guarantee, to the fullest extent possible in accordance with the Loan Documents, the payment and performance of the Guaranteed Obligations, including without limitation the payment and performance of all such applicable Guaranteed Obligations that are joint and several obligations of each Guarantor now or hereafter existing; (ii) acknowledges and agrees that its Guaranty and each of the Loan Documents to which it is a party or otherwise bound shall continue in full force and effect and that all of its obligations thereunder shall be valid and enforceable and shall not be impaired or limited by the execution or effectiveness of the Eighth Amendment; and (iii) acknowledges, agrees and warrants for the benefit of the Administrative Agent and each Secured Party that there are no rights of set-off or counterclaim, nor any defenses of any kind, whether legal, equitable or otherwise, that would enable such Guarantor to avoid or delay timely performance of its obligations under the Loan Documents (except to the extent such obligations constitute Excluded Swap Obligations (as defined in the Guaranty) with respect to such Guarantor).

SECTION 5. Reaffirmation of Security Agreement.

(a) Each Loan Party hereby acknowledges that it has reviewed and consents to the terms and conditions of this Eighth Amendment and the transactions contemplated hereby, including, without limitation, the extension in whole or in part of the Existing Revolving Loans under the Credit Agreement in the form of Extending Revolving Loans and the refinancing in full of the Existing Term Loans under the Credit Agreement in the form of 2021 Refinancing Term Loans. In addition, each Loan Party reaffirms the security interests granted by such Loan Party under the terms and conditions of the Security Agreement to secure the Obligations and agrees that such security interests remain in full force and effect and are hereby ratified, reaffirmed and confirmed. Each Loan Party hereby confirms that the security interests granted by such Loan Party under the terms and conditions of the Security Agreement secure each of the Extending Revolving Loans and the 2021 Refinancing Term Loans as part of the Obligations. Each Loan Party hereby (i) confirms that each Loan Document to which it is a party or is otherwise bound and all Collateral (as defined in the Security Agreement) encumbered thereby will continue to guarantee or secure, as the case may be, to the fullest extent possible in accordance with the Loan Documents, the payment and performance of the Obligations, as the case may be, including, without limitation, the payment and performance of all such applicable Obligations that are joint and several obligations of each Loan Party now or hereafter existing, (ii) confirms its respective grant to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties of the security interest in and continuing Lien on all of such Loan Party's right, title and interest in, to and under all Collateral (as defined in the Security Agreement), whether now owned or existing or hereafter acquired or arising and wherever located, as collateral security for the prompt and complete payment and performance in full when due, whether at stated maturity, by required prepayment, declaration, acceleration, demand or otherwise, of all applicable Obligations (including all such Obligations as amended, reaffirmed and/or increased pursuant to this Eighth Amendment), subject to the terms contained in the applicable Loan Documents, and (iii) confirms its respective guarantees, pledges, grants of security interests and other obligations, as applicable, under and subject to the terms of each of the Loan Documents to which it is a party.

(b) Each Loan Party acknowledges and agrees that each of the Loan Documents to which it is a party or otherwise bound shall continue in full force and effect and that all of its obligations thereunder shall be valid and enforceable and shall not be impaired or limited by the execution or effectiveness of this Eighth Amendment.

SECTION 6. Reference to and Effect on the Credit Agreement and the Loan Documents.

(a) This Eighth Amendment shall constitute both an Extension Amendment and a Loan Document under the Credit Agreement.

(b) On and after the Eighth Amendment Effective Date, (i) each reference in the Credit Agreement to "this Agreement," "hereunder," "hereof" or words of like import referring to the Credit Agreement shall mean and be a reference to the Credit Agreement, as amended by this Eighth Amendment, (ii) each Extending Revolving Lender and each New Refinancing Term Loan Lender shall constitute a "Lender" under (and as defined in) the Credit Agreement after giving effect to this Eighth Amendment, (iii) the Extending Revolving Commitments shall constitute "Extended Revolving Commitments", "Commitments", "Revolving Commitments" and "2021 Initial Revolving Commitments" under (and as defined in) the Credit Agreement, (iv) the Extending Revolving Loans shall constitute "Loans", "Revolving Loans", "Extended Revolving Loans" and "2021 Initial Revolving Loans" under (and as defined in) the Credit Agreement after giving effect to this Eighth Amendment, (v) the New Refinancing Term Loan Commitments shall constitute "Refinancing Commitments" and "Commitments" under (and as defined in) the Credit Agreement after giving effect to this Eighth Amendment, (vi) the 2021 Refinancing Term Loans shall constitute "Closing Date Term Loans" under (and as defined in) the Credit Agreement after giving effect to this Eighth Amendment and (vii) the Eighth Amendment Effective Date shall constitute the "Amendment No. 8 Effective Date" under (and as defined in) the Credit Agreement.

(c) The Credit Agreement and each of the other Loan Documents, as specifically amended by this Eighth Amendment, are and shall continue to be in full force and effect and are hereby in all respects ratified and confirmed. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Collateral Documents and all of the Collateral described therein do and shall continue to secure the payment of all Obligations of the Loan Parties under the Loan Documents, in each case, as amended by this Eighth Amendment.

(d) The execution, delivery and effectiveness of this Eighth Amendment shall not, except as expressly provided herein, operate as a waiver of any right, power or remedy of any Lender or the Administrative Agent under any of the Loan Documents, nor constitute a waiver of any provision of any of the Loan Documents.

(e) Notwithstanding anything in the Credit Agreement to the contrary, the 2021 Refinancing Term Loans shall be funded as Eurodollar Rate Loans with an initial Interest Period ending on February 26, 2021.

(f) Each Converting Lender that executes and delivers a Refinancing Lender Consent electing the "Consent and Cashless Roll Option" shall be deemed to agree, upon the effectiveness of this Eighth Amendment on the Eighth Amendment Effective Date that (i) all (or such lesser amount as the Administrative Agent may allocate to such Lender) of its Existing Term Loans shall constitute 2021 Refinancing Term Loans under the Credit Agreement (each such 2021 Refinancing Term Loan, to such extent, a "Cashless Converting Loan") and (ii) it waives any right to receive its share of the prepayment of Existing Term Loans referred to in Section 2(j), solely to the extent of such Cashless Converting Loans.

(g) Each existing Term Lender that executes and delivers a Refinancing Lender Consent electing the "Consent and Assignment Option" shall be repaid in full (or such lesser amount as the Administrative Agent may allocate to such Term Lender) on the Eighth Amendment Effective Date, including for all accrued and unpaid interest, fees, expenses and other compensation owed to such Term Lender and due and payable by the Borrower pursuant to the Credit Agreement and this Eighth Amendment. Each such Term Lender agrees that it shall be deemed to have executed an Assignment and Assumption pursuant to Section 10.07 of the Credit Agreement on the Eighth Amendment Effective Date and to have purchased a principal amount of 2021 Refinancing Term Loans in an amount equal to the principal amount of such repayment (or such lesser amount as the Administrative Agent may allocate to such Term Lender).

(h) This Eighth Amendment may not be amended, modified or waived except pursuant to a writing signed by each of the parties hereto.

SECTION 7. Post-Closing Covenant. As promptly as practicable, and in any event no later than ninety (90) days after the Eighth Amendment Effective Date or such later date as the Administrative Agent reasonably agrees to in writing, including to reasonably accommodate circumstances relating to the current COVID-19 pandemic and other circumstances unforeseen on the Eighth Amendment Effective Date, provide to the Collateral Agent the documents or evidence required as set forth in Schedule C with respect to each of the Mortgaged Properties listed in Schedule 1.01(2) to the Credit Agreement, except to the extent otherwise agreed by the Administrative Agent pursuant to its authority as set forth in the definition of the term "Collateral and Guarantee Requirement".

SECTION 8. Governing Law. THIS EIGHTH AMENDMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

SECTION 9. Counterparts. This Eighth Amendment may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto in different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Eighth Amendment by telecopy or other electronic imaging (including in .pdf format) means shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Eighth Amendment.

SECTION 10. Electronic Execution. The words "execution," "signed," "signature," and words of like import in this Eighth Amendment or in any amendment or other modification hereof (including waivers and consents) shall be deemed to include electronic signatures or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

SECTION 11. Assignment of Revolving Commitments. The parties hereto acknowledge that pursuant to terms and conditions and for good and valuable consideration, in each case, separately agreed among the relevant parties, certain Revolving Lenders have agreed to assign and assume Revolving Commitments such that after giving effect to such assignments and assumptions (the "Eighth Amendment Effective Date Assignments"), the Revolving Commitment of each Revolving Lender shall be equal to the amount set forth opposite the name of such Revolving Lender under the applicable column on Schedule 2.01 to the Credit Agreement (after giving effect to this Amendment). Notwithstanding the terms of Section 10.07 of the Credit Agreement, the parties hereto hereby agree that, immediately upon the effectiveness of this Amendment on the Eighth Amendment Effective Date, each of the Eighth Amendment Effective Date Assignments shall be effective and the Revolving Commitment of each Revolving Lender shall be equal to the amount set forth opposite the name of such Revolving Lender under the applicable column on Schedule 2.01 to the Credit Agreement without any further action by any party. The Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the Issuing Bank hereby consent to each Eighth Amendment Effective Date Assignment and the Administrative Agent is hereby instructed to record such assignments in the Register.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused their duly authorized officers to execute and deliver this Eighth Amendment as of the date first above written.

(A) if at the time that any such prepayment would be required, the Borrower (or any Restricted Subsidiary) is required to Discharge any Other Applicable Indebtedness with Other Applicable Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds pursuant to the terms of the documentation governing such Indebtedness, then the Borrower (or any Restricted Subsidiary) may apply such Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds on a pro rata basis (determined on the basis of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the Term Loans and Other Applicable Indebtedness requiring such Discharge at such time);

(B) the portion of such Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds allocated to the Other Applicable Indebtedness shall not exceed the amount of such Other Applicable Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds required to be allocated to the Other Applicable Indebtedness pursuant to the terms thereof, and the remaining amount, if any, of such Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds shall be allocated to the Term Loans (in accordance with the terms hereof) to the prepayment of the Term Loans and to the repurchase or prepayment of Other Applicable Indebtedness, and the amount of prepayment of the Term Loans that would have otherwise been required pursuant to this Section 2.05(2)(c)(i) shall be reduced accordingly; and

(C) to the extent the holders of Other Applicable Indebtedness decline to have such Indebtedness repurchased or prepaid with such portion of such Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds, the declined amount shall promptly (and in any event within ten (10) Business Days after the date of such rejection) be applied to prepay the Term Loans in accordance with the terms hereof; provided further that no prepayment shall be required pursuant to this Section 2.05(2)(c)(i) with respect to such portion of such Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds that the Borrower shall have, on or prior to such date, given written notice to the Administrative Agent of its intent to reinvest (or its having entered into a binding commitment to reinvest) in accordance with Section 2.05(2)(c)(ii).

(ii) With respect to any Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds realized or received with respect to any Specified Operating Facility Sale-Leaseback Transaction, the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary, at its option, may reinvest all or any portion of such Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds in assets useful for their business (provided that, during the Covenant Modification Period, such reinvestment shall be limited to assets of the Loan Parties useful for their business) within (x) eighteen (18) months following receipt of such Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds or (y) if the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary enters into a legally binding commitment to reinvest such Net Proceeds within eighteen (18) months following receipt thereof, within the later of (A) eighteen (18) months following receipt thereof and (B) one hundred eighty (180) days of the date of such legally binding commitment; provided that if any Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds are no longer intended to be or cannot be so reinvested at any time after delivery of a notice of reinvestment election, and subject to clauses (g) and (h) of this Section 2.05(2), an amount equal to any such Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds shall be applied within five (5) Business Days after the Borrower reasonably determines that such Specified Sale- Leaseback Net Proceeds are no longer intended to be or cannot be so reinvested to the prepayment of the Term Loans as set forth in this Section 2.05.

(iii) ~~(ii)~~ If the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary enters into a Specified Other Sale-Leaseback Transaction, which results in the receipt by the Borrower or such Restricted Subsidiary of Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds and the Borrower elects to make a Restricted Payment under Section 7.05(b)(24) the Borrower shall prepay (or cause to be prepaid) substantially concurrently with the making of such Restricted Payment an aggregate principal amount of Loans equal to 60% of such Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds.

(d) If the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary incurs or issues any Indebtedness (A) not expressly permitted to be incurred or issued pursuant to Section 7.02 or (B) that constitutes Credit Agreement Refinancing Indebtedness or Refinancing Loans, the Borrower shall prepay, or cause to be prepaid, an aggregate principal amount of Term Loans of any Class or Classes (in each case, as directed by the Borrower) equal to 100% of all Net Proceeds received therefrom on or prior to the date which is five (5) Business Days after the receipt by the Borrower or such Restricted Subsidiary of such Net Proceeds.

(e) Except as otherwise set forth in any Refinancing Amendment, Extension Amendment or Incremental Amendment,

(i) each prepayment of Term Loans required by Sections 2.05(2)(a) through (d) shall be applied to each Class of Term Loans then outstanding on a pro rata basis or a less than pro rata basis (but not greater than pro rata basis) with any other Term Loans (in each case, other than pursuant to a refinancing or with respect to greater than pro rata payments to an earlier maturing tranche);

(ii) with respect to each Class of Loans (other than Revolving Loans), each prepayment pursuant to clauses (a) through (d) of Section 2.05(2) shall be applied to remaining scheduled installments of principal thereof following the date of prepayment as directed by the Borrower and specified in the notice of prepayment (and absent such direction, in direct order of maturity); and

(iii) each such prepayment shall be paid to the Lenders in accordance with their respective Pro Rata Shares of such prepayment;

provided that with respect to the allocation of such prepayments under this clause (e) between a Class of existing Loans and a Class of Extended Loans, the Borrower may allocate such prepayments as the Borrower may specify, subject to the limitation that the Borrower may not allocate to such Extended Loans any such mandatory prepayment (other than in the case of a refinancing of Extended Loans) unless such prepayment under this clause (e) is accompanied by at least a pro rata prepayment, based upon the applicable remaining scheduled installments of principal due in respect thereof, of the Term Loans of the same Class, if any, from which such Extended Loans were converted or exchanged (or such Term Loans of the existing Loan Class have otherwise been repaid in full).

(f)

(i) ~~(f)~~ Subject to Section 1.10(2), if for any reason (x) the aggregate Outstanding Amount of Revolving Loans, Swing Line Loans and L/C Obligations at any time exceeds the aggregate Revolving Commitments then in effect, the Borrower shall promptly prepay Revolving Loans and Swing Line Loans or Cash Collateralize the L/C Obligations in an aggregate amount equal to such excess; provided that the Borrower shall not be required to Cash Collateralize the L/C Obligations pursuant to this Section 2.05(2)(f) unless after the prepayment in full of the Revolving Loans and Swing Line Loans (as applicable) such aggregate Outstanding Amount of L/C Obligations exceeds the aggregate Revolving Commitments then in effect, (y) the aggregate Outstanding Amount of ~~Original Initial Revolving Loans at any time exceeds the aggregate Original Initial Revolving Commitments then in effect, the Borrower shall promptly prepay Original Initial Revolving Loans in an aggregate amount equal to such excess and (z) the aggregate Outstanding Amount of~~ 2017 Initial Revolving Loans at any time exceeds the aggregate 2017 Initial Revolving Commitments then in effect, the Borrower shall promptly prepay 2017 Initial Revolving Loans in an aggregate amount equal to such excess~~.~~ and (z) the aggregate Outstanding Amount of 2021 Initial Revolving Loans at any time exceeds the aggregate 2021 Initial Revolving Commitments then in effect, the Borrower shall promptly prepay 2021 Initial Revolving Loans in an aggregate amount equal to such excess.

(ii) During the Covenant Modification Period, if as of the last Business Day of any calendar month, the aggregate amount of cash and Cash Equivalents of the Loan Parties (other than cash and Cash Equivalents held in Excluded Covenant Accounts) exceeds $100,000,000, the Borrower shall, within 5 Business Days of the end of such calendar month, promptly repay (without a corresponding reduction in the Revolving Commitments) Revolving Loans and Swing Line Loans (as applicable), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the lesser of (A) such excess and (B) the aggregate principal of any Revolving Loans and Swing Line Loans outstanding.

(g) The Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent in writing of any mandatory prepayment of Term Loans required to be made pursuant to clauses (a) through (c) of this Section 2.05(2) at least three (3) Business Days prior to the date of such prepayment. Each such notice shall specify the date of such prepayment and provide a reasonably detailed calculation of the aggregate amount of such prepayment to be made by the Borrower. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify each Appropriate Lender of the contents of the Borrower's prepayment notice and of such Appropriate Lender's Pro Rata Share of the prepayment or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement. Each Term Lender may reject all or a portion of its Pro Rata Share, or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement, of any mandatory prepayment (such declined amounts, the "Declined Proceeds") of Term Loans required to be made pursuant to clauses (a) and (b) of this Section 2.05(2) by providing written notice (each, a "Rejection Notice") to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower no later than 5:00 p.m., New York time, two (2) Business Days after the date of such Lender's receipt of notice from the Administrative Agent regarding such prepayment. Each Rejection Notice from a given Lender shall specify the principal amount of the mandatory repayment of Term Loans to be rejected by such Lender. If a Term Lender fails to deliver a Rejection Notice to the Administrative Agent within the time frame specified above or such Rejection Notice fails to specify the principal amount of the Term Loans to be rejected, any such failure will be deemed an acceptance of the total amount of such mandatory prepayment of Term Loans. Any Declined Proceeds remaining shall be retained by the Borrower (or the applicable Restricted Subsidiary) and may be applied by the Borrower or such Restricted Subsidiary in any manner not prohibited by this Agreement.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Section 2.05(2), (A) to the extent that any or all of the Net Proceeds of any Asset Sale by a Foreign Subsidiary giving rise to a prepayment event pursuant to Section 2.05(2)(b) (a "Foreign Asset Sale"), the Net Proceeds of any Casualty Event from a Foreign Subsidiary (a "Foreign Casualty Event"), the Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds of any Specified Sale Leaseback Transaction by a Foreign Subsidiary (a "Foreign Sale-Leaseback") or all or a portion of Excess Cash Flow are prohibited or delayed by applicable local law from being repatriated to the United States, the portion of such Net Proceeds, Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow so affected will not be required to be applied to repay Term Loans at the times provided in this Section 2.05(2) but may be retained by the applicable Foreign Subsidiary so long, but only so long, as the applicable local law will not permit repatriation to the United States (the Borrower hereby agreeing to cause the applicable Foreign Subsidiary to promptly take all actions reasonably required by the applicable local law to permit such repatriation), and once such repatriation of any of such affected Net Proceeds, Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow is permitted under the applicable local law such repatriation will be promptly effected and an amount equal to such repatriated Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow will be promptly (and in any event not later than two (2) Business Days after such repatriation) applied (net of additional taxes payable or reserved against as a result thereof) to the repayment of the Term Loans pursuant to this Section 2.05(2) to the extent otherwise provided herein and (B) to the extent that the Borrower has determined in good faith that repatriation of any or all or the Net Proceeds of any Foreign Asset Sale or Foreign Casualty Event, the Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds of any Foreign Sale- Leaseback or Excess Cash Flow would have an adverse tax consequence (taking into account any foreign tax credit or benefit actually realized in connection with such repatriation) with respect to such Net Proceeds, Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow, the Net Proceeds, Specified Sale-Leaseback Net Proceeds or Excess Cash Flow so affected may be retained by the applicable Foreign Subsidiary.

(i) Interest, Funding Losses, etc. All prepayments under this Section 2.05 shall be accompanied by all accrued interest thereon, together with, in the case of any such prepayment of a Eurodollar Rate Loan or CDOR Loan on a date prior to the last day of an Interest Period therefor, any amounts owing in respect of such Eurodollar Rate Loan or CDOR Loan pursuant to Section 3.05.

Notwithstanding any of the other provisions of this Section 2.05, so long as no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, if any prepayment of Eurodollar Rate Loans or CDOR Loans is required to be made under this Section 2.05 prior to the last day of the Interest Period therefor, in lieu of making any payment pursuant to this Section 2.05 in respect of any such Eurodollar Rate Loan or CDOR Loan prior to the last day of the Interest Period therefor, the Borrower may, in its discretion, deposit an amount sufficient to make any such prepayment otherwise required to be made thereunder together with accrued interest to the last day of such Interest Period into a Cash Collateral Account until the last day of such Interest Period, at which time the Administrative Agent shall be authorized (without any further action by or notice to or from the Borrower or any other Loan Party) to apply such amount to the prepayment of such Loans in accordance with this Section 2.05. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default, the Administrative Agent shall also be authorized (without any further action by or notice to or from the Borrower or any other Loan Party) to apply such amount to the prepayment of the outstanding Loans in accordance with the relevant provisions of this Section 2.05. Such deposit shall be deemed to be a prepayment of such Loans by the Borrower for all purposes under this Agreement.

SECTION 2.06 Termination or Reduction of Commitments.

(1) Optional. The Borrower may, upon written notice by the Borrower to the Administrative Agent, terminate the unused Commitments of any Class, or from time to time permanently reduce the unused Commitments of any Class, in each case without premium or penalty; provided that

(a) any such notice shall be received by the Administrative Agent three (3) Business Days prior to the date of termination or reduction,

(b) any such partial reduction shall be in an aggregate amount of $5.0 million or any whole multiple of $1.0 million in excess thereof or, if less, the entire amount thereof,

(c) the Borrower shall not terminate or reduce (A) the ~~Original Initial Revolving Facility if, after giving effect thereto and to any concurrent prepayments hereunder, the Total Original Initial Revolving Outstandings would exceed the Original Initial Revolving Facility or (B) the~~ 2017 Initial Revolving Facility if, after giving effect thereto and to any concurrent prepayments hereunder, the Total 2017 Initial Revolving Outstandings would exceed the 2017 Initial Revolving Facility or (B) the 2021 Initial Revolving Facility if, after giving effect thereto and to any concurrent prepayments hereunder, the Total 2021 Initial Revolving Outstandings would exceed the 2021 Initial Revolving Facility; and

(d) if, after giving effect to any reduction of the Commitments, the L/C Sublimit or Swing Line Sublimit exceeds the amount of the Revolving Facility, such sublimit shall be automatically reduced by the amount of such excess.

Except as provided above, the amount of any such Revolving Commitment reduction shall not be applied to the L/C Sublimit or Swing Line Sublimit unless otherwise specified by the Borrower. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower may rescind or postpone any notice of termination of any Commitments if such termination would have resulted from a refinancing of all of the applicable Facility, which refinancing shall not be consummated or otherwise shall be delayed.

(2) Mandatory. Each of (i) the Closing Date Term Commitment of each Term Lender on the Closing Date and (ii) the ~~2017~~2021 Refinancing Term Loan Commitment of each ~~2017~~2021 Refinancing Term Lender on the Amendment No. ~~4 Effective Date and (iii) the New 2017 Refinancing Term Loan Commitment of each New~~

The Revolving Commitment of each Revolving Lender shall automatically and permanently terminate on the Maturity Date for the applicable Class of the Revolving Facility.

(3) Application of Commitment Reductions; Payment of Fees. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify the Appropriate Lenders of any termination or reduction of unused portions of the L/C Sublimit, Swing Line Sublimit or the unused Commitments of any Class under this Section 2.06. Upon any reduction of unused Commitments of any Class, the Commitment of each Lender of such Class shall be reduced by such Lender's Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement of the amount by which such Commitments are reduced (other than the termination of the Commitment of any Lender as provided in Section 3.07). Any commitment fees accrued until the effective date of any termination of the Revolving Commitments shall be paid on the effective date of such termination.

SECTION 2.07 Repayment of Loans.

(b) on the Maturity Date for the Term Loans, the aggregate principal amount of all Term Loans outstanding on such date. In connection with any Incremental Term Loans that constitute part of the same Class as the ~~New 2017~~2021 Refinancing Term Loans, the Borrower and the Administrative Agent shall be permitted to adjust the rate of prepayment in respect of such Class such that the Term Lenders holding ~~New 2017~~2021 Refinancing Term Loans comprising part of such Class continue to receive a payment that is not less than the same dollar amount that such Term Lenders would have received absent the incurrence of such Incremental Term Loans.

(2) Revolving Loans. The Borrower shall repay to the Administrative Agent for the ratable account of the Appropriate Lenders on the Maturity Date for the applicable Class of the Revolving Facility the aggregate principal amount of all Revolving Loans under such Class of the Revolving Facility outstanding on such date.

(3) Swing Line Loans. The Borrower shall repay the aggregate principal amount of each Swing Line Loan on the earlier to occur of (a) the date selected by Swing Line Lender and (b) the Maturity Date for the applicable Revolving Facility.

SECTION 2.08 Interest.

(1) Subject to the provisions of Section 2.08(2), (a) each Eurodollar Rate Loan and CDOR Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof for each Interest Period at a rate per annum equal to the Eurodollar Rate or CDOR Rate for such Interest Period, respectively, plus the Applicable Rate, (b) each Base Rate Loan shall bear interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof from the applicable Borrowing date at a rate per annum equal to the Base Rate, plus the Applicable Rate and (c) each Swing Line Loan shall bear interest as provided in Section 2.04(1).

(2) During the continuance of a Default under Section 8.01(1), the Borrower shall pay interest on past due amounts hereunder at a fluctuating interest rate per annum at all times equal to the Default Rate to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Laws; provided that no interest at the Default Rate shall accrue or be payable to a Defaulting Lender so long as such Lender shall be a Defaulting Lender. Accrued and unpaid interest on past due amounts (including interest on past due interest) shall be due and payable upon demand.

(3) Interest on each Loan shall be due and payable in arrears on each Interest Payment Date applicable thereto and at such other times as may be specified herein. Interest hereunder shall be due and payable in accordance with the terms hereof before and after judgment, and before and after the commencement of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law.

SECTION 2.09 Fees.

(1) Commitment Fee. The Borrower agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Revolving Lender under each Class of the Revolving Facility in accordance with its Pro Rata Share or other applicable share provided for under this Agreement, a commitment fee equal to the applicable Commitment Fee Rate with respect to such Class of the Revolving Facility times the actual daily amount by which the aggregate Revolving Commitment for the applicable Class of the Revolving Facility exceeds the sum of (a) the Outstanding Amount of provisions of this Section 2.13 shall not be construed to apply to (i) any payment made by the Borrower pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement as in effect from time to time (including the application of funds arising from the existence of a Defaulting Lender) or (ii) any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment of or sale of a participation in any of its Loans to any assignee or participant permitted hereunder. The Borrower agrees that any Lender so purchasing a participation from another Lender may, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, exercise all its rights of payment (including the right of setoff, but subject to Section 10.10) with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were the direct creditor of the Borrower in the amount of such participation. The Administrative Agent will keep records (which shall be conclusive and binding in the absence of manifest error) of participations purchased under this Section 2.13 and will in each case notify the Lenders following any such purchases or repayments. Each Lender that purchases a participation pursuant to this Section 2.13 shall from and after such purchase have the right to give all notices, requests, demands, directions and other communications under this Agreement with respect to the portion of the Obligations purchased to the same extent as though the purchasing Lender were the original owner of the Obligations purchased.

SECTION 2.14 Incremental Facilities.

(1) Incremental Loan Request. The Borrower may at any time and from time to time, on one or more occasions, after the Closing Date, by notice to the Administrative Agent (a) increase the aggregate principal amount of any outstanding Class of Term Loans (a "Term Loan Increase") or add one or more additional Classes of term loans under the Loan Documents (each an "Incremental Term Facility" and the term loans made thereunder, the "Incremental Term Loans") or (b) increase the aggregate principal amount of the Revolving Commitments (a "Revolving Commitment Increase") or establish one or more new revolving credit commitments (each an "Incremental Revolving Facility" and the revolving loans and other extensions of credit made thereunder, the "Incremental Revolving Loans") (each such increase to any existing Class of Loans or creation of a new Class of Loans pursuant to the preceding clauses (a) and (b), an "Incremental Facility" and the loans or other extensions of credit made thereunder, the "Incremental Loans"). Notwithstanding anything in this Section 2.14, during the Covenant Modification Period, the Borrower shall not be permitted to incur Incremental Facilities secured on a pari passu basis with the Liens that secure the Closing Date Loans and the Closing Date Revolving Facility.

(2) Ranking. Incremental Facilities will (a) rank pari passu in right of payment with the Closing Date Term Loans and the ~~initial~~Closing Date Revolving ~~Commitments~~Facility (subject to Section 8.03) and (b) will either be secured by Liens that rank on a*pari passu* or junior basis with or to the Liens securing the Obligations or be unsecured; provided that any Liens that rank on a junior basis to the Liens securing the Obligations will be subject to a Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement.

(3) Size. The aggregate principal amount of Incremental Facilities on any date Indebtedness thereunder is first incurred, together with the aggregate principal amount of Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt incurred at or prior to such time, will not exceed an amount equal to the Permitted Incremental Amount. Calculation of the Ratio Amount, if used, shall be evidenced by a certificate from a Responsible Officer of the Borrower demonstrating such calculation in reasonable detail. Unless the Borrower elects otherwise, each Incremental Facility shall be deemed incurred first under the Ratio Amount to the extent permitted, with the balance incurred under the Fixed Incremental Amount. Each Incremental Facility will be in an integral multiple Dollar Amount of $1.0 million and in an aggregate principal Dollar Amount that is not less than $10.0 million (or such lesser minimum amount approved by the Administrative Agent in its reasonable discretion); provided that such amount may be less than such minimum amount or integral multiple amount if such amount represents all the remaining availability under the limit set forth above.

(4) Incremental Lenders. Incremental Facilities may be provided by any existing Lender (it being understood that no existing Lender will have an obligation to make all or any portion of any Incremental Loan, nor will the Borrower have any obligation to approach any existing Lender(s) to provide any Incremental Loan) or by any Additional Lender on terms permitted by this Section 2.14; provided that the Administrative Agent, the Swing Line Lender and each Issuing Bank shall have consented (in each case, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) to any such Person's providing Incremental Revolving Facilities if such consent would be required under Section 10.07(b)(iii) for an assignment of such Loans or Revolving Commitments, as would result in a failure of a condition precedent to the obligation of the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary to consummate such Investment, acquisition or investment).

(7) Terms. Each Incremental Amendment will set forth the amount and terms of the relevant Incremental Facility. The terms of each Incremental Facility will be as agreed between the Borrower and the Persons providing such Incremental Loans; provided that:

(a) the final maturity date of such Incremental Term Loans will be no earlier than the Latest Maturity Date of the Closing Date Term Loans;

(b) the Weighted Average Life to Maturity of such Incremental Term Loans will be no shorter than the longest remaining Weighted Average Life to Maturity of the Closing Date Term Loans;

(c) such Incremental Term Loans may participate on a pro rata basis or a less than pro rata basis (but not greater than a pro rata basis) in any mandatory repayments or prepayments of the Term Loans (in each case, other than pursuant to a refinancing or with respect to greater than pro rata payments to an earlier maturing tranche) and may participate on a pro rata basis, less than pro rata basis or greater than pro rata basis in any voluntary prepayments of the Term Loans; and

(d) except as otherwise set forth herein, all other terms of any (i) Term Loan Increase or a Revolving Commitment Increase will be on terms and pursuant to documentation applicable to the Class of Term Loans or Revolving Commitments, as applicable, being increased by such Term Loan Increase or Revolving Commitment Increase, as applicable, and (ii) Incremental Facility shall be on terms and pursuant to documentation to be determined by the Borrower and the providers of such Incremental Facility, provided that, in each case, the operational and agency provisions contained in such documentation shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent

(8) Pricing. The interest rate, fees, and original issue discount for any Incremental Facilities will be as determined by the Borrower and the Persons providing such Incremental Facilities; provided that in the event that the All-In Yield applicable to any Incremental Term Loans exceeds the All-In Yield of any ~~New 2017~~2021 Refinancing Term Loans by more than 50 basis points, then the interest rate margins for such ~~New 2017~~2021 Refinancing Term Loans shall be increased to the extent necessary so that the All-In Yield of such ~~New 2017~~2021 Refinancing Term Loans is equal to the All-In Yield of such Incremental Term Loans minus 50 basis points; provided further that any increase in All-In Yield of the ~~New 2017~~2021 Refinancing Term Loans due to the increase in a Eurodollar Rate or Base Rate floor on any Incremental Term Loan shall be effected solely through an increase in any Eurodollar Rate or Base Rate floor applicable to such ~~New 2017~~2021 Refinancing Term Loans.

(9) Reallocation of Revolving Exposure. Upon each Revolving Commitment Increase pursuant to this Section 2.14,

(a) each Revolving Lender immediately prior to such increase will automatically and without further act be deemed to have assigned to each lender providing a portion of such increase (each an "Incremental Revolving Lender"), and each such Incremental Revolving Lender will automatically and without further act be deemed to have assumed, a portion of such Revolving Lender's participations hereunder in outstanding Letters of Credit and Swing Line Loans such that, after giving effect to each such deemed assignment and assumption of participations, the percentage of the aggregate outstanding participations hereunder in Letters of Credit and Swing Line Loans held by each Revolving Lender will equal the percentage of the aggregate Revolving Commitments of all Lenders represented by such Revolving Lender's Revolving Commitments; and

(b) if, on the date of such increase, there are any Revolving Loans outstanding, such Revolving Loans shall on or prior to the effectiveness of such Incremental Revolving Facility be prepaid from the proceeds of Incremental Revolving Loans made hereunder (reflecting such increase in Revolving all Non-Defaulting Lenders on a pro rata basis prior to being applied to the payment of any Loans of, or L/C Borrowings owed to, that Defaulting Lender. Any payments, prepayments or other amounts paid or payable to a Defaulting Lender that are applied (or held) to pay amounts owed by a Defaulting Lender or to post Cash Collateral pursuant to this Section 2.17(1)(b) shall be deemed paid to and redirected by that Defaulting Lender, and each Lender irrevocably consents hereto.

(c) Certain Fees. That Defaulting Lender (i) shall not be entitled to receive any commitment fee pursuant to Section 2.09(1) for any period during which that Lender is a Defaulting Lender (and the Borrower shall not be required to pay any such fee that otherwise would have been required to have been paid to that Defaulting Lender) and (ii) shall be limited in its right to receive Letter of Credit fees as provided in Section 2.03(9)

(d) Reallocation of Pro Rata Share to Reduce Fronting Exposure. During any period in which there is a Defaulting Lender, for purposes of computing the amount of the obligation of each Non-Defaulting Lender to acquire, refinance or fund participations in Letters of Credit or Swing Line Loans pursuant to Section 2.03, the "Pro Rata Share" of each Non-Defaulting Lender's Revolving Loans and L/C Obligations shall be computed without giving effect to the Commitment of that Defaulting Lender; provided that (i) each such reallocation shall be given effect only if, at the date the applicable Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing; and (ii) the aggregate obligation of each Non-Defaulting Lender to acquire, refinance or fund participations in Letters of Credit or Swing Line Loans shall not exceed the positive difference, if any, of (1) the Commitment of that Non-Defaulting Lender minus (2) the aggregate Outstanding Amount of the Revolving Loans of that Non-Defaulting Lender. If the reallocation described above in this clause (d) cannot, or can only partially, be effected, the Borrower shall, without prejudice to any right or remedy available to it hereunder or under any law, (x) first, prepay Swing Line Loans in an amount equal to the Swing Line Lender's Fronting Exposure and (y) second, Cash Collateralize the applicable Issuing Banks' Fronting Exposure in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 2.03(7).

(2) Defaulting Lender Cure. If the Borrower, the Administrative Agent, the Swing Line Lender and the relevant Issuing Banks agree in writing in their sole discretion that a Defaulting Lender should no longer be deemed to be a Defaulting Lender, the Administrative Agent will so notify the parties hereto, whereupon as of the effective date specified in such notice and subject to any conditions set forth therein (which may include arrangements with respect to any Cash Collateral), that Lender will, to the extent applicable, purchase that portion of outstanding Loans of the other Lenders or take such other actions as the Administrative Agent may determine to be necessary to cause the Revolving Loans of the applicable Facility and funded and unfunded participations in Letters of Credit and Swing Line Loans to be held on a pro rata basis by the Lenders in accordance with their Pro Rata Share of the applicable Facility (without giving effect to Section 2.17(1)(d)), whereupon that Lender will cease to be a Defaulting Lender; provided that no adjustments will be made retroactively with respect to fees accrued or payments made by or on behalf of the Borrower while that Lender was a Defaulting Lender; provided further that except to the extent otherwise expressly agreed by the affected parties, no change hereunder from Defaulting Lender to Lender will constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder arising from that Lender's having been a Defaulting Lender. So long as any Lender is a Defaulting Lender, (i) the Swing Line Lender shall not be required to fund any Swing Line Loans unless it is satisfied that it will have no Fronting Exposure after giving effect to such Swing Line Loan and (ii) no Issuing Bank shall be required to issue, extent, renew or increase any Letter of Credit unless it is satisfied that it will have no Fronting Exposure after giving effect thereto.

SECTION 2.18 Loan Repricing Protection.

In the event that:

(1) on or prior to the twelve-month anniversary of the Amendment No. 8 Effective Date, the Borrower (a) makes any prepayment of Closing Date Term Loans pursuant to Section 2.05(1)(a) or 2.05(2)(d), such prepayment shall be accompanied by a premium equal to 1.00% of the principal amount of the Closing Date Term Loans so prepaid or (b) effects any amendment of this Agreement resulting in a Repricing Transaction (interpreted for the purposes of this clause (b) without giving effect to the proviso in the definition of "Repricing Transaction"), the Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent, for the ratable account of each applicable Lender a payment equal to 1.00% of the aggregate principal amount of the applicable Closing Date Term Loans outstanding immediately prior to such amendment that is subject to such Repricing Transaction; and ~~In~~(2) after the ~~event that, on or prior to the six month~~twelve-month anniversary of the Amendment No. ~~5~~8 Effective Date and on or prior to the eighteen-month anniversary of the Amendment No. 8 Effective Date, , the Borrower (a) makes any prepayment of Closing Date Term Loans in connection with any Repricing Transaction or (b) effects any amendment of this Agreement resulting in a Repricing Transaction, the Borrower shall pay to the Administrative Agent, for the ratable account of each applicable Lender, (i) in the case of clause (a), a prepayment premium of 1.00% of the aggregate principal amount of the Closing Date Term Loans being prepaid and (ii) in the case of clause (b), a payment equal to 1.00% of the aggregate principal amount of the applicable Closing Date Term Loans outstanding immediately prior to such amendment that is subject to such Repricing Transaction.

ARTICLE III

Taxes, Increased Costs Protection and Illegality

SECTION 3.01 Taxes.

(1) Except as required by applicable Law, any and all payments by any Loan Party to or for the account of any Agent or any Lender under any Loan Document shall be made free and clear of and without deduction for any Taxes.

(2) If any Loan Party or any other applicable withholding agent is required by applicable Law to make any deduction or withholding on account of any Taxes from any sum paid or payable by any Loan Party to any Lender or Agent under any of the Loan Documents:

(a) the applicable Loan Party shall notify the Administrative Agent of any such requirement or any change in any such requirement as soon as such Loan Party becomes aware of it;

(b) the applicable Loan Party or other applicable withholding agent shall be entitled to make such deduction or withholding and shall pay any amounts deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority any such Tax before the date on which penalties attach thereto, such payment to be made (if the liability to pay is imposed on any Loan Party) for its own account or (if that liability is imposed on the Lender or Agent) on behalf of and in the name of the Lender or Agent (as applicable);

(c) if the Tax in question is a Non-Excluded Tax or Other Tax, the sum payable to such Lender or Agent (as applicable) shall be increased by such Loan Party to the extent necessary to ensure that, after the making of any required deduction or withholding for Non-Excluded Taxes or Other Taxes (including any deductions or withholdings for Non-Excluded Taxes or Other Taxes attributable to any payments required to be made under this Section 3.01), the Lender or the Agent (as applicable) receives on the due date a net sum equal to what it would have received had no such deduction or withholding been required or made; and

(d) within thirty days after paying any sum from which it is required by Law to make any deduction or withholding, and within thirty days after the due date of payment of any Tax which it is required by clause (b) above to pay, the Borrower shall deliver to the Administrative Agent evidence reasonably satisfactory to the other affected parties of such deduction or withholding and of the remittance thereof to the relevant Governmental Authority.

(3) Status of Lender. The Administrative Agent and each Lender shall, at such times as are reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, provide the Borrower and the Administrative Agent with any documentation prescribed by Laws or reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent certifying as to any entitlement of such Lender to an exemption from, or reduction in, withholding Tax with respect which Base Rate Loans of such Lender shall, if necessary to avoid such illegality, be determined by the Administrative Agent without reference to the Eurodollar Rate component of the Base Rate) or (ii) with respect to Loans denominated in an Alternative Currency, the interest rate with respect to such Loans shall be determined by an alternative rate determined by the Administrative Agent in consultation with the Borrower, either on the last day of the Interest Period therefor, if such Lender may lawfully continue to maintain such Eurodollar Rate Loans or CDOR Loans to such day, or immediately, if such Lender may not lawfully continue to maintain such Eurodollar Rate Loans or CDOR Loans and (b) if such notice asserts the illegality of such Lender determining or charging interest rates based upon the Eurodollar Rate component of the Base Rate with respect to any Base Rate Loans, the Administrative Agent shall during the period of such suspension compute the Base Rate applicable to such Lender without reference to the Eurodollar Rate component thereof until the Administrative Agent is advised in writing by such Lender that it is no longer illegal for such Lender to determine or charge interest rates based upon the Eurodollar Rate. Upon any such prepayment or conversion, the Borrower shall also pay accrued interest on the amount so prepaid or converted.

~~SECTION 3.03 Inability to Determine Rates. If the Required Lenders reasonably determine that for any reason in connection with any request for a Eurodollar Rate Loan or CDOR Loan or a conversion to or continuation thereof that~~

~~(1) Dollar deposits are not being offered to banks in the London interbank eurodollar market for the applicable amount and Interest Period of such Eurodollar Rate Loan,~~

~~(2) adequate and reasonable means do not exist for determining the Eurodollar Rate or CDOR Rate for any requested Interest Period with respect to a proposed Eurodollar Rate Loan or in connection with an existing or proposed Base Rate Loan, or~~

~~(3) the Eurodollar Rate or CDOR Rate for any requested Interest Period with respect to a proposed Eurodollar Rate Loan or CDOR Loan does not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Lenders of funding such Loan,~~

~~the Administrative Agent will promptly so notify the Borrower and each Lender. Thereafter, (i) the obligation of the Lenders to make or maintain Eurodollar Rate Loans or CDOR Loans, as the case may be, shall be suspended, and (ii) in the event of a determination described in the preceding sentence with respect to the Eurodollar Rate component of the Base Rate, the utilization of the Eurodollar Rate component in determining the Base Rate shall be suspended, in each case until the Administrative Agent (upon the instruction of the Required Lenders) revokes such notice. Upon receipt of such notice, the Borrower may revoke any pending request for a Borrowing of, conversion to or continuation of Eurodollar Rate Loans or, failing that, will be deemed to have converted such request into a request for a Borrowing of Base Rate Loans in the amount specified therein (or, in the case of a pending request with respect to a Loan denominated in an Alternative Currency, the Borrower and the Lenders may establish a mutually acceptable alternative rate).~~

SECTION 3.03 Effect of Benchmark Transition Event.

(1) Benchmark Replacement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, if a Benchmark Transition Event or an Early Opt-in Election, as applicable, and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred prior to the Reference Time in respect of any determination of the Benchmark on any date, the Benchmark Replacement will replace the then current Benchmark for all purposes hereunder or under any Loan Document in respect of such determination on such date and all determinations on all subsequent dates. If the Benchmark Replacement is determined in accordance with clause (1) or (2) of the definition of "Benchmark Replacement", such Benchmark Replacement will become effective as of the Reference Time on the applicable Benchmark Replacement Date without any amendment to, or further action or consent of any other party to, this Agreement. If the Benchmark Replacement is determined in accordance with clause (3) of the definition of "Benchmark Replacement", such Benchmark Replacement will become effective at 5:00 p.m., New York time, on the fifth (5th) Business Day after the date notice of such Benchmark Replacement is provided to the Lenders without any amendment to, or further action or consent of any other party to, this Agreement or any other Loan Document so long as the Administrative Agent has not received, by such time, written notice of objection to such Benchmark Replacement from Lenders comprising the Required Lenders of each Class affected thereby. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document and subject to the proviso below in this paragraph, if a Term SOFR Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred prior to the Reference Time in respect of any setting of the then-current Benchmark, then the applicable Benchmark Replacement will replace the then-current Benchmark for all purposes hereunder or under any Loan Document in respect of such Benchmark setting and subsequent Benchmark settings, without any amendment to, or further action or consent of any other party to, this Agreement or any other Loan Document; provided that, this sentence shall not be effective unless the Administrative Agent has delivered to the Lenders and the Borrower a Term SOFR Notice. For the avoidance of doubt, the Administrative Agent shall not be required to deliver a Term SOFR Notice after a Term SOFR Transition Event and may do so in its sole discretion.

(2) Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes. In connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement, the Administrative Agent will have the right to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes from time to time and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, any amendments implementing such Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes will become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to this Agreement or any other Loan Document.

(3) Notices; Standards for Decisions and Determinations. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify the Borrower and the Lenders of (i) any occurrence of a Benchmark Transition Event, a Term SOFR Transaction Event or an Early Opt-in Election, as applicable, and its related Benchmark Replacement Date, (ii) the implementation of any Benchmark Replacement, (iii) the effectiveness of any Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes, (iv) the removal or reinstatement of any tenor of a Benchmark pursuant to clause (4) below and (v) the commencement or conclusion of any Benchmark Unavailability Period. Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Administrative Agent or, if applicable, any Lender (or group of Lenders) pursuant to this Section 3.03, including any determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or nonoccurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action or any selection, will be conclusive and binding absent manifest error and may be made in its sole discretion and without consent from any other party hereto, except, in each case, as expressly required pursuant to this Section 3.03.

(4) Tenor. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, at any time (including in connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement), (i) if the then-current Benchmark is a term rate (including Term SOFR or LIBOR) and either (A) any tenor for such Benchmark is not displayed on a screen or other information service that publishes such rate from time to time as selected by the Administrative Agent in its reasonable discretion or (B) the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of such Benchmark has provided a public statement or publication of information announcing that any tenor for such Benchmark is or will be no longer representative, then the Administrative Agent may modify the definition of "Interest Period" for any Benchmark settings at or after such time to remove such unavailable or non-representative tenor and (ii) if a tenor that was removed pursuant to clause (i) above either (A) is subsequently displayed on a screen or information service for a Benchmark (including a Benchmark Replacement) or (B) is not, or is no longer, subject to an announcement that it is or will no longer be representative for a Benchmark (including a Benchmark Replacement), then the Administrative Agent may modify the definition of "Interest Period" for all Benchmark settings at or after such time to reinstate such previously removed tenor.

(a) Benchmark Unavailability Period. Upon the Borrower's receipt of notice of the commencement of a Benchmark Unavailability Period, the Borrower may revoke any request for a Borrowing of, conversion to or continuation of Eurodollar Rate Loans to be made, converted or continued during any Benchmark Unavailability Period and, failing that, the Borrower will be deemed to have converted any such request into a request for a Borrowing of or conversion to Base Rate Loans. During any Benchmark Unavailability Period or at any time that a tenor for the then-current Benchmark is not an Available Tenor, clause (c) of the definition of "Base Rate" based upon the Adjusted Eurocurrency Rate (i.e., the then-current Benchmark or such tenor for such Benchmark, as applicable) will not be used in any determination of Base Rate. Furthermore, if any Eurodollar Rate Loan is outstanding on the date of the Borrower's receipt of notice of the commencement of a Benchmark Unavailability Period with respect to a Eurodollar Rate applicable to such Eurodollar Rate Loan, on the last day of the Interest Period applicable to such Loan (or the next succeeding Business Day, if such day is not a Business Day), such Loan shall be converted by the Administrative Agent to, and shall constitute, a Base Rate Loan on such day.

(5) The Administrative Agent does not warrant or accept any responsibility for, and shall not have any liability with respect to, the administration, submission or any other matter related to the London interbank offered rate or other rates in the definition of "Eurodollar Rate" or "CDOR Rate" or with respect to any alternative or successor rate thereto, or replacement rate thereof including, without limitation, (i) any such alternative, successor or replacement rate implemented pursuant to this Section 3.03, whether upon the occurrence of a Benchmark Transition Event or an Early Opt-in Election, and (ii) the implementation of any Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes pursuant to Section 3.03(2), including without limitation, whether the composition or characteristics of any such alternative, successor or replacement reference rate will be similar to, or produce the same value or economic equivalence of, the Eurodollar Rate (or CDOR Rate, as applicable) or have the same volume or liquidity as did the London interbank offered rate prior to its discontinuance or unavailability.

SECTION 3.04 Increased Cost and Reduced Return; Capital Adequacy; Reserves on Eurodollar Rate Loans and CDOR Loans.

(1) Increased Costs Generally. If any Change in Law shall:

(a) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit, compulsory loan, insurance charge or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended or participated in by, any Lender;

(b) subject any Lender to any tax of any kind whatsoever with respect to this Agreement or any Eurodollar Rate Loan or CDOR Loan made by it, or change the basis of taxation of payments to such Lender in respect thereof (except for Non-Excluded Taxes or Other Taxes covered by Section 3.01 and any Excluded Taxes); or

(c) impose on any Lender or the London interbank market any other condition, cost or expense affecting this Agreement or Eurodollar Rate Loans or CDOR Loans made by such Lender that is not otherwise accounted for in the definition of "Eurodollar Rate", "CDOR Rate" or this clause (c);

and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender of making or maintaining any Loan the interest on which is determined by reference to the Eurodollar Rate or the CDOR Rate (or of maintaining its obligation to make any such Loan), or to increase the cost to such Lender, or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender (whether of principal, interest or any other amount) then, from time to time within fifteen (15) days after demand by such Lender setting forth in reasonable detail such increased costs (with a copy of such demand to the Administrative Agent), the Borrower will pay to such Lender such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered; provided that such amounts shall only be payable by the Borrower to the applicable Lender under this Section 3.04(1) so long as it is such Lender's general policy or practice to demand compensation in similar circumstances under comparable provisions of other financing agreements.

(2) Capital Requirements. If any Lender reasonably determines that any Change in Law affecting such Lender or any Lending Office of such Lender or such Lender's holding company, if any, regarding capital requirements has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender's capital or on the capital of such Lender's holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement, the Commitments of such Lender or the Loans made by it, or participations in or issuance of Letters of Credit by such Lender, to a level below that which such Lender or such Lender's holding company, as the case may be, could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's policies and the policies of such Lender's holding company with respect to capital adequacy), then from time to time upon demand of such Lender setting forth in reasonable detail the charge and the calculation of such reduced rate of return (with a copy of such demand to the Administrative Agent), the Borrower will pay to such Lender additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such Lender's holding company for any such reduction suffered; provided that such amounts shall only be payable by the

(v) in the case of any such assignment resulting from a claim for compensation under Section 3.04 or payments required to be made pursuant to Section 3.01, such assignment will result in a reduction in such compensation or payments thereafter;

(vi) such assignment does not conflict with applicable Laws;

(vii) any Lender that acts as an Issuing Bank may not be replaced hereunder at any time when it has any Letter of Credit outstanding hereunder unless arrangements reasonably satisfactory to such Issuing Bank (including the furnishing of a back-up standby letter of credit in form and substance, and issued by an issuer, reasonably satisfactory to such Issuing Bank or the depositing of Cash Collateral into a Cash Collateral Account in amounts and pursuant to arrangements reasonably satisfactory to such Issuing Bank) have been made with respect to each such outstanding Letter of Credit; and

(viii) the Lender that acts as Administrative Agent cannot be replaced in its capacity as Administrative Agent other than in accordance with Section 9.11, or

(b) terminate the Commitment of such Lender or Issuing Bank, as the case may be, and (A) in the case of a Lender (other than an Issuing Bank), repay all Obligations of the Borrower owing to such Lender relating to the Loans and participations held by such Lender as of such termination date (including in the case of a Repricing Transaction, any "prepayment premium" pursuant to Section 2.18 that would otherwise be owed in connection therewith) and (B) in the case of an Issuing Bank, repay all Obligations of the Borrower owing to such Issuing Bank relating to the Loans and participations held by such Issuing Bank as of such termination date and Cash Collateralize, cancel or backstop, or provide for the deemed reissuance under another facility, on terms satisfactory to such Issuing Bank any Letters of Credit issued by it; provided that in the case of any such termination of the Commitment of a Non-Consenting Lender such termination shall be sufficient (together with all other consenting Lenders) to cause the adoption of the applicable consent, waiver or amendment of the Loan Documents and such termination shall, with respect to clause (3) above, be in respect of all of its interests, rights and obligations with respect to the Class of Loans or Commitments that is the subject of the related consent, waiver and amendment.

In the event that (i) the Borrower or the Administrative Agent has requested that the Lenders consent to a departure or waiver of any provisions of the Loan Documents or agree to any amendment thereto, (ii) the consent, waiver or amendment in question requires the agreement of each Lender, all affected Lenders or all the Lenders or all affected Lenders with respect to a certain Class or Classes of the Loans/Commitments and (iii) the Required Lenders, Required Revolving Lenders or Required Facility Lenders, as applicable, have agreed to such consent, waiver or amendment, then any Lender who does not agree to such consent, waiver or amendment shall be deemed a "Non-Consenting Lender."

A Lender shall not be required to make any such assignment or delegation if, prior thereto, as a result of a waiver by such Lender or otherwise, the circumstances entitling the Borrower to require such assignment and delegation cease to apply.

SECTION 3.08 Inability to Determine Rates. If the Required Lenders reasonably determine that for any reason in connection with any request for a Eurodollar Rate Loan or CDOR Loan or a conversion to or continuation thereof, provided that no Benchmark Transition Event shall have occurred at such time, that:

(1) Dollar deposits are not being offered to banks in the London interbank eurodollar market for the applicable amount and Interest Period of such Eurodollar Rate Loan,

(2) adequate and reasonable means do not exist for determining the Eurodollar Rate or CDOR Rate for any requested Interest Period with respect to a proposed Eurodollar Rate Loan or in connection with an existing or proposed Base Rate Loan, or

(3) the Eurodollar Rate or CDOR Rate for any requested Interest Period with respect to a proposed Eurodollar Rate Loan or CDOR Loan does not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Lenders of funding such Loan,

the Administrative Agent will promptly so notify the Borrower and each Lender. Thereafter, (i) the obligation of the Lenders to make or maintain Eurodollar Rate Loans or CDOR Loans, as the case may be, shall be suspended, and (ii) in the event of a determination described in the preceding sentence with respect to the Eurodollar Rate component of the Base Rate, the utilization of the Eurodollar Rate component in determining the Base Rate shall be suspended, in each case until the Administrative Agent (upon the instruction of the Required Lenders) revokes such notice. Upon receipt of such notice, the Borrower may revoke any pending request for a Borrowing of, conversion to or continuation of Eurodollar Rate Loans or, failing that, will be deemed to have converted such request into a request for a Borrowing of Base Rate Loans in the amount specified therein (or, in the case of a pending request with respect to a Loan denominated in an Alternative Currency, the Borrower and the Lenders may establish a mutually acceptable alternative rate)

SECTION 3.09 ~~SECTION 3.08~~ Survival. All of the Borrower's obligations under this Article III shall survive termination of the Aggregate Commitments, repayment of all other Obligations hereunder and resignation of the Administrative Agent.

ARTICLE IV

(5) guarantees of, or obligations in respect of letters of credit relating to, Indebtedness that are otherwise included in the determination of a particular amount of Indebtedness will not be included in the determination of such amount of Indebtedness; provided that the incurrence of the Indebtedness represented by such guarantee or letter of credit, as the case may be, was incurred in compliance with this Section 7.02.

The accrual of interest or dividends, the accretion of accreted value, the accretion or amortization of original issue discount and the payment of interest or dividends in the form of additional Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock and increases in the amount of Indebtedness outstanding solely as a result of fluctuations in the exchange rate of currencies, in each case, will not be deemed to be an incurrence of Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock for purposes of this Section 7.02. Any Indebtedness incurred to refinance Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock incurred pursuant to clauses (2), (3), (4), (12), (13), (14) and (23) of Section 7.02(b) will be permitted to include additional Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock incurred to pay accrued but unpaid interest and dividends and premiums (and with respect to Indebtedness under Designated Revolving Commitments, including an amount equal to any unutilized Designated Revolving Commitments being refinanced to the extent permanently terminated at the time of incurrence of such Refinancing Indebtedness and reasonable tender premiums), defeasance costs and fees and expenses incurred in connection with such refinancing.

For purposes of determining compliance with any Dollar denominated restriction on the incurrence of Indebtedness or issuance of Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, the Dollar equivalent principal amount of Indebtedness or Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock denominated in a foreign currency will be calculated based on the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the date such Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock was incurred, in the case of term debt, or first committed or first incurred (whichever yields the lower Dollar equivalent), in the case of revolving credit debt; provided that if such Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock is issued to Refinance other Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock denominated in a foreign currency, and such refinancing would cause the applicable Dollar denominated (or Equivalent Percentage, if greater) restriction to be exceeded if calculated at the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the date of such refinancing, such Dollar denominated restriction will be deemed not to have been exceeded so long as the principal amount of such refinancing Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock does not exceed (i) the principal amount of such Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock (as applicable) being refinanced plus (ii) the aggregate amount of accrued but unpaid interest, fees, underwriting discounts, defeasance costs, premiums (including tender premiums) and other costs and expenses (including OID, upfront fees or similar fees) incurred in connection with such refinancing.

The principal amount of any Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock incurred to refinance other Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, if incurred in a different currency from the Indebtedness, Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock, as applicable, being refinanced, will be calculated based on the currency exchange rate applicable to the currencies in which such respective Indebtedness or Disqualified Stock or Preferred Stock is denominated that is in effect on the date of such refinancing. The principal amount of any non-interest bearing Indebtedness or other discount security constituting Indebtedness at any date will be the principal amount thereof that would be shown on a balance sheet of the Borrower dated such date prepared in accordance with GAAP.

For purposes of determining compliance with this Section 7.02, if any Indebtedness is refinanced in reliance on a Basket measured by reference to a percentage of Run-Rate Adjusted EBITDA, and such refinancing would cause the percentage of Run-Rate Adjusted EBITDA to be exceeded if calculated based on the Run-Rate Adjusted EBITDA on the date of such refinancing, such percentage of Run-Rate Adjusted EBITDA will not be deemed to be exceeded to the extent the principal amount of such obligations secured by such newly incurred Indebtedness does not exceed the sum of (i) the principal amount of such Indebtedness being refinanced, plus (ii) the related costs incurred or payable in connection with such refinancing.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the Covenant Modification Period, the Borrower shall not be permitted to incur Indebtedness secured by Liens under clause (39) of the definition of Permitted Liens or Incremental Facilities secured on a pari passu basis with the Liens that secure the Closing Date Loans and the 2021 Initial Revolving Facility.

In addition, none of the Borrower or any Restricted Subsidiary shall enter into any Sale-Leaseback Transaction unless (1) at the time of the consummation thereof no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, and (2) such Sale-Leaseback Transaction is conducted as an arm's-length basis and is for fair market value of the applicable property as determined by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower in good faith.

Any such release shall not in any manner discharge, affect, or impair the Obligations or any Liens (other than those being released) upon (or obligations (other than those being released) of the Loan Parties in respect of) all interests retained by the Loan Parties, including the proceeds of any sale, all of which shall continue to constitute part of the Collateral except to the extent otherwise released in accordance with the provisions of the Loan Documents. Additionally, the Lenders and the Issuing Banks hereby irrevocably agree that the Guarantors shall be released from the Guaranties upon consummation of any transaction permitted hereunder resulting in such Subsidiary ceasing to constitute a Restricted Subsidiary, or otherwise becoming an Excluded Subsidiary (other than, during the Covenant Modification Period, solely as a result of such Subsidiary ceasing to be a wholly owned Subsidiary). The Lenders and the Issuing Banks hereby authorize the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent, as applicable, to execute and deliver any instruments, documents, and agreements necessary or desirable to evidence and confirm the release of any Guarantor or Collateral pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, all without the further consent or joinder of any Lender or Issuing Bank. Any representation, warranty or covenant contained in any Loan Document relating to any such released Collateral or Guarantor shall no longer be deemed to be repeated.

SECTION 10.27 Acknowledgment Regarding Any Supported QFCs.

(a) To the extent that the Loan Documents provide support, through a guarantee or otherwise (including the Guaranty), for any Hedge Agreement or any other agreement or instrument that is a QFC (such support, "QFC Credit Support", and each such QFC, a "Supported QFC"), the parties acknowledge and agree as follows with respect to the resolution power of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation under the Federal Deposit Insurance Act and Title II of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (together with the regulations promulgated thereunder, the "U.S. Special Resolution Regimes") in respect of such Supported QFC and QFC Credit Support (with the provisions below applicable notwithstanding that the Loan Documents and any Supported QFC may in fact be stated to be governed by the laws of the State of New York and/or of the United States or any other state of the United States).

(b) In the event a Covered Entity that is party to a Supported QFC (each, a "Covered Party") becomes subject to a proceeding under a U.S. Special Resolution Regime, the transfer of such Supported QFC and the benefit of such QFC Credit Support (and any interest and obligation in or under such Supported QFC and such QFC Credit Support, and any rights in property securing such Supported QFC or such QFC Credit Support) from such Covered Party will be effective to the same extent as the transfer would be effective under the U.S. Special Resolution Regime if the Supported QFC and such QFC Credit Support (and any such interest, obligation and rights in property) were governed by the laws of the United States or a state of the United States. In the event a Covered Party or a BHC Act Affiliate of a Covered Party becomes subject to a proceeding under a U.S. Special Resolution Regime, Default Rights under the Loan Documents that might otherwise apply to such Supported QFC or any QFC Credit Support that may be exercised against such Covered Party are permitted to be exercised to no greater extent than such Default Rights could be exercised under the U.S. Special Resolution Regime if the Supported QFC and the Loan Documents were governed by the laws of the United States or a state of the United States. Without limitation of the foregoing, it is understood and agreed that rights and remedies of the parties with respect to a Defaulting Lender shall in no event affect the rights of any Covered Party with respect to a Supported QFC or any QFC Credit Support.

(a) This Agreement shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding the commencement of any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding by or against any Grantor or any of its subsidiaries. If, in any Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, debt obligations of the reorganized debtor secured by Liens upon any property of the reorganized debtor are distributed, pursuant to a plan of reorganization or similar dispositive restructuring plan, on account of each Series of Obligations, then, to the extent the debt obligations distributed on account of each Series of Obligations are secured by Liens upon the same assets or property, the provisions of this Agreement will survive the distribution of such debt obligations pursuant to such plan and will apply with like effect to the Liens securing such debt obligations.

(b) If any Grantor shall become subject to a case (a "Bankruptcy Case") under the Bankruptcy Code or any other Bankruptcy Law and shall, as debtor(s)-in-possession or similar capacity under other Bankruptcy Law, move for approval of financing ("DIP Financing") to be provided by one or more lenders (the "DIP Lenders") under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar provision of other Bankruptcy Law or the use of cash collateral under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar provision of other Bankruptcy Law, each Secured Party agrees that it will raise no objection to any such financing or to the Liens on the Shared Collateral securing the same ("DIP Financing Liens") or to any use of cash collateral that constitutes Shared Collateral, in each case unless the Applicable Collateral Agent shall then oppose or object to such DIP Financing or such DIP Financing Liens or such use of cash collateral (and (i) to the extent that such DIP Financing Liens are senior to the Liens on any such Shared Collateral for the benefit of Controlling Secured Parties, each other Secured Party will subordinate its Liens with respect to such Shared Collateral on the same terms as the Liens of the Controlling Secured Parties (other than any Liens of any Secured Parties constituting DIP Financing Liens) are subordinated thereto, and (ii) to the extent that such DIP Financing Liens rank pari passu with the Liens on any such Shared Collateral granted to secure the Obligations of the Controlling Secured Parties, each other Secured Party will confirm the priorities with respect to such Shared Collateral as set forth herein), in each case so long as (A) the Secured Parties of each Series retain the benefit of their Liens on all such Shared Collateral pledged to the DIP Lenders, including proceeds thereof arising after the commencement of such Bankruptcy Case, with the same priority vis-à-vis all the other Secured Parties (other than any Liens of the Secured Parties constituting DIP Financing Liens) as existed prior to the commencement of such Bankruptcy Case, (B) the Secured Parties of each Series are granted Liens on any additional collateral pledged to any Secured Parties as adequate protection or otherwise in connection with such DIP Financing or use of cash collateral, with the same priority vis-à-vis the Secured Parties as set forth in this Agreement, (C) if any amount of such DIP Financing or cash collateral is applied to repay any of the Obligations, such amount is applied pursuant to Section 2.01, and (D) if any Secured Parties are granted adequate protection with respect to Obligations subject hereto, including in the form of periodic payments, in connection with such use DIP Financing or use of cash collateral, the proceeds of such adequate protection are applied pursuant to Section 2.01; provided, however, that (x) the Secured Parties of each Series shall have a right to object to the grant of a Lien to secure the DIP Financing over any collateral securing such Series that is not Shared Collateral; and (y) the Secured Parties receiving adequate protection shall not object to any other Secured Party receiving adequate protection comparable to any adequate protection granted to such Secured Parties in connection with a DIP Financing or use of cash collateral.

SECTION 2.06. Reinstatement. In the event that any of the Obligations shall be paid in full and such payment or any part thereof shall subsequently, for whatever reason (including an order or judgment for disgorgement of a preference under the Bankruptcy Code, or any similar law, or the settlement of any claim in respect thereof), be required to be returned or repaid, the terms and conditions of this Article II shall be fully applicable to such Obligations until all such Obligations shall again have been paid in full in cash.

SECTION 2.07. Insurance. As among the Secured Parties, following the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Applicable Collateral Agent shall have the right to adjust or settle any insurance policy or claim covering or constituting Shared Collateral in the event of any loss thereunder and to approve any award granted in any condemnation or similar proceeding affecting the Shared Collateral solely to the extent the Secured Parties or holders of any Series of Obligations possess such right under the Credit Documents, and the Applicable Collateral Agent shall apply the proceeds received from any such adjustment, settlement or award in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.01.

SECTION 2.08. Refinancings. The Obligations of any Series may be Refinanced, in whole or in part, in each case, without notice to, or the consent (except to the extent a consent is otherwise required to permit the Refinancing transaction under any Credit Document) of any Secured Party of any other Series, all without affecting the priorities provided for herein or the other provisions hereof in compliance with Section 5.02(c); provided that nothing in this Section shall affect any limitation on any such Refinancing that is set forth in the Credit Documents of any such other Series; and provided, further that, if any obligations of the Grantors in respect of such Refinancing indebtedness shall be secured by Liens on any Shared Collateral, then such obligations and the holders thereof shall be subject to and bound by the provisions of this Agreement and the Collateral Agent and any Additional Agent (or replacement Bank Collateral Agent or replacement Notes Collateral Agent, if applicable), of the holders of any such Refinancing indebtedness shall have executed a Joinder. The Grantors and the Secured Parties agree to enter into any documents or take any other actions reasonably necessary to preserve the priorities provided for herein in light of, and after giving effect to, such Refinancing.

SECTION 2.09. Certain Cash Collateral. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or any other Credit Documents to the contrary, collateral consisting of cash and cash equivalents pledged to secure Credit Agreement Obligations consisting of reimbursement obligations in respect of letters of credit or otherwise held by the Administrative Agent (as defined in the Credit Agreement) pursuant to Section 2.03 of the Credit Agreement (or any equivalent successor provision) shall be applied as specified in the Credit Agreement and will not constitute Shared Collateral.

SECTION 2.10. Possessory Collateral Agent as Gratuitous Bailee for Perfection; Combined Real Property Collateral.

(a) The Possessory Collateral shall be delivered to the Applicable Collateral Agent, and the Applicable Collateral Agent agrees to hold any Shared Collateral constituting Possessory Collateral in its possession or control (or in the possession or control of its agents or bailees) as gratuitous bailee for the benefit of each other Secured Party with a Lien over such Shared Collateral and any assignee solely for the purpose of perfecting the security interest granted in such Possessory Collateral, if any, pursuant to the applicable Security Documents, in each case, subject to the terms and conditions of this Section 2.10); provided that at any time after the Discharge of Obligations of the Series for which the Applicable Collateral Agent is acting, the Applicable Collateral Agent shall (at the sole cost and expense of the Grantors), promptly deliver all Possessory Collateral to the Applicable Collateral Agent (after giving effect to the Discharge of such Obligations) together with any necessary endorsements reasonably requested by the Applicable Collateral Agent (or make such other arrangements as shall be reasonably requested by the Applicable Collateral Agent to allow the Applicable Collateral Agent to obtain control of such Possessory Collateral).

(b) Pending delivery to the Applicable Collateral Agent, each other Collateral Agent agrees to hold any Shared Collateral constituting Possessory Collateral, from time to time in its possession, as gratuitous bailee for the benefit of each other Secured Party and any assignee, solely for the purpose of perfecting the security interest granted in such Possessory Collateral, if any, pursuant to the applicable Security Documents, in each case, subject to the terms and conditions of this Section 2.10.

(c) The duties or responsibilities of each Collateral Agent under this Section 2.10 shall be limited solely to holding any Shared Collateral constituting Possessory Collateral as gratuitous bailee for the benefit of each other Secured Party for purposes of perfecting the Lien held by such Secured Parties therein.

(d) With respect to Collateral constituting Combined Real Property Collateral, pursuant to the Mortgage Collateral Agency Agreement, the Bank Collateral Agent and the Notes Collateral Agent shall, at the direction of the Borrower, appoint the Mortgage Collateral Agent, who shall agree to, among other things, (i) accept the Mortgages on Combined Real Property Collateral on behalf the Secured Parties, (ii) execute all instruments and file all continuation statements and similar instruments in any applicable jurisdiction, in the forms prepared by the Bank Collateral Agent or the Borrower, as applicable, as shall be necessary to continue the effectiveness of perfected liens on all of the Combined Real Property Collateral, (iii) receive and provide notices and other communications pursuant to such Mortgages, (iv) exercise the rights and remedies of the beneficiary or mortgagee under such Mortgages and (v) otherwise deal with the Combined Real Property Collateral.

ARTICLE III

Existence and Amounts of Liens and Obligations

Whenever any Collateral Agent shall be required, in connection with the exercise of its rights or the performance of its obligations hereunder, to determine the existence or amount of any Obligations of any Series, or the Shared Collateral subject to any Lien securing the Obligations of any Series, it may request that such information be furnished to it in writing by each other Collateral Agent and shall be entitled to make such determination on the basis of the information so furnished; provided that if any Collateral Agent shall fail or refuse reasonably promptly to provide the requested information, the requesting Collateral Agent shall be entitled to make any such determination by such method as it may, in the exercise of its good faith judgment, determine, including by reliance upon a certificate of the Borrower. Each Collateral Agent may rely conclusively, and shall be fully protected in so relying, on any determination made by it in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sentence (or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction) and shall have no liability to any Grantor, any Secured Party or any other person as a result of such determination.

ARTICLE IV

The Applicable Collateral Agent

SECTION 4.01. Appointment and Authority.

(a) Each of the Secured Parties hereby irrevocably appoints and authorizes the Applicable Collateral Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are delegated to the Applicable Collateral Agent by the terms hereof or thereof, including for purposes of acquiring, holding and enforcing any and all Liens on Collateral granted by any Grantor to secure any of the Obligations, together with such powers and discretion as are reasonably incidental thereto. In this connection, the Applicable Collateral Agent (including in its capacity as Mortgage Collateral Agent) and any co-agents, subagents, delegates, receivers and attorneys-in-fact appointed by the Applicable Collateral Agent pursuant to Section 4.05 for purposes of holding or enforcing any Lien on the Collateral (or any portion thereof) granted under any of the Security Documents, or for exercising any rights and remedies thereunder, shall be entitled to the benefits of all provisions of this Article IV (as though such co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact were the collateral agent under the Security Documents) as if set forth in full herein with respect thereto. Without limiting the foregoing, each of the Secured Parties, and each Collateral Agent, hereby agrees to provide such cooperation and assistance as may be reasonably requested by the Applicable Collateral Agent to facilitate and effect actions taken or intended to be taken by the Applicable Collateral Agent pursuant to this Article IV, such cooperation to include execution and delivery of notices, instruments and other documents as are reasonably deemed necessary by the Applicable Collateral Agent to effect such actions, and joining in any action, motion or proceeding initiated by the Applicable Collateral Agent for such purposes.

(b) Each Secured Party acknowledges and agrees that, subject to the express terms of this Agreement, the Applicable Collateral Agent shall be entitled, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with any Shared Collateral as provided herein and in any of the Security Documents, without regard to any rights to which the holders of the Secured Obligations would otherwise be entitled as a result of such Secured Obligations. Without limiting the foregoing, each Secured Party agrees that no Collateral Agent, or other Secured Party shall have any duty or obligation first to marshal or realize upon any type of Shared Collateral (or any other Collateral securing any of the Obligations), or to sell, dispose of or otherwise liquidate all or any portion of such Shared Collateral (or any other Collateral securing any Obligations), in any manner that would maximize the return to such Secured Party or any Series of Secured Parties, notwithstanding that the order and timing of any such realization, sale, disposition or liquidation may affect the amount of proceeds actually received by such Secured Party from such realization, sale, disposition or liquidation. Each of the Secured Parties waives any claim it may now or hereafter have against any Collateral Agent for any other Series of Obligations or any other Secured Party of any other Series arising out of (i) any actions which any Collateral Agent or any Secured Party takes or omits to take (including actions with respect to the creation, perfection or continuation of Liens on any Collateral, actions with respect to the foreclosure upon, sale, release or depreciation of, or failure to realize upon, any of the Collateral and actions with respect to the collection of any claim for all or any part of the Obligations from any account debtor, guarantor or any other party) in accordance with the Security Documents or any other agreement related thereto or in connection with the collection of the Obligations or the valuation, use, protection or release of any security for the Obligations, (ii) any election by any Collateral Agent or any holders of Obligations, in any proceeding instituted under the Bankruptcy Code, of the application of Section 1111(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or (iii) any borrowing by, or grant of a security interest or administrative expense priority under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code by, any Grantor or any of its subsidiaries, as debtor-in-possession, in each case, except as a result of a breach of this Agreement.

SECTION 4.02. Rights as a Secured Party.

(a) The Person serving as the Applicable Collateral Agent hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Secured Party under any Series of Obligations that it holds as any other Secured Party of such Series and may exercise the same as though it were not the Applicable Collateral Agent and the term "Secured Party" or "Secured Parties" or (as applicable) "Credit Agreement Secured Party," "Credit Agreement Secured Parties," "Indenture Secured Party," "Indenture Secured Parties," "Additional Secured Party" or "Additional Secured Parties" shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include the Person serving as the Applicable Collateral Agent hereunder in its individual capacity. Such Person and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Grantors or any subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if such Person were not the Applicable Collateral Agent hereunder and without any duty to account therefor to any other Secured Party.

SECTION 4.03. Exculpatory Provisions.

(a) No Collateral Agent shall have any duties or obligations under this Agreement except those expressly set forth herein. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Collateral Agent:

(i) shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing;

(ii) shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers contemplated hereby and such Collateral Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose such Collateral Agent to liability or that is contrary to this Agreement or applicable law;

(iii) shall not, except as expressly set forth herein, have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to a Grantor or any of its affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by the entities serving as a Collateral Agent or any of its affiliates in any capacity;

(iv) shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (1) in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct or (2) in reliance on a certificate of an authorized officer of the Borrower stating that such action is permitted by the terms of this Agreement. Each Collateral Agent shall be deemed not to have knowledge of any Default or Event of Default under any Series of Obligations unless and until notice describing such Default or Event of Default and referencing the applicable agreement is given to such Collateral Agent at the address provided in Section 5.01 by the Collateral Agent of such Obligations or a Grantor;

(v) shall not be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (1) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Agreement (except for its representations and warranties set forth in Article V) or any Security Document, (2) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or thereunder or in connection herewith or therewith, (3) the performance or observance by any other Person of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein or therein or the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default, (4) the adequacy, validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Agreement, any other Security Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien purported to be created by the Security Documents, (5) the value or the sufficiency of any Collateral for any Series of Obligations or (6) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in any Credit Document, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to such Collateral Agent;

(vi) shall not be required to expend, advance or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder or in any of the Security Documents or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers hereunder or under any of the Security Documents unless it is indemnified to its satisfaction and the Collateral Agent shall have no liability to any person for any loss occasioned by any delay in taking or failure to take any such action while it is awaiting an indemnity satisfactory to it;

(vii) need not segregate money held in trust hereunder from other funds except to the extent required by law. No Collateral Agent shall be liable for interest on any money received by it hereunder except as otherwise agreed in writing; and (viii) beyond the exercise of reasonable care in the custody thereof, no Collateral Agent shall have any duty as to any Collateral in its possession or control or in the possession or control of any agent or bailee or any income thereon or as to preservation of rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining thereto, and no Collateral Agent shall be responsible for filing any financing or continuation statements or recording any documents or instruments in any public office at any time or times or otherwise perfecting or maintaining the perfection of any security interest in the Collateral. Each Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody of the Collateral in its possession if the Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which it accords similar collateral and shall not be liable or responsible for any loss or diminution in the value of any of the Collateral, by reason of the act or omission of any carrier, forwarding agency or other agent or bailee.

(b) Upon any payment or distribution of assets hereunder, the Collateral Agents and the Secured Parties shall be entitled to conclusively rely upon any order or decree entered by any court of competent jurisdiction in which an Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding is pending, or a certificate of the trustee in bankruptcy, liquidating trustee, custodian, receiver, assignee for the benefit of creditors, agent or other person making such payment or distribution in the Insolvency or Liquidation Proceeding, delivered to any Collateral Agent, for the purpose of ascertaining the persons entitled to participate in such payment or distribution, the amount thereof or payable thereon, the amount or amounts paid or distributed thereon and all other facts pertinent thereto.

(c) In the event that, following a foreclosure in respect of any Collateral, the Applicable Collateral Agent acquires title to any portion of such Collateral or takes any managerial action of any kind in regard thereto in order to carry out any fiduciary or trust obligation for the benefit of another, which in the Applicable Collateral Agent's sole discretion may cause the Applicable Collateral Agent to be considered an "owner or operator" under the provisions of CERCLA or otherwise cause the Applicable Collateral Agent to incur liability under CERCLA or any other Federal, state or local law, the Applicable Collateral Agent reserves the right, instead of taking such action, to either resign as the Applicable Collateral Agent or arrange for the transfer of the title or control of the asset to a court-appointed receiver.

(d) The rights and protections of the Collateral Agents set forth herein shall also be applicable to each Collateral Agent in its roles as Mortgage Collateral Agent, mortgagee, beneficiary, pledgee or any of its other roles (including as Collateral Agent) under the Security Documents.

SECTION 4.04. Reliance by Collateral Agents. Each Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, Internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or otherwise authenticated by the proper Person. Each Collateral Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and reasonably believed by it to have been made by the proper Person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. Each Collateral Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Borrower, a Collateral Agent or counsel of its choice), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

SECTION 4.05. Delegation of Duties. Any Collateral Agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers hereunder or under any other Security Document by or through any one or more sub-agents, delegates or attorneys-in-fact appointed by such Collateral Agent and shall not be responsible for acts or omissions of any such sub-agents, delegates or attorneys-in-fact appointed by it with due care, including any person appointed as a Mortgage Collateral Agent. Any Collateral Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through its respective Affiliates. The exculpatory provisions of this Article shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Affiliates of any Collateral Agent and any such sub-agent.

It is the purpose of this Section that there shall be no violation of any law of any jurisdiction (including particularly the law of any sovereign state) denying or restricting the right of the Applicable Collateral Agent to transact business or bring legal proceedings in such jurisdiction. It is recognized that in case of litigation under this Agreement, and in particular in case of the enforcement thereof on default, or in the case the Applicable Collateral Agent deems that by reason of any present or future law of any jurisdiction it may not exercise any of the powers, rights or remedies herein granted to the Applicable Collateral Agent or hold title to the properties, in trust, as herein granted or take any action which may be desirable or necessary in connection therewith, it may be necessary that the Applicable Collateral Agent appoint an individual or institution as a collateral agent or agent. The following provisions of this Section are adopted to these ends.

In the event that the Applicable Collateral Agent appoints an additional individual or institution as a collateral agent or agent, each and every remedy, power, right, claim, demand, cause of action, immunity, estate, title, interest and lien expressed or intended by this Agreement to be exercised by or vested in or conveyed to the Applicable Collateral Agent with respect thereto shall be exercisable by and vest in such separate collateral agent or agent but only to the extent necessary to enable such collateral agent or agent to exercise such powers, rights and remedies.

SECTION 4.06. Non-Reliance on Collateral Agent and other Secured Parties. Each Secured Party acknowledges that it has not relied upon any Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party or any of their Affiliates in making any credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement and the other Credit Documents. Each Secured Party also acknowledges that in the future it will not rely upon any Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party or any of their Affiliates in making any decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement, any other Credit Document or any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder.

As agreed to in writing among each Collateral Agent from time to time, notices and other communications may also be delivered by e-mail to the e-mail address of a representative of the applicable Person provided from time to time by such Person and shall be deemed to be given on the date of receipt.

SECTION 5.02. Waivers; Amendment.

(a) No failure or delay on the part of any party hereto in exercising any right or power hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the parties hereto are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or consent to any departure by any party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by paragraph (b) of this Section, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on any party hereto in any case shall entitle such party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(b) This Agreement or any provision hereof may be terminated, waived, amended or modified (other than pursuant to any Joinder) only pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by each Collateral Agent. Notwithstanding the foregoing no provision of this Agreement may be terminated, waived, amended or modified without the prior written consent of the Borrower if such termination, waiver, amendment or modification would adversely affect any Grantor. Notwithstanding the foregoing, without the consent of any Secured Party or any other Collateral Agent, (i) the Collateral Agent for any Additional Obligations may become a party hereto in accordance with Section 5.02(c), (ii) any Subsidiary of the Borrower may become a party hereto in accordance with Section 5.16 and (iii) the Applicable Collateral Agent may effect amendments and modifications to this Agreement (which may be in the form of an amendment and restatement) to the extent the Applicable Collateral Agent reasonably deems necessary to incorporate Additional Obligations into this Agreement.

(c) So long as permitted by the Credit Documents then in effect, the Borrower may from time to time designate Indebtedness and other obligations as Additional Obligations hereunder by delivering to the Applicable Collateral Agent and each Collateral Agent (i) a certificate signed by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower (A) identifying the Indebtedness and other obligations so designated and the aggregate principal amount or face amount thereof, or in the case of any revolving commitments, the maximum amounts thereof, (B) stating that such Indebtedness and other obligations are designated as Additional Obligations for purposes hereof, (C) representing that such designation of such Indebtedness and other obligations as Additional Obligations complies with the terms of the Credit Documents then outstanding and that, after giving effect to the designation of such Additional Obligations, such Additional Obligations and the holders thereof shall be subject to and bound by this Agreement and (D) specifying the name and address of the Collateral Agent for such Indebtedness and other obligations and (ii) a fully executed Joinder (substantially in the form attached as Annex A). Each Collateral Agent agrees that upon the satisfaction of all conditions set forth in the preceding sentence, the Collateral Agent identified in such Joinder shall act hereunder for the benefit of all Additional Secured Parties under such Joinder, and each Collateral Agent agrees to the appointment, and acceptance of the appointment, of the Applicable Collateral Agent as agent for the holders of such Additional Obligations as set forth in each Joinder and agrees, on behalf of itself and each Secured Party it represents, to be bound by this Agreement.

SECTION 5.03. Parties in Interest. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns, as well as the other Secured Parties, all of whom are intended to be bound by, and to be third party beneficiaries of, this Agreement.

SECTION 5.04. Survival of Agreement. All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by any party in this Agreement shall be considered to have been relied upon by the other parties hereto and shall survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement.

SECTION 5.05. Obligations Absolute. Except as otherwise provided herein (including Section 1.01(b)), the Lien priorities provided for herein and the respective rights, interests, agreements and obligations hereunder of the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties shall remain in full force and effect irrespective of:

(a) any lack of validity or enforceability of any Credit Document;

(b) any change in the time, place or manner of payment of, or in any other term of (including the Refinancing of), all or any portion of the Obligations, it being specifically acknowledged that a portion of the Obligations consists or may consist of Indebtedness that is revolving in nature, and the amount thereof that may be outstanding at any time or from time to time may be increased or reduced and subsequently reborrowed;

(c) any change in the time, place or manner of payment of, or in any other term of, all or any portion of the Obligations;

(d) any amendment, waiver or other modification, whether by course of conduct or otherwise, of any Credit Document;

(e) the securing of any Obligations with any additional collateral or guarantees, or any exchange, release, voiding, avoidance or non-perfection of any security interest in any Collateral or any other collateral or any release of any guarantee securing any Obligations; or

(f) any other circumstances that otherwise might constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, any Grantor in respect of the Obligations or this Agreement, other than discharge in full of such Obligations.

SECTION 5.06. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile transmission, e-mail, telecopy or other electronic transmission (in "pdf", "tif" or similar format) shall be as effective as delivery of a manually signed counterpart of this Agreement. For all purposes of this Agreement and any document to be signed or delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Agreement, the words "execution," "signed," "signature," "delivery," and words of like import shall be deemed to include electronic signatures, deliveries or the keeping of records in electronic form, as the case may be, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature, physical delivery or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be.

SECTION 5.07. Severability. Any provision of this Agreement held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability without affecting the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions hereof; and the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision in any other jurisdiction. The parties shall endeavor in good-faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

SECTION 5.08. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of New York.

SECTION 5.09. Submission To Jurisdiction Waivers. Each of the parties hereto, on behalf of itself and the Secured Parties of the Series for whom it is acting, irrevocably and unconditionally:

(a) submits for itself and its property in any legal action or proceeding relating to this Agreement and the Security Documents, or for recognition and enforcement of any judgment in respect thereof, to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York in the Borough of Manhattan, the courts of the United States of America for the Southern District of New York, and appellate courts from any thereof;

(b) agrees that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be entered and enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided or permitted by law;

(c) consents that any such action or proceeding may be brought in such courts and waives any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the venue of any such action or proceeding in any such court or that such action or proceeding was brought in an inconvenient court and agrees not to plead or claim the same and any right to which it may be entitled on account of place of residence or domicile;

(d) agrees that service of process in any such action or proceeding may be effected by mailing a copy thereof by registered or certified mail (or any substantially similar form of mail but in no event by facsimile or electronic mail), postage prepaid, to such Person (or its Collateral Agent) at the address referred to in Section 5.01 or at such other address of which the other parties hereto shall have been notified pursuant thereto;

(e) agrees that nothing herein shall affect the right of any other party hereto (or any Secured Party) to effect service of process in any other manner permitted by law or shall limit the right of any party hereto (or any Secured Party) to sue in any other jurisdiction; and

(f) waives, to the maximum extent not prohibited by law, any right it may have to claim or recover in any legal action or proceeding referred to in this Section 5.09 any special, exemplary, punitive or consequential damages.

SECTION 5.10. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT AND FOR ANY COUNTERCLAIM THEREIN. EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT, BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 5.10.

SECTION 5.11. Headings. Article, Section and Annex headings used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

SECTION 5.12. Conflicts. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the provisions of any of the other Credit Documents or Security Documents, the provisions of this Agreement shall control.

Section 4. Credits to Deferred Compensation Account:

4.1. Participant Deferral Credits. To the extent provided in the Adoption Agreement, each Active Participant may elect, by entering into a Participation Agreement with the Employer, to defer the receipt of Compensation from the Employer by a dollar amount or percentage specified in the Participation Agreement. The amount of Compensation the Participant elects to defer, the Participant Deferral Credit, shall be credited by the Employer to the Deferred Compensation Account maintained for the Participant pursuant to Section 8. The following special provisions shall apply with respect to the Participant Deferral Credits of a Participant:

4.1.1. The Employer shall credit to the Participant's Deferred Compensation Account on each Crediting Date an amount equal to the total Participant Deferral Credit for the period ending on such Crediting Date.

4.1.2. An election pursuant to this Section 4.1 shall be made by the Participant by executing and delivering a Participation Agreement to the Committee. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 4.1, the Participation Agreement shall become effective with respect to such Participant as of the first day of January following the date such Participation Agreement is received by the Committee. A Participant's election may be changed at any time prior to the last permissible date for making the election as permitted in this Section 4.1, and shall thereafter be irrevocable. The election of a Participant shall continue in effect for subsequent years until modified by the Participant as permitted in this Section 4.1.

4.1.3. A Participant may execute and deliver a Participation Agreement to the Committee within 30 days after the date the Participant first becomes eligible to participate in the Plan to be effective as of the first payroll period next following the date the Participation Agreement is fully executed by the Participant. Whether a Participant is treated as newly eligible for participation under this Section shall be determined in accordance with Section 409A of the Code and the regulations thereunder, including (i) rules that treat all elective deferral account balance plans as one plan, and (ii) rules that treat a previously eligible employee as newly eligible if his benefits had been previously distributed or if he has been ineligible for 24 months. For Compensation that is earned based upon a specified performance period (for example, an annual bonus), where a deferral election is made under this Section but after the beginning of the performance period, the election will only apply to the portion of the Compensation equal to the total amount of the Compensation for the service period multiplied by the ratio of the number of days remaining in the performance period after the election over the total number of days in the performance period.

4.1.4. A Participant may unilaterally modify a Participation Agreement (either to terminate, increase or decrease the portion of his future Compensation which is subject to deferral within the percentage limits set forth in Section 4.1 of the Adoption Agreement) by providing a written modification of the Participation Agreement to the Committee. The modification shall become effective as of the first day of January following the date such written modification is received by the Committee.

4.1.5. If the Participant performed services continuously from the later of the beginning of the performance period or the date upon which the performance criteria are established through the date upon which the Participant makes an initial deferral election, a Participation Agreement relating to the deferral of Performance-Based Compensation may be executed and delivered to the Committee no later than the date which is 6 months prior to the end of the performance period, provided that in no event may an election to defer Performance-Based Compensation be made after such Compensation has become readily ascertainable.

4.1.6. If the Employer has a fiscal year other than the calendar year, Compensation relating to Service in the fiscal year of the Employer (such as a bonus based on the fiscal year of the Employer), of which no amount is paid or payable during the fiscal year, may be deferred at the Participant's election if the election to defer is made not later than the close of the Employer's fiscal year next preceding the first fiscal year in which the Participant performs any services for which such Compensation is payable.

4.1.7. Compensation payable after the last day of the Participant's taxable year solely for services provided during the final payroll period containing the last day of the Participant's taxable year (i.e., December 31) is treated for purposes of this Section 4.1 as Compensation for services performed in the subsequent taxable year.

4.1.8. The Committee may from time to time establish policies or rules consistent with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code to govern the manner in which Participant Deferral Credits may be made.

If a Participant becomes Disabled, or applies for and is eligible for a distribution on account of an Unforeseeable Emergency during a Plan Year or as required due to a hardship distribution under Section 1.40 l(k)-1(d)(3) of the Code, his deferral election for such Plan Year shall be cancelled.

4.2. Employer Credits. If designated by the Employer in the Adoption Agreement, the Employer shall cause the Committee to credit to the Deferred Compensation Account of each Active Participant an Employer Credit as determined in accordance with the Adoption Agreement. A Participant must make distribution elections with respect to any Employer Credits credited to his Deferred Compensation Account by the deadline that would apply under Section 4.1 for distribution elections with respect to Participant Deferral Credits credited at the same time, on a Participation Agreement that is timely executed and delivered to the Committee pursuant to Section 4.1.

4.3. Deferred Compensation Account. All Participant Deferral Credits and Employer Credits shall be credited to the Deferred Compensation Account of the Participant as provided in Section 8.

Section 5. Qualifying Distribution Events:

5.1. Separation from Service. If the Participant Separates from Service with the Employer, the vested balance in the Deferred Compensation Account shall be paid to the Participant by the Employer as provided in Section 7. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no distribution shall be made earlier than six months after the date of Separation from Service (or, if earlier, the date of death) with respect to a Participant who as of the date of Separation from Service is a Specified Employee of a corporation the stock in which is traded on an established securities market or otherwise. Any payments to which such Specified Employee would be entitled during the first six months following the date of Separation from Service shall be accumulated and paid on the first day of the seventh month following the date of Separation from Service.

5.2. Disability. If the Employer designates in the Adoption Agreement that distributions are permitted under the Plan when a Participant becomes Disabled, and the Participant becomes Disabled while in Service, the vested balance in the Deferred Compensation Account shall be paid to the Participant by the Employer as provided in Section 7.

5.3. Death. If the Participant dies while in Service, the Employer shall pay a benefit to tire Participant's Beneficiary in the amount designated in the Adoption Agreement. Payment of such benefit shall be made by the Employer as provided in Section 7.

5.4. In-Service or Education Distributions. If the Employer designates in the Adoption Agreement thatin-service or education distributions are permitted under the Plan, a Participant may designate in the Participation Agreement to have a specified amount credited to the Participant's In-Service or Education Account for in-service or education distributions at the date specified by the Participant. In no event may anin-service or education distribution of an amount be made before the date that is two years after the first day of the year in which such amount was credited to the In-Service or Education Account. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Participant incurs a Qualifying Distribution Event prior to the date on which the entire balance in the In-Service or Education Account has been distributed, then the balance in theIn-Service or Education Account on the date of the Qualifying Distribution Event shall be paid as provided under Section 7.1 for payments on such Qualifying Distribution Event.

5.5. Change in Control Event. If the Employer designates in the Adoption Agreement that distributions are permitted under the Plan upon the occurrence of a Change in Control Event, the Participant may designate in the Participation Agreement to have the vested balance in the Deferred Compensation Account paid to the Participant upon a Change in Control Event by the Employer as provided in Section 7.

5.6. Unforeseeable Emergency. If the Employer designates in the Adoption Agreement that distributions are permitted under the Plan upon the occurrence of an Unforeseeable Emergency event, a distribution from the Deferred Compensation Account may be made to a Participant in the event of an Unforeseeable Emergency, subject to the following provisions:

5.6.1. A Participant may, at any time prior to his Separation from Service for any reason, make application to the Committee to receive a distribution in a lump sum of all or a portion of the vested balance in the Deferred Compensation Account (determined as of the date the distribution, if any, is made under this Section 5.6) because of an Unforeseeable Emergency. A distribution because of an Unforeseeable Emergency shall not exceed the amount required to satisfy the Unforeseeable Emergency plus amounts necessary to pay taxes reasonably anticipated as a result of such distribution, after taking into account the extent to which the Unforeseeable Emergency may be relieved through reimbursement or compensation by insurance or otherwise or by liquidation of the Participant's assets (to the extent the liquidation of such assets would not itself cause severe financial hardship) or by stopping current deferrals under the Plan pursuant to Section 4.1.9.

5.6.2. The Participant's request for a distribution on account of Unforeseeable Emergency must be made in writing to the Committee. The request must specify the nature of the financial hardship, the total amount requested to be distributed from the Deferred Compensation Account, and the total amount of the actual expense incurred or to be incurred on account of the Unforeseeable Emergency.

5.6.3. If a distribution under this Section 5.6 is approved by the Committee, such distribution will be made as soon as practicable following the date it is approved. The processing of the request shall be completed as soon as practicable from the date on which the Committee receives the properly completed written request for a distribution on account of an Unforeseeable Emergency. If a Participant's Separation from Service occurs after a request is approved in accordance with this Section 5.6.3, but prior to distribution of the full amount approved, the approval of the request shall be automatically null and void and the benefits which the Participant is entitled to receive under the Plan shall be distributed in accordance with the applicable distribution provisions of the Plan.

5.6.4. The Committee may from time to time adopt additional policies or rules consistent with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code to govern the manner in which such distributions may be made so that the Plan may be conveniently administered.

Section 6. Vesting:

A Participant shall be fully vested in the portion of his Deferred Compensation Account attributable to Participant Deferral Credits, and all income, gains and losses attributable thereto. A Participant shall become fully vested in the portion of his Deferred Compensation Account attributable to Employer Credits, and income, gains and losses attributable thereto, in accordance with the vesting schedule and provisions designated by the Employer in the Adoption Agreement. If a Participant's Deferred Compensation Account is not fully vested upon Separation from Service, the portion of the Deferred Compensation Account that is not fully vested shall thereupon be forfeited.

Section 7. Distribution Rules:

7.1. Payment Options. The Employer shall designate in the Adoption Agreement the payment options which may be elected by the Participant (lump sum, annual installments, or a combination of both). Different payment options may be made available for each Qualifying Distribution Event, and different payment options may be available for different types of Separations from Service, all as designated in the Adoption Agreement. The Participant shall elect in the Participation Agreement the method under which the vested balance in the Deferred Compensation Account will be distributed from among the designated payment options. The Participant may at such time elect a different method of payment for each Qualifying Distribution Event as specified in the Adoption Agreement. If the Participant is permitted by the Employer in the Adoption Agreement to elect different payment options and does not make a valid election, the vested balance in the Deferred Compensation Account will be distributed as a lump sum.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if certain Qualifying Distribution Events occur prior to the date on which the vested balance of a Participant's Deferred Compensation Account is completely paid pursuant to this Section 7.1 following the occurrence of certain initial Qualifying Distribution Events, the following rules apply:

7.1.1. If the initial Qualifying Distribution Event is a Separation from Service or Disability, and the Participant subsequently dies, the remaining unpaid vested balance of a Participant's Deferred Compensation Account shall be paid as a lump sum.

7.1.2. If the initial Qualifying Distribution Event is a Change in Control Event, and any subsequent Qualifying Distribution Event occurs (except an In-Service or Education Distribution described in Section 2.29(iv)), the remaining unpaid vested balance of a Participant's Deferred Compensation Account shall be paid as provided under Section 7.1 for payments on such subsequent Qualifying Distribution Event.

7.2. Timing of Payments. Payment shall be made in the manner elected by the Participant and shall commence as soon as practicable after (but no later than 60 days after) the distribution date elected for the Qualifying Distribution Event. In the event the Participant fails to make a valid election of the payment method, the distribution will be made in a single lump sum payment as soon as practicable after (but no later than 60 days after) the Qualifying Distribution Event. A payment may be further delayed to the extent permitted in accordance with regulations and guidance under Section 409A of the Code.

7.3. Installment Payments. If the Participant elects to receive installment payments upon a Qualifying Distribution Event, the payment of each annual installment shall be made on the anniversary of the date of the first installment payment, and the amount of the annual installment shall be adjusted on such anniversary for credits or debits to the Participants account pursuant to Section 8 of the Plan. Such adjustment shall be made by dividing the balance in the Deferred Compensation Account on such date by the number of annual installments remaining to be paid hereunder; provided that the last annual installment due under the Plan shall be the entire amount credited to the Participant's account on the date of payment.

7.4. De Minimis Amounts. Notwithstanding any payment election made by the Participant, if the Employer designates a pre-determined de minimis amount in the Adoption Agreement, the vested balance in the Deferred Compensation Account of the Participant will be distributed in a single lump sum payment if at the time of a permitted Qualifying Distribution Event the vested balance does not exceed such pre-determined de minimis amount; provided, however, that such distribution will be made only where the Qualifying Distribution Event is a Separation from Service, death, Disability (if applicable) or Change in Control Event (if applicable). Such payment shall be made on or before the later of (i) December 31 of the calendar year in which the Qualifying Distribution Event occurs, or (ii) the date that is 2-1/2 months after the Qualifying Distribution Event occurs. In addition, the Employer may distribute a Participant's vested balance at any time if the balance does not exceed the limit in Section 402(g)(1)(B) of the Code and results in the termination of the Participant's entire interest in the Plan as provided under Section 409A of the Code.

7.5. Subsequent Elections. With the consent of the Committee, a Participant may delay or change the method of payment of the Deferred Compensation Account subject to the following requirements:

7.5.1. The new election may not take effect until at least 12 months after the date on which the new election is made.

7.5.2. If the new election relates to a payment for a Qualifying Distribution Event other than the death of the Participant, the Participant becoming Disabled, or an Unforeseeable Emergency, the new election must provide for the deferral of the payment for a period of at least five years from the date such payment would otherwise have been made.

7.5.3. If the new election relates to a payment from the In-Service or Education Account, the new election must be made at least 12 months prior to the date of the first scheduled payment from such account.

For purposes of this Section 7.5 and Section 7.6, a payment is each separately identified amount to which the Participant is entitled under the Plan; provided, that entitlement to a series of installment payments is treated as the entitlement to a single payment.

7.6. Acceleration Prohibited. The acceleration of the time or schedule of any payment due under the Plan is prohibited except as expressly provided in regulations and administrative guidance promulgated under Section 409A of the Code (such as accelerations for domestic relations orders and employment taxes). It is not an acceleration of the time or schedule of payment if the Employer waives or accelerates the vesting requirements applicable to a benefit under the Plan.

Section 8. Accounts; Deemed Investment; Adjustments to Account:

8.1. Accounts. The Committee shall establish a book reserve account, entitled the "Deferred Compensation Account," on behalf of each Participant. The Committee shall also establish an In-Service or Education Account as a part of the Deferred Compensation Account of each Participant, if applicable. The amount credited to the Deferred Compensation Account shall be adjusted pursuant to the provisions of Section 8.3.

8.2. Deemed Investments. The Deferred Compensation Account of a Participant shall be credited with an investment return determined as if the account were invested in one or more investment funds made available by the Committee. The Participant shall elect the investment funds in which his Deferred Compensation Account shall be deemed to be invested. Such election shall be made in the manner prescribed by the Committee and shall take effect upon the entry of the Participant into the Plan. The investment election of the Participant shall remain in effect until a new election is made by the Participant. In the event the Participant fails for any reason to make an effective election of the investment return to be credited to his account, the investment return shall be determined by the Committee.

8.3. Adjustments to Deferred Compensation Account. With respect to each Participant who has a Deferred Compensation Account under the Plan, the amount credited to such account shall be adjusted by the following debits and credits, at the times and in the order stated:

8.3.1. The Deferred Compensation Account shall be debited each business day with the total amount of any payments made from such account since the last preceding business day to him or for his benefit. Unless otherwise specified by the Employer, each deemed investment fund will be debited pro-rata based on the value of the investment funds as of the end of the preceding business day.

8.3.2. The Deferred Compensation Account shall be credited on each Crediting Date with the total amount of any Participant Deferral Credits and Employer Credits to such account since the last preceding Crediting Date.

8.3.3. The Deferred Compensation Account shall be credited or debited on each day securities are traded on a national stock exchange with the amount of deemed investment gain or loss resulting from the performance of the investment funds elected by the Participant in accordance with Section 8.2. The amount of such deemed investment gain or loss shall be determined by the Committee and such determination shall be final and conclusive upon all concerned.

Section 9. Administration by Committee:

9.1. Membership of Committee. If the Committee consists of individuals appointed by the Board, they will serve at the pleasure of the Board. Any member of the Committee may resign, and his successor, if any, shall be appointed by the Board.

9.2. General Administration. The Committee shall be responsible for the operation and administration of the Plan and for carrying out its provisions. The Committee shall have the full authority and discretion to make, amend, interpret, and enforce all appropriate rules and regulations for the administration of this Plan and decide or resolve any and all questions, including interpretations of this Plan, as may arise in connection with this Plan. Any such action taken by the Committee shall be final and conclusive on any party. To the extent the Committee has been granted discretionary authority under the Plan, the Committee's prior exercise of such authority shall not obligate it to exercise its authority in a like fashion thereafter. The Committee shall be entitled to rely conclusively upon all tables, valuations, certificates, opinions and reports furnished by any actuary, accountant, controller, counsel or other person employed or engaged by the Employer with respect to the Plan. The Committee may, from time to time, employ agents and delegate to such agents, including employees of the Employer, such administrative or other duties as it sees fit.

9.3. Indemnification. To the extent not covered by insurance, the Employer shall indemnify the Committee, each employee, officer, director, and agent of the Employer, and all persons formerly serving in such capacities, against any and all liabilities or expenses, including all legal fees relating thereto, arising in connection with the exercise of their duties and responsibilities with respect to the Plan, provided however that the Employer shall not indemnify any person for liabilities or expenses due to that person's own gross negligence or willful misconduct

Section 10. Contractual Liability, Trust:

10.1. Contractual Liability. Unless otherwise elected in the Adoption Agreement, the Company shall be obligated to make all payments hereunder. This obligation shall constitute a contractual liability of the Company to the Participants, and such payments shall be made from the general funds of the Company. The Company shall not be required to establish or maintain any special or separate fund, or otherwise to segregate assets to assure that such payments shall be made, and the Participants shall not have any interest in any particular assets of the Company by reason of its obligations hereunder. To the extent that any person acquires a right to receive payment from the Company, such right shall be no greater than the right of an unsecured creditor of the Company.

10.2. Trust. The Employer may establish a trust to assist it in meeting its obligations under the Plan. Any such trust shall conform to the requirements of a grantor trust under Revenue Procedures 92-64 and 92-65 and at all times during the continuance of the trust the principal and income of the trust shall be subject to claims of general creditors of the Employer under federal and state law. The establishment of such a trust would not be intended to cause Participants to realize current income on amounts contributed thereto, and the trust would be so interpreted and administered.

Section 11. Allocation of Responsibilities:

The persons responsible for the Plan and the duties and responsibilities allocated to each are as follows:

11.1. Board.

(i) To amend the Plan;

(ii) To appoint and remove members of the Committee; and

(iii) To terminate the Plan as permitted in Section 14.

11.2. Committee.

(i) To designate Participants;

(ii) To interpret the provisions of the Plan and to determine the rights of the Participants under the Plan, except to the extent otherwise provided in Section 16 relating to claims procedure;

(iii) To administer the Plan in accordance with its terms, except to the extent powers to administer the Plan are specifically delegated to another person or persons as provided in the Plan;

(iv) To account for the amount credited to the Deferred Compensation Account of a Participant;

(v) To direct the Employer in the payment of benefits;

(vi) To file such reports as may be required with the United States Department of Labor, the Internal Revenue Service and any other government agency to which reports may be required to be submitted from time to time; and

(vii) To administer the claims procedure to the extent provided in Section 16.

Section 12. Benefits Not Assignable; Facility of Payments:

12.1. Benefits Not Assignable. No portion of any benefit credited or paid under the Plan with respect to any Participant shall be subject in any manner to anticipation, alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, encumbrance or charge, and any attempt so to anticipate, alienate, sell, transfer, assign, pledge, encumber or charge the same shall be void, nor shall any portion of such benefit be in any manner payable to any assignee, receiver or any one trustee, or be liable for his debts, contracts, liabilities, engagements or torts. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that all or any portion of the benefit of a Participant is transferred to the former Spouse of the Participant incident to a divorce, the Committee shall maintain such amount for the benefit of the former Spouse until distributed in the manner required by an order of any court having jurisdiction over the divorce, and the former Spouse shall be entitled to the same rights as the Participant with respect to such benefit.

12.2. Plan-Approved Domestic Relations Orders. The Committee shall establish procedures for determining whether an order directed to the Plan is a Plan-Approved Domestic Relations Order. If the Committee determines that an order is aPlan-Approved Domestic Relations Order, the Committee shall cause the payment of amounts pursuant to or segregate a separate account as provided by (and to prevent any payment or act which might be inconsistent with) the Plan-Approved Domestic Relations Order.

12.3. Payments to Minors and Others. If any individual entitled to receive a payment under the Plan shall be physically, mentally or legally incapable of receiving or acknowledging receipt of such payment, the Committee, upon the receipt of satisfactory evidence of his incapacity and satisfactory evidence that another person or institution is maintaining him and that no guardian or committee has been appointed for him, may cause any payment otherwise payable to him to be made to such person or institution so maintaining him. Payment to such person or institution shall be in full satisfaction of all claims by or through the Participant to the extent of the amount thereof.

Section 13. Beneficiary:

The Participant's beneficiary shall be the person, persons, entity or entities designated by the Participant on the beneficiary designation form provided by and filed with the Committee or its designee. If the Participant does not designate a beneficiary, the beneficiary shall be his Surviving Spouse. If the Participant does not designate a beneficiary and has no Surviving Spouse, the beneficiary shall be the Participant's estate. The designation of a beneficiary may be changed or revoked only by filing a new beneficiary designation form with the Committee or its designee. If a beneficiary (the "primary beneficiary") is receiving or is entitled to receive payments under the Plan and dies before receiving all of the payments due him, the balance to which he is entitled shall be paid to the contingent beneficiary, if any, named in the Participant's current beneficiary designation form. If there is no contingent beneficiary, the balance shall be paid to the estate of the primary beneficiary. Any beneficiary may disclaim all or any part of any benefit to which such beneficiary shall be entitled hereunder by filing a written disclaimer with the Committee before payment of such benefit is to be made. Such a disclaimer shall be made in a form satisfactory to the Committee and shall be irrevocable when filed. Any benefit disclaimed shall be payable from the Plan in the same manner as if the beneficiary who filed the disclaimer had predeceased the Participant.

Section 14. Amendment and Termination of Plan:

The Company may amend any provision of the Plan or terminate the Plan at any time; provided, that in no event shall such amendment or termination reduce the balance in any Participant's Deferred Compensation Account as of the date of such amendment or termination, nor shall any such amendment affect the terms of the Plan relating to the payment of such Deferred Compensation Account. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following special provisions shall apply:

14.1. Termination in the Discretion of the Employer. Except as otherwise provided in Sections 14.2, the Company in its discretion may terminate the Plan and distribute benefits to Participants subject to the following requirements and any others specified under Section 409A of the Code:

14.1.1. All arrangements sponsored by the Employer that would be aggregated with the Plan under Section 1.409A-l(c) of the Treasury Regulations are terminated.

14.1.2. No payments other than payments that would be payable under the terms of the Plan if the termination had not occurred are made within 12 months of the termination date.

14.1.3. All benefits under the Plan are paid within 24 months of the termination date.

14.1.4. The Employer does not adopt a new arrangement that would be aggregated with the Plan underSection 1.409A-l(c) of the Treasury Regulations providing for the deferral of compensation at any time within 3 years following the date of termination of the Plan.

14.1.5. The termination does not occur proximate to a downturn in the financial health of the Employer.

14.2. Termination Upon Change in Control Event. If the Company terminates the Plan within thirty days preceding or twelve months following a Change in Control Event, the Deferred Compensation Account of each Participant shall become fully vested and payable to the Participant in a lump sum within twelve months following the date of termination, subject to the requirements of Section 409A of the Code.

Section 15. Communication to Participants:

The Employer shall make a copy of the Plan available for inspection by Participants and their beneficiaries during reasonable hours at the principal office of the Employer.

Section 16. Claims Procedure:

The following claims procedure shall apply with respect to the Plan:

16.1. Filing of a Claim for Benefits. If a Participant or Beneficiary (the "claimant") believes that he is entitled to benefits under the Plan which are not being paid to him or which are not being accrued for his benefit, he shall file a written claim therefore with the Committee.

16.2. Notification to Claimant of Decision. Within 90 days after receipt of a claim by the Committee (or within 180 days if special circumstances require an extension of time), the Committee shall notify the claimant of the decision with regard to the claim. In the event of such special circumstances requiring an extension of time, there shall be furnished to the claimant prior to expiration of the initial 90-day period written notice of the extension, which notice shall set forth the special circumstances and the date by which the decision shall be furnished. If such claim shall be wholly or partially denied, notice thereof shall be in writing and worded in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant, and shall set forth: (i) the specific reason or reasons for the denial; (ii) specific reference to pertinent provisions of the Plan on which the denial is based; (iii) a description of any additional material or information necessary for the claimant to perfect the claim and an explanation of why such material or information is necessary; and (iv) an explanation of the procedure for review of the denial and the time limits applicable to such procedures, including a statement of the claimant's right to bring a civil action under ERISA following an adverse benefit determination on review. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the claim relates to a disability determination, the Committee shall notify the claimant of the decision within 45 days (which may be extended for an additional 30 days if required by special circumstances).

16.3. Procedure for Review. Within 60 days following receipt by the claimant of notice denying his claim, in whole or in part, or, if such notice shall not be given, within 60 days following the latest date on which such notice could have been timely given, the claimant may appeal denial of the claim by filing a written application for review with the Committee. Following such request for review, the Committee shall fully and fairly review the decision denying the claim. Prior to the decision of the Committee, the claimant shall be given an opportunity to review pertinent documents and to submit issues and comments in writing.

16.4. Decision on Review. The decision on review of a claim denied in whole or in part by the Committee shall be made in the following manner:

16.4.1. Within 60 days following receipt by the Committee of the request for review (or within 120 days if special circumstances require an extension of time), the Committee shall notify the claimant in writing of its decision with regard to the claim. In the event of such special circumstances requiring an extension of time, written notice of the extension shall be furnished to the claimant prior to the commencement of the extension. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the claim relates to a disability determination, the Committee shall notify the claimant of the decision within 45 days (which may be extended for an additional 45 days if required by special circumstances).

16.4.2. With respect to a claim that is denied in whole or in part, the decision on review shall set forth specific reasons for the decision, shall be written in a manner calculated to be understood by the claimant, and shall set forth:

(i) the specific reason or reasons for the adverse determination;

(ii) specific reference to pertinent Plan provisions on which the adverse determination is based;

(iii) a statement that the claimant is entitled to receive, upon request and free of charge, reasonable access to, and copies of, all documents, records, and other information relevant to the claimant's claim for benefits; and

(iv) a statement describing any voluntary appeal procedures offered by the Plan and the claimant's right to obtain the information about such procedures, as well as a statement of the claimant's right to bring an action under ERISA section 502(a).

16.4.3. The decision of the Committee shall be final and conclusive.

16.5. Action by Authorized Representative of Claimant. All actions set forth in this Section 16 to be taken by the claimant may likewise be taken by a representative of the claimant duly authorized by him to act in his behalf on such matters. The Committee may require such evidence as either may reasonably deem necessary or advisable of the authority to act of any such representative.

Section 17. Miscellaneous Provisions:

17.1. Set off. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Plan, the Employer may reduce the amount of any payment otherwise payable to or on behalf of a Participant hereunder (net of any required withholdings) at the time payment is due by the amount of any loan, cash advance, extension of credit or other obligation of the Participant to the Employer that is then due and payable, and the Participant shall be deemed to have consented to such reduction. In addition, the Employer may at any time offset a Participant's Deferral Compensation Account by an amount up to $5,000 to collect any such amount in accordance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code.

17.2. Notices. Each Participant who is not in Service and each Beneficiary shall be responsible for furnishing the Committee or its designee with his current address for the mailing of notices and benefit payments. Any notice required or permitted to be given to such Participant or Beneficiary shall be deemed given if directed to such address and mailed by regular United States mail, first class, postage prepaid. If any check mailed to such address is returned as undeliverable to the addressee, mailing of checks will be suspended until the Participant or Beneficiary furnishes the proper address. This provision shall not be construed as requiring the mailing of any notice or notification otherwise permitted to be given by posting or by other publication.

17.3. Lost Distributees. A benefit shall be deemed forfeited if the Committee is unable to locate the Participant or Beneficiary to whom payment is due on or before the fifth anniversary of the date payment is to be made or commence; provided, that the deemed investment rate of return pursuant to Section 8.2 shall cease to be applied to the Participant's account following the first anniversary of such date; provided further, however, that such benefit shall be reinstated if a valid claim is made by or on behalf of the Participant or Beneficiary for all or part of the forfeited benefit.

17.4. Reliance on Data. The Employer and the Committee shall have the right to rely on any data provided by the Participant or by any Beneficiary. Representations of such data shall be binding upon any party seeking to claim a benefit through a Participant, and the Employer and the Committee shall have no obligation to inquire into the accuracy of any representation made at any time by a Participant or Beneficiary.

17.5. Receipt and Release for Payments. Subject to the provisions of Section 17.1, any payment made from the Plan to or with respect to any Participant or Beneficiary, or pursuant to a disclaimer by a Beneficiary, shall, to the extent thereof, be in full satisfaction of all claims hereunder against the Plan and the Employer with respect to the Plan. The recipient of any payment from the Plan may be required by the Committee, as a condition precedent to such payment, to execute a receipt and release with respect thereto in such form as shall be acceptable to the Committee.

17.6. Headings. The headings and subheadings of the Plan have been inserted for convenience of reference and are to be ignored in any construction of the provisions hereof.

17.7. Continuation of Employment. The establishment of the Plan shall not be construed as conferring any legal or other rights upon any Employee or any persons for continuation of employment, nor shall it interfere with the right of the Employer to discharge any Employee or to deal with him without regard to the effect thereof under the Plan.

17.8. Merger or Consolidation; Assumption of Plan. No Employer shall consolidate or merge into or with another corporation or entity, or transfer all or substantially all of its assets to another corporation, partnership, trust or other entity (a "Successor Entity") unless such Successor Entity shall assume the rights, obligations and liabilities of the Employer under the Plan and upon such assumption, the Successor Entity shall become obligated to perform the terms and conditions of the Plan. Nothing herein shall prohibit the assumption of the obligations and liabilities of the Employer under the Plan by any Successor Entity.

17.9. Construction. The Employer shall designate in the Adoption Agreement the state according to whose laws the provisions of the Plan shall be construed and enforced, except to the extent that such laws are superseded by ERISA and the applicable requirements of the Code.

17.10. Taxes. The Employer or other payor may withhold a benefit payment under the Plan or a Participant's wages, or the Employer may reduce a Participant's Account balance, in order to meet any federal, state, or local or employment tax withholding obligations with respect to Plan benefits, as permitted under Section 409A of the Code. The Employer or other payor shall report Plan payments and other Plan-related information to the appropriate governmental agencies as required under applicable laws.

Section 18. Transition Rules:

This Section 18 does not apply to plans newly established on or after January 1, 2009.

18.1. 2005 Election Termination. Notwithstanding Section 4.1.4, at any time during 2005, a Participant may terminate a Participation Agreement, or modify a Participation Agreement to reduce the amount of Compensation subject to the deferral election, so long as the Compensation subject to the terminated or modified Participation Agreement is includible in the income of the Participant in 2005 or, if later, in the taxable year in which the amounts are earned and vested.

18.2. 2005 Deferral Election. The requirements of Section 4.1.2 relating to the timing of the Participation Agreement shall not apply to any deferral elections made on or before March 15, 2005, provided that (a) the amounts to which the deferral election relate have not been paid or become payable at the time of the election, (b) the Plan was in existence on or before December 31, 2004, (c) the election to defer compensation is made in accordance with the terms of the Plan as in effect on December 31, 2005 (other than a requirement to make a deferral election after March 15, 2005), and (d) the Plan is otherwise operated in accordance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code.

18.3. 2005 Termination of Participation; Distribution. Notwithstanding anything in this Plan to the contrary, at any time during 2005, a Participant may terminate his or her participation in the Plan and receive a distribution of his Deferred Compensation Account balance on account of that termination, so long as the full amount of such distribution is includible in the Participant's income in 2005 or, if later, in the taxable year of the Participant in which the amount is earned and vested.

18.4. Payment Elections. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 7.1 or 7.5 of the Plan, a Participant may elect on or before December 31, 2008, the time or form of payment of amounts subject to Section 409A of the Code provided that such election applies only to amounts that would not otherwise be payable in the year of the election and does not cause an amount to paid in the year of the election that would not otherwise be payable in such year.

4. Stock Available for Awards.

(a) Number of Shares; Shares Reserved for Specific Awards. Subject to adjustment under Section 8 hereof, the aggregate number of shares of Common Stock subject to Awards under the Plan shall not exceed 2,679,500. Of such shares, (i) 938,800 shares of Common Stock shall be subject to an Option granted to the Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and President of the Company on the Effective Date with the terms set forth in the Employment Agreement, (ii) 1,408,200 shares of Common Stock shall be reserved for future grants of Options to corporate office Employees (other than the Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and President of the Company) and field/club Employees, and (iii) 332,500 shares of Common Stock shall be reserved for future grants of Restricted Stock to the Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and President of the Company on the dates and with the terms set forth in the Employment Agreement. If any Award expires or lapses or is terminated, surrendered or canceled without having been fully exercised or is forfeited in whole or in part (including as the result of shares of Common Stock subject to such Award being repurchased by the Company at or below the original issuance price), in any case in a manner that results in any shares of Common Stock covered by such Award not being issued or being so reacquired by the Company, the unused Common Stock covered by such Award shall again be available for the grant of Awards under the Plan. Further, shares of Common Stock delivered (either by actual delivery or attestation) to the Company by a Participant to satisfy the applicable exercise or purchase price of an Award and/or to satisfy any applicable tax withholding obligation (including shares retained by the Company from the Award being exercised or purchased and/or creating the tax obligation) shall be added to the number of shares of Common Stock available for the grant of Awards under the Plan. However, in the case of Incentive Stock Options (as hereinafter defined), the foregoing provisions shall be subject to any limitations under the Code. Shares of Common Stock issued under the Plan may consist in whole or in part of authorized but unissued shares, shares purchased on the open market or treasury shares.

(b) Substitute Awards. In connection with a merger or consolidation of an entity with the Company or the acquisition by the Company of property or stock of an entity, the Administrator may grant Awards in substitution for any options or other stock or stock-based awards granted prior to such merger or consolidation by such entity or an affiliate thereof. Substitute Awards may be granted on such terms as the Administrator deems appropriate in the circumstances, notwithstanding any limitations on Awards contained in the Plan. Substitute Awards shall not count against the overall share limit set forth in Section 4(a) hereof, except as may be required by reason of Section 422 of the Code.

5. Stock Options.

(a) General. The Administrator may grant Options to any Service Provider, subject to the limitations on Incentive Stock Options described below. The Administrator shall determine the number of shares of Common Stock to be covered by each Option, the exercise price of each Option and the conditions and limitations applicable to the exercise of each Option, including conditions relating to Applicable Laws, as it considers necessary or advisable.

(b) Incentive Stock Options. The Administrator may grant Options intended to qualify as Incentive Stock Options only to employees of the Company, any of the Company's present or future "parent corporations" or "subsidiary corporations" as defined in Sections 424(e) or (f) of the Code, respectively, and any other entities the employees of which are eligible to receive Incentive Stock Options under the Code. All Options intended to qualify as Incentive Stock Options shall be subject to and shall be construed consistently with the requirements of Section 422 of the Code. Neither the Company nor the Administrator shall have any liability to a Participant, or any other party, (i) if an Option (or any part thereof) which is intended to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option fails to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option or (ii) for any action or omission by the Administrator that causes an Option not to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option, including without limitation, the conversion of an Incentive Stock Option to a Non-Qualified Stock Option or the grant of an Option intended as an Incentive Stock Option that fails to satisfy the requirements under the Code applicable to an Incentive Stock Option. Any Option that is intended to qualify as an Incentive Stock Option, but fails to so qualify for any reason, including without limitation, the portion of any Option becoming exercisable in excess of the $100,000 limitation described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.422-4, shall be treated as a Non-Qualified Stock Option for all purposes.

(c) Exercise Price. The Administrator shall establish the exercise price of each Option and specify the exercise price in the applicable Award Agreement. Unless otherwise determined by the Administrator and set forth in an applicable Award Agreement, the exercise price shall be not less than 100% of the Fair Market Value on the date the Option is granted. In the case of an Incentive Stock Option granted to an employee who, at the time of grant of the Option, owns (or is treated as owning under Section 424 of the Code) stock representing more than 10% of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company (or a "parent corporation" or "subsidiary corporation" thereof within the meaning of Sections 424(e) or 424(f) of the Code, respectively), the per share exercise price shall be no less than 110% of the Fair Market Value on the date the Option is granted (and in the case of an Incentive Stock Option granted to any other employee the exercise price shall be not less than 100% of the Fair Market Value on the date the Option is granted).

(d) Duration of Options. Each Option shall be exercisable at such times and subject to such terms and conditions as the Administrator may specify in the applicable Award Agreement, provided, that the term of any Option shall not exceed ten years. In the case of an Incentive Stock Option granted to an employee who, at the time of grant of the Option, owns (or is treated as owning under Section 424 of the Code) stock representing more than 10% of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company (or a "parent corporation" or "subsidiary corporation" thereof within the meaning of Sections 424(e) or 424(f) of the Code, respectively), the term of the Option shall not exceed five years.

(e) Exercise of Option; Notification of Disposition. Options may be exercised by delivery to the Company of a written notice of exercise, in a form approved by the Administrator (which may be an electronic form), signed by the person authorized to exercise the Option, together with payment in full (i) as specified in Section 5(f) hereof for the number of shares for which the Option is exercised and (ii) as specified in Section 9(e) hereof for any applicable withholding taxes. Unless otherwise determined by the Administrator, an Option may not be exercised for a fraction of a share of Common Stock. If an Option is designated as an Incentive Stock Option, the Participant shall give prompt notice to the Company of any disposition or other transfer of any shares of Common Stock acquired from the Option if such disposition or transfer is made (1) within two years from the grant date with respect to such Option or (2) within one year after the transfer of such shares to the Participant (other than any such disposition made in connection with a Change in Control). Such notice shall specify the date of such disposition or other transfer and the amount realized, in cash, other property, assumption of indebtedness or other consideration, by the Participant in such disposition or other transfer.

(f) Payment Upon Exercise. Common Stock purchased upon the exercise of an Option granted under the Plan shall be paid for in cash or by check, payable to the order of the Company, or, to the extent permitted by the Administrator, by:

(1) (A) delivery of an irrevocable and unconditional undertaking by a broker acceptable to the Company to deliver promptly to the Company sufficient funds to pay the exercise price and any required tax withholding, or (B) delivery by the Participant to the Company of a copy of irrevocable and unconditional instructions to a broker acceptable to the Company to deliver promptly to the Company cash or a check sufficient to pay the exercise price and any required tax withholding;

(2) delivery (either by actual delivery or attestation) of shares of Common Stock owned by the Participant valued at their Fair Market Value, provided (A) such method of payment is then permitted under Applicable Laws, (B) such Common Stock, if acquired directly from the Company, was owned by the Participant for such minimum period of time, if any, as may be established by the Company at any time, and (C) such Common Stock is not subject to any repurchase, forfeiture, unfulfilled vesting or other similar requirements;

(3) surrendering shares of Common Stock then issuable upon exercise of the Option valued at their Fair Market Value on the date of exercise;

(4) delivery of a promissory note of the Participant to the Company on terms determined by the Administrator;

(5) delivery of property of any other kind which constitutes good and valuable consideration as determined by the Administrator; or

(6) any combination of the above permitted forms of payment (including cash or check).

(g) Early Exercise of Options. The Administrator may provide in the terms of an Award Agreement that the Service Provider may exercise an Option in whole or in part prior to the full vesting of the Option in exchange for unvested shares of Restricted Stock with respect to any unvested portion of the Option so exercised. Shares of Restricted Stock acquired upon the exercise of any unvested portion of an Option shall be subject to such terms and conditions as the Administrator shall determine.

6. Restricted Stock; Restricted Stock Units.

(a) General. The Administrator may grant Restricted Stock, or the right to purchase Restricted Stock, to any Service Provider, subject to the right of the Company to repurchase all or part of such shares at their issue price or other stated or formula price from the Participant (or to require forfeiture of such shares if issued at no cost) in the event that conditions specified by the Administrator in the applicable Award Agreement are not satisfied prior to the end of the applicable restriction period or periods established by the Administrator for such Award. In addition, the Administrator may grant to Service Providers Restricted Stock Units, which may be subject to vesting and forfeiture conditions during applicable restriction period or periods, as set forth in an applicable Award Agreement.

(b) Terms and Conditions for All Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Unit Awards. The Administrator shall determine and set forth in the applicable Award Agreement the terms and conditions applicable to each Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Unit Award, including the conditions for vesting and repurchase (or forfeiture) and the issue price, in each case, if any.

(c) Additional Provisions Relating to Restricted Stock.

(1) Dividends. Participants holding shares of Restricted Stock will be entitled to all ordinary cash dividends paid with respect to such shares to the extent such dividends have a record date that is on or after the date on which the Participant to whom such Restricted Stock is granted becomes the record holder of such Restricted Stock, unless otherwise provided by the Administrator in the applicable Award Agreement. In addition, unless otherwise provided by the Administrator, if any dividends or distributions are paid in shares, or consist of a dividend or distribution to holders of Common Stock of property other than an ordinary cash dividend, the shares or other property will be subject to the same restrictions on transferability and forfeitability as the shares of Restricted Stock with respect to which they were paid. Each dividend payment will be made as provided in the applicable Award Agreement, but in no event later than the end of the calendar year in which the dividends are paid to stockholders of that class of stock or, if later, the 15th day of the third month following the later of (A) the date the dividends are paid to stockholders of that class of stock, and (B) the date the dividends are no longer subject to forfeiture.

(2) Stock Certificates. The Company may require that any stock certificates issued in respect of shares of Restricted Stock be deposited in escrow by the Participant, together with a stock power endorsed in blank, with the Company (or its designee).

(d) Additional Provisions Relating to Restricted Stock Units.

(1) Settlement. Upon the vesting of a Restricted Stock Unit, the Participant shall be entitled to receive from the Company one share of Common Stock or an amount of cash or other property equal to the Fair Market Value of one share of Common Stock on the settlement date, as provided in the applicable Award Agreement. The Administrator may, in its discretion, provide that settlement of Restricted Stock Units shall occur upon or as soon as reasonably practicable after the vesting of the Restricted Stock Units or shall instead be deferred, on a mandatory basis or at the election of the Participant, in a manner that complies with Section 409A.

(2) Voting Rights. A Participant shall have no voting rights with respect to any Restricted Stock Units unless and until shares are delivered in settlement thereof.

(3) Dividend Equivalents. To the extent provided by the Administrator, a grant of Restricted Stock Units may provide a Participant with the right to receive Dividend Equivalents. Dividend Equivalents may be paid currently or credited to an account for the Participant, may be settled in cash and/or shares of Common Stock and may be subject to the same restrictions on transfer and forfeitability as the Restricted Stock Units with respect to which the Dividend Equivalents are paid, as determined by the Administrator, subject, in each case, to such terms and conditions as the Administrator shall establish and set forth in the applicable Award Agreement.

7. Other Stock-Based Awards.

Other Stock-Based Awards may be granted hereunder to Participants, including, without limitation, Awards entitling Participants to receive shares of Common Stock to be delivered in the future. Such Other Stock-Based Awards shall also be available as a form of payment in the settlement of other Awards granted under the Plan, as stand-alone payments and/or as payment in lieu of compensation to which a Participant is otherwise entitled. Other Stock-Based Awards may be paid in shares of Common Stock, cash or other property, as the Administrator shall determine. Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Administrator shall determine the terms and conditions of each Other Stock-Based Award, including any purchase price, transfer restrictions, vesting conditions and other terms and conditions applicable thereto, which shall be set forth in the applicable Award Agreement.

8. Adjustments for Changes in Common Stock and Certain Other Events.

(a) In the event that the Administrator determines that any dividend or other distribution (whether in the form of cash, Common Stock, other securities, or other property), stock split, spin-off, reorganization, merger, consolidation, combination, repurchase, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution, or sale, transfer, exchange or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company, or sale or exchange of Common Stock or other securities of the Company, issuance of warrants or other rights to purchase Common Stock or other securities of the Company, or other similar corporate transaction or event, as determined by the Administrator, affects the Common Stock such that an adjustment is determined by the Administrator to be appropriate in order to prevent dilution or enlargement of the benefits or potential benefits intended by the Company to be made available under the Plan or with respect to any Award, then the Administrator may, in such manner as it may deem equitable, adjust any or all of:

(1) the number and kind of shares of Common Stock (or other securities or property) with respect to which Awards may be granted or awarded (including, but not limited to, adjustments of the limitations in Section 4 hereof on the maximum number and kind of shares which may be issued);

(2) the number and kind of shares of Common Stock (or other securities or property) subject to outstanding Awards;

(3) the grant or exercise price with respect to any Award; and

(4) the terms and conditions of any Awards (including, without limitation, any applicable financial or other performance "targets" specified in an Award Agreement.

(b) In the event of any transaction or event described in Section 8(a) hereof (including without limitation any Change in Control) or any unusual or nonrecurring transaction or event affecting the Company or the financial statements of the Company, or any change in any Applicable Laws or accounting principles, the Administrator, on such terms and conditions as it deems appropriate, either by the terms of the Award or by action taken prior to the occurrence of such transaction or event and either automatically or upon the Participant's request, is hereby authorized to take any one or more of the following actions whenever the Administrator determines that such action is appropriate in order to (i) prevent dilution or enlargement of the benefits or potential benefits intended by the Company to be made available under the Plan or with respect to any Award granted or issued under the Plan, (ii) to facilitate such transaction or event or (iii) give effect to such changes in Applicable Laws or accounting principles:

(1) To provide for the cancellation of any such Award in exchange for either an amount of cash or other property with a value equal to the amount that could have been obtained upon the exercise or settlement of the vested portion of such Award or realization of the Participant's rights under the vested portion of such Award, as applicable; provided that, if the amount that could have been obtained upon the exercise or settlement of the vested portion of such Award or realization of the Participant's rights, in any case, is equal to or less than zero, then the vested portion of such Award may be terminated without payment;

(2) To provide that such Award shall vest and, to the extent applicable, be exercisable as to all shares covered thereby, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or the provisions of such Award;

(3) To provide that such Award be assumed by the successor or survivor corporation, or a parent or subsidiary thereof, or shall be substituted for by awards covering the stock of the successor or survivor corporation, or a parent or subsidiary thereof, with appropriate adjustments as to the number and kind of shares and applicable exercise or purchase price, in all cases, as determined by the Administrator;

(4) To make adjustments in the number and type of shares of Common Stock (or other securities or property) subject to outstanding Awards, and/or in the terms and conditions of (including the grant or exercise price), and the criteria included in, outstanding Awards; and/or

(5) To replace such Award with other rights or property of substantially equivalent value selected by the Administrator.

(c) In connection with the occurrence of any Equity Restructuring, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 8, the Administrator will equitably adjust each outstanding Award, which adjustments may include adjustments to the number and type of securities subject to each outstanding Award and/or the exercise price or grant price thereof, if applicable, the grant of new Awards to Participants, and/or the making of a cash payment to Participants, as the Administrator deems appropriate to reflect such Equity Restructuring. The adjustments provided under this Section 8(c) shall be nondiscretionary and shall be final and binding on the affected Participant and the Company; provided that whether an adjustment is equitable shall be determined by the Administrator.

(d) In the event of any pending stock dividend, stock split, combination or exchange of shares, merger, consolidation or other distribution (other than normal cash dividends) of Company assets to stockholders, or any other change affecting the shares of Common Stock or the share price of the Common Stock, including any Equity Restructuring, for reasons of administrative convenience the Administrator may refuse to permit the exercise of any Award during a period of up to fifteen days prior to the consummation of any such transaction.

9. General Provisions Applicable to Awards.

(a) Transferability of Awards. Except as the Administrator may otherwise determine or provide in an Award Agreement or otherwise, in any case, in accordance with Applicable Laws, Awards shall not be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged or otherwise encumbered by the person to whom they are granted, either voluntarily or by operation of law, except by will or the laws of descent and distribution, and, during the life of the Participant, shall be exercisable only by the Participant. References to a Participant, to the extent relevant in the context, shall include references to authorized transferees.

(b) Documentation. Each Award shall be evidenced in an Award Agreement, which may be in such form (written, electronic or otherwise) as the Administrator shall determine. Each Award may contain terms and conditions in addition to those set forth in the Plan. Unless otherwise determined by the Board, all shares of Common Stock issued under the Plan shall be subject to the Stockholders Agreement.

(c) Discretion. Except as otherwise provided by the Plan, each Award may be made alone or in addition or in relation to any other Award. The terms of each Award to a Participant need not be identical, and the Administrator need not treat Participants or Awards (or portions thereof) uniformly.

(d) Termination of Status. The Administrator shall determine the effect on an Award of the disability, death, retirement, authorized leave of absence or any other change or purported change in a Participant's Service Provider status and the extent to which, and the period during which, the Participant, the Participant's legal representative, conservator, guardian or Designated Beneficiary may exercise rights under the Award, if applicable.

(e) Withholding. Each Participant shall pay to the Company, or make provision satisfactory to the Administrator for payment of, any taxes required by law to be withheld in connection with Awards to such Participant no later than the date of the event creating the tax liability. Except as the Administrator may otherwise determine, all such payments shall be made in cash or by certified check. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent permitted by the Administrator, Participants may satisfy such tax obligations in whole or in part by delivery of shares of Common Stock, including shares retained from the Award creating the tax obligation, valued at their Fair Market Value. Except as otherwise provided with respect to a specific Award in the applicable Award Agreement, the Company may, to the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, deduct any such tax obligations from any payment of any kind otherwise due to a Participant.

(f) Amendment of Award. The Administrator may amend, modify or terminate any outstanding Award, including but not limited to, substituting therefor another Award of the same or a different type, changing the date of exercise or settlement, and converting an Incentive Stock Option to a Non-Qualified Stock Option. The Participant's consent to such action shall be required unless (i) the Administrator determines that the action, taking into account any related action, would not materially and adversely affect the Participant, or (ii) the change is permitted under Section 8 and 10(f) hereof.

(g) Conditions on Delivery of Stock. The Company will not be obligated to deliver any shares of Common Stock pursuant to the Plan or to remove restrictions from shares previously delivered under the Plan until (i) all conditions of the Award have been met or removed to the satisfaction of the Company, (ii) in the opinion of the Company's counsel, all other legal matters in connection with the issuance and delivery of such shares have been satisfied, including any applicable securities laws and any applicable stock exchange or stock market rules and regulations, (iii) the Participant has entered into or become a party to the Stockholders Agreement with the Company pursuant to a joinder or other agreement in the form provided to the Participant by the Company, and (iv) the Participant has executed and delivered to the Company such representations or agreements as the Administrator deems necessary or appropriate to satisfy the requirements of any Applicable Laws. The inability of the Company to obtain authority from any regulatory body having jurisdiction, which authority is determined by the Administrator to be necessary to the lawful issuance and sale of any securities hereunder, shall relieve the Company of any liability in respect of the failure to issue or sell such shares as to which such requisite authority shall not have been obtained.

(h) Acceleration. The Administrator may at any time provide that any Award shall become immediately vested and/or exercisable in full or in part, free of some or all restrictions or conditions, or otherwise realizable in full or in part, as the case may be.

10. Miscellaneous.

(a) No Right To Employment or Other Status. No person shall have any claim or right to be granted an Award, and the grant of an Award shall not be construed as giving a Participant the right to continued employment or any other relationship with the Company. The Company expressly reserves the right at any time to dismiss or otherwise terminate its relationship with a Participant free from any liability or claim under the Plan or any Award, except as expressly provided in an applicable Award Agreement.

(b) No Rights As Stockholder; Certificates. Subject to the provisions of the applicable Award Agreement, no Participant or Designated Beneficiary shall have any rights as a stockholder with respect to any shares of Common Stock to be distributed with respect to an Award until becoming the record holder of such shares. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, unless otherwise determined by the Administrator or required by any Applicable Laws, the Company shall not be required to deliver to any Participant certificates evidencing shares of Common Stock issued in connection with any Award and instead such shares of Common Stock may be recorded in the books of the Company (or, as applicable, its transfer agent or stock plan administrator). The Company may place legends on stock certificates issued under the Plan deemed necessary or appropriate by the Administrator in order to comply with Applicable Laws.

(c) Effective Date and Term of Plan. The Plan shall become effective on the date on which it is adopted by the Board. No Awards shall be granted under the Plan after the completion of ten years from the earlier of (i) the date on which the Plan was adopted by the Board or (ii) the date the Plan was approved by the Company's stockholders, but Awards previously granted may extend beyond that date in accordance with the terms of the Plan.

(d) Amendment of Plan. The Administrator may amend, suspend or terminate the Plan or any portion thereof at any time;provided that no amendment of the Plan shall materially and adversely affect any Award outstanding at the time of such amendment without the consent of the affected Participant; and provided, further, that no such amendment of the Plan shall materially and adversely affect any Participant's rights under the Stockholders Agreement. Awards outstanding under the Plan at the time of any suspension or termination of the Plan shall continue to be governed in accordance with the terms of the Plan and the applicable Award Agreement, as in effect prior to such suspension or termination. The Board shall obtain stockholder approval of any Plan amendment to the extent necessary to comply with Applicable Laws.

(e) Provisions for Foreign Participants. The Administrator may modify Awards granted to Participants who are foreign nationals or employed outside the United States or establish subplans or procedures under the Plan to address differences in laws, rules, regulations or customs of such foreign jurisdictions with respect to tax, securities, currency, employee benefit or other matters.

(f) Section 409A.

(1) General. The Company shall undertake to administer, interpret and construe this Plan and any Award Agreement in a manner that does not result in the imposition on a Participant of any additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, and to comply with Section 409A to the extent applicable. Notwithstanding anything herein or in any Award Agreement to the contrary, if the Company determines in good faith that any provision of an Award Agreement would cause a Participant to incur an additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, the Company and such Participant shall use reasonable efforts to reform such provision, if possible, in a mutually agreeable fashion to maintain to the maximum extent practicable the original intent of the applicable provision without violating the provisions of Section 409A or causing the imposition of such additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company makes no representations or warranties as to the tax treatment of any Award under Section 409A or otherwise and the Company shall have no obligation under this Section 10(f) or otherwise to take any action (whether or not described herein) to avoid the imposition of taxes, penalties or interest under Section 409A with respect to any Award and shall have no liability to any Participant or any other person if any Award, compensation or other benefits under the Plan are determined to constitute non-compliant, "nonqualified deferred compensation" subject to the imposition of taxes, penalties and/or interest under Section 409A.

(2) Separation from Service. With respect to any Award that constitutes "nonqualified deferred compensation" under Section 409A, any payment or settlement of such Award that is to be made upon a termination of a Participant's Service Provider relationship shall, to the extent necessary to avoid the imposition of taxes under Section 409A, be made only upon the Participant's "separation from service" (within the meaning of Section 409A), whether such "separation from service" occurs upon or subsequent to the termination of the Participant's Service Provider relationship. For purposes of any such provision of this Plan or any Award Agreement relating to any such payments or benefits, references to a "termination," "termination of employment" or like terms shall mean "separation from service."

(3) Payments to Specified Employees. Notwithstanding any contrary provision in the Plan or any Award Agreement, any payment(s) of "nonqualified deferred compensation" that are otherwise required to be made under an Award to a "specified employee" (as defined under Section 409A and determined by the Administrator) as a result of his or her "separation from service" shall, to the extent necessary to avoid the imposition of taxes under Code Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i), be delayed until the expiration of the six-month period immediately following such "separation from service" (or, if earlier, until the date of death of the specified employee) and shall instead be paid (in a manner set forth in the Award agreement) on the day that immediately follows the end of such six-month period or as soon as administratively practicable thereafter (without interest). Any payments of "nonqualified deferred compensation" under such Award that are, by their terms, payable more than six months following the Participant's "separation from service" shall be paid at the time or times such payments are otherwise scheduled to be made.

(g) Limitations on Liability. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Plan, no individual acting as a director, officer, other employee or agent of the Company will be liable to any Participant, former Participant, spouse, beneficiary, or any other person for any claim, loss, liability, or expense incurred in connection with the Plan or any Award, nor will such individual be personally liable with respect to the Plan because of any contract or other instrument he or she executes in his or her capacity as an Administrator, director, officer, other employee or agent of the Company. The Company will indemnify and hold harmless each director, officer, other employee and agent of the Company to whom any duty or power relating to the administration or interpretation of the Plan has been or will be granted or delegated, against any cost or expense (including attorneys' fees) or liability (including any sum paid in settlement of a claim with the Administrator's approval) arising out of any act or omission to act concerning this Plan unless arising out of such person's own fraud or bad faith.

(h) Lock-Up Period. The Company may, at the request of any representative of the underwriters or otherwise, in connection with any registration of the offering of any securities of the Company under the Securities Act, prohibit Participants from, directly or indirectly, selling or otherwise transferring any shares of Common Stock or other securities of the Company during a period of up to one hundred eighty days following the effective date of a registration statement of the Company filed under the Securities Act.

(i) Data Privacy. As a condition of receipt of any Award, each Participant explicitly and unambiguously consents to the collection, use and transfer, in electronic or other form, of personal data as described in this paragraph by and among, as applicable, the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates for the exclusive purpose of implementing, administering and managing the Participant's participation in the Plan. The Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates may hold certain personal information about a Participant, including but not limited to, the Participant's name, home address and telephone number, date of birth, social security or insurance number or other identification number, salary, nationality, job title(s), any shares of stock held in the Company or any of its subsidiaries and affiliates, details of all Awards, in each case, for the purpose of implementing, managing and administering the Plan and Awards (the "Data"). The Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates may transfer the Data amongst themselves as necessary for the purpose of implementation, administration and management of a Participant's participation in the Plan, and the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates may each further transfer the Data to any third parties assisting the Company in the implementation, administration and management of the Plan. These recipients may be located in the Participant's country, or elsewhere, and the Participant's country may have different data privacy laws and protections than the recipients' country. Through acceptance of an Award, each Participant authorizes such recipients to receive, possess, use, retain and transfer the Data, in electronic or other form, for the purposes of implementing, administering and managing the Participant's participation in the Plan, including any requisite transfer of such Data as may be required to a broker or other third party with whom the Company or the Participant may elect to deposit any shares of Common Stock. The Data related to a Participant will be held only as long as is necessary to implement, administer, and manage the Participant's participation in the Plan. A Participant may, at any time, view the Data held by the Company with respect to such Participant, request additional information about the storage and processing of the Data with respect to such Participant, recommend any necessary corrections to the Data with respect to the Participant or refuse or withdraw the consents herein in writing, in any case without cost, by contacting his or her local human resources representative. The Company may cancel Participant's ability to participate in the Plan and, in the Administrator's discretion, the Participant may forfeit any outstanding Awards if the Participant refuses or withdraws his or her consents as described herein. For more information on the consequences of refusal to consent or withdrawal of consent, Participants may contact their local human resources representative.

(j) Severability. In the event any portion of the Plan or any action taken pursuant thereto shall be held illegal or invalid for any reason, the illegality or invalidity shall not affect the remaining parts of the Plan, and the Plan shall be construed and enforced as if the illegal or invalid provisions had not been included, and the illegal or invalid action shall be null and void.

(k) Governing Documents. In the event of any contradiction between the Plan and any Award Agreement or any other written agreement between a Participant and the Company or any subsidiary of the Company that has been approved by the Administrator, the terms of the Plan shall govern, unless it is expressly specified in such Award Agreement or other written document that a specific provision of the Plan shall not apply. In the event of any contradiction between the Plan or any Award Agreement and Stockholders Agreement, the terms of the Stockholders Agreement shall govern, unless it is expressly specified in the Plan or such Award Agreement that a specific provision of the Stockholders Agreement shall not apply.

(l) Submission to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial. By accepting an Award, each Participant irrevocably and unconditionally consents to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Delaware and of the United States of America, in each case located in the State of Delaware, for any action arising out of or relating to the Plan (and agrees not to commence any litigation relating thereto except in such courts), and further agrees that service of any process, summons, notice or document by U.S. registered mail to the address contained in the records of the Company shall be effective service of process for any litigation brought against it in any such court. By accepting an Award, each Participant irrevocably and unconditionally waives any objection to the laying of venue of any litigation arising out of Plan or Award hereunder in the courts of the State of Delaware or the United States of America, in each case located in the State of Delaware, and further irrevocably and unconditionally waives and agrees not to plead or claim in any such court that any such litigation brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Except as otherwise provided with respect to a specific Award in the applicable Award Agreement, by accepting an Award, each Participant irrevocably and unconditionally waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any and all rights to trial by jury in connection with any litigation arising out of or relating to the Plan or any Award hereunder.

(m) Governing Law. The provisions of the Plan and all Awards made hereunder shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, disregarding choice-of-law principles of the law of any state that would require the application of the laws of a jurisdiction other than such state.

Further, shares of Common Stock delivered (either by actual delivery or attestation) to the Company by a Participant to satisfy the applicable exercise or purchase price of an Award and/or to satisfy any applicable tax withholding obligation (including shares retained by the Company from the Award being exercised or purchased and/or creating the tax obligation) shall be added to the number of shares of Common Stock available for the grant of Awards under the Plan. However, in the case of Incentive Stock Options, the foregoing provisions shall be subject to any limitations under the Code. Section 3.7 Exercise of Option. The exercise of the Option shall be governed by the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Plan, including, without limitation, the provisions of Section 5 of the Plan.

ARTICLE IV.
RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

Section 4.1 Introduction. The parties acknowledge and agree that (a) the provisions and covenants contained in this Article IV (i) have been negotiated and are entered into in good faith as an ancillary agreement in connection with the grant of the Option contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) are material to this Agreement, (iii) are provided for, among other things, the protection of the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships, goodwill and reputation (which is an honest and just purpose), (iv) are reasonable in geographic and temporal scope and (v) do not impose a greater restriction or restraint than is necessary to protect the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships and contacts, goodwill, reputation and other legitimate business interests, (b) the Optionee (i) is employed or otherwise engaged as an independent contractor or other service provider by the Company, (ii) has been and/or will be provided with confidential and commercially-sensitive information regarding the Company and its business during his or her employment and/or service with the Company, and (iii) provides special, unique and extraordinary services to the Company, (c) the provisions of this Article IV do not adversely affect the Optionee's ability to earn a living in any capacity, stifle the Optionee's ability to use his or her inherent skills and experience, or otherwise impose undue hardship or oppression on the Optionee, and (d) the entitlement to the benefits provided to the Optionee under this Agreement, whether or not such benefits have vested and/or become exercisable, constitute sufficient consideration for all of the Optionee's covenants contained in this Article IV.

Section 4.2 Confidential Information. Except as permitted by the Board, during the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and at all times thereafter, the Optionee shall not divulge, furnish or make accessible to anyone or use in any way other than in the ordinary course of the business of the Company, any confidential, proprietary or secret knowledge or information of the Company or any of its affiliates, whether developed by the Optionee or others, including but not limited to (a) trade secrets, (b) confidential and proprietary plans, developments, research, processes, designs, methods or material (whether or not patented or patentable), (c) customer and supplier lists, (d) strategic or other business, marketing or sales plans, (e) financial data and plans and (f) Proprietary Information. The Optionee acknowledges that the above-described knowledge and information constitute unique and valuable assets of the Company and represent a substantial investment of time and expense by the Company, and that any disclosure or other use of such knowledge or information other than for the sole benefit of the Company would be wrongful and would cause irreparable harm to the Company. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company, the Optionee shall refrain from any acts or omissions that would reduce the value of such knowledge or information to the Company. The foregoing obligations of confidentiality shall not apply to any knowledge or information that (i) is now or subsequently becomes generally publicly known for reasons other than the Optionee's violation of this Agreement, (ii) is independently made available to the Optionee in good faith by a third party who has not violated a confidential relationship with the Company, or (iii) is required to be disclosed by legal process, other than as a direct or indirect result of the breach of this Agreement by the Optionee.

Section 4.3 Ventures. If, during the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company, the Optionee is engaged in or associated with the planning or implementing of any project, program or venture involving the Company, all rights in such project, program or venture shall belong to the Company, as applicable. Except as approved in writing by the Board, the Optionee shall not be entitled to any interest in any such project, program or venture or to any commission, finder's fee or other compensation in connection therewith. The Optionee shall have no interest, direct or indirect, in any customer or supplier that conducts business with the Company, provided that a passive investment of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any customer or supplier listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this sentence.

Section 4.4 Agreement Not to Compete. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Optionee, the Optionee shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise) in any Company Business (as defined below) in the Territory (as defined below). For purposes of this Article IV, (a) "Company" means LTF Holdings, Inc. and any parent, affiliated, related and/or direct or indirect subsidiary entity thereof, (b) "Company Business" means (i) the design, development, operation, management, advertisement, promotion, solicitation, marketing or sale of health and fitness clubs or health and fitness club memberships, (ii) any services, products or programs offered by health and fitness clubs, including but not limited to personal training, nutritional supplements; health testing or health assessments; wellness services or programs (whether direct to consumer or business to business); weight loss services or programs; kids activities; salons, spas, and medical spas; restaurants or cafes; athletic events and related services (including race timing and registration), and (iii) any other product or service that grows into a material business for the Company (or is under development and is projected to grow into a material business for the Company) as of the Optionee's Termination of Services Date, and (c) "Territory" means the United States, Canada and any other country in which the Company is then doing Company Business as of the Optionee's Termination of Services Date. Ownership by the Optionee, as a passive investment, of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any corporation listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this Section 4.4.

Section 4.5 Agreement Not to Solicit or Hire Employees. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Optionee, the Optionee shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, hire, engage or solicit for the purpose of employing or otherwise engaging any person who is then an employee of the Company or who was an employee of the Company as of the Optionee's Termination of Services Date or at any time in the six-month period prior to such hiring, engagement or solicitation.

Section 4.6 Agreement Not to Solicit Business Relations. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Optionee, the Optionee shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, solicit, request, advise or induce any current or potential customer, member, supplier or other business contact of the Company to cancel, curtail or otherwise change its relationship with the Company.

Section 4.7 Blue Pencil Doctrine. If the duration of, the scope of or any business activity covered by any provision of this Article IV is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be in excess of what is valid and enforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be construed to cover only that duration, scope or activity that is valid and enforceable, and all other provisions of this Article IV shall remain in full force and effect. The Optionee hereby acknowledges that this Article IV shall be given the construction that renders its provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent, not exceeding its express terms, possible under applicable law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, this Section 4.7 shall in no event apply to the extent its application would render this Article IV (or any portion thereof) unenforceable under applicable law.

Section 4.8 Return of Records and Property. On or within thirty (30) days of the Termination of Services Date or at any other time as required by the Company, the Optionee shall promptly deliver to the Company any and all Company records and any and all Company property in the Optionee's possession or under the Optionee's control, and all copies thereof, including without limitation manuals, books, blank forms, documents, letters, memoranda, notes, notebooks, reports, printouts, computer disks, computer tapes, source codes, data, tables or calculations, keys, access cards, access codes, passwords, credit cards, personal computers, telephones and other electronic equipment belonging to the Company, and shall also permanently delete all Company email, all Company customer, member, supplier or other business contacts' information, and all other Company information from the Optionee's computer, mobile phone and other electronic devices.

Section 4.9 Protectable Material; Trade Secrets.

(a) All right, title and interest in all discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that the Optionee shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others during the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company (i) that are directly related to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or that results from any work performed by the Optionee for the Company, (ii) for which any equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and/or (iii) which was not developed entirely on the Optionee's own time, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark ("Protectable Material"), shall be the property of the Company and are hereby assigned by the Optionee to the Company (and the Optionee agrees to assign all Protectable Material to the Company in the future), along with ownership of any and all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights in the Protectable Material. Upon request and without further compensation therefor, but at no expense to the Optionee, the Optionee shall execute any and all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the Company to obtain and register patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights on the Protectable Materials in any and all countries. Where applicable, works of authorship created by the Optionee for the Company in performing the Optionee's duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be considered "works made for hire," as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act.

(b) All trade secret information conceived or originated by the Optionee that arises during the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and out of the performance of the Optionee's duties and responsibilities to the Company or any related material or information shall be the property of the Company, and all rights therein are hereby assigned by the Optionee to the Company.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Optionee understands that this Agreement does not require assignment of any invention to the extent such invention qualifies for protection under Section 181.78 of the 2015 Minnesota Statutes, as may be amended from time to time, and the current text of which is attached hereto as Annex 1 to Exhibit B. The Optionee hereby acknowledges that the Company has provided him or her with the notification set forth on Exhibit B (and the annex attached thereto) on the date hereof and the Optionee shall sign such notification as soon as reasonably practicable after the date hereof.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Optionee understands that pursuant to the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, the Optionee shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (A) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

Section 4.10 Non-Disparagement. The Optionee will not malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of the Company, or the reputation or character of the Company's directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents, either orally or in writing, at any time; provided that nothing in this Section 4.10 shall be construed to limit or restrict the Optionee from providing truthful information to the extent required by applicable law in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter.

Section 4.11 Enforcement. The Optionee acknowledges that the provisions of Article IV are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, and that any violation of those provisions by the Optionee would cause real, immediate, substantial and irreparable harm to the Company to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefor. Therefore, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of Article IV, the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies it may have, be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief to enforce such provisions and to restrain the Optionee from violating or continuing to violate such provisions, and such relief may be granted without the necessity of proving actual monetary damages or posting bond. The Optionee agrees that the Restricted Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which he or she is in violation of the terms of Section 4.4, 4.5 or 4.6, in order that the Company and its affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. No breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company, or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of the Optionee's employment and/or service relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish the Optionee's obligation to comply with Article IV. The Company (including, without limitation, its affiliates) are third party beneficiaries under this Agreement and shall have the right to enforce all of the Optionee's obligations to the Company under this Agreement, including without limitation pursuant to Article IV, and the Company shall be entitled to assign its rights under this Article IV without the Optionee's consent and any such assignees shall have the right to enforce all of the Optionee's obligations to comply with this Article IV. The Optionee covenants and agrees that he or she has received adequate consideration for his or her obligations contained in Article IV, and will not take the position that the covenants contained in Article IV are void for lack of consideration. The Optionee will be responsible for any and all attorneys' fees and costs the Company incurs in enforcing the Optionee's obligations contained in Article IV.

ARTICLE V.
OTHER PROVISIONS

Section 5.1 Not a Contract of Employment or Services. Nothing in this Agreement or in the Plan shall confer upon the Optionee any right to continue in the employ or engagement of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the rights of the Company and its Subsidiaries and affiliates, which are hereby expressly reserved, to discharge the Optionee at any time for any reason whatsoever, with or without Cause, except as may otherwise be provided by any written agreement entered into by and between the Company and the Optionee.

Section 5.2 Shares Subject to Plan and Stockholders Agreement; Entire Agreement. The Optionee acknowledges that any shares acquired upon exercise of the Option are subject to the terms of the Plan and the Stockholders Agreement. The terms of this Agreement are intended by the parties to be the final expression of their agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof and may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior or contemporaneous agreement. The parties further intend that this Agreement (together with the Plan and the Stockholders Agreement) shall constitute the complete and exclusive statement of its terms and that no extrinsic evidence whatsoever may be introduced in any judicial, administrative, or other legal proceeding to vary the terms of this Agreement.

Section 5.3 Construction. This Agreement shall be administered, interpreted and enforced under the internal laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to the principles of conflicts of law thereof, or principles of conflicts of law of any other jurisdiction which could cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

Section 5.4 Jurisdiction and Venue. The Optionee and the Company consent to jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Delaware and/or the United States District Court, District of Delaware, for the purpose of resolving all issues of law, equity, or fact, arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. Any action involving claims of a breach of this Agreement shall be brought in such courts. By execution and delivery of this Agreement, each party irrevocably consents to service of process out of any of the aforementioned courts in any such action or proceeding by the making of copies thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, or by recognized express carrier or delivery service, to the applicable party at his, her or its address referred to herein. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably waives any objection which he, she or it may not or hereafter have to the laying of venue for the purposes of all such suits arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or any related agreement, certificate or instrument referred to above, and hereby further irrevocably waives and agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each of the parties consents to personal jurisdiction over such party in the aforementioned courts and hereby waives any defense of lack of personal jurisdiction. Venue, for the purpose of all such suits, shall be exclusively in Wilmington, Delaware.

Section 5.5 Conformity to Securities Laws. The Optionee acknowledges that the Plan is intended to conform to the extent necessary with all provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and any and all regulations and rules promulgated thereunder by the Securities and Exchange Commission, including without limitation Rule 16b-3. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Plan shall be administered, and the Option is granted and may be exercised, only in such a manner as to conform to such laws, rules and regulations. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Plan and this Agreement shall be deemed amended to the extent necessary to conform to such laws, rules and regulations.

Section 5.6 Amendment. The Option may be wholly or partially amended at any time or from time to time by the Administrator in its discretion; provided that if such amendment materially impairs the rights of the Optionee hereunder, no such amendment shall be effective until consented to in writing by the Optionee.

Section 5.7 Stockholder Approval.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.7(b), in the event that the Company determines that any right to receive the Option or payment or other benefit under this Agreement (including, without limitation, the acceleration of the vesting and/or exercisability of the Option and taking into account the effect of this Section) or any other agreement by and between the Optionee and the Company, to or for the benefit of the Optionee (the "Payments"), would, in whole or part when aggregated with any other right, payment or benefit to or for the Optionee under all other agreements or benefit plans of the Company, be nondeductible by the Company (or other person making such payment or providing such benefit) as a result of Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject the Optionee to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax") then, to the extent necessary to make the Payments deductible and to exempt the Payments from the Excise Tax (but only to such extent and after taking into account any reduction in the Payments relating to Section 280G of the Code under any other plan, arrangement or agreement), the Option or any other right, payment or benefit under this Agreement shall not become exercisable, vested or paid.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the provisions of Section 5.7(a) shall not apply to reduce the Payments if the Payments that would otherwise be nondeductible under Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject the Optionee to the Excise Tax are disclosed to and approved by the Company's stockholders in accordance with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code and the Department of Treasury regulations thereunder.

(c) The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and deliver to its stockholders the disclosure required by Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code with respect to the Payments and to seek the approval of the Company's stockholders in accordance with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code and the Department of Treasury regulations thereunder.

Section 5.8 Section 409A. The Company shall undertake to administer, interpret and construe this Agreement in a manner that does not result in the imposition on the Optionee of any additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, and to comply with Section 409A to the extent applicable. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines in good faith that any provision of this Agreement would cause the Optionee to incur an additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, the Company and Optionee shall cooperate in good faith to (a) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, as the Company and Optionee determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement and to avoid less favorable accounting or tax consequences for the Company and/or (b) take such other actions as the Company and Optionee determine to be necessary or appropriate to exempt the amounts payable hereunder from Section 409A or to comply with the requirements of Section 409A and thereby avoid the application of penalty taxes thereunder. No provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted or construed to transfer any liability for failure to comply with the requirements of Section 409A from the Optionee or any other individual to the Company or any of its affiliates, employees or agents.

Section 5.9 Tax Consultation. The Optionee acknowledges and agrees that his or her entry into this Agreement and participation in the Plan is voluntary and there may be tax consequences as a result of his or her receipt of the Option and/or the purchase or disposition of the Shares underlying the Option. The Optionee represents that he or she (a) has consulted with any tax consultants he or she deems advisable in connection with this Agreement, the receipt of the Option, and the purchase or disposition of the Shares underlying the Option, and (b) is not relying on the Company for any tax advice. The Optionee is relying solely on such advisors and not on any statements or representations of the Company or any of its agents. The Optionee understands that he or she (and not the Company) shall be solely responsible for the Optionee's tax liability that may arise as a result of this investment or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(iv) With the consent of the Administrator, any other method of payment permitted under the terms of the Plan; or

(v) Subject to any applicable laws, any combination of the consideration allowed under the foregoing paragraphs.

Except as approved in writing by the Board, the Optionee shall not be entitled to any interest in any such project, program or venture or to any commission, finder's fee or other compensation in connection therewith. The Optionee shall have no interest, direct or indirect, in any customer or supplier that conducts business with the Company, provided that a passive investment of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any customer or supplier listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this sentence.

Section 4.4 Agreement Not to Compete. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Optionee, the Optionee shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise) in any Company Business (as defined below) in the Territory (as defined below). The Optionee hereby acknowledges that this Article IV shall be given the construction that renders its provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent, not exceeding its express terms, possible under applicable law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, this Section 4.7 shall in no event apply to the extent its application would render this Article IV (or any portion thereof) unenforceable under applicable law.

Section 4.8 Return of Records and Property. On or within thirty (30) days of the Termination of Service Date or at any other time as required by the Company, the Optionee shall promptly deliver to the Company any and all Company records and any and all Company property in the Optionee's possession or under the Optionee's control, and all copies thereof, including without limitation manuals, books, blank forms, documents, letters, memoranda, notes, notebooks, reports, printouts, computer disks, computer tapes, source codes, data, tables or calculations, keys, access cards, access codes, passwords, credit cards, personal computers, telephones and other electronic equipment belonging to the Company, and shall also permanently delete all Company email, all Company customer, member, supplier or other business contacts' information, and all other Company information from the Optionee's computer, mobile phone and other electronic devices.

Section 4.9 Protectable Material; Trade Secrets.

(a) All right, title and interest in all discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that the Optionee shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others during the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company (i) that are directly related to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or that results from any work performed by the Optionee for the Company, (ii) for which any equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and/or (iii) which was not developed entirely on the Optionee's own time, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark ("Protectable Material"), shall be the property of the Company and are hereby assigned by the Optionee to the Company (and the Optionee agrees to assign all Protectable Material to the Company in the future), along with ownership of any and all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights in the Protectable Material. Upon request and without further compensation therefor, but at no expense to the Optionee, the Optionee shall execute any and all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the Company to obtain and register patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights on the Protectable Materials in any and all countries. Where applicable, works of authorship created by the Optionee for the Company in performing the Optionee's duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be considered "works made for hire," as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act.

(b) All trade secret information conceived or originated by the Optionee that arises during the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and out of the performance of the Optionee's duties and responsibilities to the Company or any related material or information shall be the property of the Company, and all rights therein are hereby assigned by the Optionee to the Company.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Optionee understands that this Agreement does not require assignment of any invention to the extent such invention qualifies for protection under Section 181.78 of the 2015 Minnesota Statutes, as may be amended from time to time, and the current text of which is attached hereto as Annex 1 to Exhibit B. The Optionee hereby acknowledges that the Company has provided him or her with the notification set forth on Exhibit B (and the annex attached thereto) on the date hereof and the Optionee shall sign such notification as soon as reasonably practicable after the date hereof.

Section 4.10 Non-Disparagement. The Optionee will not malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of the Company, or the reputation or character of the Company's directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents, either orally or in writing, at any time; provided that nothing in this Section 4.10 shall be construed to limit or restrict the Optionee from providing truthful information to the extent required by applicable law in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter.

Section 4.11 Enforcement. The Optionee acknowledges that the provisions of Article IV are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, and that any violation of those provisions by the Optionee would cause real, immediate, substantial and irreparable harm to the Company to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefor. Therefore, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of Article IV, the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies it may have, be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief to enforce such provisions and to restrain the Optionee from violating or continuing to violate such provisions, and such relief may be granted without the necessity of proving actual monetary damages or posting bond. The Optionee agrees that the Restricted Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which he or she is in violation of the terms of Section 4.4, 4.5 or 4.6, in order that the Company and its affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. No breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company, or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of the Optionee's employment and/or service relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish the Optionee's obligation to comply with Article IV. The Company (including, without limitation, its affiliates) shall have the right to enforce all of the Optionee's obligations to the Company under this Agreement, including without limitation pursuant to Article IV, and the Company shall be entitled to assign its rights under this Article IV without the Optionee's consent. The Optionee covenants and agrees that he or she has received adequate consideration for his or her obligations contained in Article IV, and will not take the position that the covenants contained in Article IV are void for lack of consideration. The Optionee will be responsible for any and all attorneys' fees and costs the Company incurs in enforcing the Optionee's obligations contained in Article IV.

ARTICLE V.
OTHER PROVISIONS

Section 5.1 Not a Contract of Employment or Services. Nothing in this Agreement or in the Plan shall confer upon the Optionee any right to continue in the employ or engagement of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the rights of the Company and its Subsidiaries and affiliates, which are hereby expressly reserved, to discharge the Optionee at any time for any reason whatsoever, with or without Cause, except as may otherwise be provided by any written agreement entered into by and between the Company and the Optionee.

Section 5.2 Shares Subject to Plan and Stockholders Agreement; Entire Agreement. The Optionee acknowledges that any shares acquired upon exercise of the Option are subject to the terms of the Plan and the Stockholders Agreement. The terms of this Agreement are intended by the parties to be the final expression of their agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof and may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior or contemporaneous agreement. The parties further intend that this Agreement (together with the Plan and the Stockholders Agreement) shall constitute the complete and exclusive statement of its terms and that no extrinsic evidence whatsoever may be introduced in any judicial, administrative, or other legal proceeding to vary the terms of this Agreement.

Section 5.3 Construction. This Agreement shall be administered, interpreted and enforced under the internal laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to the principles of conflicts of law thereof, or principles of conflicts of law of any other jurisdiction which could cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

Section 5.4 Jurisdiction and Venue. The Optionee and the Company consent to jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Delaware and/or the United States District Court, District of Delaware, for the purpose of resolving all issues of law, equity, or fact, arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. Any action involving claims of a breach of this Agreement shall be brought in such courts. By execution and delivery of this Agreement, each party irrevocably consents to service of process out of any of the aforementioned courts in any such action or proceeding by the making of copies thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, or by recognized express carrier or delivery service, to the applicable party at his, her or its address referred to herein. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably waives any objection which he, she or it may not or hereafter have to the laying of venue for the purposes of all such suits arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or any related agreement, certificate or instrument referred to above, and hereby further irrevocably waives and agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each of the parties consents to personal jurisdiction over such party in the aforementioned courts and hereby waives any defense of lack of personal jurisdiction. Venue, for the purpose of all such suits, shall be exclusively in Wilmington, Delaware.

Section 5.5 Conformity to Securities Laws. The Optionee acknowledges that the Plan is intended to conform to the extent necessary with all provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and any and all regulations and rules promulgated thereunder by the Securities and Exchange Commission, including without limitation Rule 16b-3. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Plan shall be administered, and the Option is granted and may be exercised, only in such a manner as to conform to such laws, rules and regulations. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Plan and this Agreement shall be deemed amended to the extent necessary to conform to such laws, rules and regulations.

Section 5.6 Amendment. The Option may be wholly or partially amended at any time or from time to time by the Administrator in its discretion; provided that if such amendment materially impairs the rights of the Optionee hereunder, no such amendment shall be effective until consented to in writing by the Optionee.

Section 5.7 Stockholder Approval.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.7(b), in the event that the Company determines that any right to receive the Option or payment or other benefit under this Agreement (including, without limitation, the acceleration of the vesting and/or exercisability of the Option and taking into account the effect of this Section) or any other agreement by and between the Optionee and the Company, to or for the benefit of the Optionee (the "Payments"), would, in whole or part when aggregated with any other right, payment or benefit to or for the Optionee under all other agreements or benefit plans of the Company, be nondeductible by the Company (or other person making such payment or providing such benefit) as a result of Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject the Optionee to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax") then, to the extent necessary to make the Payments deductible and to exempt the Payments from the Excise Tax (but only to such extent and after taking into account any reduction in the Payments relating to Section 280G of the Code under any other plan, arrangement or agreement), the Option or any other right, payment or benefit under this Agreement shall not become exercisable, vested or paid.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the provisions of Section 5.7(a) shall not apply to reduce the Payments if the Payments that would otherwise be nondeductible under Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject the Optionee to the Excise Tax are disclosed to and approved by the Company's stockholders in accordance with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code and the Department of Treasury regulations thereunder.

(c) The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and deliver to its stockholders the disclosure required by Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code with respect to the Payments and to seek the approval of the Company's stockholders in accordance with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code and the Department of Treasury regulations thereunder.

Section 5.8 Section 409A. The Company shall undertake to administer, interpret and construe this Agreement in a manner that does not result in the imposition on the Optionee of any additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, and to comply with Section 409A to the extent applicable. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines in good faith that any provision of this Agreement would cause the Optionee to incur an additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, the Company and Optionee shall cooperate in good faith to (a) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, as the Company and Optionee determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement and to avoid less favorable accounting or tax consequences for the Company and/or (b) take such other actions as the Company and Optionee determine to be necessary or appropriate to exempt the amounts payable hereunder from Section 409A or to comply with the requirements of Section 409A and thereby avoid the application of penalty taxes thereunder. No provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted or construed to transfer any liability for failure to comply with the requirements of Section 409A from the Optionee or any other individual to the Company or any of its affiliates, employees or agents.

Section 5.9 Tax Consultation. The Optionee acknowledges and agrees that his or her entry into this Agreement and participation in the Plan is voluntary and there may be tax consequences as a result of his or her receipt of the Option and/or the purchase or disposition of the Shares underlying the Option. The Optionee represents that he or she (a) has consulted with any tax consultants he or she deems advisable in connection with this Agreement, the receipt of the Option, and the purchase or disposition of the Shares underlying the Option, and (b) is not relying on the Company for any tax advice. The Optionee is relying solely on such advisors and not on any statements or representations of the Company or any of its agents. The Optionee understands that he or she (and not the Company) shall be solely responsible for the Optionee's tax liability that may arise as a result of this investment or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(c) with respect to the Termination Measurement Date, the Cash Proceeds and the fair market value ofNon-Cash Proceeds received on or prior to such Termination Measurement Date; provided, however, that (i) if the Principal Stockholders retain any portion of an Investment following the Termination Measurement Date, the fair market value of such portion of the Investment as of the Termination Measurement Date shall be deemed Non-Cash Proceeds for purposes of calculating the Proceeds and (ii) the fair market value of anyNon-Cash Proceeds shall be determined by the Board in good faith as of the Termination Measurement Date.

Section 1.26 "Proprietary Information" shall mean (a) the name, address and/or contact information of any customer, supplier or affiliate of the Company or any information concerning the transactions or relations of any customer, supplier or affiliate of the Company or any of its shareholders; (b) any information concerning any product, service, technology or procedure offered or used by the Company or any of its affiliates, or under development by or being considered for use by the Company or any of its affiliates; (c) any information relating to marketing or pricing plans or methods, capital structure, or any business or strategic plans of the Company or any of its affiliates; (d) any inventions, innovations, trade secrets or other items covered by Sections 4.2 and 4.9; and (e) any other information which the Company or any of its affiliates has determined and communicated to the Optionee in writing to be proprietary information for purposes hereof; provided, however, that "Proprietary Information" shall not include any information that is or becomes generally known to the public other than through actions of the Optionee in violation of the restrictive covenants set forth in Article IV.

Section 1.27 "Restricted Period" shall mean the 18-month period following the Termination of Services Date; provided that, if the Termination of Services occurs while the Optionee is engaged as a Consultant (and the Optionee never constituted an Employee), then there shall be no Restricted Period for purposes of Section 4.4 following such Termination of Services. For the avoidance of doubt, the Restricted Period, without regard to the proviso directly above, will apply for purposes of Sections 4.5 and 4.6 following Termination of Services as a Consultant or otherwise.

Section 1.28 "Shares" shall have the meaning set forth in the Recitals.

Section 1.29 "Termination Measurement Date" shall mean the date of the Optionee's Termination of Services due to death or Disability prior to the first Change of Control following the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, no such date shall occur on or after the first Change of Control following the Effective Date.

Section 1.30 "Termination of Services Date" shall mean the effective date of the Optionee's Termination of Services for any or no reason, including voluntary and involuntary termination of employment, consultancy or other service relationship (as determined by the Administrator).

Section 1.31 "Vested Option" shall mean, as of any date, the portion of the Option that has become vested on or prior to such date pursuant to Section 3.1(a) or (b) and has not been forfeited pursuant to Section 3.1(c) or otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, the Vested Option as of the date of a Change of Control, shall be determined after taking into account any vesting pursuant to Section 3.1(b).

ARTICLE II.
GRANT OF OPTION

Section 2.1 Grant of Option. In consideration of the Optionee's agreement to enter into or remain in the employ of, consultancy to or other service relationship with the Company or one of its Subsidiaries and for other good and valuable consideration, as of the Grant Date, the Company irrevocably grants to the Optionee the Option to purchase any part or all of an aggregate of [_____] Shares, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan and this Agreement.

Section 2.2 Option Subject to Plan. The Option granted hereunder is subject to the terms and provisions of the Plan, including without limitation, Section 5, 8, 9(a) and 10(d) thereof.

Section 2.3 Option Price. The purchase price of the Shares subject to the Option shall be $[_____] per share (without commission or other charge), which is not less than 100% of the Fair Market Value of a Share as of the Grant Date.

ARTICLE III.
VESTING AND EXERCISABILITY

Section 3.1 Vesting.

(a) Subject to Sections 3.1(b) and (c), the Option shall vest in five equal and cumulative installments on each of the first five anniversaries of the first calendar day of the month in which the Grant Date occurs; provided that the Optionee remains continuously employed or engaged in active service by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (and no Termination of Services occurs) from the Grant Date through the applicable vesting date.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 3.1(a) (but subject to Section 3.1(c)), upon the consummation of a Change of Control or an Initial Public Offering, the Option shall become fully vested immediately prior to the effective date of such Change of Control or upon the effectiveness of such Initial Public Offering, as applicable; provided that the Optionee remains continuously employed or engaged in active service by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (and no Termination of Services occurs) from the Grant Date through the consummation of such Change of Control or the effectiveness of such Initial Public Offering, as applicable.

(c) Unless otherwise determined by the Administrator, (i) upon Termination of Services for any reason, any portion of the Option that has not become vested on or prior to the Termination of Services Date shall be forfeited on such date and shall not thereafter become vested or exercisable, and (ii) upon a Termination of Services by the Optionee without Good Reason or by the Company for Cause, any portion of the Option that has become vested on or prior to the Termination of Services Date shall be forfeited on such date and shall not thereafter become exercisable. For the avoidance of doubt, no vested portion of the Option will be exercisable until the commencement of exercisability under Section 3.2.

Section 3.2 Commencement of Exercisability.

(a) Subject to Sections 3.2(b), 3.2(d) and 3.3, the Vested Option, as of each Measurement Date, shall become exercisable on such Measurement Date (and, with respect to a Measurement Date that is a Change of Control, immediately prior to such Change of Control) with respect to a number of Shares equal to the excess of (1) the MOIC Exercisable Amount (as defined below) for such Measurement Date (or, with respect to a Measurement Date that is a Change of Control, the IRR Exercisable Amount (as defined below) for such Measurement Date, if greater), over (2) the number of Shares with respect to the Option that had become exercisable prior to such Measurement Date:

(i) MOIC Exercisable Amount. For purposes of this Agreement, the "MOIC Exercisable Amount" shall, with respect to a Measurement Date, equal:

(A) No Shares subject to the Vested Option (as of such Measurement Date) if, as of such Measurement Date, the Principal Stockholder MOIC is less than 2.0;

(B) One-third of the shares subject to the Vested Option (as of such Measurement Date) if, as of such Measurement Date, the Principal Stockholder MOIC equals or exceeds 2.0, but is less than 2.5;

(C) Two-third of the shares subject to the Vested Option (as of such Measurement Date) if, as of such Measurement Date, the Principal Stockholder MOIC equals or exceeds 2.5, but is less than 3.0; or

(D) All of the shares subject to the Vested Option (as of such Measurement Date) if, as of such Measurement Date, the Principal Stockholder MOIC equals or exceeds 3.0.

(ii) IRR Exercisable Amount. For purposes of this Agreement, the "IRR Exercisable Amount" shall, with respect to a Measurement Date that is a Change of Control, equal:

(A) No Shares subject to the Vested Option (as of such Measurement Date) if, as of such Measurement Date, the Principal Stockholder IRR is less than 20%;

(B) One-half of the shares subject to the Vested Option (as of such Measurement Date) if, as of such Measurement Date the Principal Stockholder IRR equals or exceeds 20%, but is less than 25%; or

(C) All of the shares subject to the Vested Option (as of such Measurement Date) if, as of such Measurement Date, the Principal Stockholder IRR equals or exceeds 25%.

(iii) For the avoidance of doubt, the IRR Exercisable Amount shall not apply with respect to any Measurement Date that does not occur on the date of a Change of Control (i.e., no portion of the Option will be eligible to become exercisable based on Principal Stockholder IRR on an Initial Public Offering or any Measurement Date thereafter or the Termination Measurement Date).

(b) Unless otherwise determined by the Administrator, no portion of the Option which is unexercisable after the earlier of (i) the Measurement Date following which the Principal Stockholders no longer hold any Investment or (ii) the date of the first Change of Control following the Effective Date shall thereafter become exercisable (and such unexercisable portion shall be canceled automatically for no consideration on the earliest of such dates).

(c) The Board shall make the determination as to whether the targets for any Principal Stockholder MOIC and Principal Stockholder IRR for any Measurement Date have been met and shall determine the extent, if any, to which the Option has become exercisable on such Measurement Date.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, and without limiting (and subject to compliance with) Sections 1.23 and 1.24, if, upon a Measurement Date, the exercisability of the Option (or portion thereof) on such Measurement Date and the participation of the Shares underlying such Option (or portion thereof) (and any such other options (or portions thereof)) in any transaction on such Measurement Date would result in the failure to satisfy any of the thresholds in Section 3.2(a)(i) or 3.2(a)(ii), as applicable (each, an "Investment Hurdle"), then the Option shall become exercisable as to the maximum percentage of Shares subject thereto that will result in, as of the Measurement Date, the achievement of the applicable Investment Hurdle taking into account the Shares subject to the Option (or portion thereof) (and any other options (or portions thereof) with respect to Shares) that so become exercisable and, if applicable, the participation of the Shares underlying such Option (or portion thereof) (and any such other options (or portions thereof)) in such transaction.

Section 3.3 Expiration of Option. The Option may not be exercised to any extent by anyone after the first to occur of the following events:

(a) The tenth anniversary of the Grant Date; or

(b) The Termination of Services Date upon Termination of Services by the Company for Cause or by the Optionee without Good Reason, immediately prior to such Termination of Services (and subject to such Termination of Services); or

(c) The date the Optionee first violates any of the restrictive covenants set forth in Article IV or any other written agreement by and between the Optionee and the Company or any of its affiliates.

Section 3.4 Partial Exercise. Any exercisable portion of the Vested Option or the entire Vested Option, if then wholly exercisable, may be exercised in whole or in part at any time prior to the time when the Vested Option or portion thereof becomes unexercisable; provided, however, that each partial exercise shall be for not less than 100 Shares and shall be for whole Shares only.

Section 3.5 Persons Eligible to Exercise. During the lifetime of the Optionee, only the Optionee may exercise the Option or any portion thereof. After the death of the Optionee, any exercisable portion of the Option may, prior to the time when the Option becomes unexercisable under Section 3.2, be exercised by the Optionee's personal representative or by any person empowered to do so under the deceased the Optionee's will or under the then applicable laws of descent and distribution.

Section 3.6 Manner of Exercise. The Option, or any exercisable portion thereof, may be exercised solely by delivery to the Secretary of the Company or the Secretary's office, or such other place as may be determined by the Administrator, of all of the following prior to the time when the Option or such portion thereof becomes unexercisable under Section 3.3:

(a) An exercise notice substantially in the form attached as Exhibit A hereto (or such other form as is prescribed by the Administrator) (the "Exercise Notice") in writing signed by the Optionee or any other person then entitled to exercise the Option or portion thereof, stating that the Option or portion thereof is thereby exercised, such notice complying with all applicable rules established by the Administrator; and

(b) Subject to Section 5(f) of the Plan:

(i) Full payment (in cash or by check) for the Shares with respect to which the Option or portion thereof is exercised; or

(ii) With the consent of the Administrator, by delivery of Shares then issuable upon exercise of the Option having a Fair Market Value on the date of delivery equal to the aggregate exercise price of the Option or exercised portion thereof; or

(iii) With the consent of the Administrator, through the (A) delivery by the Optionee to the Company of an irrevocable and unconditional undertaking by a broker acceptable to the Company to deliver promptly to the Company sufficient funds to pay the exercise price or (B) delivery by the Optionee to the Company or a copy of irrevocable and unconditional instructions to a broker acceptable to the Company to deliver promptly to the Company cash or a check sufficient to pay the exercise price; provided that payment is then made to the Company at such time as may be required by the Administrator; or

(iv) With the consent of the Administrator, any other method of payment permitted under the terms of the Plan; or

(v) Subject to any applicable laws, any combination of the consideration allowed under the foregoing paragraphs.

(c) The receipt by the Company of full payment for any applicable withholding tax in cash or by check or in the form of consideration to be agreed upon by the Optionee and the Administrator;

(d) A joinder or other agreement in the form provided by the Company signed by the Optionee or any other person then entitled to exercise the Option or portion thereof, stating that the Shares received upon exercise of the Option or portion thereof are subject to the terms of the Stockholder Agreement; and

(e) In the event the Option or portion thereof shall be exercised pursuant to Section 3.5 by any person or persons other than the Optionee, appropriate proof of the right of such person or persons to exercise the Option.

Section 3.7 Exercise of Option. The exercise of the Option shall be governed by the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Plan, including, without limitation, the provisions of Section 5 of the Plan.

ARTICLE IV.
RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

Section 4.1 Introduction. The parties acknowledge and agree that (a) the provisions and covenants contained in this Article IV (i) have been negotiated and are entered into in good faith as an ancillary agreement in connection with the grant of the Option contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) are material to this Agreement, (iii) are provided for, among other things, the protection of the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships, goodwill and reputation (which is an honest and just purpose), (iv) are reasonable in geographic and temporal scope and (v) do not impose a greater restriction or restraint than is necessary to protect the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships and contacts, goodwill, reputation and other legitimate business interests, (b) the Optionee (i) is employed or otherwise engaged as an independent contractor or other service provider by the Company, (ii) has been and/or will be provided with confidential and commercially-sensitive information regarding the Company and its business during his or her employment and/or service with the Company, and (iii) provides special, unique and extraordinary services to the Company, (c) the provisions of this Article IV do not adversely affect the Optionee's ability to earn a living in any capacity, stifle the Optionee's ability to use his or her inherent skills and experience, or otherwise impose undue hardship or oppression on the Optionee, and (d) the entitlement to the benefits provided to the Optionee under this Agreement, whether or not such benefits have vested and/or become exercisable, constitute sufficient consideration for all of the Optionee's covenants contained in this Article IV.

Section 4.2 Confidential Information. Except as permitted by the Board, during the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and at all times thereafter, the Optionee shall not divulge, furnish or make accessible to anyone or use in any way other than in the ordinary course of the business of the Company, any confidential, proprietary or secret knowledge or information of the Company or any of its affiliates, whether developed by the Optionee or others, including but not limited to (a) trade secrets, (b) confidential and proprietary plans, developments, research, processes, designs, methods or material (whether or not patented or patentable), (c) customer and supplier lists, (d) strategic or other business, marketing or sales plans, (e) financial data and plans and (f) Proprietary Information. The Optionee acknowledges that the above-described knowledge and information constitute unique and valuable assets of the Company and represent a substantial investment of time and expense by the Company, and that any disclosure or other use of such knowledge or information other than for the sole benefit of the Company would be wrongful and would cause irreparable harm to the Company. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company, the Optionee shall refrain from any acts or omissions that would reduce the value of such knowledge or information to the Company. The foregoing obligations of confidentiality shall not apply to any knowledge or information that (i) is now or subsequently becomes generally publicly known for reasons other than the Optionee's violation of this Agreement, (ii) is independently made available to the Optionee in good faith by a third party who has not violated a confidential relationship with the Company, or (iii) is required to be disclosed by legal process, other than as a direct or indirect result of the breach of this Agreement by the Optionee.

Section 4.3 Ventures. If, during the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company, the Optionee is engaged in or associated with the planning or implementing of any project, program or venture involving the Company, all rights in such project, program or venture shall belong to the Company, as applicable. Except as approved in writing by the Board, the Optionee shall not be entitled to any interest in any such project, program or venture or to any commission, finder's fee or other compensation in connection therewith. The Optionee shall have no interest, direct or indirect, in any customer or supplier that conducts business with the Company, provided that a passive investment of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any customer or supplier listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this sentence.

Section 4.4 Agreement Not to Compete. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Optionee, the Optionee shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise) in any Company Business (as defined below) in the Territory (as defined below). For purposes of this Article IV, (a) "Company" means LTF Holdings, Inc. and any parent, affiliated, related and/or direct or indirect subsidiary entity thereof, (b) "Company Business" means (i) the design, development, operation, management, advertisement, promotion, solicitation, marketing or sale of health and fitness clubs or health and fitness club memberships, (ii) any services, products or programs offered by health and fitness clubs, including but not limited to personal training, nutritional supplements; health testing or health assessments; wellness services or programs (whether direct to consumer or business to business); weight loss services or programs; kids activities; salons, spas, and medical spas; restaurants or cafes; athletic events and related services (including race timing and registration), and (iii) any other product or service that grows into a material business for the Company (or is under development and is projected to grow into a material business for the Company) as of the Optionee's Termination of Services Date, and (c) "Territory" means the United States, Canada and any other country in which the Company is then doing Company Business as of the Optionee's Termination of Services Date. Ownership by the Optionee, as a passive investment, of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any corporation listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this Section 4.4.

Section 4.5 Agreement Not to Solicit or Hire Employees. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Optionee, the Optionee shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, hire, engage or solicit for the purpose of employing or otherwise engaging any person who is then an employee of the Company or who was an employee of the Company as of the Optionee's Termination of Services Date or at any time in the six-month period prior to such hiring, engagement or solicitation.

Section 4.6 Agreement Not to Solicit Business Relations. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Optionee, the Optionee shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, solicit, request, advise or induce any current or potential customer, member, supplier or other business contact of the Company to cancel, curtail or otherwise change its relationship with the Company.

Section 4.7 Blue Pencil Doctrine. If the duration of, the scope of or any business activity covered by any provision of this Article IV is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be in excess of what is valid and enforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be construed to cover only that duration, scope or activity that is valid and enforceable, and all other provisions of this Article IV shall remain in full force and effect. The Optionee hereby acknowledges that this Article IV shall be given the construction that renders its provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent, not exceeding its express terms, possible under applicable law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, this Section 4.7 shall in no event apply to the extent its application would render this Article IV (or any portion thereof) unenforceable under applicable law.

Section 4.8 Return of Records and Property. On or within thirty (30) days of the Termination of Services Date or at any other time as required by the Company, the Optionee shall promptly deliver to the Company any and all Company records and any and all Company property in the Optionee's possession or under the Optionee's control, and all copies thereof, including without limitation manuals, books, blank forms, documents, letters, memoranda, notes, notebooks, reports, printouts, computer disks, computer tapes, source codes, data, tables or calculations, keys, access cards, access codes, passwords, credit cards, personal computers, telephones and other electronic equipment belonging to the Company, and shall also permanently delete all Company email, all Company customer, member, supplier or other business contacts' information, and all other Company information from the Optionee's computer, mobile phone and other electronic devices.

Section 4.9 Protectable Material; Trade Secrets.

(a) All right, title and interest in all discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that the Optionee shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others during the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company (i) that are directly related to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or that results from any work performed by the Optionee for the Company, (ii) for which any equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and/or (iii) which was not developed entirely on the Optionee's own time, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark ("Protectable Material"), shall be the property of the Company and are hereby assigned by the Optionee to the Company (and the Optionee agrees to assign all Protectable Material to the Company in the future), along with ownership of any and all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights in the Protectable Material. Upon request and without further compensation therefor, but at no expense to the Optionee, the Optionee shall execute any and all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the Company to obtain and register patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights on the Protectable Materials in any and all countries. Where applicable, works of authorship created by the Optionee for the Company in performing the Optionee's duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be considered "works made for hire," as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act.

(b) All trade secret information conceived or originated by the Optionee that arises during the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and out of the performance of the Optionee's duties and responsibilities to the Company or any related material or information shall be the property of the Company, and all rights therein are hereby assigned by the Optionee to the Company.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Optionee understands that this Agreement does not require assignment of any invention to the extent such invention qualifies for protection under Section 181.78 of the 2015 Minnesota Statutes, as may be amended from time to time, and the current text of which is attached hereto as Annex 1 to Exhibit B. The Optionee hereby acknowledges that the Company has provided him or her with the notification set forth on Exhibit B (and the annex attached thereto) on the date hereof and the Optionee shall sign such notification as soon as reasonably practicable after the date hereof.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Optionee understands that pursuant to the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, the Optionee shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (A) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

Section 4.10 Non-Disparagement. The Optionee will not malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of the Company, or the reputation or character of the Company's directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents, either orally or in writing, at any time; provided that nothing in this Section 4.10 shall be construed to limit or restrict the Optionee from providing truthful information to the extent required by applicable law in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter.

Section 4.11 Enforcement. The Optionee acknowledges that the provisions of Article IV are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, and that any violation of those provisions by the Optionee would cause real, immediate, substantial and irreparable harm to the Company to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefor. Therefore, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of Article IV, the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies it may have, be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief to enforce such provisions and to restrain the Optionee from violating or continuing to violate such provisions, and such relief may be granted without the necessity of proving actual monetary damages or posting bond. The Optionee agrees that the Restricted Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which he or she is in violation of the terms of Section 4.4, 4.5 or 4.6, in order that the Company and its affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. No breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company, or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of the Optionee's employment and/or service relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish the Optionee's obligation to comply with Article IV. The Company (including, without limitation, its affiliates) shall have the right to enforce all of the Optionee's obligations to the Company under this Agreement, including without limitation pursuant to Article IV, and the Company shall be entitled to assign its rights under this Article IV without the Optionee's consent. The Optionee covenants and agrees that he or she has received adequate consideration for his or her obligations contained in Article IV, and will not take the position that the covenants contained in Article IV are void for lack of consideration. The Optionee will be responsible for any and all attorneys' fees and costs the Company incurs in enforcing the Optionee's obligations contained in Article IV.

ARTICLE V.
OTHER PROVISIONS

Section 5.1 Not a Contract of Employment or Services. Nothing in this Agreement or in the Plan shall confer upon the Optionee any right to continue in the employ or engagement of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the rights of the Company and its Subsidiaries and affiliates, which are hereby expressly reserved, to discharge the Optionee at any time for any reason whatsoever, with or without Cause, except as may otherwise be provided by any written agreement entered into by and between the Company and the Optionee.

Section 5.2 Shares Subject to Plan and Stockholders Agreement; Entire Agreement. The Optionee acknowledges that any shares acquired upon exercise of the Option are subject to the terms of the Plan and the Stockholders Agreement. The terms of this Agreement are intended by the parties to be the final expression of their agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof and may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior or contemporaneous agreement. The parties further intend that this Agreement (together with the Plan and the Stockholders Agreement) shall constitute the complete and exclusive statement of its terms and that no extrinsic evidence whatsoever may be introduced in any judicial, administrative, or other legal proceeding to vary the terms of this Agreement.

Section 5.3 Construction. This Agreement shall be administered, interpreted and enforced under the internal laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to the principles of conflicts of law thereof, or principles of conflicts of law of any other jurisdiction which could cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

Section 5.4 Jurisdiction and Venue. The Optionee and the Company consent to jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Delaware and/or the United States District Court, District of Delaware, for the purpose of resolving all issues of law, equity, or fact, arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. Any action involving claims of a breach of this Agreement shall be brought in such courts. By execution and delivery of this Agreement, each party irrevocably consents to service of process out of any of the aforementioned courts in any such action or proceeding by the making of copies thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, or by recognized express carrier or delivery service, to the applicable party at his, her or its address referred to herein. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably waives any objection which he, she or it may not or hereafter have to the laying of venue for the purposes of all such suits arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or any related agreement, certificate or instrument referred to above, and hereby further irrevocably waives and agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each of the parties consents to personal jurisdiction over such party in the aforementioned courts and hereby waives any defense of lack of personal jurisdiction. Venue, for the purpose of all such suits, shall be exclusively in Wilmington, Delaware.

Section 5.5 Conformity to Securities Laws. The Optionee acknowledges that the Plan is intended to conform to the extent necessary with all provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and any and all regulations and rules promulgated thereunder by the Securities and Exchange Commission, including without limitation Rule 16b-3. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Plan shall be administered, and the Option is granted and may be exercised, only in such a manner as to conform to such laws, rules and regulations. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Plan and this Agreement shall be deemed amended to the extent necessary to conform to such laws, rules and regulations.

Section 5.6 Amendment. The Option may be wholly or partially amended at any time or from time to time by the Administrator in its discretion; provided that if such amendment materially impairs the rights of the Optionee hereunder, no such amendment shall be effective until consented to in writing by the Optionee.

Section 5.7 Stockholder Approval.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.7(b), in the event that the Company determines that any right to receive the Option or payment or other benefit under this Agreement (including, without limitation, the acceleration of the vesting and/or exercisability of the Option and taking into account the effect of this Section) or any other agreement by and between the Optionee and the Company, to or for the benefit of the Optionee (the "Payments"), would, in whole or part when aggregated with any other right, payment or benefit to or for the Optionee under all other agreements or benefit plans of the Company, be nondeductible by the Company (or other person making such payment or providing such benefit) as a result of Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject the Optionee to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax") then, to the extent necessary to make the Payments deductible and to exempt the Payments from the Excise Tax (but only to such extent and after taking into account any reduction in the Payments relating to Section 280G of the Code under any other plan, arrangement or agreement), the Option or any other right, payment or benefit under this Agreement shall not become exercisable, vested or paid.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the provisions of Section 5.7(a) shall not apply to reduce the Payments if the Payments that would otherwise be nondeductible under Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject the Optionee to the Excise Tax are disclosed to and approved by the Company's stockholders in accordance with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code and the Department of Treasury regulations thereunder.

(c) The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and deliver to its stockholders the disclosure required by Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code with respect to the Payments and to seek the approval of the Company's stockholders in accordance with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code and the Department of Treasury regulations thereunder.

Section 5.8 Section 409A. The Company shall undertake to administer, interpret and construe this Agreement in a manner that does not result in the imposition on the Optionee of any additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, and to comply with Section 409A to the extent applicable. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines in good faith that any provision of this Agreement would cause the Optionee to incur an additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, the Company and Optionee shall cooperate in good faith to (a) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, as the Company and Optionee determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement and to avoid less favorable

No provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted or construed to transfer any liability for failure to comply with the requirements of Section 409A from the Optionee or any other individual to the Company or any of its affiliates, employees or agents.

Section 5.9 Tax Consultation. The Optionee acknowledges and agrees that his or her entry into this Agreement and participation in the Plan is voluntary and there may be tax consequences as a result of his or her receipt of the Option and/or the purchase or disposition of the Shares underlying the Option. ARTICLE IV.
RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

Section 4.1 Introduction. The parties acknowledge and agree that (a) the provisions and covenants contained in this Article IV (i) have been negotiated and are entered into in good faith as an ancillary agreement in connection with the grant of the Option contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) are material to this Agreement, (iii) are provided for, among other things, the protection of the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships, goodwill and reputation (which is an honest and just purpose), (iv) are reasonable in geographic and temporal scope and (v) do not impose a greater restriction or restraint than is necessary to protect the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships and contacts, goodwill, reputation and other legitimate business interests, (b) the Optionee (i) is employed or otherwise engaged as an independent contractor or other service provider by the Company, (ii) has been and/or will be provided with confidential and commercially-sensitive information regarding the Company and its business during his or her employment and/or service with the Company, and (iii) provides special, unique and extraordinary services to the Company, (c) the provisions of this Article IV do not adversely affect the Optionee's ability to earn a living in any capacity, stifle the Optionee's ability to use his or her inherent skills and experience, or otherwise impose undue hardship or oppression on the Optionee, and (d) the entitlement to the benefits provided to the Optionee under this Agreement, whether or not such benefits have vested and/or become exercisable, constitute sufficient consideration for all of the Optionee's covenants contained in this Article IV.

Section 4.2 Confidential Information. Except as permitted by the Board, during the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and at all times thereafter, the Optionee shall not divulge, furnish or make accessible to anyone or use in any way other than in the ordinary course of the business of the Company, any confidential, proprietary or secret knowledge or information of the Company or any of its affiliates, whether developed by the Optionee or others, including but not limited to (a) trade secrets, (b) confidential and proprietary plans, developments, research, processes, designs, methods or material (whether or not patented or patentable), (c) customer and supplier lists, (d) strategic or other business, marketing or sales plans, (e) financial data and plans and (f) Proprietary Information. The Optionee acknowledges that the above-described knowledge and information constitute unique and valuable assets of the Company and represent a substantial investment of time and expense by the Company, and that any disclosure or other use of such knowledge or information other than for the sole benefit of the Company would be wrongful and would cause irreparable harm to the Company. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company, the Optionee shall refrain from any acts or omissions that would reduce the value of such knowledge or information to the Company. The foregoing obligations of confidentiality shall not apply to any knowledge or information that (i) is now or subsequently becomes generally publicly known for reasons other than the Optionee's violation of this Agreement, (ii) is independently made available to the Optionee in good faith by a third party who has not violated a confidential relationship with the Company, or (iii) is required to be disclosed by legal process, other than as a direct or indirect result of the breach of this Agreement by the Optionee.

Section 4.3 Ventures. If, during the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company, the Optionee is engaged in or associated with the planning or implementing of any project, program or venture involving the Company, all rights in such project, program or venture shall belong to the Company, as applicable. Except as approved in writing by the Board, the Optionee shall not be entitled to any interest in any such project, program or venture or to any commission, finder's fee or other compensation in connection therewith. The Optionee shall have no interest, direct or indirect, in any customer or supplier that conducts business with the Company, provided that a passive investment of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any customer or supplier listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this sentence.

Section 4.4 Agreement Not to Compete. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Optionee, the Optionee shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise) in any Company Business (as defined below) in the Territory (as defined below). For purposes of this Article IV, (a) "Company" means LTF Holdings, Inc. and any parent, affiliated, related and/or direct or indirect subsidiary entity thereof, (b) "Company Business" means (i) the design, development, operation, management, advertisement, promotion, solicitation, marketing or sale of health and fitness clubs or health and fitness club memberships, (ii) any services, products or programs offered by health and fitness clubs, including but not limited to personal training, nutritional supplements; health testing or health assessments; wellness services or programs (whether direct to consumer or business to business); weight loss services or programs; kids activities; salons, spas, and medical spas; restaurants or cafes; athletic events and related services (including race timing and registration), and (iii) any other product or service that grows into a material business for the Company (or is under development and is projected to grow into a material business for the Company) as of the Optionee's Termination of Services Date, and (c) "Territory" means the United States, Canada and any other country in which the Company is then doing Company Business as of the Optionee's Termination of Services Date. Ownership by the Optionee, as a passive investment, of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any corporation listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this Section 4.4.

Section 4.5 Agreement Not to Solicit or Hire Employees. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Optionee, the Optionee shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, hire, engage or solicit for the purpose of employing or otherwise engaging any person who is then an employee of the Company or who was an employee of the Company as of the Optionee's Termination of Services Date or at any time in the six-month period prior to such hiring, engagement or solicitation.

Section 4.6 Agreement Not to Solicit Business Relations. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Optionee, the Optionee shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, solicit, request, advise or induce any current or potential customer, member, supplier or other business contact of the Company to cancel, curtail or otherwise change its relationship with the Company.

Section 4.7 Blue Pencil Doctrine. If the duration of, the scope of or any business activity covered by any provision of this Article IV is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be in excess of what is valid and enforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be construed to cover only that duration, scope or activity that is valid and enforceable, and all other provisions of this Article IV shall remain in full force and effect. The Optionee hereby acknowledges that this Article IV shall be given the construction that renders its provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent, not exceeding its express terms, possible under applicable law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, this Section 4.7 shall in no event apply to the extent its application would render this Article IV (or any portion thereof) unenforceable under applicable law.

Section 4.8 Return of Records and Property. On or within thirty (30) days of the Termination of Services Date or at any other time as required by the Company, the Optionee shall promptly deliver to the Company any and all Company records and any and all Company property in the Optionee's possession or under the Optionee's control, and all copies thereof, including without limitation manuals, books, blank forms, documents, letters, memoranda, notes, notebooks, reports, printouts, computer disks, computer tapes, source codes, data, tables or calculations, keys, access cards, access codes, passwords, credit cards, personal computers, telephones and other electronic equipment belonging to the Company, and shall also permanently delete all Company email, all Company customer, member, supplier or other business contacts' information, and all other Company information from the Optionee's computer, mobile phone and other electronic devices.

Section 4.9 Protectable Material; Trade Secrets.

(a) All right, title and interest in all discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that the Optionee shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others during the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company (i) that are directly related to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or that results from any work performed by the Optionee for the Company, (ii) for which any equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and/or (iii) which was not developed entirely on the Optionee's own time, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark ("Protectable Material"), shall be the property of the Company and are hereby assigned by the Optionee to the Company (and the Optionee agrees to assign all Protectable Material to the Company in the future), along with ownership of any and all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights in the Protectable Material. Upon request and without further compensation therefor, but at no expense to the Optionee, the Optionee shall execute any and all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the Company to obtain and register patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights on the Protectable Materials in any and all countries. Where applicable, works of authorship created by the Optionee for the Company in performing the Optionee's duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be considered "works made for hire," as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act.

(b) All trade secret information conceived or originated by the Optionee that arises during the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and out of the performance of the Optionee's duties and responsibilities to the Company or any related material or information shall be the property of the Company, and all rights therein are hereby assigned by the Optionee to the Company.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Optionee understands that pursuant to the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, the Optionee shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (A) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

Section 4.10 Non-Disparagement. The Optionee will not malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of the Company, or the reputation or character of the Company's directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents, either orally or in writing, at any time; provided that nothing in this Section 4.10 shall be construed to limit or restrict the Optionee from providing truthful information to the extent required by applicable law in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter.

Section 4.11 Enforcement. The Optionee acknowledges that the provisions of Article IV are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, and that any violation of those provisions by the Optionee would cause real, immediate, substantial and irreparable harm to the Company to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefor. Therefore, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of Article IV, the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies it may have, be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief to enforce such provisions and to restrain the Optionee from violating or continuing to violate such provisions, and such relief may be granted without the necessity of proving actual monetary damages or posting bond. The Optionee agrees that the Restricted Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which he or she is in violation of the terms of Section 4.4, 4.5 or 4.6, in order that the Company and its affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. No breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company, or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of the Optionee's employment and/or service relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish the Optionee's obligation to comply with Article IV. The Company (including, without limitation, its affiliates) are third party beneficiaries under this Agreement and shall have the right to enforce all of the Optionee's obligations to the Company under this Agreement, including without limitation pursuant to Article IV, and the Company shall be entitled to assign its rights under this Article IV without the Optionee's consent and any such assignees shall have the right to enforce all of the Optionee's obligations to comply with this Article IV. The Optionee covenants and agrees that he or she has received adequate consideration for his or her obligations contained in Article IV, and will not take the position that the covenants contained in Article IV are void for lack of consideration. The Optionee will be responsible for any and all attorneys' fees and costs the Company incurs in enforcing the Optionee's obligations contained in Article IV.

ARTICLE V.
OTHER PROVISIONS

Section 5.1 Not a Contract of Employment or Services. Nothing in this Agreement or in the Plan shall confer upon the Optionee any right to continue in the employ or engagement of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the rights of the Company and its Subsidiaries and affiliates, which are hereby expressly reserved, to discharge the Optionee at any time for any reason whatsoever, with or without Cause, except as may otherwise be provided by any written agreement entered into by and between the Company and the Optionee.

Section 5.2 Shares Subject to Plan and Stockholders Agreement; Entire Agreement. The Optionee acknowledges that any shares acquired upon exercise of the Option are subject to the terms of the Plan and the Stockholders Agreement. The terms of this Agreement are intended by the parties to be the final expression of their agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof and may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior or contemporaneous agreement. The parties further intend that this Agreement (together with the Plan and the Stockholders Agreement) shall constitute the complete and exclusive statement of its terms and that no extrinsic evidence whatsoever may be introduced in any judicial, administrative, or other legal proceeding to vary the terms of this Agreement.

Section 5.3 Construction. This Agreement shall be administered, interpreted and enforced under the internal laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to the principles of conflicts of law thereof, or principles of conflicts of law of any other jurisdiction which could cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

Section 5.4 Jurisdiction and Venue. The Optionee and the Company consent to jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Delaware and/or the United States District Court, District of Delaware, for the purpose of resolving all issues of law, equity, or fact, arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. Any action involving claims of a breach of this Agreement shall be brought in such courts. By execution and delivery of this Agreement, each party irrevocably consents to service of process out of any of the aforementioned courts in any such action or proceeding by the making of copies thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, or by recognized express carrier or delivery service, to the applicable party at his, her or its address referred to herein. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably waives any objection which he, she or it may not or hereafter have to the laying of venue for the purposes of all such suits arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or any related agreement, certificate or instrument referred to above, and hereby further irrevocably waives and agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each of the parties consents to personal jurisdiction over such party in the aforementioned courts and hereby waives any defense of lack of personal jurisdiction. Venue, for the purpose of all such suits, shall be exclusively in Wilmington, Delaware.

Section 5.5 Conformity to Securities Laws. The Optionee acknowledges that the Plan is intended to conform to the extent necessary with all provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and any and all regulations and rules promulgated thereunder by the Securities and Exchange Commission, including without limitation Rule 16b-3. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Plan shall be administered, and the Option is granted and may be exercised, only in such a manner as to conform to such laws, rules and regulations. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Plan and this Agreement shall be deemed amended to the extent necessary to conform to such laws, rules and regulations.

Section 5.6 Amendment. The Option may be wholly or partially amended at any time or from time to time by the Administrator in its discretion; provided that if such amendment materially impairs the rights of the Optionee hereunder, no such amendment shall be effective until consented to in writing by the Optionee.

Section 5.7 Stockholder Approval.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.7(b), in the event that the Company determines that any right to receive the Option or payment or other benefit under this Agreement (including, without limitation, the acceleration of the vesting and/or exercisability of the Option and taking into account the effect of this Section) or any other agreement by and between the Optionee and the Company, to or for the benefit of the Optionee (the "Payments"), would, in whole or part when aggregated with any other right, payment or benefit to or for the Optionee under all other agreements or benefit plans of the Company, be nondeductible by the Company (or other person making such payment or providing such benefit) as a result of Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject the Optionee to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax") then, to the extent necessary to make the Payments deductible and to exempt the Payments from the Excise Tax (but only to such extent and after taking into account any reduction in the Payments relating to Section 280G of the Code under any other plan, arrangement or agreement), the Option or any other right, payment or benefit under this Agreement shall not become exercisable, vested or paid.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the provisions of Section 5.7(a) shall not apply to reduce the Payments if the Payments that would otherwise be nondeductible under Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject the Optionee to the Excise Tax are disclosed to and approved by the Company's stockholders in accordance with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code and the Department of Treasury regulations thereunder.

(c) The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and deliver to its stockholders the disclosure required by Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code with respect to the Payments and to seek the approval of the Company's stockholders in accordance with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code and the Department of Treasury regulations thereunder.

Section 5.8 Section 409A. The Company shall undertake to administer, interpret and construe this Agreement in a manner that does not result in the imposition on the Optionee of any additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, and to comply with Section 409A to the extent applicable. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines in good faith that any provision of this Agreement would cause the Optionee to incur an additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, the Company and Optionee shall cooperate in good faith to (a) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, as the Company and Optionee determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement and to avoid less favorable accounting or tax consequences for the Company and/or (b) take such other actions as the Company and Optionee determine to be necessary or appropriate to exempt the amounts payable hereunder from Section 409A or to comply with the requirements of Section 409A and thereby avoid the application of penalty taxes thereunder. No provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted or construed to transfer any liability for failure to comply with the requirements of Section 409A from the Optionee or any other individual to the Company or any of its affiliates, employees or agents.

Section 5.9 Tax Consultation. The Optionee acknowledges and agrees that his or her entry into this Agreement and participation in the Plan is voluntary and there may be tax consequences as a result of his or her receipt of the Option and/or the purchase or disposition of the Shares underlying the Option. The Optionee represents that he or she (a) has consulted with any tax consultants he or she deems advisable in connection with this Agreement, the receipt of the Option, and the purchase or disposition of the Shares underlying the Option, and (b) is not relying on the Company for any tax advice. The Optionee is relying solely on such advisors and not on any statements or representations of the Company or any of its agents. The Optionee understands that he or she (and not the Company) shall be solely responsible for the Optionee's tax liability that may arise as a result of this investment or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

The parties acknowledge and agree that (a) the provisions and covenants contained in this Article IV (i) have been negotiated and are entered into in good faith as an ancillary agreement in connection with the grant of the Option contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) are material to this Agreement, (iii) are provided for, among other things, the protection of the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships, goodwill and reputation (which is an honest and just purpose), (iv) are reasonable in geographic and temporal scope and (v) do not impose a greater restriction or restraint than is necessary to protect the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships and contacts, goodwill, reputation and other legitimate business interests, (b) the Optionee (i) is employed or otherwise engaged as an independent contractor or other service provider by the Company, (ii) has been and/or will be provided with confidential and commercially-sensitive information regarding the Company and its business during his or her employment and/or service with the Company, and (iii) provides special, unique and extraordinary services to the Company, (c) the provisions of this Article IV do not adversely affect the Optionee's ability to earn a living in any capacity, stifle the Optionee's ability to use his or her inherent skills and experience, or otherwise impose undue hardship or oppression on the Optionee, and (d) the entitlement to the benefits provided to the Optionee under this Agreement, whether or not such benefits have vested and/or become exercisable, constitute sufficient consideration for all of the Optionee's covenants contained in this Article IV.

Section 4.2 Confidential Information. Except as permitted by the Board, during the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and at all times thereafter, the Optionee shall not divulge, furnish or make accessible to anyone or use in any way other than in the ordinary course of the business of the Company, any confidential, proprietary or secret knowledge or information of the Company or any of its affiliates, whether developed by the Optionee or others, including but not limited to (a) trade secrets, (b) confidential and proprietary plans, developments, research, processes, designs, methods or material (whether or not patented or patentable), (c) customer and supplier lists, (d) strategic or other business, marketing or sales plans, (e) financial data and plans and (f) Proprietary Information. The Optionee acknowledges that the above-described knowledge and information constitute unique and valuable assets of the Company and represent a substantial investment of time and expense by the Company, and that any disclosure or other use of such knowledge or information other than for the sole benefit of the Company would be wrongful and would cause irreparable harm to the Company. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company, the Optionee shall refrain from any acts or omissions that would reduce the value of such knowledge or information to the Company. The foregoing obligations of confidentiality shall not apply to any knowledge or information that (i) is now or subsequently becomes generally publicly known for reasons other than the Optionee's violation of this Agreement, (ii) is independently made available to the Optionee in good faith by a third party who has not violated a confidential relationship with the Company, or (iii) is required to be disclosed by legal process, other than as a direct or indirect result of the breach of this Agreement by the Optionee.

Section 4.3 Ventures. If, during the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company, the Optionee is engaged in or associated with the planning or implementing of any project, program or venture involving the Company, all rights in such project, program or venture shall belong to the Company, as applicable. Except as approved in writing by the Board, the Optionee shall not be entitled to any interest in any such project, program or venture or to any commission, finder's fee or other compensation in connection therewith. The Optionee shall have no interest, direct or indirect, in any customer or supplier that conducts business with the Company, provided that a passive investment of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any customer or supplier listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this sentence.

Section 4.4 Agreement Not to Compete. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Optionee, the Optionee shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise) in any Company Business (as defined below) in the Territory (as defined below). For purposes of this Article IV, (a) "Company" means LTF Holdings, Inc. and any parent, affiliated, related and/or direct or indirect subsidiary entity thereof, (b) "Company Business" means (i) the design, development, operation, management, advertisement, promotion, solicitation, marketing or sale of health and fitness clubs or health and fitness club memberships, (ii) any services, products or programs offered by health and fitness clubs, including but not limited to personal training, nutritional supplements; health testing or health assessments; wellness services or programs (whether direct to consumer or business to business); weight loss services or programs; kids activities; salons, spas, and medical spas; restaurants or cafes; athletic events and related services (including race timing and registration), and (iii) any other product or service that grows into a material business for the Company (or is under development and is projected to grow into a material business for the Company) as of the Optionee's Termination of Services Date, and (c) "Territory" means the United States, Canada and any other country in which the Company is then doing Company Business as of the Optionee's Termination of Services Date. Ownership by the Optionee, as a passive investment, of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any corporation listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this Section 4.4.

Section 4.5 Agreement Not to Solicit or Hire Employees. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Optionee, the Optionee shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, hire, engage or solicit for the purpose of employing or otherwise engaging any person who is then an employee of the Company or who was an employee of the Company as of the Optionee's Termination of Services Date or at any time in the six-month period prior to such hiring, engagement or solicitation.

Section 4.6 Agreement Not to Solicit Business Relations. During the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Optionee, the Optionee shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, solicit, request, advise or induce any current or potential customer, member, supplier or other business contact of the Company to cancel, curtail or otherwise change its relationship with the Company.

Section 4.7 Blue Pencil Doctrine. If the duration of, the scope of or any business activity covered by any provision of this Article IV is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be in excess of what is valid and enforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be construed to cover only that duration, scope or activity that is valid and enforceable, and all other provisions of this Article IV shall remain in full force and effect. The Optionee hereby acknowledges that this Article IV shall be given the construction that renders its provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent, not exceeding its express terms, possible under applicable law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, this Section 4.7 shall in no event apply to the extent its application would render this Article IV (or any portion thereof) unenforceable under applicable law.

Section 4.8 Return of Records and Property. On or within thirty (30) days of the Termination of Services Date or at any other time as required by the Company, the Optionee shall promptly deliver to the Company any and all Company records and any and all Company property in the Optionee's possession or under the Optionee's control, and all copies thereof, including without limitation manuals, books, blank forms, documents, letters, memoranda, notes, notebooks, reports, printouts, computer disks, computer tapes, source codes, data, tables or calculations, keys, access cards, access codes, passwords, credit cards, personal computers, telephones and other electronic equipment belonging to the Company, and shall also permanently delete all Company email, all Company customer, member, supplier or other business contacts' information, and all other Company information from the Optionee's computer, mobile phone and other electronic devices.

Section 4.9 Protectable Material; Trade Secrets.

(a) All right, title and interest in all discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that the Optionee shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others during the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company (i) that are directly related to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or that results from any work performed by the Optionee for the Company, (ii) for which any equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and/or (iii) which was not developed entirely on the Optionee's own time, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark ("Protectable Material"), shall be the property of the Company and are hereby assigned by the Optionee to the Company (and the Optionee agrees to assign all Protectable Material to the Company in the future), along with ownership of any and all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights in the Protectable Material. Upon request and without further compensation therefor, but at no expense to the Optionee, the Optionee shall execute any and all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the Company to obtain and register patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights on the Protectable Materials in any and all countries. Where applicable, works of authorship created by the Optionee for the Company in performing the Optionee's duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be considered "works made for hire," as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act.

(b) All trade secret information conceived or originated by the Optionee that arises during the term of the Optionee's employment and/or service with the Company and out of the performance of the Optionee's duties and responsibilities to the Company or any related material or information shall be the property of the Company, and all rights therein are hereby assigned by the Optionee to the Company.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Optionee understands that pursuant to the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, the Optionee shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (A) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

Section 4.10 Non-Disparagement. The Optionee will not malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of the Company, or the reputation or character of the Company's directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents, either orally or in writing, at any time; provided that nothing in this Section 4.10 shall be construed to limit or restrict the Optionee from providing truthful information to the extent required by applicable law in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter.

Section 4.11 Enforcement. The Optionee acknowledges that the provisions of Article IV are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, and that any violation of those provisions by the Optionee would cause real, immediate, substantial and irreparable harm to the Company to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefor. Therefore, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of Article IV, the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies it may have, be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief to enforce such provisions and to restrain the Optionee from violating or continuing to violate such provisions, and such relief may be granted without the necessity of proving actual monetary damages or posting bond. The Optionee agrees that the Restricted Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which he or she is in violation of the terms of Section 4.4, 4.5 or 4.6, in order that the Company and its affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. No breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company, or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of the Optionee's employment and/or service relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish the Optionee's obligation to comply with Article IV. The Company (including, without limitation, its affiliates) are third party beneficiaries under this Agreement and shall have the right to enforce all of the Optionee's obligations to the Company under this Agreement, including without limitation pursuant to Article IV, and the Company shall be entitled to assign its rights under this Article IV without the Optionee's consent and any such assignees shall have the right to enforce all of the Optionee's obligations to comply with this Article IV. The Optionee covenants and agrees that he or she has received adequate consideration for his or her obligations contained in Article IV, and will not take the position that the covenants contained in Article IV are void for lack of consideration. The Optionee will be responsible for any and all attorneys' fees and costs the Company incurs in enforcing the Optionee's obligations contained in Article IV.

ARTICLE V.
OTHER PROVISIONS

Section 5.1 Not a Contract of Employment or Services. Nothing in this Agreement or in the Plan shall confer upon the Optionee any right to continue in the employ or engagement of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the rights of the Company and its Subsidiaries and affiliates, which are hereby expressly reserved, to discharge the Optionee at any time for any reason whatsoever, with or without Cause, except as may otherwise be provided by any written agreement entered into by and between the Company and the Optionee.

Section 5.2 Shares Subject to Plan and Stockholders Agreement; Entire Agreement. The Optionee acknowledges that any shares acquired upon exercise of the Option are subject to the terms of the Plan and the Stockholders Agreement. The terms of this Agreement are intended by the parties to be the final expression of their agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof and may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior or contemporaneous agreement. The parties further intend that this Agreement (together with the Plan and the Stockholders Agreement) shall constitute the complete and exclusive statement of its terms and that no extrinsic evidence whatsoever may be introduced in any judicial, administrative, or other legal proceeding to vary the terms of this Agreement.

Section 5.3 Construction. This Agreement shall be administered, interpreted and enforced under the internal laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to the principles of conflicts of law thereof, or principles of conflicts of law of any other jurisdiction which could cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

Section 5.4 Jurisdiction and Venue. The Optionee and the Company consent to jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Delaware and/or the United States District Court, District of Delaware, for the purpose of resolving all issues of law, equity, or fact, arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. Any action involving claims of a breach of this Agreement shall be brought in such courts. By execution and delivery of this Agreement, each party irrevocably consents to service of process out of any of the aforementioned courts in any such action or proceeding by the making of copies thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, or by recognized express carrier or delivery service, to the applicable party at his, her or its address referred to herein. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably waives any objection which he, she or it may not or hereafter have to the laying of venue for the purposes of all such suits arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or any related agreement, certificate or instrument referred to above, and hereby further irrevocably waives and agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each of the parties consents to personal jurisdiction over such party in the aforementioned courts and hereby waives any defense of lack of personal jurisdiction. Venue, for the purpose of all such suits, shall be exclusively in Wilmington, Delaware.

Section 5.5 Conformity to Securities Laws. The Optionee acknowledges that the Plan is intended to conform to the extent necessary with all provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and any and all regulations and rules promulgated thereunder by the Securities and Exchange Commission, including without limitation Rule 16b-3. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Plan shall be administered, and the Option is granted and may be exercised, only in such a manner as to conform to such laws, rules and regulations. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Plan and this Agreement shall be deemed amended to the extent necessary to conform to such laws, rules and regulations.

Section 5.6 Amendment. The Option may be wholly or partially amended at any time or from time to time by the Administrator in its discretion; provided that if such amendment materially impairs the rights of the Optionee hereunder, no such amendment shall be effective until consented to in writing by the Optionee.

Section 5.7 Stockholder Approval.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.7(b), in the event that the Company determines that any right to receive the Option or payment or other benefit under this Agreement (including, without limitation, the acceleration of the vesting and/or exercisability of the Option and taking into account the effect of this Section) or any other agreement by and between the Optionee and the Company, to or for the benefit of the Optionee (the "Payments"), would, in whole or part when aggregated with any other right, payment or benefit to or for the Optionee under all other agreements or benefit plans of the Company, be nondeductible by the Company (or other person making such payment or providing such benefit) as a result of Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject the Optionee to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax") then, to the extent necessary to make the Payments deductible and to exempt the Payments from the Excise Tax (but only to such extent and after taking into account any reduction in the Payments relating to Section 280G of the Code under any other plan, arrangement or agreement), the Option or any other right, payment or benefit under this Agreement shall not become exercisable, vested or paid.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the provisions of Section 5.7(a) shall not apply to reduce the Payments if the Payments that would otherwise be nondeductible under Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject the Optionee to the Excise Tax are disclosed to and approved by the Company's stockholders in accordance with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code and the Department of Treasury regulations thereunder.

(c) The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and deliver to its stockholders the disclosure required by Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code with respect to the Payments and to seek the approval of the Company's stockholders in accordance with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code and the Department of Treasury regulations thereunder.

Section 5.8 Section 409A. The Company shall undertake to administer, interpret and construe this Agreement in a manner that does not result in the imposition on the Optionee of any additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, and to comply with Section 409A to the extent applicable. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines in good faith that any provision of this Agreement would cause the Optionee to incur an additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, the Company and Optionee shall cooperate in good faith to (a) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, as the Company and Optionee determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement and to avoid less favorable accounting or tax consequences for the Company and/or (b) take such other actions as the Company and Optionee determine to be necessary or appropriate to exempt the amounts payable hereunder from Section 409A or to comply with the requirements of Section 409A and thereby avoid the application of penalty taxes thereunder. No provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted or construed to transfer any liability for failure to comply with the requirements of Section 409A from the Optionee or any other individual to the Company or any of its affiliates, employees or agents.

Section 5.9 Tax Consultation. The Optionee acknowledges and agrees that his or her entry into this Agreement and participation in the Plan is voluntary and there may be tax consequences as a result of his or her receipt of the Option and/or the purchase or disposition of the Shares underlying the Option. The Optionee represents that he or she (a) has consulted with any tax consultants he or she deems advisable in connection with this Agreement, the receipt of the Option, and the purchase or disposition of the Shares underlying the Option, and (b) is not relying on the Company for any tax advice. The Optionee is relying solely on such advisors and not on any statements or representations of the Company or any of its agents. The Optionee understands that he or she (and not the Company) shall be solely responsible for the Optionee's tax liability that may arise as a result of this investment or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Each vested Restricted Stock Unit represents the right to receive one share of Common Stock ('Share"). Capitalized terms not specifically defined herein shall have the meanings specified in the Plan and the Grant Notice.

ARTICLE I.

GENERAL

Section 1.1 Incorporation of Terms of Plan. The RSUs are subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan, which are incorporated herein by reference. In the event of any inconsistency between the Plan and this Agreement, the terms of the Plan shall control.

ARTICLE II.

GRANT OF RESTRICTED STOCK UNITS

Section 2.1 Grant of RSUs. Pursuant to the Grant Notice and upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan and this Agreement, effective as of the Grant Date set forth in the Grant Notice, the Company hereby grants to the Participant an award of RSUs under the Plan in consideration of the Participant's past and/or continued employment with or service to the Company or any affiliates and for other good and valuable consideration.

Section 2.2 Unsecured Obligation to RSUs. Unless and until the RSUs have vested in the manner set forth in Article 2 hereof, the Participant will have no right to receive Common Stock under any such RSUs. Prior to actual payment of any vested RSUs, such RSUs will represent an unsecured obligation of the Company, payable (if at all) only from the general assets of the Company.

Section 2.3 Vesting Schedule.

(a) Subject to Section 2.5 hereof, the RSUs shall vest and become nonforfeitable with respect to the applicable portion thereof according to the vesting schedule set forth in the Grant Notice (rounding down to the nearest whole Share).

(b) Unless otherwise determined by the Administrator, (i) upon Termination of Service for any reason, the Participant shall immediately forfeit any and all RSUs granted under this Agreement that have not vested or do not vest on or prior to the date on which such Termination of Service occurs, and Participant's rights in any such RSUs that are not so vested shall lapse and expire, and (b) upon Termination of Service by the Company for Cause, any portion of the RSUs that has become vested on or prior to the date of Termination of Service shall be forfeited on such date and shall not thereafter become exercisable.

Section 2.5 Tax Withholding. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement:

(a) The Company or any of its subsidiaries (the "Participating Companies") have the authority to deduct or withhold, or require Participant to remit to the applicable Participating Company, an amount sufficient to satisfy any applicable federal, state, local and foreign taxes (including the employee portion of any FICA obligation) required by Applicable Laws to be withheld with respect to any taxable event arising pursuant to this Agreement. The Participating Companies may withhold or Participant may make such payment in one or more of the forms specified below:

(i) by cash or check made payable to the Participating Company with respect to which the withholding obligation arises;

(v) with respect to any withholding taxes arising in connection with the vesting or settlement of the RSUs, with the consent of the Administrator, through the delivery of a notice that Participant has placed a market sell order with a broker acceptable to the Company with respect to shares of Common Stock then issuable to Participant pursuant to the RSUs, and that the broker has been directed to pay a sufficient portion of the net proceeds of the sale to the Participating Company with respect to which the withholding obligation arises in satisfaction of such withholding taxes; provided that payment of such proceeds is then made to the applicable Participating Company at such time as may be required by the Administrator, but in any event not later than the settlement of such sale; or

(vi) with the consent of the Administrator, in any combination of the foregoing.

(b) With respect to any withholding taxes arising in connection with the RSUs, in the event Participant fails to provide timely payment of all sums required pursuant to Section 2.5(a), the Company shall have the right and option, but not the obligation, to treat such failure as an election by Participant to satisfy all or any portion of Participant's required payment obligation pursuant to Section 2.5(a)(ii) or Section 2.5(a)(iii) above, or any combination of the foregoing as the Company may determine to be appropriate. The Company shall not be obligated to deliver any certificate representing shares of Common Stock or enter shares of Common Stock in book entry form issuable with respect to the RSUs to Participant or his or her legal representative unless and until Participant or his or her legal representative shall have paid or otherwise satisfied in full the amount of all federal, state, local and foreign taxes applicable with respect to the taxable income of Participant resulting from the vesting or settlement of the RSUs or any other taxable event related to the RSUs.

(c) In the event any tax withholding obligation arising in connection with the RSUs will be satisfied under Section 2.5(a)(iii), then the Company may elect to instruct any brokerage firm determined acceptable to the Company for such purpose to sell on Participant's behalf a whole number of shares from those shares of Common Stock then issuable to Participant pursuant to the RSUs as the Company determines to be appropriate to generate cash proceeds sufficient to satisfy the tax withholding obligation and to remit the proceeds of such sale to the Participating Company with respect to which the withholding obligation arises. Participant's acceptance of this Award constitutes Participant's instruction and authorization to the Company and such brokerage firm to complete the transactions described in this Section 2.5(c), including the transactions described in the previous sentence, as applicable. The Company may refuse to issue any shares of Common Stock in settlement of the RSUs to Participant until the foregoing tax withholding obligations are satisfied, provided that no payment shall be delayed under this Section 2.5(c) if such delay will result in a violation of Section 409A of the Code.

(d) Participant is ultimately liable and responsible for all taxes owed in connection with the RSUs, regardless of any action any Participating Company takes with respect to any tax withholding obligations that arise in connection with the RSUs. No Participating Company makes any representation or undertaking regarding the treatment of any tax withholding in connection with the awarding, vesting or payment of the RSUs or the subsequent sale of shares of Common Stock. The Participating Companies do not commit and are under no obligation to structure the RSUs to reduce or eliminate Participant's tax liability.

Section 2.6 Issuance of Common Stock upon Vesting.

(a) On or as soon as administratively practicable following the vesting of any Restricted Stock Units pursuant to Section 2.3 hereof, but in no event later than sixty (60) days after such vesting date (for the avoidance of doubt, this deadline is intended to comply with the "short term deferral" exemption from Section 409A of the Code), the Company shall deliver to the Participant (or any transferee permitted under Section 3.2 hereof) a number of shares of Common Stock (either by delivering one or more certificates for such shares of Common Stock or by entering such shares of Common Stock in book entry form, as determined by the Company in its sole discretion) equal to the number of RSUs subject to this Award that vest on the applicable vesting date, unless such RSUs terminate prior to the given vesting date pursuant to Section 2.3 hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company may delay a distribution or payment in settlement of RSUs if it reasonably determines that such payment or distribution will violate federal securities laws or any other Applicable Laws, provided that such distribution or payment shall be made at the earliest date at which the Company reasonably determines that the making of such distribution or payment will not cause such violation, as required by Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-2(b)(7)(ii), and provided further that no payment or distribution shall be delayed under this Section 2.6(a) if such delay will result in a violation of Section 409A of the Code.

Section 2.7 Conditions to Delivery of Shares. The Company shall not be required to issue or deliver any certificates or make any book entries evidencing shares of Common Stock deliverable hereunder prior to fulfillment of all of the following conditions: (a) the admission of the shares of Common Stock to listing on all stock exchanges on which such shares are then listed, if any, (b) the completion of any registration or other qualification of the shares of Common Stock under any state or federal law or under rulings or regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission or other governmental regulatory body, which the Administrator shall, in its absolute discretion, deem necessary or advisable, (c) the obtaining of any approval or other clearance from any state or federal governmental agency that the Administrator shall, in its absolute discretion, determine to be necessary or advisable, (d) the receipt of full payment of any applicable withholding tax in accordance with Section 2.5 by the Participating Company with respect to which the applicable withholding obligation arises, and (e) a joinder or other agreement in the form provided by the Company signed by the Participant or any other person then entitled to the settlement of RSUs or portion thereof, stating that the shares of Common Stock received upon the settlement of RSUs or portion thereof are subject to the terms of the Stockholders Agreement.

Section 2.8 Rights as Stockholder. The holder of the RSUs shall not be, nor have any of the rights or privileges of, a stockholder of the Company, including, without limitation, voting rights and rights to dividends, in respect of the RSUs and any shares of Common Stock underlying the RSUs and deliverable hereunder unless and until such shares of Common Stock shall have been issued by the Company and held of record by such holder (as evidenced by the appropriate entry on the books of the Company or of a duly authorized transfer agent of the Company). No adjustment shall be made for a dividend or other right for which the record date is prior to the date the shares of Common Stock are issued, except as provided in Section 8 of the Plan.

ARTICLE III.

OTHER PROVISIONS

Section 3.1 Administration. The Administrator shall have the power to interpret the Plan and this Agreement and to adopt such rules for the administration, interpretation and application of the Plan as are consistent therewith and to interpret, amend or revoke any such rules. All actions taken and all interpretations and determinations made by the Administrator in good faith shall be final and binding upon the Participant, the Company and all other interested persons. No member of the Administrator or the Board shall be personally liable for any action, determination or interpretation made in good faith with respect to the Plan, this Agreement or the RSUs.

Section 3.2 RSUs Not Transferable. The RSUs shall be subject to the restrictions on transferability set forth in Section 9(a) of the Plan unless and until the shares of Common Stock underlying the RSUs have been issued, and all restrictions applicable to such shares of Common Stock have lapsed, at which time the shares of Common Stock shall be subject to the Stockholders Agreement.

Section 3.3 Tax Consultation. The Participant acknowledges and agrees that his or her entry into this Agreement and participation in the Plan is voluntary and there may be consequences as a result of his or her receipt of the RSUs granted pursuant to this Agreement (and the shares of Common Stock issuable with respect thereto). The Participant represents that he or she (a) has consulted with any tax consultants he or she deems advisable in connection with the RSUs and the issuance of Shares with respect thereto and (b) is not relying on the Company for any tax advice. The Participant is relying solely on such advisors and not on any statements or representations of the Company or any of its agents. The Participant understands that he or she (and not the Company) shall be solely responsible for the Participant's tax liability that may arise as a result of the investment or the transaction contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 3.4 Binding Agreement. Subject to the limitation on the transferability of the RSUs contained herein, this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the heirs, legatees, legal representatives, successors and assigns of the parties hereto.

Section 3.5 Adjustments Upon Specified Events. The Administrator may accelerate the vesting of the RSUs in such circumstances as it, in its sole discretion, may determine. The Participant acknowledges that the RSUs are subject to adjustment, modification and termination in certain events as provided in this Agreement and Section 8 of the Plan.

Section 3.6 Notices. Any notice to be given under the terms of this Agreement to the Company shall be addressed to the Company in care of the Secretary of the Company at the Company's principal office, and any notice to be given to the Participant shall be addressed to the Participant at the Participant's last address reflected on the Company's records. By a notice given pursuant to this Section 3.6, either party may hereafter designate a different address for notices to be given to that party. Any notice shall be deemed duly given when sent via email or when sent by certified mail (return receipt requested) and deposited (with postage prepaid) in a post office or branch post office regularly maintained by the United States Postal Service.

Section 3.7 Participant's Representations. The Participant hereby represents, warrants, covenants, acknowledges and agrees on behalf of the Participant and his or her spouse or domestic partner, if applicable, that (a) the Participant is holding the RSUs for the Participant's own account, and not for the account of any other person, (b) the Participant is holding the RSUs for investment and not with a view to distribution or resale thereof except in compliance with Applicable Laws regulating securities; and (c) if the Participant is located outside of the United States, he or she (i) is not a U.S. person as such term is defined under Rule 902 of Regulation S promulgated under the Securities Act, (ii) is not acquiring the RSUs for the account or benefit of any U.S. person, and (iii) will not (A) resell or offer to resell the RSUs, or any portion thereof, or (B) engage in hedging transactions, in each case, except in accordance with the terms of the Plan and this Agreement and in accordance with Regulation S, or pursuant to an available exemption from registration under the Securities Act and otherwise in compliance with all applicable securities laws.

Section 3.8 Titles. Titles are provided herein for convenience only and are not to serve as a basis for interpretation or construction of this Agreement.

Section 3.9 Jurisdiction and Venue. The Participant and the Company consent to jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Delaware and/or the United States District Court, District of Delaware, for the purpose of resolving all issues of law, equity, or fact, arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. Any action involving claims of a breach of this Agreement shall be brought in such courts. By execution and delivery of this Agreement, each party irrevocably consents to service of process out of any of the aforementioned courts in any such action or proceeding by the making of copies thereof by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, or by recognized express carrier or delivery service, to the applicable party at his, her or its address referred to herein. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably waives any objection which he, she or it may not or hereafter have to the laying of venue for the purposes of all such suits arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, or any related agreement, certificate or instrument referred to above, and hereby further irrevocably waives and agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, not to plead or claim in any such court that any such action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum. Each of the parties consents to personal jurisdiction over such party in the aforementioned courts and hereby waives any defense of lack of personal jurisdiction. Venue, for the purpose of all such suits, shall be exclusively in Wilmington, Delaware.

Section 3.10 Conformity to Securities Laws. The Participant acknowledges that the Plan and this Agreement are intended to conform to the extent necessary with all provisions of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and any and all regulations and rules promulgated thereunder by the Securities and Exchange Commission, including without limitation Rule 16b-3. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Plan shall be administered, and the RSUs are granted, only in such a manner as to conform to such laws, rules and regulations. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Plan and this Agreement shall be deemed amended to the extent necessary to conform to such laws, rules and regulations.

Section 3.11 Amendment, Suspension and Termination. To the extent permitted by the Plan, this Agreement may be wholly or partially amended or otherwise modified, suspended or terminated at any time or from time to time by the Administrator or the Board in its discretion; provided, however, that, except as may otherwise be provided by the Plan, if such amendment, modification, suspension or termination of this Agreement materially impairs the rights of the Participant hereunder, no such amendment, modification, suspension or termination shall be effective until consented in writing by the Participant.

Section 3.12 Successors and Assigns. The Company may assign any of its rights under this Agreement to single or multiple assignees, and this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the Company. The Participant may not assign any of his or her rights under this Agreement to single or multiple assignees without the written consent of the Company. Subject to the restrictions on transfer herein set forth in Section 3.2 hereof, this Agreement shall be binding upon the Participant and his or her heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns.

Section 3.13 Not a Contract of Service Relationship. Nothing in this Agreement or in the Plan shall confer upon Participant any right to continue in the employ or engagement of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or affiliates or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the rights of the Company and its Subsidiaries and affiliates, which rights are hereby expressly reserved, to discharge the Participant for any reason whatsoever, with or without cause, except as may otherwise be provided by any written agreement entered into by and between the Company and the Participant.

Section 3.14 Shares Subject to Plan and Stockholders Agreement; Entire Agreement. The Participant acknowledges that any shares of Common Stock acquired upon settlement of the RSUs are subject to the terms of the Plan and the Stockholders Agreement. The terms of this Agreement are intended by the parties to be the final expression of their agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof and may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior or contemporaneous agreement. The parties further intend that this Agreement, including all Exhibits thereto, if any (together with the Plan, the Grant Notice and the Stockholders Agreement) shall constitute the complete and exclusive statements of its terms and that no extrinsic evidence whatsoever may be introduced in any judicial, administrative, or other legal proceedings to vary the terms of this Agreement.

Section 3.15 Section 409A. The Company shall undertake to administer, interpret and construe this Agreement in a manner that does not result in the imposition on the Participant of any additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, and to comply with Section 409A to the extent applicable. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines in good faith that any provision of this Agreement would cause the Participant to incur an additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, the Company and Participant shall cooperate in good faith to (a) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, as the Company and Participant determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement and to avoid less favorable accounting or tax consequences for the Company and/or (b) take such other actions as the Company and Participant determine to be necessary or appropriate to exempt the amounts payable hereunder from Section 409A or to comply with the requirements of Section 409A and thereby avoid the application of penalty taxes thereunder. No provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted or construed to transfer any liability for failure to comply with the requirements of Section 409A from the Participant or any other individual to the Company or any of its affiliates, employees or agents.

Section 3.16 Limitation on Participant's Rights. Participation in the Plan confers no rights or interests other than as herein provided. This Agreement creates only a contractual obligation on the part of the Company as to amounts payable and shall not be construed as creating a trust. Neither the Plan nor any underlying program, in and of itself, has any assets. The Participant shall have only the rights of a general unsecured creditor of the Company and its affiliates with respect to amounts credited and benefits payable, if any, with respect to the RSUs, and rights no greater than the right to receive the Common Stock as a general unsecured creditor with respect to RSUs, as and when payable hereunder.

Section 3.17 Stockholder Approval.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 3.17(b), in the event that the Company determines that any right to the RSUs or payment or other benefit under this Agreement (including, without limitation, the settlement of RSUs and taking into account the effect of this Section) or any other agreement by and between the Participant and the Company, to or for the benefit of the Participant (the "Payments"), would, in whole or part when aggregated with any other right, payment or benefit to or for the Participant under all other agreements or benefit plans of the Company, be nondeductible by the Company (or other person making such payment or providing such benefit) as a result of Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject the Participant to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax") then, to the extent necessary to make the Payments deductible and to exempt the Payments from the Excise Tax (but only to such extent and after taking into account any reduction in the Payments relating to Section 280G of the Code under any other plan, arrangement or agreement), the RSUs or any other right, payment or benefit under this Agreement shall not become exercisable, vested or paid.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the provisions of Section 3.17(a) shall not apply to reduce the Payments if the Payments that would otherwise be nondeductible under Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject the Participant to the Excise Tax are disclosed to and approved by the Company's stockholders in accordance with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code and the Department of Treasury regulations thereunder.

(c) The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and deliver to its stockholders the disclosure required by Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code with respect to the Payments and to seek the approval of the Company's stockholders in accordance with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code and the Department of Treasury regulations thereunder.

Except as approved in writing by the Board, the Participant shall not be entitled to any interest in any such project, program or venture or to any commission, finder's fee or other compensation in connection therewith. The Participant shall have no interest, direct or indirect, in any customer or supplier that conducts business with the Company, provided that a passive investment of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any customer or supplier listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this sentence.

Section 4.4 Agreement Not to Compete. During the term of the Participant's employment and/or service with the Company and during the 18-month period following the Termination of Services Date (the "Restricted Period"), regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Participant, the Participant shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise) in any Company Business (as defined below) in the Territory (as defined below). During the term of the Participant's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Participant, the Participant shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, hire, engage or solicit for the purpose of employing or otherwise engaging any person who is then an employee of the Company or who was an employee of the Company as of the Participant's Termination of Service Date or at any time in the six-month period prior to such hiring, engagement or solicitation.

Section 4.6 Agreement Not to Solicit Business Relations. During the term of the Participant's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Participant, the Participant shall not use the Company's confidential information to, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, solicit, request, advise or induce any current or potential customer, member, supplier or other business contact of the Company to cancel, curtail or otherwise change its relationship with the Company.

Section 4.7 Blue Pencil Doctrine. If the duration of, the scope of or any business activity covered by any provision of this Article IV is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be in excess of what is valid and enforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be construed to cover only that duration, scope or activity that is valid and enforceable, and all other provisions of this Article IV shall remain in full force and effect. The Participant hereby acknowledges that this Article IV shall be given the construction that renders its provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent, not exceeding its express terms, possible under applicable law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, this Section 4.7 shall in no event apply to the extent its application would render this Article IV (or any portion thereof) unenforceable under applicable law.

Section 4.8 Return of Records and Property. On or within thirty (30) days of the Termination of Service Date or at any other time as required by the Company, the Participant shall promptly deliver to the Company any and all Company records and any and all Company property in the Participant's possession or under the Participant's control, and all copies thereof, including without limitation manuals, books, blank forms, documents, letters, memoranda, notes, notebooks, reports, printouts, computer disks, computer tapes, source codes, data, tables or calculations, keys, access cards, access codes, passwords, credit cards, personal computers, telephones and other electronic equipment belonging to the Company, and shall also permanently delete all Company email, all Company customer, member, supplier or other business contacts' information, and all other Company information from the Participant's computer, mobile phone and other electronic devices.

Section 4.9 Protectable Material; Trade Secrets.

(a) All right, title and interest in all discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that the Participant shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others during the term of the Participant's employment and/or service with the Company (i) that are directly related to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or that results from any work performed by the Participant for the Company, (ii) for which any equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and/or (iii) which was not developed entirely on the Participant's own time, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark ("Protectable Material"), shall be the property of the Company and are hereby assigned by the Participant to the Company (and the Participant agrees to assign all Protectable Material to the Company in the future), along with ownership of any and all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights in the Protectable Material. Upon request and without further compensation therefor, but at no expense to the Participant, the Participant shall execute any and all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the Company to obtain and register patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights on the Protectable Materials in any and all countries. Where applicable, works of authorship created by the Participant for the Company in performing the Participant's duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be considered "works made for hire," as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act.

(b) All trade secret information conceived or originated by the Participant that arises during the term of the Participant's employment and/or service with the Company and out of the performance of the Participant's duties and responsibilities to the Company or any related material or information shall be the property of the Company, and all rights therein are hereby assigned by the Participant to the Company.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Participant understands that this Agreement does not require assignment of any invention to the extent such invention qualifies for protection under Section 181.78 of the 2015 Minnesota Statutes, Section 2870 of the California Labor Code, Section 49.44.140 of the Revised Code of Washington, 765 Illinois Compiled Statutes 1060, Section 44-130 of the Kansas Statutes, or Section 66-57.1 of the North Carolina General Statutes Article 10A, Chapter 66, Commerce and Business, each as may be amended from time to time, and the current text of each which is attached hereto as Annex 1 to Exhibit B. The Participant hereby acknowledges that the Company has provided him or her with the notification set forth on Exhibit B (and the annex attached thereto) on the date hereof and the Participant shall sign such notification as soon as reasonably practicable after the date hereof.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Participant understands that pursuant to the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, the Participant shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (A) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

Section 4.10 Non-Disparagement. The Participant will not malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of the Company, or the reputation or character of the Company's directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents, either orally or in writing, at any time; provided that nothing in this Section 4.10 shall be construed to limit or restrict the Participant from providing truthful information to the extent required by applicable law in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter.

Section 4.11 Enforcement. The Participant acknowledges that the provisions of Article IV are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, and that any violation of those provisions by the Participant would cause real, immediate, substantial and irreparable harm to the Company to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefor. Therefore, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of Article IV, the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies it may have, be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief to enforce such provisions and to restrain the Participant from violating or continuing to violate such provisions, and such relief may be granted without the necessity of proving actual monetary damages or posting bond. The Participant agrees that the Restricted Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which he or she is in violation of the terms of Section 4.4, 4.5 or 4.6, in order that the Company and its affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. No breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company, or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of the Participant's employment and/or service relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish the Participant's obligation to comply with Article IV. The Company (including, without limitation, its affiliates) shall have the right to enforce all of the Participant's obligations to the Company under this Agreement, including without limitation pursuant to Article IV, and the Company shall be entitled to assign its rights under this Article IV without the Participant's consent. The Participant covenants and agrees that he or she has received adequate consideration for his or her obligations contained in Article IV, and will not take the position that the covenants contained in Article IV are void for lack of consideration. The Participant will be responsible for any and all attorneys' fees and costs the Company incurs in enforcing the Participant's obligations contained in Article IV.

EXERCISABILITY

Section 3.1 Commencement of Exercisability.

(a) Subject to Sections 3.1(b), 3.1(d) and 3.2, the Option shall vest and become exercisable on each Measurement Date (and, with respect to a Measurement Date that is a Change of Control, immediately prior to such Change of Control) with respect to a number of Shares equal to the excess of (1) the MOIC Vesting Amount (as defined below) for such Measurement Date (or, with respect to a Measurement Date that is a Change of Control, the IRR Vesting Amount (as defined below) for such Measurement Date, if greater), less (2) the number of Shares with respect to the Option that had vested and become exercisable prior to such Measurement Date; provided that the Optionee remains continuously employed or engaged in active service by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (and no Termination of Services occurs) from the Grant Date through such Measurement Date; provided, further, that to the extent a determination by a Third Party Appraiser is undertaken in connection with the determination of the MOIC Vesting Amount for the Termination Measurement Date, the Option shall not vest and become exercisable with respect to such Measurement Date until the date such determination is made and the MOIC Vesting Amount is calculated based on such determination):

(i) MOIC Vesting Amount. For purposes of this Agreement, the "MOIC Vesting Amount" shall, with respect to a Measurement Date, equal:

(A) No Shares if, as of such Measurement Date, the Principal Stockholder MOIC is less than 2.0;

(B) One-third of the shares covered by the Option if, as of such Measurement Date, the Principal Stockholder MOIC equals or exceeds 2.0, but is less than 2.5;

(C) Two-third of the shares covered by the Option if, as of such Measurement Date, the Principal Stockholder MOIC equals or exceeds 2.5, but is less than 3.0; or

(D) All of the shares covered by the Option if, as of such Measurement Date, the Principal Stockholder MOIC equals or exceeds 3.0.

(ii) IRR Vesting Amount. For purposes of this Agreement, the "IRR Vesting Amount" shall, with respect to a Measurement Date that is a Change of Control, equal:

(A) No Shares covered by the Option if, as of such Measurement Date, the Principal Stockholder IRR is less than 20%;

(c) Subject to Section 1.26(c), the Board shall make the determination as to whether the targets for any Principal Stockholder MOIC and Principal Stockholder IRR for any Measurement Date have been met and shall determine the extent, if any, to which the Option has become vested and exercisable on such Measurement Date.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, if, upon a Measurement Date, the vesting of the Option (or portion thereof) on such Measurement Date and the participation of the Shares underlying such Option (or portion thereof) in any transaction on such Measurement Date would result in the failure to satisfy any of the vesting thresholds in Section 3.1(a)(i) or 3.1(a)(ii), as applicable (each, an "Investment Hurdle"), then the Option shall become vested and exercisable as to the maximum percentage of Shares subject thereto that will result in, as of the Measurement Date, the achievement of the applicable Investment Hurdle taking into account the Shares subject to the Option (or portion thereof) that so vest and, if applicable, the participation of the Shares underlying such Option (or portion thereof) in such transaction.

Section 3.2 Expiration of Option. The Option may not be exercised to any extent by anyone after the first to occur of the following events:

(a) The tenth anniversary of the Grant Date; or

(b) One year following the date of the Optionee's Termination of Services due to (i) termination by the Optionee for Good Reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement), (ii) termination by the Company without Cause or (iii) the Optionee's death or Disability; or

Section 3.4 Persons Eligible to Exercise. During the lifetime of the Optionee, only the Optionee may exercise the Option or any portion thereof. Section 3.5 Manner of Exercise. The Option, or any exercisable portion thereof, may be exercised solely by delivery to the Secretary of the Company or the Secretary's office, or such other place as may be determined by the Board, of all of the following prior to the time when the Option or such portion thereof becomes unexercisable under Section 3.2:

Except as the Board may otherwise determine, all such payments shall be made in cash or by certified check and the Company may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, deduct any such tax obligations from any payment of any kind otherwise due to a Participant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent agreed upon by the Board and the Participant, the Company (or the employing subsidiary) may withhold a portion of the shares of Restricted Stock that have an aggregate fair market value sufficient to pay the maximum federal, state and local income, employment and any other applicable taxes required to withheld by the Company or the employing subsidiary with respect to the Shares (or such other amount as determined by the Board that will not result in any adverse accounting consequences). (5) To replace the Restricted Stock with other rights or property of substantially equivalent value selected by the Board.

(b) In connection with the occurrence of any non-reciprocal transaction between the Company and its stockholders, such as a stock dividend, stock split, spin-off or recapitalization through a large, nonrecurring cash dividend, that affects the shares of Preferred Stock, common stock (or other securities of the Company) or the share price of Preferred Stock, common stock (or other securities of the Company) and causes a change in the per share value of the Preferred Stock (an "Equity Restructuring"), and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 4.8, the Board will equitably adjust the outstanding Restricted Stock, which adjustments may include adjustments to the number and type of securities, the grant of new Restricted Stock to the Participant, and/or the making of a cash payment to the Participant, as the Board deems appropriate to reflect such Equity Restructuring. The adjustments provided under this Section 4.8(b) shall be nondiscretionary and shall be final and binding on the Participant and the Company; provided that whether an adjustment is equitable shall be determined by the Board.

4.9 Amendment. This Agreement may be wholly or partially amended or otherwise modified, suspended or terminated at any time or from time to time by the Administrator (or the Board) in its discretion; provided, however, that, if such amendment, modification, suspension or termination of this Agreement impairs the rights of the Participant hereunder, no such amendment, modification, suspension or termination shall be effective until consented in writing by the Participant.

Nothing in this Agreement shall confer upon the Participant any right to continue in the employ or engagement of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or shall interfere with or restrict in any way the rights of the Company or its subsidiaries, which are hereby expressly reserved, to discharge the Participant at any time for any reason whatsoever, with or without Cause, except as may otherwise be provided by the Employment Agreement or any other written agreement entered into by and between the Company and the Participant.

4.11 Lock-Up Period. The Company may, at the request of any representative of the underwriters or otherwise, in connection with any registration of the offering of any securities of the Company under the Securities Act, prohibit the Participant from, directly or indirectly, selling or otherwise transferring any shares of Preferred Stock, common stock or other securities of the Company during a period of up to one hundred eighty days following the effective date of a registration statement of the Company filed under the Securities Act.

5. Payments upon Termination of Employment.

a) If Executive's employment with the Company is terminated (i) by the Company for any reason other than for Cause, death or Disability or (ii) by Executive for Good Reason such that the Termination Date occurs within six months of the first occurrence of the condition giving rise to Good Reason, then the Company shall pay to Executive, subject to the conditions of Section 5(d) below, an amount equal to 150% of the sum of (A) Base Salary, (B) the Guaranteed Bonus and (C) "Target CEO Incentive Bonus" (as set forth on Exhibit A) for the fiscal year of termination. Subject to Section 5(d), such payment shall be paid to Executive in equal installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll schedule, commencing on the first regular payroll date of the Company that occurs on or following the Termination Date and continuing through the 18-month anniversary of the Termination Date; provided that to the extent that any portion of such payment is delayed pursuant to Section 5(d), such portion shall be paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following the 60th day following the Termination Date.

b) Subject to Section 5(c), if Executive's employment with the Company is terminated by reason of:

(i) Executive's resignation for any reason other than Good Reason;

(ii) the Company's termination of Executive's employment for Cause; or

(iii) Executive's Disability or death.

then the Company shall pay to Executive or Executive's beneficiary or Executive's estate, as the case may be, Executive's Base Salary through the Termination Date and any Guaranteed Bonus or Annual Incentive Bonus earned but unpaid for the prior fiscal year if not paid prior to the Termination Date. In no event shall Executive be entitled to receive any pro-rated Guaranteed Bonus or pro-rated Annual Incentive Bonus for the fiscal year in which the Termination

Date occurs upon Executive's resignation for any reason other than Good Reason or the Company's termination of Executive's employment for Cause (but Executive shall be eligible for any pro-rated Guaranteed Bonus or pro-rated Annual Incentive Bonus for the fiscal year in which the Termination Date occurs due to Executive's Disability or death). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if (A) the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company for Cause due to his indictment for (x) any serious or violent felony or (y) any crime involving dishonesty, fraud or unlawful behavior against or at the expense of the Company and (B) as of the 18-month anniversary of the Termination Date, the Executive has neither been convicted of, nor plead nolo contendere to, such felony or crime (or the indictment is withdrawn prior to such 18-month anniversary of the Termination Date) (the "Indictment End Date"), then such termination of employment shall be deemed a termination by the Company other than for Cause and the Executive will, subject to Section 5(d), be entitled to a payment equal to the amount described in the first sentence of Section 5(a), payable in accordance with Section 5(a) and 5(d) commencing as if, solely for this purpose, the Indictment End Date was the Termination Date; or

c) In the event of termination of Executive's employment, the sole obligation of the Company shall be its obligation to make the payments called for by Section 5(a) or 5(b) hereof, as the case may be, and the Company shall have no other obligation to Executive or to Executive's beneficiary or Executive's estate, except as otherwise provided by law, under the terms of any subsequent written agreement between Executive and the Company, and under the terms of any employee benefit plans or programs then maintained by the Company in which Executive participates (other than any such plans or programs that provide for severance or similar benefits).

d) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 5, the Company shall not make any payments to Executive under Section 5(a) above unless and until, as of the 60th day following the Termination Date (i) Executive has signed a global release of claims against the Company and its affiliates and their respective directors, officers, employees, shareholders, agents and assigns (other than rights Executive may have to indemnification from the Company arising out of the performance of his duties as a director or officer), such release to be prepared by the Board in its reasonable discretion; and (ii) all applicable rescission periods provided by law for releases of claims have expired and Executive has not rescinded such release of claims.

6. Covenants. In consideration of this Agreement, Executive agrees as follows:

a) Introduction. The parties acknowledge that the provisions and covenants contained in this Section 6 are material to this Agreement and that the limitations contained in this Agreement are reasonable in geographic and temporal scope and do not impose a greater restriction or restraint than is necessary to protect the goodwill and other legitimate business interests of the Company. The parties also acknowledge and agree that the provisions of this Section 6 do not adversely affect Executive's ability to earn a living in any capacity that does not violate the covenants contained herein.

b) Confidential Information. Except as permitted by the Board, during the term of Executive's employment with the Company and at all times thereafter, Executive shall not divulge, furnish or make accessible to anyone or use in any way other than in the ordinary course of the business of the Company, any confidential, proprietary or secret knowledge or information of the Company, whether developed by Executive or others, including but not limited to (i) trade secrets, (ii) confidential and proprietary plans, developments, research, processes, designs, methods or material (whether or not patented or patentable), (iii) customer and supplier lists, (iv) strategic or other business, marketing or sales plans, and (v) financial data and plans. Executive acknowledges that the above-described knowledge and information constitutes a unique and valuable asset of the Company and represents a substantial investment of time and expense by the Company, and that any disclosure or other use of such knowledge or information other than for the sole benefit of the Company would be wrongful and would cause irreparable harm to the Company. During the term of Executive's employment with the Company, Executive shall refrain from any intentional acts or omissions that would reduce the value of such knowledge or information to the Company. The foregoing obligations of confidentiality shall not apply to any knowledge or information that (A) is now or subsequently becomes generally publicly known for reasons other than Executive's violation of this Agreement, (B) is independently made available to Executive in good faith by a third party who has not violated a confidential relationship with the Company, or (C) is required to be disclosed by legal process, other than as a direct or indirect result of the breach of this Agreement by Executive.

c) Ventures. If, during Executive's employment with the Company, Executive is engaged in or associated with the planning or implementing of any project, program or venture involving the Company, all rights in such project, program or venture shall belong to the Company. Except as approved in writing by the Board, Executive shall not be entitled to any interest in any such project, program or venture or to any commission, finder's fee or other compensation in connection therewith. Executive shall have no interest, direct or indirect, in any customer or supplier that conducts business with the Company, provided that a passive investment of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any customer or supplier listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this sentence.

d) Agreement Not to Compete. During Executive's employment with the Company and the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise) in any Company Business (as defined below) in the Territory (as defined below). For purposes of this Section 6, (i) "Company" means LTF Holdings and any parent, affiliated, related and/or direct or indirect subsidiary entity thereof, (ii) "Company Business" means (A) the design, development, management or marketing of health and fitness clubs, and/or health and fitness club memberships and services, and/or nutritional supplements, (B) the publication of any health and fitness publications and/or (C) the sale, design or promotion of any other product or service that grows into a material business for the Company (or is under development and is projected to grow into a material business for the Company) as of the Termination Date and (iii) "Territory" means the United States, Canada and any other country in which the Company is then doing Company Business as of the Termination Date. Ownership by Executive, as a passive investment, of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any corporation listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this Section 6(d).

e) Agreement Not to Solicit or Hire Employees. During Executive's employment with the Company and the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit for the purpose of employing or otherwise engaging any person who is then an employee of the Company or who was an employee of the Company as of the Termination Date or at any time in the six-month period prior to solicitation, or (ii) hire or engage any person (A) who is (or, in the six-month period prior to hire, was) a director or officer of the Company, or (B) who was a key management employee over which Executive had any direct supervisory authority or with which Executive had directly interacted on a regular basis at any time during his employment with the Company, in each case, in any manner or capacity, including without limitation as a proprietor, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise.

f) Agreement Not to Solicit Business Relations. During Executive's employment with the Company and the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit, request, advise or induce any current or potential customer, supplier or other business contact of the Company to cancel, curtail or otherwise change its relationship with the Company, in any manner or capacity, including without limitation as a proprietor, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise.

g) Blue Pencil Doctrine. If the duration of, the scope of or any business activity covered by any provision of this Section 6 is in excess of what is valid and enforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be construed to cover only that duration, scope or activity that is valid and enforceable. Executive hereby acknowledges that this Section 6 shall be given the construction that renders its provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent, not exceeding its express terms, possible under applicable law.

h) Company Breach. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 6, if (i) Executive is entitled to any payments pursuant to Section 5(a) and (ii) the Company fails in any material respect to make such payments in accordance with Section 5(a) and does not cure such failure within 30 days following the receipt of written notice of such failure from Executive, then the restrictive covenants in Sections 6(d), (e) and (f) shall cease to apply following the expiration of such 30-day period unless and until the Company cures such failure thereafter.

7. Intellectual Property and Related Matters.

a) Protectable Material. All right, title and interest in all discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that Executive shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others during the term of Executive's employment with the Company (i) that are directly related to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or that results from any work performed by Executive for the Company, (ii) for which any equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and/or (iii) which was not developed entirely on Executive's own time, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark ("Protectable Material"), shall be the property of the Company and are hereby assigned by Executive to the Company (and Executive agrees to assign all Protectable Material to the Company in the future), along with ownership of any and all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights in the Protectable Material. Upon request and without further compensation therefor, but at no expense to Executive, Executive shall execute any and all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the Company to obtain and register patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights on the Protectable Materials in any and all countries. Where applicable, works of authorship created by Executive for the Company in performing Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be considered "works made for hire," as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act.

b) Trade Secrets. All trade secret information conceived or originated by Executive that arises during the term of Executive's employment with the Company and out of the performance of Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder or any related material or information shall be the property of the Company, and all rights therein are hereby assigned by Executive to the Company.

c) Inventions/Non-Protectable Material.

(i) During the Term, Executive shall be obligated to inform the Company of any discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that Executive shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark, that he reasonably believes do not constitute Protectable Material (any such material that is not Protectable Material, "Non-Protectable Material") and, to the extent such material constitutes Non-Protectable Material, the Company shall have no rights, title or interests in such material (unless otherwise agreed with Executive).

(ii) Executive hereby acknowledges that the Company has provided him with the notification set forth on Exhibit D hereto on the date hereof and Executive shall sign such notification as soon as reasonably practicable after the date hereof.

8. Return of Records and Property. On or within thirty days of the Termination Date, Executive shall promptly deliver to the Company any and all Company records and any and all Company property in Executive's possession or under Executive's control, and all copies thereof, including without limitation manuals, books, blank forms, documents, letters, memoranda, notes, notebooks, reports, printouts, computer disks, computer tapes, source codes, data, tables or calculations, keys, access cards, access codes, passwords, credit cards, personal computers, telephones and other electronic equipment belonging to the Company.

9. Remedies. Executive acknowledges that the provisions of Sections 6 through 8 and Section 11 are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, and that any violation of those provisions by Executive would cause substantial and irreparable harm to the Company to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefore. Therefore, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any such provisions, the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies it may have, be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief to enforce such provisions and to restrain Executive from violating or continuing to violate such provisions, and such relief may be granted without the necessity of proving actual monetary damages or posting bond. The preceding sentence shall not be construed to prevent Executive from disputing the factual basis of any remedies or defenses asserted by the Company. Executive agrees that the Restricted Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which he is in violation of the terms of Sections 6(d), (e) or (f), in order that the Company and its affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. Subject to Section 6(h), no breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company, or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of Executive's employment relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish Executive's obligation to comply with Sections 6 through 8 and Section 11 hereof. Each of the Company's affiliates shall have the right to enforce all of Executive's obligations to that affiliate under this Agreement, including without limitation pursuant to Sections 6 through 8 and Section 11 hereof.

10. Indemnification. The Company agrees to defend and indemnify Executive to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and the Company's governing documents and Executive shall be entitled to the protection of any insurance policies the Company maintains generally for the benefit of its directors and officers.

11. Non-Disparagement. Executive will not malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of the Company or any of its affiliates, or the reputation or character of the Company's or any of its affiliates' directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents, provided that nothing in this Section 11 shall be construed to limit or restrict Executive from taking any action that Executive in good faith reasonably believes is necessary to fulfill Executive's fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter. The Company shall instruct its current executive officers and directors not to malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of Executive, or the reputation or character of Executive, provided that nothing in this Section 11 shall be construed to limit or restrict such officers and directors from taking any action that they in good faith reasonably believes is necessary to fulfill their fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter.

12. Miscellaneous.

a) Governing Law. All matters relating to the interpretation, construction, application, validity and enforcement of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Minnesota without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule, whether of the State of Minnesota or any other jurisdiction, that would cause the application of laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Minnesota.

b) Jurisdiction and Venue. Executive and the Company consent to jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Minnesota and/or the United States District Court, District of Minnesota, for the purpose of resolving all issues of law, equity, or fact, arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. Any action involving claims of a breach of this Agreement shall be brought in such courts. Each party consents to personal jurisdiction over such party in the aforementioned courts and hereby waives any defense of lack of personal jurisdiction. Venue, for the purpose of all such suits, shall be in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

c) Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings with respect to the subject matter hereof. The parties have made no agreements, representations or warranties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement that are not set forth herein.

d) No Violation of Other Agreements. Executive hereby represents and affirms that neither Executive's entering into and undertaking of obligations under this Agreement nor Executive's employment with the Company violate any other agreement (oral, written or other) to which Executive is a party or by which Executive is bound.

e) Amendments. No amendment or modification of this Agreement shall be deemed effective unless made in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

f) No Waiver. No term or condition of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been waived, except by a statement in writing signed by the party against whom enforcement of the waiver is sought. Any written waiver shall not be deemed a continuing waiver unless specifically stated, shall operate only as to the specific term or condition waived and shall not constitute a waiver of such term or condition for the future or as to any act other than that specifically waived.

g) Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assignable, in whole or in part, by either party without the written consent of the other party.

h) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by facsimile, such counterparts executed and delivered, each as an original, shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

i) Severability. Subject to Section 6(g) hereof, to the extent that any portion of any provision of this Agreement shall be invalid or unenforceable, it shall be considered deleted herefrom and the remainder of such provision and of this Agreement shall be unaffected and shall continue in full force and effect.

j) Captions and Headings. The captions and paragraph headings used in this Agreement are for convenience or reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement or any of the provisions hereof.

k) Notices. Any notice hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if delivered by hand, sent by reliable next-day courier, or sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the party to receive such notice addressed as follows:

l) Tax Withholding. The Company may withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement such federal, state and local income and employment taxes as the Company shall determine are required or authorized to be withheld pursuant to any applicable law or regulation.

m) Section 280G. In the event that it shall be determined that any right to receive payment or other benefit under this Agreement or any other agreement by and between Executive and the Company, to or for the benefit of Executive (the "Payments"), would, in whole or part when aggregated with any other right, payment or benefit to or for Executive under all other agreements or benefit plans of any other person or entity, be nondeductible by the Company (or other person making such payment or providing such benefit) as a result of Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject Executive to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax") then, subject to Executive's written agreement waiving his right to receive some or all of such payment or benefit (the "Waived Benefit") so that all remaining Payments shall not be deemed to be a parachute payment that would not be deductible under Section 280G of the Code (and accepting in substitution for the Waived Benefit the right to receive the Waived Benefit only if approved by the stockholders of the Company in a manner that complies with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code), the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and deliver to its stockholders the disclosure required by Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code with respect to the Payments and to obtain the approval of the Company's stockholders in a manner that complies with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code.

n) Section 409A.

(i) The Company shall undertake to administer, interpret and construe this Agreement in a manner that does not result in the imposition on Executive of any additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, and to comply with Section 409A to the extent applicable. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines in good faith that any provision of this Agreement would cause Executive to incur an additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, the Company and Executive shall cooperate in good faith to (A) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, as the Company and Executive determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement and to avoid less favorable accounting or tax consequences for the Company and/or (B) take such other actions as the Company and Executive determine to be necessary or appropriate to exempt the amounts payable hereunder from Section 409A or to comply with the requirements of Section 409A and thereby avoid the application of penalty taxes thereunder. No provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted or construed to transfer any liability for failure to comply with the requirements of Section 409A from Executive or any other individual to the Company or any of its affiliates, employees or agents.

(ii) Separation from Service under Section 409A. (A) To the extent any payment hereunder constitutes "nonqualified deferred compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A, any such payment to be made under this Agreement upon a termination of employment shall only be made if such termination of employment constitutes a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Department of Treasury

Regulations, (B) for purposes of Section 409A, Executive's right to receive installment payments pursuant to Section 5(a) shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments; and (C) to the extent that any reimbursement of expenses or in-kind benefits constitutes "deferred compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A, such reimbursement or benefit shall be provided no later than December 31 of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred. The amount of expenses reimbursed in one year shall not affect the amount eligible for reimbursement in any subsequent year. The amount of any in-kind benefits provided in one year shall not affect the amount of in-kind benefits provided in any other year. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if at the time of Executive's separation from service, he is a "specified employee," determined in accordance with Section 409A, any payments and benefits provided under this Agreement that constitute "nonqualified deferred compensation" subject to Section 409A that are provided to Executive on account of his separation from service shall not be paid until the first payroll date to occur following the six-month anniversary of Executive's termination date ("Specified Employee Payment Date"). The aggregate amount of any payments that would otherwise have been made during such six-month period shall be paid in a lump sum on the Specified Employee Payment Date and, thereafter, any remaining payments shall be paid without delay in accordance with their original schedule. If Executive dies during the six-month period, any delayed payments shall be paid to Executive's estate in a lump sum upon Executive's death.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Executive, LTF Holdings and Life Time have executed this Agreement as of the date first set forth in the first paragraph.

Dear Mr. Akradi:

This letter (the "Letter") is to inform you of certain agreed changes to the restricted stock granted to you under that certain Restricted Stock Agreement, by and between LTF Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company") and you, dated as of April 1, 2016 (as amended, together with all appendices thereto, the "Restricted Stock Agreement") and terms and conditions of that certain Executive Employment Agreement, by and between the Company, Life Time Fitness, Inc., a Minnesota corporation, and you, dated as of October 6, 2015 (together with all exhibits thereto, the "Employment Agreement").

As you know, in 2016, the Company opened an aggregate of three new clubs instead of the six clubs that were originally expected. In order to reflect, among other things, the impact of this, the Company and you hereby acknowledge and agree that, notwithstanding the terms and conditions of the Restricted Stock Agreement and Employment Agreement:

(a) "Target EBITDA" with respect to the fiscal year ending December 31, 2017 ("Fiscal 2017") for purposes of Exhibit A to the Employment Agreement, Appendix B of Exhibit C to the Employment Agreement and Appendix B to the Restricted Stock Agreement is hereby decreased by $11,000,000 to $415,000,000; and

(b) "Min EBITDA" and "Max EBITDA" with respect to Fiscal 2017 for purposes of the Exhibit A to the Employment Agreement are hereby decreased to $394,250,000 and $435,750,000, respectively.

Except as expressly set forth in this Letter, the Restricted Stock Agreement and Employment Agreement shall remain unchanged and shall continue in full force and effect according to their terms. For the avoidance of doubt, this Letter does not modify any minimum, target or maximum EBITDA thresholds for any fiscal year other than Fiscal 2017.

Exhibit 10.24

EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is entered into on January 29, 2016 (the "Effective Date"), by and between Life Time Fitness, Inc. (together with any of its parents, subsidiaries or affiliates, the "Company"), and Thomas Bergmann ("Executive").

The Company is a recognized leader in the health and fitness industry, including the design and operation of health and fitness centers, the creation, promotion and sale of nutritional products, the production of athletic events, the design and operation of wellness incentive programs, medical spas, spa/salons, and restaurants/cafes, and the publication of a healthy way of life magazine. The Company has enjoyed considerable growth and success in the industry because of its innovative, confidential and proprietary management and marketing methods and plans.

The Company desires to employ Executive commencing as of February 16, 2016 (the "Start Date"), and Executive desires to be employed by the Company, on the terms herein provided.

In consideration of the foregoing, and in order to accomplish all of the above objectives, the Company and Executive agree as follows:

1. Definitions.

a) "Board" shall mean the Board of Directors of LTF Holdings, Inc., the Company's parent.

b) "Cause" shall mean that Executive has:

(i) been convicted of, pleaded nolo contendere to, or been indicted for, (A) any serious or violent felony or (B) any crime involving dishonesty, fraud or unlawful behavior against or at the expense of the Company; or

(ii) engaged in gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of Executive's duties, where such acts adversely affect the business affairs of the Company in a material way provided that the foregoing shall not constitute Cause unless the Company first gives written notice to Executive within 90 days of the first occurrence of the condition, delineating the claimed breach and setting forth the Company's intention to terminate Executive's employment if such breach is not duly remedied within 30 business days, and the Executive fails to cure the condition within such 30- day period.

c) "Code" shall mean the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

d) "Disability" shall mean the inability of Executive to perform on a full-time basis the duties and responsibilities of Executive's employment with the Company by reason of Executive's illness or other physical or mental impairment or condition, as determined by a physician mutually acceptable to Executive and the Company, if such inability continues for an uninterrupted period of 90 days or more during any 365-day period. A period of inability shall be "uninterrupted" unless and until Executive returns to full-time work from the above-referenced leave for a continuous period of at least 180 days, excluding vacation days or sick days taken for reasons unrelated to the illness or other physical or mental impairment or condition necessitating the above-referenced leave.

e) "Good Reason" shall mean without Executive's express written consent, any of the following conditions shall occur, provided that none of the following conditions shall constitute Good Reason unless Executive first gives written notice to the Company within 90 days of the first occurrence of the condition, delineating the claimed breach and setting forth Executive's intention to terminate Executive's employment if such breach is not duly remedied within 30 business days, and the Company fails to cure the condition within such 30-day period:

(i) the Company has breached any material term(s) or material condition(s) of this Agreement, which breach was not caused by Executive;

(ii) the Company relocates its executive offices outside of a seventy-five (75) mile radius of its current location, and the relocation results in a material change to the geographic location at which Executive performs services;

(iii) the Company has reduced Executive's Total Target Compensation, except as permitted in Section 3(a);

(iv) the Company has assigned duties and responsibilities to Executive that are materially inconsistent with Executive's position, duties and responsibilities as set forth in Section 2(b), such that there occurs a material reduction in Executive's duties, responsibilities or authority as set forth in Section 2(b); or

(v) The Company has Executive report directly to any officer other than the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

f) "Notice of Termination" shall mean a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon, (ii) to the extent applicable, sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of Executive's employment under the provision so indicated, and (iii)if the Termination Date is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the Termination Date (which date, in the event of termination by Executive without Good Reason, shall not be less than ninety days after the giving of such notice). The failure by Executive or the Company to set forth in the Notice of Termination any fact or circumstance which contributes to a showing of Good Reason or Cause shall not waive any right of Executive or the Company, respectively, hereunder or preclude Executive or the Company, respectively, from asserting such fact or circumstance in enforcing Executive's or the Company's right hereunder.

g) "Restricted Period" shall mean the 18-month period following the Termination Date.

h) "Section 409A" shall mean Section 409A of the Code and the Department of Treasury regulations and other interpretive guidance issued thereunder, including without limitation any such regulations or other guidance that may be issued after the Effective Date.

i) "Termination Date" shall mean (i) if Executive's employment is terminated by the Company for Cause, or by Executive for any reason, the date of receipt of the Notice of Termination or any later date specified therein, as the case may be, (ii) if Executive's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause or Disability, the date on which the Company notifies Executive of such termination, and (iii) if Executive's employment is terminated by reason of death or Disability, the date of death of Executive or the first date Disability is determined, as the case may be; provided that, upon termination by Executive without Good Reason, the Board may, in its discretion, designate any date on or prior to the date specified in the Notice of Termination as the Termination Date for all purposes. For purposes of Section 5(a) of this Agreement, with respect to the timing of payments thereunder, Termination Date shall mean the date of Executive's separation from service with the Company within the meaning of Section 409A(a)(2)(A)(i) of the Code.

2. Term of Employment; Position and Duties

a) The term of Executive's employment with the Company under this Agreement (the "Term") shall be for the period beginning on the Start Date and continuing until Executive's employment with the Company is terminated in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

b) During the Term, Executive: (i) shall serve as the Company's Chief Financial Officer, with responsibilities, duties and authority customary for such position, subject to direction by the Company's Chief Executive Officer or the Board; (ii) shall report directly to the Company's Chief Executive Officer; (iii) shall devote a majority of Executive's working time and efforts to the business and affairs of the Company and its affiliates (provided that Executive will be permitted to manage his personal, financial and legal affairs, participate in trade associations and be involved in charitable and professional activities (including serving on charitable and professional boards and one board or equivalent governing body of a for-profit entity), to the extent such activities do not interfere or adversely affect Executive's duties and responsibilities to the Company); and (iv) agrees to observe and comply with the Company's rules and policies as adopted by the Company from time to time. The parties acknowledge and agree that Executive's duties, responsibilities and authority may include services for one or more subsidiaries or affiliates of the Company.

c) Unless otherwise requested by the Board in writing, upon Executive's termination of employment with the Company for any reason Executive shall automatically resign as of the Termination Date from all titles, positions and appointments Executive then holds with the Company, whether as an officer, director or employee (without any claim for compensation related thereto), and Executive hereby agrees to take all actions necessary to effectuate such resignations.

3. Compensation

a) Base Salary. During the Term, Executive shall receive a base salary at a rate of at least $600,000 per annum (prorated for any partial year), subject to annual review, which shall be paid in accordance with the customary payroll practices of the Company (the "Base Salary"); provided, however, the Company may reduce Executive's Base Salary as part of a Company-wide reduction in base salaries, which is applicable to similarly situated employees, but any such reduction to Executive's Base Salary may not exceed ten percent (10%) of Executive's Base Salary at the time of such reduction.

b) Annual Bonus Plan. With respect to each Company fiscal year that ends during the Term, commencing with the fiscal year ending December 31, 2016, Executive shall be eligible to earn an annual bonus (the "Annual Bonus") under the Company's annual cash-based incentive plan for executive vice presidents as may be approved, amended or replaced from time to time by the Board (the "Annual Bonus Plan"), subject to the terms and conditions of the Annual Bonus Plan, including measuring the Company's and Executive's performance against metrics established by the Board and/or the Company's Chief Executive Officer. Executive shall be eligible to participate in the Annual Bonus Plan for fiscal years 2016, 2017 and 2018, and for any fiscal year after fiscal year 2018 during which other executive vice presidents of the Company are eligible to participate in the Annual Bonus Plan. The Annual Bonus with respect to each fiscal year shall be payable within 30 days following the Board's receipt of the Company's audited financial statements for such fiscal year. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 3(b), no Annual Bonus shall be payable with respect to any fiscal year unless Executive remains continuously employed with the Company through the end of the applicable fiscal year.

c) Target Bonus. With respect to each Company fiscal year that ends during the Term, commencing with the fiscal year ending December 31, 2016, the Company shall establish a target cash-based incentive payment for Executive under the Annual Bonus Plan for the applicable fiscal year ("Target Bonus"). Notwithstanding any language in any Annual Bonus Plan to the contrary, Executive's Target Bonus for each of fiscal years 2016, 2017 and 2018 will be no less than $400,000, and the Company will pay Executive an Annual Bonus for each of fiscal years 2016, 2017 and 2018 that is equal to or greater than the Target Bonus for each such fiscal year, subject to Executive being employed with the Company through the end of applicable fiscal year. Any Target Bonus above $400,000 (for each of fiscal years 2016, 2017 and 2018) and any Target Bonus for any fiscal year after fiscal year

2018 will be based upon the same performance targets that apply to other executive vice presidents of the Company, to the extent applicable to Executive, and/or metrics agreed upon by Executive and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

d) Total Target Compensation. With respect to each Company fiscal year that ends during the Term, commencing with the fiscal year ending December 31, 2016, Executive's "Total Target Compensation" means the sum of Executive's Base Salary and Executive's Target Bonus in effect as of the applicable date; provided, however, that for purposes of Section 5(a) below, in the event Executive's employment is terminated by Executive for Good Reason pursuant to Section l(e)(iii), "Total Target Compensation as of the Termination Date" shall mean Executive's Base Salary or Target Bonus in effect as of immediately prior to the reduction in Executive's Base Salary or Target Bonus that gave rise to Good Reason under Section 1 (e)(iii).

e) Equity Awards. As of the Start Date, Executive will be granted a stock option award the "Option") under the Company's LTF Holdings, Inc. 2015 Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). The Option will provide Executive with the opportunity to purchase 1,200,000 shares of the Company's common stock, will have a term of ten years, and will vest and become exercisable ratably on an annual basis over a five year period. The option will be subject to such additional terms and conditions as are specified in the Plan and in the applicable form of agreement granting the Option under the Plan. Additional equity grants will be based on performance and/or promotion at the discretion of the Board and/or the Company's Chief Executive Officer.

f) Relocation. Provided Executive completes Executive's relocation from the Chicago, Illinois metropolitan area to the Minneapolis/St. Paul, Minnesota metropolitan area no later than September 30, 2016, the Company will reimburse Executive for the following reasonable costs associated with Executive and Executive's immediate family relocating from the Chicago, Illinois metropolitan area to the Minneapolis/St. Paul, Minnesota metropolitan area: (i) the reasonable cost for temporary housing for Executive and Executive's significant other from the Start Date through no later than September 30, 2016; plus (ii) the actual costs of Executive's real estate brokerage and related fees, closing costs and legal expenses in connection with the sale of Executive's current primary residence in Illinois and closing costs in connection with Executive's purchase of a home in the Minneapolis/St. Paul, Minnesota metropolitan area, plus (iii) the actual travel costs for up to two round trips by Executive's significant other from Chicago to Minneapolis/St. Paul, plus (iv) the actual costs of moving the household goods and personal effects of Executive and Executive's immediate family (excluding extraordinary or unusual relocation expenses, such as relocating valuable personal property collections) from the Chicago, Illinois metropolitan area to the Minneapolis/St. Paul, Minnesota metropolitan area by one or more vendors agreed upon by Executive and the Company; provided, however, that the total combined reimbursement amounts paid to Executive under (i) through (iv) of this Section 1 (f) (excluding the tax gross up described below in this Section 1(f)) will not exceed $150,000. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company's relocation reimbursement obligations under this Section 1(f) are subject to any withholdings required under applicable law and Executive's submission of appropriate receipts, and do not include any reimbursement for any relocation expenses not specifically identified above. If Executive fails to complete Executive's relocation from the Chicago, Illinois metropolitan area to the Minneapolis/St. Paul, Minnesota metropolitan area no later than September 30, 2016, then Executive must reimburse the Company for any payments made by the Company under this Section 1(f) no later than October 31, 2016 unless Executive's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or Executive resigns for Good Reason before September 30, 2016. The Company shall gross up for tax purposes any deemed income arising pursuant to the payment or benefits provided under this Section 3(f) (other than any profit resulting from any sale of Executive's residence), so that the economic benefit is the same to Executive as if such payment or benefits were provided on a non- taxable basis to Executive.

g) Vehicle Lease. While the Executive is employed by the Company, the Company will lease a BMW X5 or materially comparable automobile for the Executive, and the Company will pay for all ordinary insurance, use, repair and maintenance expenses with respect to such automobile. The Company shall gross up for tax purposes any deemed income arising pursuant to the payment or benefits provided under this Section 3(g), so that the economic benefit is the same to Executive as if such payment or benefits were provided on a non-taxable basis to Executive.

h) Benefits and Expenses.

(i) Executive shall be eligible to participate in the employee benefit plans of the Company, subject to and on a basis consistent with the terms, conditions, and overall administration of such plans and arrangements applicable to similarly situated employees, except as otherwise provided herein. Executive shall pay any contributions which are generally required of employees to receive any such benefits. The Company provides no assurance as to the adoption or continuance of any particular employee benefit plan or program, and Executive's participation in any such plan or program shall be subject to the provisions, rules and regulations applicable thereto.

(ii) Executive shall be entitled to all paid holidays and paid vacation and leave in accordance with the Company's policy.

(iii) Executive shall be reimbursed for reasonable business travel and entertainment expenses in connection with the performance of Executive's duties in accordance with the policies applicable to similarly situated employees, as amended from time to time.

4. Notice of Termination.

Any termination of Executive's employment by the Company for Cause, or by Executive for any reason, shall be communicated by Notice of Termination to the other party hereto.

5. Payments upon Termination of Employment.

a) If Executive's employment with the Company is terminated (i) by the Company for any reason other than for Cause, death or Disability or (ii) by Executive for Good Reason such that the Termination Date occurs within six months of the first occurrence of the condition giving rise to Good Reason, then the Company shall pay to Executive the following amounts, subject to the conditions of Section 5(d) below:

(i) Target Compensation Continuation. The Company will pay to Executive an amount equal to 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Termination Date, but not to exceed a maximum amount of two times the lesser of: (x) the Code § 401(a)(17) compensation limit for the year in which the Termination Date occurs; or (y) the sum of Executive's annualized compensation based upon the annual rate of pay for services provided to the Company for the calendar year prior to the calendar year in which the Termination Date occurs (adjusted for any increase during that year that was expected to continue indefinitely) (the "Target Compensation Continuation Amount"). Such Target Compensation Continuation Amount shall be paid to Executive in equal installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll schedule, commencing on the first regular payroll date of the Company that occurs following the Termination Date and continuing for six months; provided that to the extent that any portion of such payment is delayed pursuant to Section 5(d), such portion shall be paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following the 60th day following the Termination Date. The Company and Executive intend the payments under this Section 5(a)(i) to constitute a "separation pay plan due to involuntary separation from service" pursuant to Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1 (b)(9)(iii).

(ii) Potential Make-Up Payment. In the event that the Target Compensation Continuation Amount is reduced under Section 5(a)(i) from 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Termination Date by application of clause (x) or (y) thereof, then the Company shall make an additional lump sum payment to the Executive equal to the difference between (x) 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Termination Date, and (y) the amount to be paid to the Executive under Section 5(a)(i) as a result of the application of clause (x) or (y) thereof. Such payment will be paid to the Executive on the Company's first regular payroll date that is after the expiration of all rescission periods identified in the release of claims described in Section 5(d) but in no event later than 75 days after the Termination Date. The Company and Executive intend the payments under this Section 5(a)(ii) to be a "short-term deferral" under Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-l(b)(4).

(iii) Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation. The Company will pay to Executive an additional amount equal to 100% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Termination Date (the "Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation Amount"). Such Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation Amount shall be paid to Executive in equal installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll schedule, commencing on the first regular payroll date of the Company that occurs following completion of all payments under Section 5(a)(i) (and in any event commencing no earlier than the first day of the seventh month after the Termination Date) and continuing for 12 months. The Company and Executive intend the payments under this Section 5(a)(iii) to be deferred compensation payable either in accordance with the "short-term deferral" exception under Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(4) or in compliance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code.

(iv) Continuation of Benefits. If Executive is eligible for and takes all steps necessary to continue Executive's group health insurance coverage with the Company following the Termination Date (including completing and returning the forms necessary to elect COBRA coverage), the Company will pay for the portion of the premium costs for such coverage that the Company would pay if Executive remained employed by the Company, at the same level of coverage that was in effect as of the Termination Date, through the earliest of: (x) the eighteen (18) month anniversary of the Termination Date, (y) the date Executive becomes eligible for group health insurance coverage from any other employer, or (z) the date Executive is no longer eligible to continue Executive's group health insurance coverage with the Company under applicable law. The Company shall gross up for tax purposes any deemed income arising pursuant to the payment or benefits provided under this Section 5(a)(iv), so that the economic benefit is the same to Executive as if such payment or benefits were provided on a non-taxable basis to Executive.

b) Subject to Section 5(d), if Executive's employment with the Company is terminated by reason of:

(i) Executive's resignation for any reason other than Good Reason;

(ii) the Company's termination of Executive's employment for Cause; or

(iii) Executive's Disability or death.

then the Company shall pay to Executive or Executive's beneficiary or Executive's estate, as the case may be, Executive's Base Salary through the Termination Date and any Annual Bonus earned but unpaid for the prior fiscal year if not paid prior to the Termination Date, and Executive shall not be entitled to receive any pro-rated Annual Bonus for the fiscal year in which the Termination Date occurs.

c) In the event of termination of Executive's employment, the sole obligation of the Company shall be its obligation to make the payments called for by Section 5(a) or 5(b) hereof, as the case may be, and the Company shall have no other obligation to Executive or to Executive's beneficiary or Executive's estate, except as otherwise provided by law, under the terms of any subsequent written agreement between Executive and the Company, and under the terms of any employee benefit plans or programs then maintained by the Company in which Executive participates (other than any such plans or programs that provide for severance or similar benefits).

d) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 5, the Company shall not make any payments to Executive under Section 5(a) above unless and until, as of the 60th day following the Termination Date: (i) Executive has signed a separation agreement and general release to be prepared by the Board in its reasonable discretion substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A; and (ii) all applicable rescission periods provided by law for releases of claims have expired and Executive has not rescinded such release of claims.

6. Covenants. In consideration of this Agreement, Executive agrees as follows:

a) Introduction. The parties acknowledge that the provisions and covenants contained in this Section 6 are material to this Agreement and that the limitations contained in this Agreement are reasonable in geographic and temporal scope and do not impose a greater restriction or restraint than is necessary to protect the goodwill and other legitimate business interests of the Company. The parties also acknowledge and agree that the provisions of this Section 6 do not adversely affect Executive's ability to earn a living in any capacity that does not violate the covenants contained herein.

b) Confidential Information. Except as permitted by the Board, during the term of Executive's employment with the Company and at all times thereafter, Executive shall not divulge, furnish or make accessible to anyone or use in any way other than in the ordinary course of the business of the Company, any confidential, proprietary or secret knowledge or information of the Company, whether developed by Executive or others, including but not limited to (i) trade secrets, (ii) confidential and proprietary plans, developments, research, processes, designs, methods or material (whether or not patented or patentable), (iii) customer and supplier lists, (iv) strategic or other business, marketing or sales plans, and (v) financial data and plans. Executive acknowledges that the above-described knowledge and information constitutes a unique and valuable asset of the Company and represents a substantial investment of time and expense by the Company, and that any disclosure or other use of such knowledge or information other than for the sole benefit of the Company would be wrongful and would cause irreparable harm to the Company. During the term of Executive's employment with the Company, Executive shall refrain from any intentional acts or omissions that would reduce the value of such knowledge or information to the Company. The foregoing obligations of confidentiality shall not apply to any knowledge or information that (A) is now or subsequently becomes generally publicly known for reasons other than Executive's violation of this Agreement, (B) is independently made available to Executive in good faith by a third party who has not violated a confidential relationship with the Company, or (C) is required to be disclosed by legal process, other than as a direct or indirect result of the breach of this Agreement by Executive.

c) Ventures. If, during Executive's employment with the Company, Executive is engaged in or associated with the planning or implementing of any project, program or venture involving the Company, all rights in such project, program or venture shall belong to the Company. Except as approved in writing by the Board, Executive shall not be entitled to any interest in any such project, program or venture or to any commission, finder's fee or other compensation in connection therewith. Executive shall have no interest, direct or indirect, in any customer or supplier that conducts business with the Company, provided that a passive investment of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any customer or supplier listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this sentence.

d) Agreement Not to Compete. During Executive's employment with the Company and the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise) in any Company Business (as defined below) in the Territory (as defined below). For purposes of this Section 6, (i) "Company Business" means (A) the design, development, operation, management, promotion, marketing or sale of products and services including health and fitness clubs, health and fitness club memberships and services, nutritional supplements, wellness incentive programs, medical spas, spa/salons, and restaurants/cafes located in health clubs, (B) the publication of any health and fitness publications and/or (C) the sale, design or promotion of any other product or service that grows into a material business for the Company (or any product or service under development which the Company has spent a material amount of time, money or other resources to develop and such product or service is projected to grow into a material business for the Company) as of the Termination Date, and (ii) "Territory" means the United States, Canada and any other country in which the Company is then doing Company Business as of the Termination Date. Ownership by Executive, as a passive investment, of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any corporation listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this Section 6(d).

e) Agreement Not to Solicit or Hire Employees. During Executive's employment with the Company and the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit for the purpose of employing or otherwise engaging any person who is then an employee of the Company or who was an employee of the Company as of the Termination Date or at any time in the six-month period prior to solicitation, or (ii) hire or engage any person (A) who is (or, in the six-month period prior to hire, was) a director or officer of the Company, or (B) who was a key management employee over which Executive had any direct supervisory authority or with which Executive had directly interacted on a regular basis at any time during his employment with the Company, in each case, in any manner or capacity, including without limitation as a proprietor, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise. This Section 6(e) shall not restrict Executive or any future employer of Executive, or any entity in which Executive may own, directly or indirectly, an equity interest in, from placing notices of general solicitation of employment by means of advertisements, public notices, search firm inquiries or internal or external websites or job search engines which do not specifically target the aforementioned individuals and hiring individuals responding to such general solicitations, provided that such general solicitation does not eliminate Executive's individual restrictions on soliciting, hiring or engaging persons as set forth above.

f) Agreement Not to Solicit Business Relations. During Executive's employment with the Company and the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit, request, advise or induce any current or potential customer, supplier or other business contact of the Company to cancel, curtail or otherwise change its relationship with the Company, in any manner or capacity, including without limitation as a proprietor, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise.

g) Blue Pencil Doctrine. If the duration of, the scope of or any business activity covered by any provision of this Section 6 is in excess of what is valid and enforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be construed to cover only that duration, scope or activity that is valid and enforceable. Executive hereby acknowledges that this Section 6 shall be given the construction that renders its provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent, not exceeding its express terms, possible under applicable law.

h) Company Breach. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 6, if (i) Executive is entitled to any payments pursuant to Section 5(a) and (ii) the Company fails in any material respect to make such payments in accordance with Section 5(a) and does not cure such failure within 30 days following the receipt of written notice of such failure from Executive, then the restrictive covenants in Sections 6(d), (e) and (f) shall cease to apply following the expiration of such 30- day period unless and until the Company cures such failure thereafter.

7. Intellectual Property and Related Matters.

a) Protectable Material. All right, title and interest in all discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that Executive shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others during the term of Executive's employment with the Company (i) that are directly related to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or that results from any work performed by Executive for the Company, (ii) for which any equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and/or (iii) which was not developed entirely on Executive's own time, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark ("Protectable Material"), shall be the property of the Company and are hereby assigned by Executive to the Company (and Executive agrees to assign all Protectable Material to the Company in the future), along with ownership of any and all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights in the Protectable Material. Upon request and without further compensation therefor, but at no expense to Executive, Executive shall execute any and all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the Company to obtain and register patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights on the Protectable Materials in any and all countries. Where applicable, works of authorship created by Executive for the Company in performing Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be considered "works made for hire," as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act. Notwithstanding any other language in this Section 7(a) to the contrary, in accordance with Minnesota Statute Section 181.78 this Section 7(a) does not require Executive to assign or offer to assign to the Company any invention for which no equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and which was developed entirely on Executive's own time, and (A) which does not relate (y) directly to the business of the Company or (z) to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or (B) which does not result from any work performed by Executive for the Company.

b) Trade Secrets. All trade secret information conceived or originated by Executive that arises during the term of Executive's employment with the Company and out of the performance of Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder or any related material or information shall be the property of the Company, and all rights therein are hereby assigned by Executive to the Company.

c) Inventions/Non-Protectable Material. During the Term, Executive shall be obligated to inform the Company of any discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that Executive shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark, that he reasonably believes do not constitute Protectable Material (any such material that is not Protectable Material, "Non-Protectable Material") and, to the extent such material constitutes Non-Protectable Material, the Company shall have no rights, title or interests in such material (unless otherwise agreed with Executive).

8. Return of Records and Property. On or within thirty days of the Termination Date, Executive shall promptly deliver to the Company any and all Company records and any and all Company property in Executive's possession or under Executive's control, and all copies thereof, including without limitation manuals, books, blank forms, documents, letters, memoranda, notes, notebooks, reports, printouts, computer disks, computer tapes, source codes, data, tables or calculations, keys, access cards, access codes, passwords, credit cards, personal computers, telephones and other electronic equipment belonging to the Company.

9. Remedies. Executive acknowledges that the provisions of Sections 6 through 8 and Section 11 are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, and that any violation of those provisions by Executive would cause substantial and irreparable harm to the Company to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefore. Therefore, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any such provisions, the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies it may have, be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief to enforce such provisions and to restrain Executive from violating or continuing to violate such provisions, and such relief may be granted without the necessity of proving actual monetary damages or posting bond. The preceding sentence shall not be construed to prevent Executive from disputing the factual basis of any remedies or defenses asserted by the Company. Executive agrees that the Restricted Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which he is in violation of the terms of Sections 6(d), (e) or (f), in order that the Company and its affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. Subject to Section 6(h), no breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company, or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of Executive's employment relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish Executive's obligation to comply with Sections 6 through 8 and Section 11 hereof. Each of the Company's affiliates shall have the right to enforce all of Executive's obligations to that affiliate under this Agreement, including without limitation pursuant to Sections 6 through 8 and Section 11 hereof.

10. Indemnification. The Company agrees to defend and indemnify Executive to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and the Company's governing documents and Executive shall be entitled to the protection of any insurance policies the Company maintains generally for the benefit of its directors and officers.

11. Non-Disparagement. Executive will not malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of the Company or any of its affiliates, or the reputation or character of the Company's or any of its affiliates' directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents, provided that nothing in this Section 11 shall be construed to limit or restrict Executive from taking any action that Executive in good faith reasonably believes is necessary to fulfill Executive's fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter. The Company shall instruct its current executive officers and directors not to malign, defame or disparage the reputation or image of Executive, provided that nothing in this Section 11 shall be construed to limit or restrict such officers and directors from taking any action that they in good faith reasonably believe is necessary to fulfill their fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter.

12. Miscellaneous.

a) Governing Law. All matters relating to the interpretation, construction, application, validity and enforcement of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Minnesota without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule, whether of the State of Minnesota or any other jurisdiction, that would cause the application of laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Minnesota.

b) Jurisdiction and Venue. Executive and the Company consent to jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Minnesota and/or the United States District Court, District of Minnesota, for the purpose of resolving all issues of law, equity, or fact, arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. Any action involving claims of a breach of this Agreement shall be brought in such courts. Each party consents to personal jurisdiction over such party in the aforementioned courts and hereby waives any defense of lack of personal jurisdiction. Venue, for the purpose of all such suits, shall be in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

c) Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings with respect to the subject matter hereof. The parties have made no agreements, representations or warranties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement that are not set forth herein.

d) No Violation of Other Agreements. Executive hereby represents and affirms that neither Executive's entering into and undertaking of obligations under this Agreement nor Executive's employment with the Company violate any other agreement (oral, written or other) to which Executive is a party or by which Executive is bound.

e) Amendments. No amendment or modification of this Agreement shall be deemed effective unless made in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

f) No Waiver. No term or condition of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been waived, except by a statement in writing signed by the party against whom enforcement of the waiver is sought. Any written waiver shall not be deemed a continuing waiver unless specifically stated, shall operate only as to the specific term or condition waived and shall not constitute a waiver of such term or condition for the future or as to any act other than that specifically waived.

g) Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assignable, in whole or in party, by either party without the written consent of the other party, except that the Company may, without the consent of Executive, assign all, but not less than all, of its rights and obligations under this Agreement to any corporation or other business entity (i) with which the Company may merge or consolidate, (ii) to which the Company may sell or transfer all or substantially all of its assets or capital stock, or (iii) of which 50% or more of the capital stock or the voting control is owned, directly or indirectly, by the Company. After any such assignment by the Company, the Company shall be discharged from all further liability hereunder and such assignee shall thereafter be deemed to be the "Company" for purposes of all terms and conditions of this Agreement, including this Section 12(g).

h) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by facsimile, such counterparts executed and delivered, each as an original, shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

i) Severability. Subject to Section 6(g) hereof, to the extent that any portion of any provision of this Agreement shall be invalid or unenforceable, it shall be considered deleted herefrom and the remainder of such provision and of this Agreement shall be unaffected and shall continue in full force and effect.

j) Captions and Headings. The captions and paragraph headings used in this Agreement are for convenience or reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement or any of the provisions hereof.

k) Legal Expenses. The prevailing party shall be entitled to recover all legal fees and expenses which such party may reasonably incur as a result of any legal proceeding relating to the validity, enforceability, or breach of, or liability under, any provision of this Agreement or any guarantee of performance. Any recovery of legal fees and expenses due to the prevailing party pursuant to this Section 12(k) shall be paid by the non-prevailing party no later than thirty (30) days after a final determination of an award of legal fees and expenses to the prevailing party.

l) Notices. Any notice hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if delivered by hand, sent by reliable next-day courier, or sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the party to receive such notice addressed as follows:

If to the Company:

or addressed to such other address as may have been furnished to the sender by notice hereunder. Except as otherwise provided herein, all notices shall be deemed given on the date on which delivered if delivered by hand, or on the date sent if sent by overnight courier or certified mail, except that notice of change of address will be effective only upon receipt by the other party.

m) Tax Withholding. The Company may withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement such federal, state and local income and employment taxes as the Company shall determine are required or authorized to be withheld pursuant to any applicable law or regulation. Except for any tax amounts withheld by the Company from any compensation that Executive may receive in connection with Executive's employment with the Company and any employer taxes required to be paid by the Company under applicable laws or regulations, Executive is solely responsible for payment of any and all taxes owed in connection with any compensation, benefits, reimbursement amounts or other payments Executive receives from the Company under this Agreement or otherwise in connection with Executive's employment with the Company. The Company does not guarantee any particular tax consequence or result with respect to any payment made by the Company. In no event should this Section 12(m) or any other provision of this Agreement be construed to require the Company to provide any gross-up for the tax consequences of any provisions of, or payments under, this Agreement, and the Company has no responsibility for tax or legal consequences to Executive resulting from the terms or operation of this Agreement.

n) Section 280G. In the event that it shall be determined that any right to receive payment or other benefit under this Agreement or any other agreement by and between Executive and the Company, to or for the benefit of Executive (the "Payments"), would, in whole or part when aggregated with any other right, payment or benefit to or for Executive under all other agreements or benefit plans of any other person or entity, be nondeductible by the Company (or other person making such payment or providing such benefit) as a result of Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject Executive to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax") then, subject to Executive's written agreement waiving his right to receive some or all of such payment or benefit (the "Waived Benefit") so that all remaining Payments shall not be deemed to be a parachute payment that would not be deductible under Section 280G of the Code (and accepting in substitution for the Waived Benefit the right to receive the Waived Benefit only if approved by the stockholders of the Company in a manner that complies with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code), the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and deliver to its stockholders the disclosure required by Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code with respect to the Payments and to obtain the approval of the Company's stockholders in a manner that complies with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code.

o) Section 409A.

(i) The Company shall undertake to administer, interpret and construe this Agreement in a manner that does not result in the imposition on Executive of any additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, and to comply with Section 409A to the extent applicable. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines in good faith that any provision of this Agreement would cause Executive to incur an additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, the Company and Executive shall cooperate in good faith to (A) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, as the Company and Executive determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement and to avoid less favorable accounting or tax consequences for the Company and/or (B) take such other actions as the Company and Executive determine to be necessary or appropriate to exempt the amounts payable hereunder from Section 409A or to comply with the requirements of Section 409A and thereby avoid the application of penalty taxes thereunder. No provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted or construed to transfer any liability for failure to comply with the requirements of Section 409A from Executive or any other individual to the Company or any of its affiliates, employees or agents.

(ii) Separation from Service under Section 409A. (A) To the extent any payment hereunder constitutes "nonqualified deferred compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A, any such payment to be made under this Agreement upon a termination of employment shall only be made if such termination of employment constitutes a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Department of Treasury Regulations, (B) for purposes of Section 409A, Executive's right to receive installment payments pursuant to Section 5(a) shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments; and (C) to the extent that any reimbursement of expenses or in-kind benefits constitutes "deferred compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A, such reimbursement or benefit shall be provided no later than December 31 of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred. The amount of expenses reimbursed in one year shall not affect the amount eligible for reimbursement in any subsequent year. The amount of any in- kind benefits provided in one year shall not affect the amount ofin-kind benefits provided in any other year. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if at the time of Executive's separation from service, he is a "specified employee," determined in accordance with Section 409A, any payments and benefits provided under this Agreement that constitute "nonqualified deferred compensation" subject to Section 409A that are provided to Executive on account of his separation from service shall not be paid until the first payroll date to occur following the six-month anniversary of Executive's termination date ("Specified Employee Payment Date"). The aggregate amount of any payments that would otherwise have been made during such six-month period shall be paid in a lump sum on the Specified Employee Payment Date and, thereafter, any remaining payments shall be paid without delay in accordance with their original schedule. If Executive dies during the six-month period, any delayed payments shall be paid to Executive's estate in a lump sum upon Executive's death.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Executive and the Company have executed this Agreement as of the date first set forth in the first paragraph.

Exhibit 10.25

EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is entered into on October , 2016 (the "Effective Date"), by and between Life Time Fitness, Inc. (together with any of its parents, subsidiaries or affiliates, the "Company"), and Eric Buss ("Executive").

The Company is a recognized leader in the health and fitness industry, including the design and operation of health and fitness centers, the creation, promotion and sale of nutritional products, the production of athletic events, the design and operation of wellness incentive programs, medical spas, spa/salons, and restaurants/cafés, and the publication of a healthy way of life magazine. The Company has enjoyed considerable growth and success in the industry because of its innovative, confidential and proprietary management and marketing methods and plans.

The Company desires to continue to employ Executive commencing as of October , 2016 (the "Start Date"), and Executive desires to continue employment with the Company, on the terms herein provided.

In consideration of the foregoing, and in order to accomplish all of the above objectives, the Company and Executive agree as follows:

1. Definitions.

a) "Board" shall mean the Board of Directors of LTF Holdings, Inc., the Company's parent.

b) "Cause" shall mean that Executive has:

(i) been convicted of, pleaded nolo contendere to, or been indicted for, (A) any serious or violent felony or (B) any crime involving dishonesty, fraud or unlawful behavior against or at the expense of the Company; or

(ii) engaged in gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of Executive's duties, where such acts adversely affect the business affairs of the Company in a material way provided that the foregoing shall not constitute Cause unless the Company first gives written notice to Executive within 90 days of the first occurrence of the condition, delineating the claimed breach and setting forth the Company's intention to terminate Executive's employment if such breach is not duly remedied within 30 business days, and the Executive fails to cure the condition within such 30-day period.

c) "Code" shall mean the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

d) "Disability" shall mean the inability of Executive to perform on a full-time basis the duties and responsibilities of Executive's employment with the Company by reason of Executive's illness or other physical or mental impairment or condition, as determined by a physician mutually acceptable to Executive and the Company, if such inability continues for an uninterrupted period of 90 days or more during any 365-day period. A period of inability shall be "uninterrupted" unless and until Executive returns to full-time work from the above-referenced leave for a continuous period of at least 180 days, excluding vacation days or sick days taken for reasons unrelated to the illness or other physical or mental impairment or condition necessitating the above-referenced leave.

e) "Good Reason" shall mean without Executive's express written consent, any of the following conditions shall occur, provided that none of the following conditions shall constitute Good Reason unless Executive first gives written notice to the Company within 90 days of the first occurrence of the condition, delineating the claimed breach and setting forth Executive's intention to terminate Executive's employment if such breach is not duly remedied within 30 business days, and the Company fails to cure the condition within such 30-day period:

(i) the Company has breached any material term(s) or material condition(s) of this Agreement, which breach was not caused by Executive;

(ii) the Company relocates its executive offices outside of a seventy-five (75) mile radius of its current location, and the relocation results in a material change to the geographic location at which Executive performs services;

(iii) the Company has reduced Executive's Total Target Compensation, except as permitted in Section 3(a); or

(iv) the Company has assigned duties and responsibilities to Executive that are materially inconsistent with Executive's position, duties and responsibilities as set forth in Section 2(b), such that there occurs a material reduction in Executive's duties, responsibilities or authority as set forth in Section 2(b).

f) "Notice of Termination" shall mean a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon, (ii) to the extent applicable, sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of Executive's employment under the provision so indicated, and (iii) if the Termination Date is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the Termination Date (which date, in the event of termination by Executive without Good Reason, shall not be less than ninety days after the giving of such notice). The failure by Executive or the Company to set forth in the Notice of Termination any fact or circumstance which contributes to a showing of Good Reason or Cause shall not waive any right of Executive or the Company, respectively, hereunder or preclude Executive or the Company, respectively, from asserting such fact or circumstance in enforcing Executive's or the Company's right hereunder.

g) "Restricted Period" shall mean the 18-month period following the Termination Date.

h) "Section 409A" shall mean Section 409A of the Code and the Department of Treasury regulations and other interpretive guidance issued thereunder, including without limitation any such regulations or other guidance that may be issued after the Effective Date.

i) "Termination Date" shall mean (i) if Executive's employment is terminated by the Company for Cause, or by Executive for any reason, the date of receipt of the Notice of Termination or any later date specified therein, as the case may be, (ii) if Executive's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause or Disability, the date on which the Company notifies Executive of such termination, and (iii) if Executive's employment is terminated by reason of death or Disability, the date of death of Executive or the first date Disability is determined, as the case may be; provided that, upon termination by Executive without Good Reason, the Board may, in its discretion, designate any date on or prior to the date specified in the Notice of Termination as the Termination Date for all purposes. For purposes of Section 5(a) of this Agreement, with respect to the timing of payments thereunder, Termination Date shall mean the date of Executive's separation from service with the Company within the meaning of Section 409A(a)(2)(A)(i) of the Code.

2. Term of Employment; Position and Duties

a) The term of Executive's employment with the Company under this Agreement (the "Term") shall be for the period beginning on the Start Date and continuing until Executive's employment with the Company is terminated in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

b) During the Term, Executive: (i) shall serve as the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Compliance Officer, with responsibilities, duties and authority customary for such position, subject to direction by the Company's Chief Executive Officer or the Board; (ii) shall report directly to the Company's Chief Executive Officer; (iii) shall devote a majority of Executive's working time and efforts to the business and affairs of the Company and its affiliates (provided that Executive will be permitted to manage his personal, financial and legal affairs, participate in trade associations and be involved in charitable and professional activities (including serving on charitable and professional boards and one board or equivalent governing body of a for-profit entity), to the extent such activities do not interfere or adversely affect Executive's duties and responsibilities to the Company); and (iv) agrees to observe and comply with the Company's rules and policies as adopted by the Company from time to time. The parties acknowledge and agree that Executive's duties, responsibilities and authority may include services for one or more subsidiaries or affiliates of the Company.

c) Unless otherwise requested by the Board in writing, upon Executive's termination of employment with the Company for any reason Executive shall automatically resign as of the Termination Date from all titles, positions and appointments Executive then holds with the Company, whether as an officer, director or employee (without any claim for compensation related thereto), and Executive hereby agrees to take all actions necessary to effectuate such resignations.

3. Compensation

a) Base Salary. During the Term, Executive shall receive a base salary at a rate of at least $500,000 per annum (prorated for any partial year), subject to annual review, which shall be paid in accordance with the customary payroll practices of the Company (the "Base Salary"); provided, however, the Company may reduce Executive's Base Salary as part of a Company-wide reduction in base salaries, which is applicable to similarly situated employees, but any such reduction to Executive's Base Salary may not exceed ten percent (10%) of Executive's Base Salary at the time of such reduction.

b) Annual Bonus Plan. With respect to each Company fiscal year that ends during the Term, commencing with the fiscal year ending December 31, 2016, Executive shall be eligible to earn an annual bonus (the "Annual Bonus") under the Company's annual cash-based incentive plan for executive vice presidents as may be approved, amended or replaced from time to time by the Board (the "Annual Bonus Plan"), subject to the terms and conditions of the Annual Bonus Plan, including measuring the Company's and Executive's performance against metrics established by the Board and/or the Company's Chief Executive Officer. Executive shall be eligible to participate in the Annual Bonus Plan for fiscal years 2016, 2017 and 2018, and for any fiscal year after fiscal year 2018 during which other executive vice presidents of the Company are eligible to participate in the Annual Bonus Plan. The Annual Bonus with respect to each fiscal year shall be payable within 30 days following the Board's receipt of the Company's audited financial statements for such fiscal year. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 3(b), no Annual Bonus shall be payable with respect to any fiscal year unless Executive remains continuously employed with the Company through the end of the applicable fiscal year.

c) Target Bonus. With respect to each Company fiscal year that ends during the Term, commencing with the fiscal year ending December 31, 2016, the Company shall establish a target cash-based incentive payment for Executive under the Annual Bonus Plan for the applicable fiscal year ("Target Bonus"). Notwithstanding any language in any Annual Bonus Plan to the contrary, Executive's Target Bonus for each of fiscal years 2016, 2017 and 2018 will be no less than $150,000, and the Company will pay Executive an Annual Bonus for each of fiscal years 2016, 2017 and 2018 that is equal to or greater than the Target Bonus for each such fiscal year, subject to Executive being employed with the Company through the end of applicable fiscal year. Any Target Bonus above $150,000 (for each of fiscal years 2016, 2017 and 2018) and any Target Bonus for any fiscal year after fiscal year 2018 will be based upon the same performance targets that apply to other executive vice presidents of the Company, to the extent applicable to Executive, and/or metrics agreed upon by Executive and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

d) Total Target Compensation. With respect to each Company fiscal year that ends during the Term, commencing with the fiscal year ending December 31, 2016, Executive's "Total Target Compensation" means the sum of Executive's Base Salary and Executive's Target Bonus in effect as of the applicable date; provided, however, that for purposes of Section 5(a) below, in the event Executive's employment is terminated by Executive for Good Reason pursuant to Section 1(e)(iii), "Total Target Compensation as of the Termination Date" shall mean Executive's Base Salary or Target Bonus in effect as of immediately prior to the reduction in Executive's Base Salary or Target Bonus that gave rise to Good Reason under Section 1(e)(iii).

e) Equity Awards. The Company granted a stock option award (the "Option") to Executive under the Company's LTF Holdings, Inc. 2015 Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). The Option provides Executive with the opportunity to purchase 750,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The Option is subject to such additional terms and conditions as are specified in the Plan and in the applicable form of agreement granting the Option under the Plan. Additional equity grants will be based on performance and/or promotion at the discretion of the Board and/or the Company's Chief Executive Officer.

f) Vehicle Lease. While the Executive is employed by the Company, the Company will lease a BMW X5 or materially comparable automobile for the Executive, and the Company will pay for all ordinary insurance, use, repair and maintenance expenses with respect to such automobile. The Company shall gross up for tax purposes any deemed income arising pursuant to the payment or benefits provided under this Section 3(g), so that the economic benefit is the same to Executive as if such payment or benefits were provided on a non-taxable basis to Executive.

g) Benefits and Expenses.

(i) Executive shall be eligible to participate in the employee benefit plans of the Company, subject to and on a basis consistent with the terms, conditions, and overall administration of such plans and arrangements applicable to similarly situated employees, except as otherwise provided herein. Executive shall pay any contributions which are generally required of employees to receive any such benefits. The Company provides no assurance as to the adoption or continuance of any particular employee benefit plan or program, and Executive's participation in any such plan or program shall be subject to the provisions, rules and regulations applicable thereto.

(ii) Executive shall be entitled to all paid holidays and paid vacation and leave in accordance with the Company's policy.

(iii) Executive shall be reimbursed for reasonable business travel and entertainment expenses in connection with the performance of Executive's duties in accordance with the policies applicable to similarly situated employees, as amended from time to time.

4. Notice of Termination.

Any termination of Executive's employment by the Company for Cause, or by Executive for any reason, shall be communicated by Notice of Termination to the other party hereto.

5. Payments upon Termination of Employment.

a) If Executive's employment with the Company is terminated (i) by the Company for any reason other than for Cause, death or Disability or (ii) by Executive for Good Reason such that the Termination Date occurs within six months of the first occurrence of the condition giving rise to Good Reason, then the Company shall pay to Executive the following amounts, subject to the conditions of Section 5(d) below:

(i) Target Compensation Continuation. The Company will pay to Executive an amount equal to 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Termination Date, but not to exceed a maximum amount of two times the lesser of: (x) the Code § 401(a)(17) compensation limit for the year in which the Termination Date occurs; or (y) the sum of Executive's annualized compensation based upon the annual rate of pay for services provided to the Company for the calendar year prior to the calendar year in which the Termination Date occurs (adjusted for any increase during that year that was expected to continue indefinitely) (the "Target Compensation Continuation Amount"). Such Target Compensation Continuation Amount shall be paid to Executive in equal installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll schedule, commencing on the first regular payroll date of the Company that occurs following the Termination Date and continuing for six months; provided that to the extent that any portion of such payment is delayed pursuant to Section 5(d), such portion shall be paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following the 60th day following the Termination Date. The Company and Executive intend the payments under this Section 5(a)(i) to constitute a "separation pay plan due to involuntary separation from service" pursuant to Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii).

(ii) Potential Make-Up Payment. In the event that the Target Compensation Continuation Amount is reduced under Section 5(a)(i) from 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Termination Date by application of clause (x) or (y) thereof, then the Company shall make an additional lump sum payment to the Executive equal to the difference between (x) 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Termination Date, and (y) the amount to be paid to the Executive under Section 5(a)(i) as a result of the application of clause (x) or (y) thereof.

Such payment will be paid to the Executive on the Company's first regular payroll date that is after the expiration of all rescission periods identified in the release of claims described in Section 5(d) but in no event later than 75 days after the Termination Date. The Company and Executive intend the payments under this Section 5(a)(ii) to be a "short-term deferral" under Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(4).

(iii) Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation. The Company will pay to Executive an additional amount equal to 100% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Termination Date (the "Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation Amount"). Such Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation Amount shall be paid to Executive in equal installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll schedule, commencing on the first regular payroll date of the Company that occurs following completion of all payments under Section 5(a)(i) (and in any event commencing no earlier than the first day of the seventh month after the Termination Date) and continuing for 12 months. The Company and Executive intend the payments under this Section 5(a)(iii) to be deferred compensation payable either in accordance with the "short-term deferral" exception under Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(4) or in compliance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code.

(iv) Continuation of Benefits. If Executive is eligible for and takes all steps necessary to continue Executive's group health insurance coverage with the Company following the Termination Date (including completing and returning the forms necessary to elect COBRA coverage), the Company will pay for the portion of the premium costs for such coverage that the Company would pay if Executive remained employed by the Company, at the same level of coverage that was in effect as of the Termination Date, through the earliest of: (x) the eighteen (18) month anniversary of the Termination Date, (y) the date Executive becomes eligible for group health insurance coverage from any other employer, or (z) the date Executive is no longer eligible to continue Executive's group health insurance coverage with the Company under applicable law. The Company shall gross up for tax purposes any deemed income arising pursuant to the payment or benefits provided under this Section 5(a)(iv), so that the economic benefit is the same to Executive as if such payment or benefits were provided on a non-taxable basis to Executive.

b) Subject to Section 5(d), if Executive's employment with the Company is terminated by reason of:

(i) Executive's resignation for any reason other than Good Reason;

(ii) the Company's termination of Executive's employment for Cause; or

(iii) Executive's Disability or death.

then the Company shall pay to Executive or Executive's beneficiary or Executive's estate, as the case may be,Executive's Base Salary through the Termination Date and any Annual Bonus earned but unpaid for the prior fiscal year if not paid prior to the Termination Date, and Executive shall not be entitled to receive any pro-rated Annual Bonus for the fiscal year in which the Termination Date occurs.

c) In the event of termination of Executive's employment, the sole obligation of the Company shall be its obligation to make the payments called for by Section 5(a) or 5(b) hereof, as the case may be, and the Company shall have no other obligation to Executive or to Executive's beneficiary or Executive's estate, except as otherwise provided by law, under the terms of any subsequent written agreement between Executive and the Company, and under the terms of any employee benefit plans or programs then maintained by the Company in which Executive participates (other than any such plans or programs that provide for severance or similar benefits).

d) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 5, the Company shall not make any payments to Executive under Section 5(a) above unless and until, as of the 60th day following the Termination Date: (i) Executive has signed a separation agreement and general release to be prepared by the Board in its reasonable discretion substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A; and (ii) all applicable rescission periods provided by law for releases of claims have expired and Executive has not rescinded such release of claims.

6. Covenants. In consideration of this Agreement, Executive agrees as follows:

a) Introduction. The parties acknowledge that the provisions and covenants contained in this Section 6 are material to this Agreement and that the limitations contained in this Agreement are reasonable in geographic and temporal scope and do not impose a greater restriction or restraint than is necessary to protect the goodwill and other legitimate business interests of the Company. The parties also acknowledge and agree that the provisions of this Section 6 do not adversely affect Executive's ability to earn a living in any capacity that does not violate the covenants contained herein.

b) Confidential Information. Except as permitted by the Board, during the term of Executive's employment with the Company and at all times thereafter, Executive shall not divulge, furnish or make accessible to anyone or use in any way other than in the ordinary course of the business of the Company, any confidential, proprietary or secret knowledge or information of the Company, whether developed by Executive or others, including but not limited to (i) trade secrets, (ii) confidential and proprietary plans, developments, research, processes, designs, methods or material (whether or not patented or patentable), (iii) customer and supplier lists, (iv) strategic or other business, marketing or sales plans, and (v) financial data and plans. Executive acknowledges that the above-described knowledge and information constitutes a unique and valuable asset of the Company and represents a substantial investment of time and expense by the Company, and that any disclosure or other use of such knowledge or information other than for the sole benefit of the Company would be wrongful and would cause irreparable harm to the Company. During the term of Executive's employment with the Company, Executive shall refrain from any intentional acts or omissions that would reduce the value of such knowledge or information to the Company. The foregoing obligations of confidentiality shall not apply to any knowledge or information that (A) is now or subsequently becomes generally publicly known for reasons other than Executive's violation of this Agreement, (B) is independently made available to Executive in good faith by a third party who has not violated a confidential relationship with the Company, or (C) is required to be disclosed by legal process, other than as a direct or indirect result of the breach of this Agreement by Executive.

c) Notice Regarding Trade Secrets. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official or to an attorney solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law. Executive shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal. If Executive files a lawsuit for retaliation by the Company for reporting a suspected violation of law, the Executive may disclose the trade secret to the attorney of the employee and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if the employee files any document containing the trade secret under seal and does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

d) Ventures. If, during Executive's employment with the Company, Executive is engaged in or associated with the planning or implementing of any project, program or venture involving the Company, all rights in such project, program or venture shall belong to the Company. Except as approved in writing by the Board, Executive shall not be entitled to any interest in any such project, program or venture or to any commission, finder's fee or other compensation in connection therewith. Executive shall have no interest, direct or indirect, in any customer or supplier that conducts business with the Company, provided that a passive investment of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any customer or supplier listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this sentence.

e) Agreement Not to Compete. During Executive's employment with the Company and the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise) in any Company Business (as defined below) in the Territory (as defined below). For purposes of this Section 6, (i) "Company Business" means (A) the design, development, operation, management, promotion, marketing or sale of products and services including health and fitness clubs, health and fitness club memberships and services, nutritional supplements, wellness incentive programs, medical spas, spa/salons, and restaurants/cafes located in health clubs, (B) the publication of any health and fitness publications and/or (C) the sale, design or promotion of any other product or service that grows into a material business for the Company (or any product or service under development which the Company has spent a material amount of time, money or other resources to develop and such product or service is projected to grow into a material business for the Company) as of the Termination Date, and (ii) "Territory" means the United States, Canada and any other country in which the Company is then doing Company Business as of the Termination Date. Ownership by Executive, as a passive investment, of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any corporation listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this Section 6(d).

f) Agreement Not to Solicit or Hire Employees. During Executive's employment with the Company and the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit for the purpose of employing or otherwise engaging any person who is then an employee of the Company or who was an employee of the Company as of the Termination Date or at any time in the six-month period prior to solicitation, or (ii) hire or engage any person (A) who is (or, in the six-month period prior to hire, was) a director or officer of the Company, or (B) who was a key management employee over which Executive had any direct supervisory authority or with which Executive had directly interacted on a regular basis at any time during his employment with the Company, in each case, in any manner or capacity, including without limitation as a proprietor, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise. This Section 6(e) shall not restrict Executive or any future employer of Executive, or any entity in which Executive may own, directly or indirectly, an equity interest in, from placing notices of general solicitation of employment by means of advertisements, public notices, search firm inquiries or internal or external websites or job search engines which do not specifically target the aforementioned individuals and hiring individuals responding to such general solicitations, provided that such general solicitation does not eliminate Executive's individual restrictions on soliciting, hiring or engaging persons as set forth above.

g) Agreement Not to Solicit Business Relations. During Executive's employment with the Company and the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit, request, advise or induce any current or potential customer, supplier or other business contact of the Company to cancel, curtail or otherwise change its relationship with the Company, in any manner or capacity, including without limitation as a proprietor, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise.

h) Blue Pencil Doctrine. If the duration of, the scope of or any business activity covered by any provision of this Section 6 is in excess of what is valid and enforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be construed to cover only that duration, scope or activity that is valid and enforceable. Executive hereby acknowledges that this Section 6 shall be given the construction that renders its provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent, not exceeding its express terms, possible under applicable law.

i) Company Breach. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 6, if (i) Executive is entitled to any payments pursuant to Section 5(a) and (ii) the Company fails in any material respect to make such payments in accordance with Section 5(a) and does not cure such failure within 30 days following the receipt of written notice of such failure from Executive, then the restrictive covenants in Sections 6(d), (e) and (f) shall cease to apply following the expiration of such 30-day period unless and until the Company cures such failure thereafter.

7. Intellectual Property and Related Matters.

a) Protectable Material. All right, title and interest in all discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that Executive shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others during the term of Executive's employment with the Company (i) that are directly related to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or that results from any work performed by Executive for the Company, (ii) for which any equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and/or (iii) which was not developed entirely on Executive's own time, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark ("Protectable Material"), shall be the property of the Company and are hereby assigned by Executive to the Company (and Executive agrees to assign all Protectable Material to the Company in the future), along with ownership of any and all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights in the Protectable Material. Upon request and without further compensation therefor, but at no expense to Executive, Executive shall execute any and all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the Company to obtain and register patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights on the Protectable Materials in any and all countries. Where applicable, works of authorship created by Executive for the Company in performing Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be considered "works made for hire," as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act. Notwithstanding any other language in this Section 7(a) to the contrary, in accordance with Minnesota Statute Section 181.78 this Section 7(a) does not require Executive to assign or offer to assign to the Company any invention for which no equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and which was developed entirely on Executive's own time, and (A) which does not relate (y) directly to the business of the Company or (z) to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or (B) which does not result from any work performed by Executive for the Company.

b) Trade Secrets. All trade secret information conceived or originated by Executive that arises during the term of Executive's employment with the Company and out of the performance of Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder or any related material or information shall be the property of the Company, and all rights therein are hereby assigned by Executive to the Company.

c) Inventions/Non-Protectable Material. During the Term, Executive shall be obligated to inform the Company of any discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that Executive shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark, that he reasonably believes do not constitute Protectable Material (any such material that is not Protectable Material, "Non-Protectable Material") and, to the extent such material constitutes Non-Protectable Material, the Company shall have no rights, title or interests in such material (unless otherwise agreed with Executive).

8. Return of Records and Property. On or within thirty days of the Termination Date, Executive shall promptly deliver to the Company any and all Company records and any and all Company property in Executive's possession or under Executive's control, and all copies thereof, including without limitation manuals, books, blank forms, documents, letters, memoranda, notes, notebooks, reports, printouts, computer disks, computer tapes, source codes, data, tables or calculations, keys, access cards, access codes, passwords, credit cards, personal computers, telephones and other electronic equipment belonging to the Company.

9. Remedies. Executive acknowledges that the provisions of Sections 6 through 8 and Section 11 are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, and that any violation of those provisions by Executive would cause substantial and irreparable harm to the Company to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefore. Therefore, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any such provisions, the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies it may have, be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief to enforce such provisions and to restrain Executive from violating or continuing to violate such provisions, and such relief may be granted without the necessity of proving actual monetary damages or posting bond. The preceding sentence shall not be construed to prevent Executive from disputing the factual basis of any remedies or defenses asserted by the Company. Executive agrees that the Restricted Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which he is in violation of the terms of Sections 6(d), (e) or (f), in order that the Company and its affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. Subject to Section 6(h), no breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company, or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of Executive's employment relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish Executive's obligation to comply with Sections 6 through 8 and Section 11 hereof. Each of the Company's affiliates shall have the right to enforce all of Executive's obligations to that affiliate under this Agreement, including without limitation pursuant to Sections 6 through 8 and Section 11 hereof.

10. Indemnification. The Company agrees to defend and indemnify Executive to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and the Company's governing documents and Executive shall be entitled to the protection of any insurance policies the Company maintains generally for the benefit of its directors and officers.

11. Non-Disparagement. Executive will not malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of the Company or any of its affiliates, or the reputation or character of the Company's or any of its affiliates' directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents, provided that nothing in this Section 11 shall be construed to limit or restrict Executive from taking any action that Executive in good faith reasonably believes is necessary to fulfill Executive's fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter. The Company shall instruct its current executive officers and directors not to malign, defame or disparage the reputation or image of Executive, provided that nothing in this Section 11 shall be construed to limit or restrict such officers and directors from taking any action that they in good faith reasonably believe is necessary to fulfill their fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter.

12. Miscellaneous.

a) Governing Law. All matters relating to the interpretation, construction, application, validity and enforcement of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Minnesota without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule, whether of the State of Minnesota or any other jurisdiction, that would cause the application of laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Minnesota.

b) Jurisdiction and Venue. Executive and the Company consent to jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Minnesota and/or the United States District Court, District of Minnesota, for the purpose of resolving all issues of law, equity, or fact, arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. Any action involving claims of a breach of this Agreement shall be brought in such courts. Each party consents to personal jurisdiction over such party in the aforementioned courts and hereby waives any defense of lack of personal jurisdiction. Venue, for the purpose of all such suits, shall be in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

c) Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings with respect to the subject matter hereof. The parties have made no agreements, representations or warranties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement that are not set forth herein.

d) No Violation of Other Agreements. Executive hereby represents and affirms that neither Executive's entering into and undertaking of obligations under this Agreement nor Executive's employment with the Company violate any other agreement (oral, written or other) to which Executive is a party or by which Executive is bound.

e) Amendments. No amendment or modification of this Agreement shall be deemed effective unless made in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

f) No Waiver. No term or condition of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been waived, except by a statement in writing signed by the party against whom enforcement of the waiver is sought. Any written waiver shall not be deemed a continuing waiver unless specifically stated, shall operate only as to the specific term or condition waived and shall not constitute a waiver of such term or condition for the future or as to any act other than that specifically waived.

g) Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assignable, in whole or in party, by either party without the written consent of the other party, except that the Company may, without the consent of Executive, assign all, but not less than all, of its rights and obligations under this Agreement to any corporation or other business entity (i) with which the Company may merge or consolidate, (ii) to which the Company may sell or transfer all or substantially all of its assets or capital stock, or (iii) of which 50% or more of the capital stock or the voting control is owned, directly or indirectly, by the Company. After any such assignment by the Company, the Company shall be discharged from all further liability hereunder and such assignee shall thereafter be deemed to be the "Company" for purposes of all terms and conditions of this Agreement, including this Section 12(g).

h) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by facsimile, such counterparts executed and delivered, each as an original, shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

i) Severability. Subject to Section 6(g) hereof, to the extent that any portion of any provision of this Agreement shall be invalid or unenforceable, it shall be considered deleted herefrom and the remainder of such provision and of this Agreement shall be unaffected and shall continue in full force and effect.

j) Captions and Headings. The captions and paragraph headings used in this Agreement are for convenience or reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement or any of the provisions hereof.

k) Legal Expenses. The prevailing party shall be entitled to recover all legal fees and expenses which such party may reasonably incur as a result of any legal proceeding relating to the validity, enforceability, or breach of, or liability under, any provision of this Agreement or any guarantee of performance. Any recovery of legal fees and expenses due to the prevailing party pursuant to this Section I 2(k) shall be paid by the non-prevailing party no later than thirty (30) days after a final determination of an award of legal fees and expenses to the prevailing party.

l) Notices. Any notice hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if delivered by hand, sent by reliable next-day courier, or sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the party to receive such notice addressed as follows:

If to the Company:

Life Time Fitness, Inc.

Attention: Executive Vice President, Human Resources

If to Executive:

or addressed to such other address as may have been furnished to the sender by notice hereunder. Except as otherwise provided herein, all notices shall be deemed given on the date on which delivered if delivered by hand, or on the date sent if sent by overnight courier or certified mail, except that notice of change of address will be effective only upon receipt by the other party.

m) Tax Withholding. The Company may withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement such federal, state and local income and employment taxes as the Company shall determine are required or authorized to be withheld pursuant to any applicable law or regulation. Except for any tax amounts withheld by the Company from any compensation that Executive may receive in connection with Executive's employment with the Company and any employer taxes required to be paid by the Company under applicable laws or regulations, Executive is solely responsible for payment of any and all taxes owed in connection with any compensation, benefits, reimbursement amounts or other payments Executive receives from the Company under this Agreement or otherwise in connection with Executive's employment with the Company. The Company does not guarantee any particular tax consequence or result with respect to any payment made by the Company. In no event should this Section 12(m) or any other provision of this Agreement be construed to require the Company to provide any gross-up for the tax consequences of any provisions of, or payments under, this Agreement, and the Company has no responsibility for tax or legal consequences to Executive resulting from the terms or operation of this Agreement.

n) Section 280G. In the event that it shall be determined that any right to receive payment or other benefit under this Agreement or any other agreement by and between Executive and the Company, to or for the benefit of Executive (the "Payments"), would, in whole or part when aggregated with any other right, payment or benefit to or for Executive under all other agreements or benefit plans of any other person or entity, be nondeductible by the Company (or other person making such payment or providing such benefit) as a result of Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject Executive to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax") then, subject to Executive's written agreement waiving his right to receive some or all of such payment or benefit (the "Waived Benefit") so that all remaining Payments shall not be deemed to be a parachute payment that would not be deductible under Section 280G of the Code (and accepting in substitution for the Waived Benefit the right to receive the Waived Benefit only if approved by the stockholders of the Company in a manner that complies with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code), the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and deliver to its stockholders the disclosure required by Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code with respect to the Payments and to obtain the approval of the Company's stockholders in a manner that complies with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code.

o) Section 409A.

(i) The Company shall undertake to administer, interpret and construe this Agreement in a manner that does not result in the imposition on Executive of any additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, and to comply with Section 409A to the extent applicable. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines in good faith that any provision of this Agreement would cause Executive to incur an additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, the Company and Executive shall cooperate in good faith to (A) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, as the Company and Executive determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement and to avoid less favorable accounting or tax consequences for the Company and/or (B) take such other actions as the Company and Executive determine to be necessary or appropriate to exempt the amounts payable hereunder from Section 409A or to comply with the requirements of Section 409A and thereby avoid the application of penalty taxes thereunder. No provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted or construed to transfer any liability for failure to comply with the requirements of Section 409A from Executive or any other individual to the Company or any of its affiliates, employees or agents.

(ii) Separation from Service under Section 409A. (A) To the extent any payment hereunder constitutes "nonqualified deferred compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A, any such payment to be made under this Agreement upon a termination of employment shall only be made if such termination of employment constitutes a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Department of Treasury Regulations, (B) for purposes of Section 409A, Executive's right to receive installment payments pursuant to Section 5(a) shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments; and (C) to the extent that any reimbursement of expenses or in-kind benefits constitutes "deferred compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A, such reimbursement or benefit shall be provided no later than December 31 of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred. The amount of expenses reimbursed in one year shall not affect the amount eligible for reimbursement in any subsequent year. The amount of any in- kind benefits provided in one year shall not affect the amount of in-kind benefits provided in any other year. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if at the time of Executive's separation from service, he is a "specified employee," determined in accordance with Section 409A, any payments and benefits provided under this Agreement that constitute "nonqualified deferred compensation" subject to Section 409A that are provided to Executive on account of his separation from service shall not be paid until the first payroll date to occur following the six-month anniversary of Executive's termination date ("Specified Employee Payment Date"). The aggregate amount of any payments that would otherwise have been made during such six-month period shall be paid in a lump sum on the Specified Employee Payment Date and, thereafter, any remaining payments shall be paid without delay in accordance with their original schedule. If Executive dies during the six-month period, any delayed payments shall be paid to Executive's estate in a lump sum upon Executive's death.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Executive and the Company have executed this Agreement as of the date first set forth in the first paragraph.

This EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is entered into on March , 2017 (the "Effective Date"), by and between Life Time Fitness, Inc. (together with any of its parents, subsidiaries or affiliates, the "Company"), and Jeff Zwiefel ("Executive").

The Company is a recognized leader in the health and fitness industry, including the design and operation of health and fitness centers, the creation, promotion and sale of nutritional products, the production of athletic events, the design and operation of wellness incentive programs, medical spas, spa/salons, and restaurants/cafés, and the publication of a healthy way of life magazine. The Company has enjoyed considerable growth and success in the industry because of its innovative, confidential and proprietary management and marketing methods and plans.

The Company desires to continue to employ Executive commencing as of March , 2017 (the "Start Date"), and Executive desires to continue employment with the Company, on the terms herein provided.

In consideration of the foregoing, and in order to accomplish all of the above objectives, the Company and Executive agree as follows:

1. Definitions.

a) "Board" shall mean the Board of Directors of LTF Holdings, Inc., the Company's parent.

b) "Cause" shall mean that Executive has:

(i) been convicted of, pleaded nolo contendere to, or been indicted for, (A) any serious or violent felony or (B) any crime involving dishonesty, fraud or unlawful behavior against or at the expense of the Company; or

(ii) engaged in gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of Executive's duties, where such acts adversely affect the business affairs of the Company in a material way provided that the foregoing shall not constitute Cause unless the Company first gives written notice to Executive within 60 days of the first occurrence of the condition, delineating the claimed breach and setting forth the Company's intention to terminate Executive's employment if such breach is not duly remedied within 30 business days, and Executive fails to cure the condition within such 30-day period.

c) "Code" shall mean the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

d) "Disability" shall mean the inability of Executive to perform on a full-time basis the duties and responsibilities of Executive's employment with the Company by reason of Executive's illness or other physical or mental impairment or condition, as determined by a physician mutually acceptable to Executive and the Company, if such inability continues for an uninterrupted period of 90 days or more during any 365-day period. A period of inability shall be "uninterrupted" unless and until Executive returns to full-time work from the above-referenced leave for a continuous period of at least 180 days, excluding vacation days or sick days taken for reasons unrelated to the illness or other physical or mental impairment or condition necessitating the above-referenced leave.

e) "Good Reason" shall mean without Executive's express written consent, any of the following conditions shall occur, provided that none of the following conditions shall constitute Good Reason unless Executive first gives written notice to the Company within 60 days of the first occurrence of the condition, delineating the claimed breach and setting forth Executive's intention to terminate Executive's employment if such breach is not duly remedied within 30 business days, and the Company fails to cure the condition within such 30-day period:

(i) the Company has breached any material term(s) or material condition(s) of this Agreement, which breach was not caused by Executive;

(ii) the Company relocates its executive offices outside of a seventy-five (75) mile radius of its current location, and the relocation results in a material change to the geographic location at which Executive performs services;

(iii) the Company has reduced Executive's Total Target Compensation, except as permitted in Section 3(a); or

(iv) the Company has assigned duties and responsibilities to Executive that are materially inconsistent with Executive's position, duties and responsibilities as set forth in Section 2(b), such that there occurs a material reduction in Executive's duties, responsibilities or authority as set forth in Section 2(b).

f) "Notice of Termination" shall mean a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon, (ii) to the extent applicable, sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of Executive's employment under the provision so indicated, and (iii) if the Termination Date is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the Termination Date (which date, in the event of termination by Executive without Good Reason or the Company without Cause, shall not be less than 60 days after the giving of such notice). The failure by Executive or the Company to set forth in the Notice of Termination any fact or circumstance which contributes to a showing of Good Reason or Cause shall not waive any right of Executive or the Company, respectively, hereunder or preclude Executive or the Company, respectively, from asserting such fact or circumstance in enforcing Executive's or the Company's right hereunder.

g) "Restricted Period" shall mean the 18-month period following the Termination Date.

h) "Section 409A" shall mean Section 409A of the Code and the Department of Treasury regulations and other interpretive guidance issued thereunder, including without limitation any such regulations or other guidance that may be issued after the Effective Date.

i) "Termination Date" shall mean (i) if Executive's employment is terminated by the Company for any reason other than death, or by Executive for any reason, the date of receipt of the Notice of Termination or any later date specified therein, as the case may be, and (ii), if Executive's employment is terminated by reason of death, the date of death of Executive; provided that, upon termination by Executive without Good Reason or due to Disability, the Board may, in its discretion, designate any date on or prior to the date specified in the Notice of Termination as the Termination Date for all purposes. For purposes of Section 5(a) of this Agreement, with respect to the timing of payments thereunder subject to Section 409A, Termination Date shall mean the date of Executive's separation from service with the Company within the meaning of Section 409A(a)(2)(A)(i) of the Code.

2. Term of Employment; Position and Duties.

a) The term of Executive's employment with the Company under this Agreement (the "Term") shall be for the period beginning on the Start Date and continuing until Executive's employment with the Company is terminated in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

b) During the Term, Executive: (i) shall serve as the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, with responsibilities, duties and authority customary for such position, subject to direction by the Company's Chief Executive Officer or the Board; (ii) shall report directly to the Company's Chief Executive Officer; (iii) shall devote a majority of Executive's working time and efforts to the business and affairs of the Company and its affiliates (provided that Executive will be permitted to manage his personal, financial and legal affairs, participate in trade associations and be involved in charitable and professional activities (including serving on charitable and professional boards and one board or equivalent governing body of a for-profit entity), to the extent such activities do not interfere with and adversely affect Executive's duties and responsibilities to the Company); and (iv) agrees to observe and comply with the Company's rules and policies as adopted by the Company from time to time. The parties acknowledge and agree that Executive's duties, responsibilities and authority may include services for one or more subsidiaries or affiliates of the Company.

c) Unless otherwise requested by the Board in writing, upon Executive's termination of employment with the Company for any reason Executive shall automatically resign as of the Termination Date from all titles, positions and appointments Executive then holds with the Company, whether as an officer, director or employee, and Executive hereby agrees to take all actions necessary to effectuate such resignations.

3. Compensation.

a) Base Salary. During the Term, Executive shall receive a base salary at a rate of at least $600,000.00 per annum (prorated for any partial year), subject to annual review, which shall be paid in accordance with the customary payroll practices of the Company (the "Base Salary"); provided, however, the Company may reduce Executive's Base Salary as part of a Company-wide reduction in base salaries, which is applicable to similarly situated employees, but any such reduction to Executive's Base Salary may not exceed ten percent (10%) of Executive's Base Salary at the time of such reduction.

b) Annual Bonus Plan. With respect to each Company fiscal year that ends during the Term, commencing with the fiscal year ending December 31, 2017, Executive shall be eligible to earn an annual bonus (the "Annual Bonus") under the Company's annual cash-based incentive plan for executive vice presidents as may be approved, amended or replaced from time to time by the Board (the "Annual Bonus Plan"), subject to the terms and conditions of the Annual Bonus Plan, including measuring the Company's and Executive's performance against metrics established by the Board and/or the Company's Chief Executive Officer. The Annual Bonus with respect to each fiscal year shall be payable within 30 days following the Board's receipt of the Company's audited financial statements for such fiscal year (but in any event prior to December 31 of the calendar year commencing after the end of such fiscal year). In the event Executive's employment with the Company is terminated prior to the end of any fiscal year by reason of Executive's death or Disability, the Company shall pay Executive a pro-rated Annual Bonus based on Executive's period of service during said fiscal year. Thepro-rated Annual Bonus shall be payable to Executive within 30 days following the Board's receipt of the Company's audited financial statements for such fiscal year (but in any such event prior to December 31 of the calendar year commencing after the end of such physical year. In the event Executive's employment terminates for any reason other than death or Disability, Executive shall not be entitled to any pro-rated Annual Bonus.

c) Bonus Target. With respect to each Company fiscal year that ends during the Term, commencing with the fiscal year ending December 31, 2017, the Company shall establish a target cash-based incentive payment for Executive under the Annual Bonus Plan for the applicable fiscal year ("Bonus Target"). Executive's Bonus Target shall be no less than $200,000.00. The ultimate bonus earned by Executive shall be determined and calculated in a manner generally consistent with how the other executive vice presidents of the Company earn their annual target bonuses.

d) Total Target Compensation. With respect to each Company fiscal year that ends during the Term, commencing with the fiscal year ending December 31, 2017, Executive's "Total Target Compensation" means the sum of Executive's Base Salary and Executive's Bonus Target in effect as of the applicable date; provided, however, that for purposes of Section 5(a) below, in the event Executive's employment is terminated by Executive for Good Reason pursuant to Section 1(e)(iii), "Total Target Compensation as of the Termination Date" shall mean Executive's Base Salary or Bonus Target in effect as of immediately prior to the reduction in Executive's Base Salary or Bonus Target that gave rise to Good Reason under Section 1(e)(iii).

e) Vehicle Lease. While Executive is employed by the Company, the Company will lease a BMW X5 or materially comparable automobile for Executive, and the Company will pay for all ordinary insurance, use, repair and maintenance expenses with respect to such automobile. The Company shall gross up for tax purposes any deemed income arising pursuant to the payment or benefits provided under this Section 3(f), so that the economic benefit is the same to Executive as if such payment or benefits were provided on a non-taxable basis to Executive.

f) Benefits and Expenses.

(i) Executive shall be eligible to participate in the employee benefit plans of the Company, subject to and on a basis consistent with the terms, conditions, and overall administration of such plans and arrangements applicable to similarly situated employees, except as otherwise provided herein. Executive shall pay any contributions which are generally required of employees to receive any such benefits. The Company provides no assurance as to the adoption or continuance of any particular employee benefit plan or program, and Executive's participation in any such plan or program shall be subject to the provisions, rules and regulations applicable thereto.

(ii) Executive shall be entitled to all paid holidays and paid vacation and leave in accordance with the Company's policy.

(iii) Executive shall be reimbursed for reasonable business travel and entertainment expenses in connection with the performance of Executive's duties in accordance with the policies applicable to similarly situated employees, as amended from time to time.

4. Notice of Termination.

Any termination of Executive's employment by the Company, or by Executive for any reason, shall be communicated by Notice of Termination to the other party hereto.

5. Payments upon Termination of Employment.

a) If Executive's employment with the Company is terminated (i) by the Company for any reason other than for Cause, death or Disability or (ii) by Executive for Good Reason such that the Termination Date occurs within six months of the first occurrence of the condition giving rise to Good Reason, then the Company shall pay to Executive his Base Salary through the Termination Date. In addition, the Company shall also pay to the Executive the following amounts, subject to the conditions of Section 5(d) below:

(i) Target Compensation Continuation. The Company will pay to Executive an amount equal to 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Termination Date, but not to exceed a maximum amount of two times the lesser of: (x) the Code§ 401(a)(17) compensation limit for the year in which the Termination Date occurs; or (y) the sum of Executive's annualized compensation based upon the annual rate of pay for services provided to the Company for the calendar year prior to the calendar year in which the Termination Date occurs (adjusted for any increase during that year that was expected to continue indefinitely) (the "Target Compensation Continuation Amount"). Such Target Compensation Continuation Amount shall be paid to Executive in equal installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll schedule, commencing on the first regular payroll date of the Company that occurs following the Termination Date and continuing for six months; provided that to the extent that any portion of such payment is delayed pursuant to Section 5(d), such portion shall be paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following the 60th day following the Termination Date. The Company and Executive intend the payments under this Section 5(a)(i) to constitute a "separation pay plan due to involuntary separation from service" pursuant to Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii).

(ii) Potential Make-Up Payment. In the event that the Target Compensation Continuation Amount is reduced under Section 5(a)(i) from 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Termination Date by application of clause (x) or (y) thereof, then the Company shall make an additional lump sum payment to Executive equal to the difference between (x) 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Termination Date, and (y) the amount to be paid to Executive under Section 5(a)(i) as a result of the application of clause (x) or (y) thereof. Such payment will be paid to Executive on the Company's first regular payroll date that is after the expiration of all rescission periods identified in the release of claims described in Section 5(d) but in no event later than 75 days after the Termination Date. The Company and Executive intend the payments under this Section 5(a)(ii) to be a "short-term deferral" under Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(4).

(iii) Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation. The Company will pay to Executive an additional amount equal to 100% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Termination Date (the "Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation Amount"). Such Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation Amount shall be paid to Executive in equal installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll schedule, commencing on the first regular payroll date of the Company that occurs following completion of all payments under Section 5(a)(i) (and in any event commencing no earlier than the first day of the seventh month after the Termination Date) and continuing for 12 months. The Company and Executive intend the payments under this Section 5(a)(iii) to be deferred compensation payable either in accordance with the "short-term deferral" exception under Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(4) or in compliance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code.

(iv) Continuation of Benefits. If Executive is eligible for and takes all steps necessary to continue Executive's group health insurance coverage with the Company following the Termination Date (including completing and returning the forms necessary to elect COBRA coverage), the Company will pay for the portion of the premium costs for such coverage that the Company would pay if Executive remained employed by the Company, at the same level of coverage that was in effect as of the Termination Date, through the earliest of: (x) the eighteen (18) month anniversary of the Termination Date, (y) the date Executive becomes eligible for group health insurance coverage from any other employer, or (z) the date Executive is no longer eligible to continue Executive's group health insurance coverage with the Company under applicable law. The Company shall gross up for tax purposes any deemed income arising pursuant to the payment or benefits provided under this Section 5(a)(iv), so that the economic benefit is the same to Executive as if such payment or benefits were provided on a non-taxable basis to Executive.

b) If Executive's employment with the Company is terminated by reason of:

(i) Executive's resignation for any reason other than Good Reason;

(ii) the Company's termination of Executive's employment for Cause; or

(iii) Executive's Disability or death.

then the Company shall pay to Executive or Executive's beneficiary or Executive's estate, as the case may be, Executive's Base Salary through the Termination Date and any Annual Bonus earned but unpaid for the prior fiscal year if not paid prior to the Termination Date. In the event Executive's employment with the Company is terminated prior to the end of any fiscal year by reason of Executive's death or disability, the Company shall additionally pay Executive, or Executive's estate, a pro-rated Annual Bonus based on Executive's period of service during said fiscal year in accordance with Section 3(b) above. In the event Executive's employment terminates for any reason other than death or Disability, Executive shall not be entitled to any pro-rated Annual Bonus as set forth herein and in Section 3(b) above.

c) In the event of termination of Executive's employment, the Company shall make the payments called for bySection 5(a)(i)-(iv), subject to Executive satisfying the requirements of Section 5(d) below, or 5(b) hereof, as applicable. The Company shall have no other obligation to Executive or to Executive's beneficiary or Executive's estate, except as otherwise provided by law, under the terms of any subsequent written agreement between Executive and the Company, pursuant to the June 8, 2016 Non-Qualified Stock Option Agreement between LTF Holdings, Inc. and Executive (the "Option Agreement"), and under the terms of any employee benefit plans or programs then maintained by the Company in which Executive participates (other than any such plans or programs that provide for severance or similar benefits).

d) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 5, the Company shall not make any payments to Executive under Section 5(a) above unless and until, as of the 60th day following the Termination Date: (i) Executive has signed a separation agreement and general release to be prepared by the Company in its reasonable discretion substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A; and (ii) all applicable rescission periods provided by law for releases of claims have expired and Executive has not rescinded such release of claims.

6. Covenants. In consideration of this Agreement, Executive agrees as follows:

a) Introduction. The parties acknowledge that the provisions and covenants contained in this Section 6 are material to this Agreement and that the limitations contained in this Agreement are reasonable in geographic and temporal scope and do not impose a greater restriction or restraint than is necessary to protect the goodwill and other legitimate business interests of the Company. The parties also acknowledge and agree that the provisions of this Section 6 do not adversely affect Executive's ability to earn a living in any capacity that does not violate the covenants contained herein.

b) Confidential Information. Except as permitted by the Board, during the term of Executive's employment with the Company and at all times thereafter, Executive shall not divulge, furnish or make accessible to anyone or use in any way other than in the ordinary course of the business of the Company, any confidential, proprietary or secret knowledge or information of the Company, whether developed by Executive or others, including but not limited to (i) trade secrets, (ii) confidential and proprietary plans, developments, research, processes, designs, methods or material (whether or not patented or patentable), (iii) customer and supplier lists, (iv) strategic or other business, marketing or sales plans, and (v) financial data and plans. Executive acknowledges that the above-described knowledge and information constitutes a unique and valuable asset of the Company and represents a substantial investment of time and expense by the Company, and that any disclosure or other use of such knowledge or information other than for the sole benefit of the Company would be wrongful and would cause irreparable harm to the Company. During the term of Executive's employment with the Company, Executive shall refrain from any intentional acts or omissions that would reduce the value of such knowledge or information to the Company. The foregoing obligations of confidentiality shall not apply to any knowledge or information that (A) is now or subsequently becomes generally publicly known for reasons other than Executive's violation of this Agreement, (B) is independently made available to Executive in good faith by a third party who has not violated a confidential relationship with the Company, or (C) is required to be disclosed by legal process, other than as a direct or indirect result of the breach of this Agreement by Executive.

c) Notice Regarding Trade Secrets. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official or to an attorney solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law. Executive shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal. If Executive files a lawsuit for retaliation by the Company for reporting a suspected violation of law, Executive may disclose the trade secret to the attorney of the employee and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if the employee files any document containing the trade secret under seal and does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

d) Ventures. If, during Executive's employment with the Company, Executive is engaged in or associated with the planning or implementing of any project, program or venture involving the Company, all rights in such project, program or venture shall belong to the Company. Except as approved in writing by the Board, Executive shall not be entitled to any interest in any such project, program or venture or to any commission, finder's fee or other compensation in connection therewith. Executive shall have no interest, direct or indirect, in any customer or supplier that conducts business with the Company, provided that a passive investment of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any customer or supplier listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this sentence.

e) Agreement Not to Compete. During Executive's employment with the Company and the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise) in any Competing Business (as defined below) in the Territory (as defined below). For purposes of this Section 6, (i) "Competing Business" means (A) the business of designing, developing, operating, managing, promoting, or marketing health and fitness clubs, health and fitness club memberships, or any services, products or programs offered by health and fitness clubs, including, without limitation, nutritional supplements, health or wellness incentive or weight loss programs, assessments or testing, medical spas, spas/salons, personal training, athletic events and related services (including race timing and registration and kids activities) and in-club restaurants/cafés (the "Integrated Health and Fitness Business"); (B) the sale of products or services related to the Integrated Health and Fitness Business; (C) the publication of any health and fitness publications; and/or (D) the sale, design or promotion of any other product or service that grows into a material business for the Company (or any product or service under development which the Company has spent a material amount of time, money or other resources to develop and such product or service is projected to grow into a material business for the Company) as of the Termination Date, and (ii) "Territory" means the United States, Canada and any other country in which the Company is then doing business as of the Termination Date. Ownership by Executive, as a passive investment, of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any corporation listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this Section 6(e).

f) Agreement Not to Solicit or Hire Employees. During Executive's employment with the Company and the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit for the purpose of employing or otherwise engaging any person who is then an employee of the Company or who was an employee of the Company as of the Termination Date or at any time in the six-month period prior to solicitation, or (ii) hire or engage any person (A) who is (or, in the six-month period prior to hire, was) a director or officer of the Company, or (B) who was a key management employee over which Executive had any direct supervisory authority or with which Executive had directly interacted on a regular basis at any time during his employment with the Company, in each case, in any manner or capacity, including without limitation as a proprietor, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise. This Section 6(f) shall not restrict Executive or any future employer of Executive, or any entity in which Executive may own, directly or indirectly, an equity interest in, from placing notices of general solicitation of employment by means of advertisements, public notices, search firm inquiries or internal or external websites or job search engines which do not specifically target the aforementioned individuals and hiring individuals responding to such general solicitations, provided that such general solicitation does not eliminate Executive's individual restrictions on soliciting, hiring or engaging persons as set forth above.

g) Agreement Not to Solicit Business Relations. During Executive's employment with the Company and the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit, request, advise or induce any current or potential customer, supplier or other business contact of the Company to cancel, curtail or otherwise change its relationship with the Company, in any manner or capacity, including without limitation as a proprietor, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise.

h) Blue Pencil Doctrine. If the duration of, the scope of or any business activity covered by any provision of this Section 6 is in excess of what is valid and enforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be construed to cover only that duration, scope or activity that is valid and enforceable. Executive hereby acknowledges that this Section 6 shall be given the construction that renders its provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent, not exceeding its express terms, possible under applicable law.

i) Company Breach. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 6, if (i) Executive is entitled to any payments pursuant to Section 5(a) and (ii) the Company fails in any material respect to make such payments in accordance with Section 5(a) and does not cure such failure within 30 days following the receipt of written notice of such failure from Executive, then the restrictive covenants in Sections 6(e), (f) and (g) shall cease to apply following the expiration of such 30-day period unless and until the Company cures such failure thereafter.

7. Intellectual Property and Related Matters.

a) Protectable Material. All right, title and interest in all discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that Executive shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others during the term of Executive's employment with the Company (i) that are directly related to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or that results from any work performed by Executive for the Company, (ii) for which any equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and/or (iii) which was not developed entirely on Executive's own time, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark ("Protectable Material"), shall be the property of the Company and are hereby assigned by Executive to the Company (and Executive agrees to assign all Protectable Material to the Company in the future), along with ownership of any and all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights in the Protectable Material. Upon request and without further compensation therefor, but at no expense to Executive, Executive shall execute any and all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the Company to obtain and register patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights on the Protectable Materials in any and all countries. Where applicable, works of authorship created by Executive for the Company in performing Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be considered "works made for hire," as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act. Notwithstanding any other language in this Section 7(a) to the contrary, in accordance with Minnesota Statute Section 181.78 this Section 7(a) does not require Executive to assign or offer to assign to the Company any invention for which no equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and which was developed entirely on Executive's own time, and (A) which does not relate (y) directly to the business of the Company or (z) to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or (B) which does not result from any work performed by Executive for the Company.

b) Trade Secrets. All trade secret information conceived or originated by Executive that arises during the term of Executive's employment with the Company and out of the performance of Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder or any related material or information shall be the property of the Company, and all rights therein are hereby assigned by Executive to the Company.

c) Inventions/Non-Protectable Material. During the Term, Executive shall be obligated to inform the Company of any discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that Executive shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark, that he reasonably believes do not constitute Protectable Material (any such material that is not Protectable Material, "Non-Protectable Material") and, to the extent such material constitutes Non-Protectable Material, the Company shall have no rights, title or interests in such material (unless otherwise agreed with Executive).

8. Return of Records and Property. On or within thirty days of the Termination Date, Executive shall promptly deliver to the Company any and all Company records and any and all Company property in Executive's possession or under Executive's control, and all copies thereof, including without limitation manuals, books, blank forms, documents, letters, memoranda, notes, notebooks, reports, printouts, computer disks, computer tapes, source codes, data, tables or calculations, keys, access cards, access codes, passwords, credit cards, personal computers, telephones and other electronic equipment belonging to the Company.

9. Remedies. Executive acknowledges that the provisions of Sections 6 through 8 and Section 11 are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, and that any violation of those provisions by Executive would cause substantial and irreparable harm to the Company to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefore. Therefore, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any such provisions, the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies it may have, be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief to enforce such provisions and to restrain Executive from violating or continuing to violate such provisions, and such relief may be granted without the necessity of proving actual monetary damages or posting bond. The preceding sentence shall not be construed to prevent Executive from disputing the factual basis of any remedies or defenses asserted by the Company. Executive agrees that the Restricted Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which he is in violation of the terms of Sections 6(e), (f) or (g), in order that the Company and its affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. Subject to Section 6(i), no breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company, or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of Executive's employment relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish Executive's obligation to comply with Sections 6 through 8 and Section 11 hereof. Each of the Company's affiliates shall have the right to enforce all of Executive's obligations to that affiliate under this Agreement, including without limitation pursuant to Sections 6 through 8 and Section 11 hereof.

10. Indemnification. The Company agrees to defend and indemnify Executive to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and the Company's governing documents and Executive shall be entitled to the protection of any insurance policies the Company maintains generally for the benefit of its directors and officers.

11. Non-Disparagement. Executive will not malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of the Company or any of its affiliates, or the reputation or character of the Company's or any of its affiliates' directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents, provided that nothing in this Section 11 shall be construed to limit or restrict Executive from taking any action that Executive in good faith reasonably believes is necessary to fulfill Executive's fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter. The Company shall instruct its current executive officers and directors not to malign, defame or disparage the reputation or image of Executive, provided that nothing in this Section 11 shall be construed to limit or restrict such officers and directors from taking any action that they in good faith reasonably believe is necessary to fulfill their fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter.

12. Miscellaneous.

a) Governing Law. All matters relating to the interpretation, construction, application, validity and enforcement of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Minnesota without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule, whether of the State of Minnesota or any other jurisdiction, that would cause the application of laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Minnesota.

b) Jurisdiction and Venue. Executive and the Company consent to jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Minnesota and/or the United States District Court, District of Minnesota, for the purpose of resolving all issues of law, equity, or fact, arising out of or in connection with this Agreement. Any action involving claims of a breach of this Agreement shall be brought in such courts. Each party consents to personal jurisdiction over such party in the aforementioned courts and hereby waives any defense of lack of personal jurisdiction. Venue, for the purpose of all such suits, shall be in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

c) Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings with respect to the subject matter hereof (including, without limitation, the Employment Agreement by and between Life Time Fitness, Inc. and Jeff Zwiefel dated July 7, 2004 and the Amended and Restated Executive Employment Agreement by and between Life Time Fitness, Inc. and Jeff Zwiefel dated December 29, 2008). This Agreement does not supersede the Option Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Section 6 of this Agreement supersedes Sections 4.4, 4.5, and 4.6 of the Option Agreement, which shall be of no further force and effect. The parties have made no agreements, representations or warranties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement that are not set forth herein.

d) No Violation of Other Agreements. Executive hereby represents and affirms that neither Executive's entering into and undertaking of obligations under this Agreement nor Executive's employment with the Company violate any other agreement (oral, written or other) to which Executive is a party or by which Executive is bound.

e) Amendments. No amendment or modification of this Agreement shall be deemed effective unless made in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

f) No Waiver. No term or condition of this Agreement shall be deemed to have been waived, except by a statement in writing signed by the party against whom enforcement of the waiver is sought. Any written waiver shall not be deemed a continuing waiver unless specifically stated, shall operate only as to the specific term or condition waived and shall not constitute a waiver of such term or condition for the future or as to any act other than that specifically waived.

g) Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assignable, in whole or in party, by either party without the written consent of the other party, except that the Company may, without the consent of Executive, assign all, but not less than all, of its rights and obligations under this Agreement to any corporation or other business entity (i) with which the Company may merge or consolidate, (ii) to which the Company may sell or transfer all or substantially all of its assets or capital stock, or (iii) of which 50% or more of the capital stock or the voting control is owned, directly or indirectly, by the Company. After any such assignment by the Company, the Company shall be discharged from all further liability hereunder and such assignee shall thereafter be deemed to be the "Company" for purposes of all terms and conditions of this Agreement, including this Section 12(g).

h) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by facsimile, such counterparts executed and delivered, each as an original, shall constitute but one and the same instrument.

i) Severability. Subject to Section 6(h) hereof, to the extent that any portion of any provision of this Agreement shall be invalid or unenforceable, it shall be considered deleted herefrom and the remainder of such provision and of this Agreement shall be unaffected and shall continue in full force and effect.

j) Captions and Headings. The captions and paragraph headings used in this Agreement are for convenience or reference only and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement or any of the provisions hereof.

k) Legal Expenses. The prevailing party shall be entitled to recover all legal fees and expenses which such party may reasonably incur as a result of any legal proceeding relating to the validity, enforceability, or breach of, or liability under, any provision of this Agreement or any guarantee of performance. Any recovery of legal fees and expenses due to the prevailing party pursuant to this Section 12(k) shall be paid by the non-prevailing party no later than thirty (30) days after a final determination of an award of legal fees and expenses to the prevailing party.

l) Notices. Any notice hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given if delivered by hand, sent by reliable next-day courier, or sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the party to receive such notice addressed as follows:

If to the Company:

Life Time Fitness, Inc.
2902 Corporate Place
Chanhassen, MN 55317
Attention: Executive Vice President, Human Resources

If to Executive:

or addressed to such other address as may have been furnished to the sender by notice hereunder. Except as otherwise provided herein, all notices shall be deemed given on the date on which delivered if delivered by hand, or on the date sent if sent by overnight courier or certified mail, except that notice of change of address will be effective only upon receipt by the other party.

m) Tax Withholding. The Company may withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement such federal, state and local income and employment taxes as the Company shall determine are required or authorized to be withheld pursuant to any applicable law or regulation. Except for any tax amounts withheld by the Company from any compensation that Executive may receive in connection with Executive's employment with the Company and any employer taxes required to be paid by the Company under applicable laws or regulations, Executive is solely responsible for payment of any and all taxes owed in connection with any compensation, benefits, reimbursement amounts or other payments Executive receives from the Company under this Agreement or otherwise in connection with Executive's employment with the Company. The Company does not guarantee any particular tax consequence or result with respect to any payment made by the Company. Except as explicitly set forth in Sections 3(e) and 5(a)(iv), in no event should this Section 12(m) or any other provision of this Agreement be construed to require the Company to provide any gross-up for the tax consequences of any provisions of, or payments under, this Agreement, and the Company has no responsibility for tax or legal consequences to Executive resulting from the terms or operation of this Agreement.

n) Section 280G. In the event that it shall be determined that any right to receive payment or other benefit under this Agreement or any other agreement by and between Executive and the Company, to or for the benefit of Executive (the "Payments"), would, in whole or part when aggregated with any other right, payment or benefit to or for Executive under all other agreements or benefit plans of any other person or entity, be nondeductible by the Company (or other person making such payment or providing such benefit) as a result of Section 280G of the Code and/or would subject Executive to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax") then, subject to Executive's written agreement waiving his right to receive some or all of such payment or benefit (the "Waived Benefit") so that all remaining Payments shall not be deemed to be a parachute payment that would not be deductible under Section 280G of the Code (and accepting in substitution for the Waived Benefit the right to receive the Waived Benefit only if approved by the stockholders of the Company in a manner that complies with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code), the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and deliver to its stockholders the disclosure required by Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code with respect to the Payments and to obtain the approval of the Company's stockholders in a manner that complies with Section 280G(b)(5)(B) of the Code.

o) Section 409A.

(i) The Company shall undertake to administer, interpret and construe this Agreement in a manner that does not result in the imposition on Executive of any additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, and to comply with Section 409A to the extent applicable. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Company determines in good faith that any provision of this Agreement would cause Executive to incur an additional tax, penalty or interest under Section 409A, the Company and Executive shall cooperate in good faith to (A) adopt such amendments to this Agreement and appropriate policies and procedures, including amendments and policies with retroactive effect, as the Company and Executive determine to be necessary or appropriate to preserve the intended tax treatment of the benefits provided by this Agreement, to preserve the economic benefits of this Agreement and to avoid less favorable accounting or tax consequences for the Company and/or (B) take such other actions as the Company and Executive determine to be necessary or appropriate to exempt the amounts payable hereunder from Section 409A or to comply with the requirements of Section 409A and thereby avoid the application of penalty taxes thereunder. No provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted or construed to transfer any liability for failure to comply with the requirements of Section 409A from Executive or any other individual to the Company or any of its affiliates, employees or agents.

(ii) Separation from Service under Section 409A. (A) To the extent any payment hereunder constitutes "nonqualified deferred compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A, any such payment to be made under this Agreement upon a termination of employment shall only be made if such termination of employment constitutes a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 1.409A-1(h) of the Department of Treasury Regulations, (B) for purposes of Section 409A, Executive's right to receive installment payments pursuant to Section 5(a) shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments; and (C) to the extent that any reimbursement of expenses or in-kind benefits constitutes "deferred compensation" within the meaning of Section 409A, such reimbursement or benefit shall be provided no later than December 31 of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred. The amount of expenses reimbursed in one year shall not affect the amount eligible for reimbursement in any subsequent year. The amount of any in-kind benefits provided in one year shall not affect the amount of in-kind benefits provided in any other year. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if at the time of Executive's separation from service, he is a "specified employee," determined in accordance with Section 409A, any payments and benefits provided under this Agreement that constitute "nonqualified deferred compensation" subject to Section 409A that are provided to Executive on account of his separation from service shall not be paid until the first payroll date to occur following the six-month anniversary of Executive's termination date ("Specified Employee Payment Date"). The aggregate amount of any payments that would otherwise have been made during such six-month period shall be paid in a lump sum on the Specified Employee Payment Date and, thereafter, any remaining payments shall be paid without delay in accordance with their original schedule. If Executive dies during the six-month period, any delayed payments shall be paid to Executive's estate in a lump sum upon Executive's death.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Executive and the Company have executed this Agreement as of the date first set forth in the first paragraph.

5. Notice Regarding Trade Secrets. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official or to an attorney solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law. You shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal. If you file a lawsuit for retaliation by the Company for reporting a suspected violation of law, you may disclose the trade secret to your attorney and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if you file any document containing the trade secret under seal and does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

6. Confidentiality. You agree to keep the provisions of this Agreement confidential. These confidentiality provisions are subject to the following exceptions: you may disclose the provisions of this Agreement to your attorneys, accountants, tax advisors, and immediate family, or in the course of legal proceedings involving the Company, or in response to a subpoena, court order, or inquiry by a government agency. You further agree that, if any information concerning the provisions of this Agreement is revealed as permitted by this paragraph, you shall inform the recipient of the information that it is confidential.

You further understand that this release includes, but is not limited to, all claims that you have or may have for wrongful discharge, wrongful termination, discrimination, harassment, breach of contract, promissory estoppel or breach of an expressed or implied promise, misrepresentation or fraud, retaliation, reprisal, infliction of emotional distress, whistleblowing, defamation, or any other common law theory of recovery, and all claims otherwise based on any other theory, whether legal or equitable, whether developed or undeveloped, arising from or related to your employment with the Company, your separation from employment with the Company, or any other actions, decisions, alleged omissions, or events occurring up through your signing of this Agreement.

You agree that you will not institute any lawsuit against the Company or its predecessors, successors, assigns, subsidiaries, and affiliates, or any of such entities' respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, insurers, and shareholders, arising from or related to your employment with the Company, your separation from employment with the Company, or any other actions, decisions, alleged omissions, or events occurring up through the signing of this Agreement. You also waive the right to monetary damages or other individual legal or equitable relief awarded to and/or by any court or governmental agency related to any claim against the Company, and its predecessors, successors, assigns, subsidiaries, and affiliates, and any of such entities' respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, insurers, and shareholders, arising from or related to your employment with the Company, your separation from employment with the Company, or any other actions, decisions, alleged omissions, or events occurring up through your signing of this Agreement, to the greatest extent permitted by law. However, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent you from filing a charge or a complaint, including a challenge to the validity of this Agreement, with a governmental agency or from participating in or cooperating with any investigation conducted by a governmental agency, including but not limited to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the Minnesota Department of Human Rights.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall release (i) the Company of its obligations to you under Sections 5 and 11 of the Employment Agreement, (ii) LTF Holdings, Inc. of its obligations under the Non-Qualified Stock Option Agreement by and between LTF Holdings,

You understand that, if you exercise your right of rescission and/or revocation, the Company may, at its option, either nullify this Agreement in its entirety or keep it in effect in all respects other than as to that portion of your release of claims that you have rescinded and/or revoked. In the event the Company opts to nullify the entire Agreement, you understand that the Company will have no obligations under this Agreement to you or others whose rights may derive from you.

You affirm, covenant and warrant that you have made no claim for illness or injury against, nor are you aware of any facts supporting any claim against, the released parties under which the released parties could be liable for medical expenses incurred by you before or after the execution of this Agreement. Furthermore, you are aware of no medical expenses which

Medicare has paid and for which the released parties are or could be liable now or in the future. You agree and affirm that, to the best of your knowledge, no liens of any governmental entities, including those for Medicare conditional payments, exist. You will indemnify, defend, and hold the released parties harmless from Medicare claims, liens, damages, conditional payments, and rights to payment, if any, including attorneys' fees, and you further agree to waive any and all future private causes of action for damages pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1395y(b)(3)(A), et seq.

12. Cooperation Clause. You agree to reasonably cooperate with the Company in connection with any legal matters or investigations, if so requested by the Company, including agreeing to make yourself available at the Company's request to assist with matters requiring the provision of information and/or testimony; provided, however, that your obligations to cooperate hereunder shall be reasonably limited so as not to unreasonably interfere with your other business and personal obligations and the Company shall reimburse you for reasonable expenses related thereto.

13. No Admission. This Agreement is not an admission by the Company or you that it has or you have acted wrongfully or unlawfully, and the parties agree that it will not be interpreted as such.

14. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Minnesota. If any part of this Agreement is construed to be in violation of any law, rule, or regulation, such part shall be modified to achieve the objective of the parties to the fullest extent permitted, and the balance of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

15. Entire Agreement. The parties agree that this Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. Any modification of or addition to this Agreement must be in writing, signed by an officer of the Company and you.

16. Valid Agreement. The parties agree that this Agreement and its releases fully comply with the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (including, without limitation, the Older Workers' Benefits Protection Act) (collectively referred to hereafter as the "ADEA"), the Minnesota Human Rights Act, and all other laws, statutes, ordinances, regulations, and/or principles of common law governing releases. August 18, 2021

Dear Bahram:

We are excited to set forth the terms and conditions that shall govern your continued employment with Life Time, Inc. (the "Company") serving in the position of Chief Executive Officer, reporting to the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board"), and continuing to serve as Chairman of the Board (subject to nomination and election by the Company's shareholders, as applicable). The terms of this offer letter shall be effective as of August 18, 2021 (the "Effective Date"), provided that, in the event the Company's initial public offering ("IPO") does not occur by December 31, 2021, Section 3 shall be void ab initio.

1. Base Salary. Commencing January 1, 2022, your annual base salary will be $1,500,000, less applicable taxes, deductions and withholdings. Your base salary will be reviewed annually as part of our performance review process and may be subject to increase (but not decrease) as assessed by the Board or the Compensation Committee of the Board (the "Compensation Committee") in its discretion (your base salary in effect as of any date, "Base Salary").

2. Annual Performance Bonus. Commencing with the Company's fiscal year 2022, you will be eligible for an annual incentive bonus with a target payout of 200% of Base Salary (which equates to $3,000,000 for fiscal year 2022 based on your Base Salary for 2022) ("Target Bonus"), less applicable taxes, deductions, and withholdings. The threshold payout of the annual incentive bonus will be 50% of the Target Bonus (or 100% of your Base Salary). The maximum achievable payout of the annual incentive bonus will be 150% of the Target Bonus (or 300% of your Base Salary). The annual incentive bonus will be determined based on the achievement of Company and individual annual performance goals, determined by the Board or Compensation Committee, in consultation with you, provided that no annual bonus will be paid for any year to the extent the Company or you do not obtain the threshold performance goals for such year (as established by the Board or the Compensation Committee). You will not be eligible for an annual bonus for fiscal year 2021.

3. Equity Grants.

(a) IPO Award. Subject to the approval of the Board or the Compensation Committee, you will be granted on or within five days following the pricing of the IPO equity awards with a target grant date value of at least $5,000,000 as determined by the Board or Compensation Committee in its discretion, 50% of which shall be in the form of restricted stock units and 50% of which shall be in the form of stock options; provided that, to the extent the initial public offering price of the Company's common stock in connection with the IPO is less than $25.00, the target grant date value may be adjusted as determined by the Board or the Compensation Committee in good faith. Each such award will be granted pursuant to the terms of the Company's equity incentive plan then in effect (the "Company Equity Plan"), and an applicable award agreement, as determined by the Board or Compensation Committee. Such equity awards shall be subject to vesting over a period of four years in equal annual installments, subject to your continued service with the Company through the applicable vesting date(s).

(b) Annual Grants. Commencing in 2022 and ending in 2024, you will, to the extent you remain the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, be eligible for annual equity awards with a target grant date value of at least $7,500,000 as determined by the Board or Compensation Committee in its discretion pursuant to the terms of the Company Equity Plan or such other plan as may be in effect at the Company for the grant of equity awards, and an applicable award agreement, as determined by the Board or Compensation Committee. Such annual grants are intended to be fifty percent (50%) in the form of restricted stock units and fifty percent (50%) in the form of stock options, subject to vesting over a period of four years in equal annual installments, subject to your continued service with the Company through the applicable vesting date(s). Notwithstanding the foregoing, all such awards shall be subject to the approval of the Board or Compensation Committee and the Board or Compensation Committee may adjust the target grant date value, form and/or vesting of such awards in good faith to the extent appropriate to take into account the Company's business needs and/or stock price, institutional shareholder or governance considerations, shareholder outreach and/or market practice.

4. Comprehensive Benefits. While employed with the Company, you will be eligible to participate in the same employee benefit plans as are generally available to other senior executives of the Company, as such employee benefit plans may be amended from time to time. You will receive reimbursement for business expenses on the same terms as are generally available to other senior executives of the Company. While employed with the Company and thereafter, you also will receive indemnification and liability insurance coverage on terms no less favorable than the coverage provided to any other then-current or former executive officer of the Company, as applicable.

5. Termination of Employment. In the event you voluntarily resign your employment with the Company for Good Reason or your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause, in either case, following the three-year anniversary of the Effective Date, subject to your execution and non-revocation of a release of claims in favor of the Company in the Company's then-applicable form ("Release of Claims") and such Release of Claims becoming non-revocable and effective prior to the sixtieth day following the date your employment terminates and your continued compliance with that certain Non-Competition Agreement between you and the Company dated as of even date herewith (the"Non-Competition Agreement") and any other applicable written restrictive covenant agreements in favor of the Company, you will be entitled to receive severance benefits that are at least as favorable as those generally provided to other senior executives of the Company as of the date of your termination of employment. Such severance benefits will be payable in a manner consistent with the terms generally applicable to other senior executives and in all events in accordance with Section 409A of the Code and Section 12 of this offer letter. You acknowledge and agree that, except as set forth in this Section 5, you are not entitled to any severance payments or benefits from the Company or any of its affiliates.

6. Loan. The Company acknowledges and agrees that as an inducement for you to accept this offer letter and the terms of theNon-Competition Agreement and your agreement that you will not be entitled to severance benefits in the event of your termination of employment for any reason during the three-year period following the Effective Date and in order to comply with applicable federal securities laws, the Company terminated, pursuant to the approval by the Board and effective on August 18, 2021 (the "Loan Cancellation Date") that certain Amended and Restated Term Loan Agreement between you and the Company, dated September 21, 2018, as amended (the "Loan Agreement"), and all principal and interest amounts owing by you under such Loan Agreement and the Term Note dated August 27, 2018, equal to an amount of $17,673,043.22, have been cancelled and discharged in full and all other obligations of you, and rights of the Company, under the Loan Agreement and the corresponding Pledge and Security Agreement between you and the Company, dated August 27, 2018, were terminated as of the Loan Cancellation Date. You acknowledge and agree that you are solely responsible for all income and withholding taxes (other than employer-paid payroll taxes) in relation to the cancellation and discharge of your obligations under the Loan Agreement and shall promptly pay to the Company all such withholding taxes.

7. Internal Revenue Code Section 280G

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this offer letter, to the extent that any amount, equity awards or benefits paid or distributed to you pursuant to this offer letter or any other agreement, plan or arrangement between the Company or its subsidiaries or affiliates, on the one hand, and you on the other hand (collectively, the "280G Payments") (i) constitute a "parachute payment" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and (ii) but for this provision would be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax"), then the 280G Payments shall be payable either (a) in full, notwithstanding that some or all portion of such payment may be subject to the Excise Tax or (b) in such lesser amount that would result in no portion of such 280G Payments being subject to Excise Tax, whichever of the foregoing amounts, taking into account the applicable federal, state and local income or excise taxes (including the Excise Tax) results in your receipt on an after-tax basis, of the greatest amount or benefits under this offer letter, notwithstanding that all or some portion of such benefits may be taxable under Section 4999 of the Code.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed between the parties (and in all cases subject to compliance with Code Section 409A), payments shall be reduced in the following order (i) any severance payment based on multiple of base salary and/or annual bonus; (ii) any pro rata bonus paid as severance; (iii) any other cash payments, (iv) acceleration of vesting of equity awards not subject to Q/A-24(c) of Treasury Regulation 1.280G-1; and (v) acceleration of vesting of equity awards subject to Q/A-24(c) of Treasury Regulation 1.280G-1; provided that, within any category, reductions shall be made on a pro rata basis.

(c) All determinations required to be made under this Section 7 shall be made by a nationally recognized certified public accounting or consulting firm as may be designated by the Company and reasonably acceptable to you (such acceptance not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) (the "280G Advisor"), which 280G Advisor shall provide detailed supporting calculations both to the Company and you within fifteen (15) business days of the receipt of notice from the Company that there is or may be made a 280G Payment. All fees and expenses of the 280G Advisor shall be borne solely by the Company.

8. At-Will Employment. Your employment with the Company shall be "at will," which means that both the Company and you have the right to end your employment at any time, with or without advance notice, and with or without Cause. The at-will nature of your employment may not be modified or amended except by written agreement signed by an authorized officer of the Company, following approval by the Board or the Compensation Committee, and you.

9. Compensation Recovery Policy. You acknowledge and agree that, to the extent the Company adopts any claw-back or similar policy pursuant to the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act or otherwise, and any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, you shall take all action necessary or appropriate to comply with such policy (including, without limitation, entering into any further agreements, amendments or policies necessary or appropriate to implement and/or enforce such policy with respect to past, present and future compensation, as appropriate).

10. Tax Withholding. All amounts payable hereunder shall be subject to any required withholdings and deductions.

11. Counterparts. This offer letter may be executed in counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement, and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties.

12. Section 409A. It is intended that all of the severance payments and other benefits and payments payable under this offer letter be exempt from the application of Code Section 409A, and if not so exempt that they comply with the provisions of Code Section 409A, and this offer letter will be construed and interpreted accordingly. For purposes of Code Section 409A, your right to receive any installment payments under this offer letter (whether severance payments, reimbursements or otherwise) shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate payments and, accordingly, each installment payment hereunder shall at all times be considered a separate and distinct payment. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this offer letter, if you are deemed by the Company at the time of your "separation from service" (within the meaning of Code Section 409A) to be a "specified employee" for purposes of Code Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i), and if any of the payments upon separation from service set forth herein and/or under any other agreement with the Company are deemed to be "deferred compensation," then to the extent delayed commencement of any portion of such payments is required in order to avoid a prohibited distribution under Code Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) and the related adverse taxation under Code Section 409A, such payments shall not be provided to you prior to the earliest of (a) the expiration of the six-month period measured from the date of your separation from service with the Company, (b) the date of your death or (c) such earlier date as permitted under Code Section 409A without the imposition of adverse taxation. Upon the first business day following the expiration of such applicable Code Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) period, all payments deferred pursuant to this paragraph shall be paid in a lump sum to you, and any remaining payments due shall be paid as otherwise provided herein or in the applicable agreement. No interest shall be due on any amounts so deferred. Additionally, notwithstanding any other provisions in this offer letter, to the extent required to comply with, and avoid excise taxes and penalties under, the provisions of Code Section 409A, a termination of employment shall not be deemed to have occurred for purposes of any provision of this offer letter providing for the payment of amounts or benefits upon or following a termination of employment unless such termination is also a "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A and, for purposes of any such provision of this offer letter, references to a "resignation," "termination," "termination of employment" or like terms shall mean separation from service. With respect to reimbursements provided to you hereunder (or otherwise) that are not exempt from Code Section 409A, the following rules shall apply: (i) the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement during any one of your taxable years shall not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other taxable year, (ii) in the case of any reimbursements of eligible expenses, reimbursement shall be made on or before the last day of your taxable year following the taxable year in which the expense was incurred and (iii) the right to reimbursement shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit.

13. Entire Agreement. This offer letter, including the referenced documents herein (including theNon-Competition Agreement), forms the entire agreement between you and the Company and replaces all prior communications or agreements on matters related to employment at the Company; provided that nothing herein supersedes or modifies the terms and conditions of any existing agreements in respect of equity awards previously granted to you.

Prior to termination for Cause, to the extent any grounds for Cause are curable and the provision of a cure period will not adversely affect the business, finances, reputation or good will of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, the Company shall provide 30 days prior written notice of the grounds for Cause, and give you an opportunity within (and including all of) those 30 days to cure the alleged grounds. If the grounds are substantially cured during such period (as reasonably determined by the Board in good faith), Cause will not exist on account of such grounds. No act or failure to act on your part shall be considered "willful" unless the Company reasonably and in good faith determines it is done, or omitted to be done, in bad faith or without reasonable belief that your act or omission was in the best interests of the Company. Without limitation, any act, or failure to act, based upon express direction given pursuant to a resolution duly adopted by the Board with respect to such act or omission, or based upon the reasonable advice of legal counsel for the Company, shall be conclusively presumed to be done, or omitted to be done, by you in good faith and in the best interests of the Company.

A period of inability shall be "uninterrupted" unless and until you return to full-time work from the above-referenced leave for a continuous period of at least 180 days, excluding vacation days or sick days taken for reasons unrelated to the illness or other physical or mental impairment or condition necessitating the above-referenced leave.

For purposes of this offer letter, a resignation for "Good Reason" means your resignation following the occurrence, without your express, written consent, of one or more of the following conditions (whether by a single action or a series of actions): (a) a material reduction by the Company in your title, duties, responsibilities, or authority as Chief Executive Officer of the Company; (b) a material reduction by the Company of your annual base salary or Target Bonus, other than as part of a reduction affecting all or substantially all of the Company's senior leadership team; or (c) the Company's material breach of this offer letter. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you shall not be deemed to have "Good Reason" under this offer letter unless you provide written notice to the Company of the event or condition giving rise to Good Reason within 30 days after its initial occurrence, such event or condition continues to exist on the 30th day following your provision of such notice to the Company (the "Cure Period") and your resignation is effective within 30 days following the end of the Cure Period.

(v) Vacation. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be entitled to paid vacation in accordance with the plans, policies, programs and practices of the Company applicable to its senior executives in effect from time to time.

(vi) Equity Awards. During the Employment Period, Executive will be eligible to participate in the Company's equity incentive plan then in effect and receive equity awards thereunder, as determined by the Board or the Compensation Committee (or similar committee) of the Board in its sole discretion and subject to the terms of the Company's equity incentive plan then in effect and an applicable award agreement.

3. Termination of Employment.

(a) Death or Disability. The Executive's employment shall terminate automatically upon the Executive's death during the Employment Period. Either the Company or the Executive may terminate the Executive's employment in the event of the Executive's Disability during the Employment Period. For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" shall mean: Executive's inability to perform on a full-time basis the duties and responsibilities of Executive's employment with the Company by reason of Executive's illness or other physical or mental impairment or condition, as determined by a physician mutually acceptable to Executive and the Company, if such inability continues for an uninterrupted period of 90 days or more during any 365-day period. A period of inability shall be "uninterrupted" unless and until Executive returns to full-time work from the above-referenced leave for a continuous period of at least 180 days, excluding vacation days or sick days taken for reasons unrelated to the illness or other physical or mental impairment or condition necessitating the above-referenced leave.

(b) Termination by the Company. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment during the Employment Period for Cause or without Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" shall mean the occurrence of any one or more of the following events unless, to the extent capable of correction, the Executive fully corrects the circumstances constituting Cause within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Notice of Termination (as defined below):

(i) repeated and willful or grossly negligent failure to perform the Executive's material duties on behalf of the Company;

(ii) the Executive's willful or grossly negligent violation of any material Company rule, procedure or policy, or breach of any material non-disclosure, non-competition, non-solicitation or other similar agreement between the Company (or any subsidiaries thereof) and the Executive;

(iii) the Executive's plea of nolo contendere to, or conviction of a felony or a crime of moral turpitude or involving fraud or dishonesty (other than minor traffic violations or similar offenses);

(iv) the perpetration of any act of fraud, embezzlement or material dishonesty against or affecting the Company, any of its subsidiaries, or any customer, agent or employee thereof;

(v) material breach of fiduciary duty or material breach of this Agreement (or any other written agreement by and between the Executive and the Company) by Executive;

(vi) repeated insolent or abusive conduct in the workplace, including but not limited to, harassment of others of a racial or sexual nature; or

(vii) engaging in any act of material self-dealing without prior notice to and consent by the Board.

For purposes of this provision, no act or failure to act shall be deemed "willful" unless done or omitted to be done in bad faith and without reasonable belief that such action or omission was in the best interest of the Company and its affiliates.

(c) Termination by the Executive. The Executive's employment may be terminated by the Executive for any reason, including with Good Reason or by the Executive without Good Reason. For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean the occurrence of any one or more of the following events without the Executive's prior written consent, unless the Company fully corrects the circumstances constituting Good Reason (provided such circumstances are capable of correction) as provided below:

(i) The Company has breached any material term(s) or material condition(s) of this Agreement;

(ii) A requirement imposed by the Company on the Executive that Executive's principal place of employment be anywhere other than within a 75 mile radius of the Executive's Principal Location, and the relocation results in a material change to the geographic location at which the Executive performs services;

(iii) A 10% or greater reduction in the Executive's Base Salary or Target Bonus as then in effect, other than in connection with an across-the-board reduction affecting other similarly situated executives of the Company or as otherwise contemplated by Section 3(d)(i);

(iv) The Company has assigned duties and responsibilities to Executive that are materially inconsistent with Executive's position, duties or responsibilities as set forth in this Agreement, such that there occurs a material reduction in Executive's duties, responsibilities or authority as set forth in this Agreement, other than as contemplated by Section 3(d)(i); or

(v) The Company appoints any person (other than Bahram Akradi or Executive) as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive will not be deemed to have resigned for Good Reason unless (1) the Executive provides the Company with written notice setting forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed by the Executive to constitute Good Reason within ninety (90) days after the date of the occurrence of any event that the Executive knows or should reasonably have known to constitute Good Reason, (2) the Company fails to cure such acts or omissions within thirty (30) days following its receipt of such notice, and (3) the effective date of the Executive's termination for Good Reason occurs no later than thirty (30) days after the expiration of the Company's cure period.

(d) Notice of Suspension or Termination.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event of the Executive's arrest or indictment for a felony, crime or misdemeanor described in Section 3(b)(iii), the Company shall have the right (but not obligation) to suspend the Executive without compensation of any kind until such time as either (A) a court of competent jurisdiction makes a final determination as to the Executive's guilt or innocence or (B) the Executive pleads nolo contendere to such alleged felony or crime; provided that, if the court makes a final determination that the Executive should be acquitted of such felony or crime, the Company shall either (x) reinstate the Executive and pay to the Executive the amount of Base Salary that was withheld pursuant to this Section 3(d)(i) within 30 days following such reinstatement, or (y) terminate the Executive's employment pursuant to Section 3(b) and pay any severance required in accordance with Section 4. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company retains the right to terminate the Executive's employment with the Company at any time during or following such period of suspension pursuant to Section 3(b).

(ii) Any termination by the Company for Cause, or by the Executive for Good Reason, shall be communicated by a Notice of Termination to the other parties hereto given in accordance with Section 13(d) hereof. For purposes of this Agreement, a "Notice of Termination" means a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon, (ii) sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Executive's employment under the provision so indicated and (iii) if the Date of Termination (as defined below) is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the termination date (which date shall be not more than thirty (30) days after the giving of such notice). The failure by the Executive or the Company to set forth in the Notice of Termination any fact or circumstance which contributes to a showing of Good Reason or Cause shall not waive any right of the Executive or the Company, respectively, hereunder or preclude the Executive or the Company, respectively, from asserting such fact or circumstance in enforcing the Executive's or the Company's rights hereunder.

(e) Termination of Offices and Directorships; Return of Property. Upon termination of the Executive's employment for any reason, unless otherwise specified in a written agreement between the Executive and the Company, the Executive shall be deemed to have resigned from all offices, directorships, and other employment positions if any, then held with the Company, and shall take all actions reasonably requested by the Company to effectuate the foregoing. In addition, upon the termination of the Executive's employment for any reason, the Executive agrees to return to the Company all documents of the Company and its affiliates (and all copies thereof) and all other Company or Company affiliate property that the Executive has in his or her possession, custody or control. Such property includes, without limitation: (i) any materials of any kind that the Executive knows contain or embody any proprietary or confidential information of the Company or an affiliate of the Company (and all reproductions thereof), (ii) computers (including, but not limited to, laptop computers, desktop computers and similar devices) and other portable electronic devices (including, but not limited to, tablet computers), cellular phones/smartphones, credit cards, phone cards, entry cards, identification badges and keys, and (iii) any correspondence, drawings, manuals, letters, notes, notebooks, reports, programs, plans, proposals, financial documents, or any other documents concerning the customers, business plans, marketing strategies, products and/or processes of the Company or any of its affiliates and any information received from the Company or any of its affiliates regarding third parties.

4. Obligations of the Company upon Termination. Upon a termination of the Executive's employment for any reason, the Executive shall be entitled to receive, in a single lump-sum payment, (i) the aggregate amount of the Executive's earned but unpaid Base Salary, (ii) any unpaid Annual Bonus earned by Executive for the year prior to the year in which the Date of Termination occurs, (iii) reimbursement of expenses to which Executive is entitled and (iv) any other benefits to which Executive is legally entitled (collectively, the "Accrued Obligations").

(a) Without Cause or For Good Reason. If the Executive's employment with the Company is terminated during the Employment Period (x) by the Company without Cause (other than by reason of the Executive's death or Disability) or (y) by the Executive for Good Reason (in either case, a "Qualifying Termination"), then following the date of such termination of employment (such date, the "Date of Termination"), in addition to the Accrued Obligations:

(i) Target Compensation Continuation. The Company shall continue to pay to the Executive an amount equal to 50% of the sum of the Executive's (1) Base Salary and (2) Target Bonus in effect as of the Date of Termination (the amount of such sum, the "Total Target Compensation"), but not to exceed a maximum amount of two times the lesser of: (x) the Code § 401(a)(17) compensation limit for the year in which the Date of Termination occurs; or (y) the sum of Executive's annualized compensation based upon the annual rate of pay for services provided to the Company for the calendar year prior to the calendar year in which the Date of Termination occurs (adjusted for any increase during that year that was expected to continue indefinitely) (the "Target Compensation Continuation Amount"). Such Target Compensation Continuation Amount shall be paid during the period beginning on the Date of Termination and ending on the six (6) month anniversary of the Date of Termination in installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll practices as of the Date of Termination, provided that to the extent any portion of such payment is delayed pursuant to Section 4(a)(v), such portion shall be paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following the 60th day following the Date of Termination.

(ii) Potential Make-Up Payment. In the event that the Target Compensation Continuation Amount is reduced under Section 4(a)(i) from 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Date of Termination by application of clause (x) or (y) thereof, then the Company shall make an additional lump sum payment to the Executive equal to the difference between (x) 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Date of Termination, and (y) the amount to be paid to the Executive under Section 4(a)(i) as a result of the application of clause (x) or (y) thereof. Such payment will be paid to the Executive on the Company's first regular payroll after the Executive executes and delivers to the Company the Release (as defined below) and after the expiration of an applicable revocation period, if any, but in no event later than 75 days after the Date of Termination.

(iii) Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation. The Company will pay to Executive an additional amount equal to 100% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Date of Termination (the "Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation Amount"). Such Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation Amount shall be paid to Executive in equal installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll schedule, commencing on the first regular payroll date of the Company that occurs following completion of all payments under Section 4(a)(i) (and in any event commencing no earlier than the first day of the seventh month after the Date of Termination) and continuing for twelve (12) months.

(iv) COBRA. During the period beginning on the Date of Termination and ending on the eighteen (18) month anniversary of the Date of Termination (or, if shorter, during the period commencing on the date of Executive's Qualifying Termination and ending on the date on which Executive becomes eligible for coverage under any group health plan of a subsequent employer or otherwise) (in any case, the "Benefits Continuation Period"), subject to the Executive's valid election to continue healthcare coverage under Section 4980B of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations thereunder (together, the "Code"), the Company shall continue to provide the Executive and the Executive's eligible dependents with coverage under its group health plans at the same levels and the same cost to the Executive as would have applied if the Executive's employment had not been terminated based on the Executive's elections in effect on the Date of Termination (the "COBRA Payments"), provided, however, that (A) if any plan pursuant to which such benefits are provided is not, or ceases prior to the expiration of the period of continuation coverage to be, exempt from the application of Section 409A (as defined below) under Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(a)(5), or (B) the Company is otherwise unable to continue to cover the Executive under its group health plans without incurring penalties (including without limitation, pursuant to Section 2716 of the Public Health Service Act or the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act), then, in either case, an amount equal to each remaining Company subsidy shall thereafter be paid to the Executive in substantially equal monthly installments over the Benefits Continuation Period (or the remaining portion thereof).

(v) Release. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be a condition to the Executive's right to receive the amounts provided for in Sections 4(a) hereof, as applicable, that the Executive continue to comply with Executive's obligations under Sections 7 through 9 hereof and execute and deliver to the Company an effective release of claims in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Release") within twenty-one (21) days (or, to the extent required by law, forty-five (45) days) following the Date of Termination and that the Executive not revoke such Release during any applicable revocation period.

(b) For Cause, Without Good Reason or Other Terminations. If the Company terminates the Executive's employment for Cause, the Executive terminates the Executive's employment without Good Reason, or the Executive's employment terminates for any other reason not enumerated in Sections 4(a) or 4(b) hereof, in any case, during the Employment Period, the Company shall pay to the Executive the Accrued Obligations in cash within thirty (30) days after the Date of Termination (or by such earlier date as may be required by applicable law), and the Executive shall have no further rights hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the Executive's termination is by reason of the Executive's death or Disability, Executive will be entitled, subject to the timely execution and non-revocation of a Release (as described above), Executive will be entitled to receive apro-rated portion (based on the number of days Executive was employed by the Company during the calendar year in which the date of Executive's termination occurs) of the Annual Bonus that Executive would have earned had Executive remained employed through the end of the calendar year in which Executive's Date of Termination occurs, as determined by the Board in good faith. If and to the extent earned, such pro-rated Annual Bonus shall be paid out at the same time annual bonuses are paid generally to other executives of the Company for the relevant year, less applicable withholdings and deductions (but in no event later than the end of the calendar year following the calendar year to which such Annual Bonus relates).

(c) Exclusive Benefits. Except as expressly provided in this Section 4 and subject to Section 5 hereof, the Executive shall not be entitled to any additional payments or benefits upon or in connection with the Executive's termination of employment. For the avoidance of doubt, all payments and benefits set forth in this Section 4 shall be subject the terms and conditions of Section 13(f).

5. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. Amounts which are vested benefits or which the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan, policy, practice or program of or any contract or agreement with the Company at or subsequent to the Date of Termination shall be payable in accordance with such plan, policy, practice or program or contract or agreement except as explicitly modified by this Agreement.

6. Excess Parachute Payments, Limitation on Payments.

(a) Best Pay Cap. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in the event that any payment or benefit received or to be received by the Executive (including any payment or benefit received in connection with a termination of the Executive's employment, whether pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement) (all such payments and benefits, including the payments and benefits under Section 4 hereof, being hereinafter referred to as the "Total Payments") constitute parachute payments within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code and would be subject (in whole or part), to the excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax"), then, after taking into account any reduction in the Total Payments provided by reason of Section 280G of the Code in such other plan, arrangement or agreement, the cash payments under this Agreement shall first be reduced, and the noncash payments hereunder shall thereafter be reduced, to the extent necessary so that no portion of the Total Payments is subject to the Excise Tax but only if (i) the net amount of such Total Payments, as so reduced (and after subtracting the net amount of federal, state and local income taxes on such reduced Total Payments and after taking into account the phase out of itemized deductions and personal exemptions attributable to such reduced Total Payments) is greater than or equal to (ii) the net amount of such Total Payments without such reduction (but after subtracting the net amount of federal, state and local income taxes on such Total Payments and the amount of Excise Tax to which the Executive would be subject in respect of such unreduced Total Payments and after taking into account the phase out of itemized deductions and personal exemptions attributable to such unreduced Total Payments).

(b) Certain Exclusions. For purposes of determining whether and the extent to which the Total Payments will be subject to the Excise Tax, (i) no portion of the Total Payments the receipt or enjoyment of which the Executive shall have waived at such time and in such manner as not to constitute a "payment" within the meaning of Section 280G(b) of the Code shall be taken into account; (ii) no portion of the Total Payments shall be taken into account which, in the written opinion of an independent, nationally recognized accounting or consulting firm (the "Independent Advisors") selected by the Company, does not constitute a "parachute payment" within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code (including by reason of Section 280G(b)(4)(A) of the Code) and, in calculating the Excise Tax, no portion of such Total Payments shall be taken into account which, in the opinion of the Independent Advisors, constitutes reasonable compensation for services actually rendered, within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(4)(B) of the Code, in excess of the "base amount" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code) allocable to such reasonable compensation; and (iii) the value of any non-cash benefit or any deferred payment or benefit included in the Total Payments shall be determined by the Independent Advisors in accordance with the principles of Sections 280G(d)(3) and (4) of the Code.

7. Restrictive Covenants and Confidentiality. The parties acknowledge and agree that (a) the provisions and covenants contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof (i) are material to this Agreement, (ii) are provided for, among other things, the protection of the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships, goodwill and reputation (which is an honest and just purpose), (iii) are reasonable in geographic and temporal scope and (iv) do not impose a greater restriction or restraint than is necessary to protect the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships and contacts, goodwill, reputation and other legitimate business interests, (b) the Executive (i) is employed by the Company, (ii) has been and/or will be provided with confidential and commercially-sensitive information regarding the Company and its business during his or her employment and/or service with the Company, (iii) provides special, unique and extraordinary services to the Company, and (iv) is a member of the executive or management personnel of the Company and/or serves as professional staff to executive or management personnel of the Company, (c) the provisions of Sections 7 through 9 hereof do not adversely affect the Executive's ability to earn a living in any capacity, stifle the Executive's ability to use his or her inherent skills and experience, or otherwise impose undue hardship or oppression on the Executive, and (d) the Executive's continuation of employment under this Agreement, and the compensation and benefits described in this Agreement, constitute sufficient consideration for all of the Executive's covenants contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof.

(a) Except as permitted by the Board, during the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and at all times thereafter, the Executive shall not divulge, furnish or make accessible to anyone or use in any way other than in the ordinary course of the business of the Company, any confidential, proprietary or secret knowledge or information of the Company or any of its affiliates, whether developed by the Executive or others, including but not limited to (i) trade secrets, (ii) confidential and proprietary plans, developments, research, processes, designs, methods or material (whether or not patented or patentable), (iii) customer and supplier lists, (iv) strategic or other business, marketing or sales plans, (v) financial data and plans and (vi) Proprietary Information. "Proprietary Information" is defined as (i) the name, address and/or contact information of any customer, supplier or affiliate of the Company or any information concerning the transactions or relations of any customer, supplier or affiliate of the Company or any of its shareholders; (ii) any information concerning any product, service, technology or procedure offered or used by the Company or any of its affiliates, or under development by or being considered for use by the Company or any of its affiliates; (iii) any information relating to marketing or pricing plans or methods, capital structure, or any business or strategic plans of the Company or any of its affiliates; (iv) any inventions, innovations, trade secrets or other items covered by Section 8 below; and (v) any other information which the Company or any of its affiliates has determined and communicated to the Executive in writing to be proprietary information for purposes hereof; provided, however, that "Proprietary Information" shall not include any information that is or becomes generally known to the public other than through actions of the Executive in violation of the restrictive covenants set forth in Sections 7 through 9 hereof. The Executive acknowledges that the above-described knowledge and information constitute unique and valuable assets of the Company and represent a substantial investment of time and expense by the Company, and that any disclosure or other use of such knowledge or information other than for the sole benefit of the Company would be wrongful and would cause irreparable harm to the Company. During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company, the Executive shall refrain from any acts or omissions that would reduce the value of such knowledge or information to the Company. The foregoing obligations of confidentiality shall not apply to any knowledge or information that (x) is now or subsequently becomes generally publicly known for reasons other than the Executive's violation of this Agreement, (y) is independently made available to the Executive in good faith by a third party who has not violated a confidential relationship with the Company, or (z) is required to be disclosed by legal process, other than as a direct or indirect result of the breach of this Agreement by the Executive.

(b) If, during the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company, the Executive is engaged in or associated with the planning or implementing of any project, program or venture involving the Company, all rights in such project, program or venture shall belong to the Company, as applicable. Except as approved in writing by the Board, the Executive shall not be entitled to any interest in any such project, program or venture or to any commission, finder's fee or other compensation in connection therewith. The Executive shall have no interest, direct or indirect, in any customer or supplier that conducts business with the Company, provided that a passive investment of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any customer or supplier listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this sentence.

8. Inventions and Proprietary Rights.

(a) All right, title and interest in all discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that the Executive shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others during the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company (i) that are directly related to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or that results from any work performed by the Executive for the Company, (ii) for which any equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and/or (iii) which was not developed entirely on the Executive's own time, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark ("Protectable Material"), shall be the property of the Company and are hereby assigned by the Executive to the Company (and the Executive agrees to assign all Protectable Material to the Company in the future), along with ownership of any and all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights in the Protectable Material. Upon request and without further compensation therefor, but at no expense to the Executive, the Executive shall execute any and all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the Company to obtain and register patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights on the Protectable Materials in any and all countries. Where applicable, works of authorship created by the Executive for the Company in performing the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be considered "works made for hire," as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act.

(b) All trade secret information conceived or originated by the Executive that arises during the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and out of the performance of the Executive's duties and responsibilities to the Company or any related material or information shall be the property of the Company, and all rights therein are hereby assigned by the Executive to the Company.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive understands that pursuant to the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, the Executive shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (A) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

9. Non-Compete; Non-Solicitation; Non-Disparagement.

(a) During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and during the18-month period following the date of termination thereof (the "Restricted Period"), regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise) in any Company Business (as defined below) in the Territory (as defined below). For purposes of Sections 7 through 9 hereof, (i) "Company" means Life Time Group Holdings, Inc. and any parent, affiliated, related and/or direct or indirect subsidiary entity thereof, (ii) "Company Business" means (1) the design, development, operation, management, advertisement, promotion, solicitation, marketing or sale of health and fitness clubs or health and fitness club memberships, (2) any services, products or programs offered by health and fitness clubs, including but not limited to personal training, nutritional supplements; health testing or health assessments; wellness services or programs (whether direct to consumer or business to business); weight loss services or programs; kids activities; salons, spas, and medical spas; restaurants or cafes; athletic events and related services (including race timing and registration), and (3) any other product or service that grows into a material business for the Company (or is under development and is projected to grow into a material business for the Company) as of the Executive's Date of Termination, and (iii) "Territory" means the United States, Canada and any other country in which the Company is then doing Company Business as of the Executive's Date of Termination, and (iii) "Territory" means the United States, Canada and any other country in which the Company is then doing Company Business as of the Executive's Termination of Services Date. Ownership by the Executive, as a passive investment, of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any corporation listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this Section 9(a).

(b) During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, the Executive shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, hire, engage or solicit for the purpose of employing or otherwise engaging any person who is then an employee of the Company or who was an employee of the Company as of the Executive's date of termination or at any time in the six-month period prior to such hiring, engagement or solicitation.

(c) During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, the Executive shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, solicit, request, advise or induce any current or potential customer, member, supplier or other business contact of the Company to cancel, curtail or otherwise change its relationship with the Company.

(d) The Executive will not malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of the Company or any of its affiliates, or the reputation or character of the Company's or any of its affiliates' then-current directors or officers or any direct reports of Executive as of immediately prior to the Executive's date of termination, provided that nothing in this Section 9(d) shall be construed to limit or restrict Executive from taking any action that Executive in good faith reasonably believes is necessary to fulfill Executive's fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter. The Company shall instruct its then-current executive officers and directors as of the Executive's date of termination not to malign, defame or disparage the reputation or image of Executive, provided that nothing in this Section 9(d) shall be construed to limit or restrict such officers and directors from taking any action that they in good faith reasonably believes is necessary to fulfill their fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter.

(e) The Executive shall inform any prospective or future employer of any and all restrictions contained in this Agreement and provide such employer with a copy of such restrictions (but no other terms of this Agreement) prior to the commencement of that employment.

10. Enforcement. If the duration of, the scope of or any business activity covered by any provision of Sections 7 through 9 hereof is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be in excess of what is valid and enforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be construed to cover only that duration, scope or activity that is valid and enforceable, and all other provisions of Sections 7 through 9 shall remain in full force and effect. The Executive hereby acknowledges that Sections 7 through 9 hereof shall be given the construction that renders the provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent, not exceeding their express terms, possible under applicable law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the foregoing sentences of this Section 10 shall in no event apply to the extent their application would render Sections 7 through 9 hereof (or any portion thereof) unenforceable under applicable law. The Executive acknowledges that the provisions of Sections 7 through 9 hereof are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, and that any violation of those provisions by the Executive would cause real, immediate, substantial and irreparable harm to the Company to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefor. Therefore, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of Sections 7 through 9 hereof, the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies it may have, be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief to enforce such provisions and to restrain the Executive from violating or continuing to violate such provisions, and such relief may be granted without the necessity of proving actual monetary damages or posting bond. The Executive agrees that the Restricted Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which he or she is in violation of the terms of Section 9(a), 9(b) or 9(c), in order that the Company and its affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. No breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company, or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of the Executive's employment and/or service relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish the Executive's obligation to comply with Sections 7 through 9 hereof. The Company (including, without limitation, its affiliates) are third party beneficiaries under this Agreement and shall have the right to enforce all of the Executive's obligations to the Company under this Agreement, including without limitation pursuant to Sections 7 through 9 hereof, and the Company shall be entitled to assign its rights under Sections 7 through 9 hereof without the Executive's consent and any such assignees shall have the right to enforce all of the Executive's obligations to comply with Sections 7 through 9 hereof. The Executive covenants and agrees that he or she has received adequate consideration for his or her obligations contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof, and will not take the position that the covenants contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof are void for lack of consideration. The Executive will be responsible for any and all attorneys' fees and costs the Company incurs in enforcing the Executive's obligations contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof.

11. Representations. The Executive hereby represents and warrants to the Company that (a) the Executive is entering into this Agreement voluntarily and that the performance of the Executive's obligations hereunder will not violate any agreement between the Executive and any other person, firm, organization or other entity, and (b) the Executive is not bound by the terms of any agreement with any previous employer or other party to refrain from competing, directly or indirectly, with the business of such previous employer or other party that would be violated by the Executive's entering into this Agreement and/or providing services to the Company pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

12. Successors. This Agreement is personal to the Executive and, without the prior written consent of the Company, shall not be assignable by the Executive otherwise than by will or the laws of descent and distribution. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Executive's legal representatives. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and its successors and assigns.

13. Miscellaneous.

(a) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Colorado, without reference to principles of conflict of laws. The captions of this Agreement are not part of the provisions hereof and shall have no force or effect.

(b) Compensation Recovery Policy. Executive acknowledges and agrees that, to the extent the Company adopts any claw-back or similar policy pursuant to the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act or otherwise, and any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, he or she shall take all action necessary or appropriate to comply with such policy (including, without limitation, entering into any further agreements, amendments or policies necessary or appropriate to implement and/or enforce such policy with respect to past, present and future compensation, as appropriate).

(c) Whistleblower Protections and Trade Secrets. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, nothing in this Agreement prohibits Executive from reporting possible violations of federal law or regulation to any United States governmental agency or entity in accordance with the provisions of and rules promulgated under Section 21F of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 806 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, or any other whistleblower protection provisions of state or federal law or regulation (including the right to receive an award for information provided to any such government agencies). Furthermore, in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 1833, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement: (i) Executive shall not be in breach of this Agreement, and shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law (A) for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official or to an attorney solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law, or (B) for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal; and (ii) if Executive files a lawsuit for retaliation by the Company for reporting a suspected violation of law, Executive may disclose the trade secret to Executive's attorney, and may use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if Executive files any document containing the trade secret under seal, and does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

(d) Notices. All notices and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given by hand delivery to the other party or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

If to the Executive: at the Executive's most recent address on the records of the Company.

If to the Company:

Attn: Austin Ozawa

or to such other address as either party shall have furnished to the other in writing in accordance herewith. Notice and communications shall be effective when actually received by the addressee.

(e) Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if the Company determines, in its good faith judgment, that any transfer or deemed transfer of funds hereunder is likely to be construed as a personal loan prohibited by Section 13(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Exchange Act"), then such transfer or deemed transfer shall not be made to the extent necessary or appropriate so as not to violate the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(f) Section 409A of the Code.

(i) To the extent applicable, this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with Section 409A of the Code and Department of Treasury regulations and other interpretive guidance issued thereunder (together, "Section 409A"). Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Company determines that any compensation or benefits payable under this Agreement may be subject to Section 409A, the Company shall work in good faith with the Executive to adopt such amendments to this Agreement or adopt other policies and procedures (including amendments, policies and procedures with retroactive effect), or take any other actions, that the Company determines are necessary or appropriate to avoid the imposition of taxes under Section 409A, including without limitation, actions intended to (i) exempt the compensation and benefits payable under this Agreement from Section 409A, and/or (ii) comply with the requirements of Section 409A; provided, however, that this Section 13(f) shall not create an obligation on the part of the Company to adopt any such amendment, policy or procedure or take any such other action, nor shall the Company have any liability for failing to do so.

(ii) Any right to a series of installment payments pursuant to this Agreement is to be treated as a right to a series of separate payments. To the extent permitted under Section 409A, any separate payment or benefit under this Agreement or otherwise shall not be deemed "nonqualified deferred compensation" subject to Section 409A to the extent provided in the exceptions in Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(4), Section 1.409A-1(b)(9) or any other applicable exception or provision of Section 409A. Any payments subject to Section 409A that are subject to execution of a waiver and release which may be executed and/or revoked in a calendar year following the calendar year in which the payment event (such as termination of employment) occurs shall commence payment only in the calendar year in which the consideration period or, if applicable, release revocation period ends, as necessary to comply with Section 409A. All payments of nonqualified deferred compensation subject to Section 409A to be made upon a termination of employment under this Agreement may only be made upon Executive's Separation from Service (as defined below) from the Company.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no compensation or benefits, including without limitation any severance payments or benefits payable under Section 4 hereof, shall be paid to the Executive during the six (6)-month period following the Executive's "separation from service" from the Company (within the meaning of Section 409A, a "Separation from Service") if the Company determines that at the time of Executive's Separation from Service that Executive is a "specified employee" for purposes of Section 409A and paying such amounts at the time or times indicated in this Agreement would be a prohibited distribution under Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code. If the payment of any such amounts is delayed as a result of the previous sentence, then on the first day of the seventh month following the date of Separation from Service (or such earlier date upon which such amount can be paid under Section 409A without resulting in a prohibited distribution, including as a result of the Executive's death), the Company shall pay the Executive a lump-sum amount equal to the cumulative amount that would have otherwise been payable to the Executive during such period.

(iv) To the extent that any payments or reimbursements provided to the Executive under this Agreement are deemed to constitute compensation to the Executive to which Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-3(i)(1)(iv) would apply, such amounts shall be paid or reimbursed reasonably promptly, but not later than December 31 of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred. The amount of any such payments eligible for reimbursement in one year shall not affect the payments or expenses that are eligible for payment or reimbursement in any other taxable year, and the Executive's right to such payments or reimbursement of any such expenses shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for any other benefit.

(g) Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

(h) Withholding. The Company may withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement such federal, state, local or foreign taxes as shall be required to be withheld pursuant to any applicable law or regulation.

(i) No Waiver. The Executive's or the Company's failure to insist upon strict compliance with any provision of this Agreement or the failure to assert any right the Executive or the Company may have hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such provision or right or any other provision or right of this Agreement.

(j) Entire Agreement. As of the Effective Date, this Agreement constitutes the final, complete and exclusive agreement between the Executive and the Company with respect to the subject matter hereof and replaces and supersedes any and all other agreements, offers or promises, whether oral or written, by any member of the Company and its subsidiaries or affiliates, or representative thereof, including without limitation Prior Agreement; provided that nothing herein replaces or supersedes any non -disclosure,non-competition, non-solicitation or other similar agreement between the Company (or any subsidiaries thereof) and the Executive in effect on the Effective Date, each of which shall remain in full force and effect.

(k) Amendment. No amendment or other modification of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

(l) Counterparts. This Agreement and any agreement referenced herein may be executed simultaneously in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. A facsimile, PDF (or any electronic signature complying with the U.S. federal ESIGN Act of 2000, e.g. www.docusign.com) or any other type of copy of an executed version of this Agreement signed by a party is binding upon the signing party to the same extent as the original of the signed agreement.

Buss (the "Executive") (collectively referred to herein as the "Parties"). This Agreement shall be effective as of the date of closing of the initial public offering of the Company (or such other date mutually agreed in writing between the parties) (such date, the "Effective Date"). If the initial public offering of the Company does not occur on or prior to January 1, 2022, this Agreement will be void ab initio.

WHEREAS, the Executive is currently employed by the Company as its Executive Vice President & Chief Administrative Officer pursuant to the terms of that certain Executive Employment Agreement by and between the Parties, dated as of October 2016, as subsequently amended (the "Prior Agreement");

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the Company to continue to assure itself of the services of Executive following the Effective Date upon the terms and conditions of this Agreement, which replaces and supersedes the Prior Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Executive desires to provide services to the Company on the terms herein provided.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and the mutual agreements and covenants contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by the Company and Executive, the parties agree as follows:

1. Employment Period. Subject to the provisions for earlier termination hereinafter provided, the initial term of the Executive's employment hereunder shall be for a term (the "Initial Employment Period") commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the third anniversary of the Effective Date. The Initial Employment Period shall automatically be extended for successive one-year periods (each, an "Extension Employment Period" and, together with the Initial Employment Period, the "Employment Period"), unless either Party gives written notice ofnon-extension to the other no later than ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the then-applicable Employment Period, in which case Executive's employment will terminate at the end of the then-applicable Employment Period, subject to earlier termination as provided in Section 3 below.

2. Terms of Employment.

(a) Position and Duties.

(i) Role and Responsibilities. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall serve as Executive Vice President & Chief Administrative Officer of Life Time, and shall perform such employment duties as are usual and customary for such positions (subject to Section 3(d)(i)). The Executive shall report directly to the Chief Executive Officer of Life Time (or his or her designee). Executive will use Executive's best efforts to promote the interests, prospects and condition (financial and otherwise) and welfare of the Company and shall perform Executive's fiduciary duties and responsibilities to the Company to the best of Executive's ability in a diligent, trustworthy, businesslike and efficient manner. Executive agrees that Executive will observe and comply with the Company's rules and policies as adopted by the Company and in effect from time to time. At the Company's request, the Executive shall serve the Company and/or its subsidiaries and affiliates in other capacities in addition to the foregoing, consistent with the Executive's position as Executive Vice President & Chief Administrative Officer of Life Time. In the event that the Executive, during the Employment Period, serves in any one or more of such additional capacities, the Executive's compensation shall not be increased beyond that specified in Section 2(b) hereof. In addition, in the event the Executive's service in one or more of such additional capacities is terminated, the Executive's compensation, as specified in Section 2(b) hereof, shall not be diminished or reduced in any manner as a result of such termination provided that the Executive otherwise remains employed under the terms of this Agreement.

(ii) Exclusivity. During the Employment Period, and excluding any periods of vacation and sick leave to which the Executive may be entitled, the Executive agrees to devote his or her full business time and attention to the business and affairs of the Company. Executive shall not engage in outside business activities (including serving on outside boards or committees) without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors of Life Time (the "Board") (which shall not be unreasonably withheld);provided that Executive shall be permitted to (i) manage Executive's personal, financial and legal affairs, (ii) participate in trade associations and charitable and community affairs and (iii) serve on one outside board of directors or advisory board, subject to the prior written consent of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, in each case, to the extent such actions do not result in any violation of Sections 7 through 9.

(iii) Principal Location. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall perform the services required by this Agreement at the Company's principal offices located in Chanhassen, Minnesota or such other location mutually agreed upon by the Company and the Executive (the "Principal Location"), except for travel to other locations as may be necessary or appropriate to fulfill the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder.

(b) Compensation, Benefits, Etc. Subject to Section 3(d)(i):

(i) Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall receive a base salary (the "Base Salary") of $750,000 per annum. The Base Salary shall be subject to review from time to time by the Board or its delegate in its discretion. The Base Salary shall be paid in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices.

(ii) Annual Cash Bonus. In addition to the Base Salary, the Executive shall be eligible to earn, for each fiscal year of the Company ending during the Employment Period commencing in fiscal year 2022, a discretionary cash performance bonus (an "Annual Bonus") under the Company's bonus plan or program applicable to senior executives. The Executive's target Annual Bonus shall be set at 67% of the Base Salary actually paid for such year (the "Target Bonus"). The actual amount of any Annual Bonus shall be determined by reference to the attainment of Company performance metrics and/or individual performance objectives, in each case, as determined by the Board or the Compensation Committee or similar committee in its discretion, and may be greater or less than the Target Bonus. Subject to Section 4(a) hereof, payment of any Annual Bonus(es), to the extent any Annual Bonus(es) become payable, will be made at the same time bonuses are paid to other similarly-situated executives of the Company generally, contingent upon the Executive's continued employment through the applicable payment date.

(iii) Benefits. During the Employment Period, the Executive (and the Executive's spouse and/or eligible dependents to the extent provided in the applicable plans and programs) shall be eligible to participate in and be covered under the health and welfare benefit plans and programs maintained by the Company for the benefit of its employees from time to time, subject to the terms of such plans and programs including any medical and dental insurance plans and programs. In addition, during the Employment Period, Executive shall be eligible to participate in any retirement, savings and other employee benefit plans and programs maintained from time to time by the Company for the benefit of its senior executive officers generally. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained in this Section 2(b)(iii) shall create or be deemed to create any obligation on the part of the Company to adopt or maintain any health, welfare, retirement or other benefit plan or program at any time or to create any limitation on the Company's ability to modify or terminate any such plan or program.

(iv) Expenses. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable business expenses incurred by the Executive in accordance with the policies, practices and procedures of the Company.

(v) Vacation. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be entitled to paid vacation in accordance with the plans, policies, programs and practices of the Company applicable to its senior executives in effect from time to time.

During the Employment Period, Executive will be eligible to participate in the Company's equity incentive plan then in effect and receive equity awards thereunder, as determined by the Board or the Compensation Committee (or similar committee) of the Board in its sole discretion and subject to the terms of the Company's equity incentive plan then in effect and an applicable award agreement.

3. Termination of Employment.

(a) Death or Disability. The Executive's employment shall terminate automatically upon the Executive's death during the Employment Period. Either the Company or the Executive may terminate the Executive's employment in the event of the Executive's Disability during the Employment Period. For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" shall mean: Executive's inability to perform on a full-time basis the duties and responsibilities of Executive's employment with the Company by reason of Executive's illness or other physical or mental impairment or condition, as determined by a physician mutually acceptable to Executive and the Company, if such inability continues for an uninterrupted period of 90 days or more during any 365-day period. A period of inability shall be "uninterrupted" unless and until Executive returns to full-time work from the above-referenced leave for a continuous period of at least 180 days, excluding vacation days or sick days taken for reasons unrelated to the illness or other physical or mental impairment or condition necessitating the above-referenced leave.

(ii) the Executive's willful or grossly negligent violation of any material Company rule, procedure or policy, or breach of any non-disclosure, non-competition, non-solicitation or other similar agreement between the Company (or any subsidiaries thereof) and the Executive;

(iii) the Executive's plea of nolo contendere to, or conviction of a felony, a crime of moral turpitude or a misdemeanor involving fraud or dishonesty (other than minor traffic violations or similar offenses) or that could reasonably be expected to result in material harm, whether business, financial, reputational or otherwise, to the Company or its subsidiaries;

(iv) the perpetration of any act of fraud, embezzlement or material dishonesty against or affecting the Company, any of its subsidiaries, or any customer, agent or employee thereof;

(v) material breach of fiduciary duty or material breach of this Agreement (or any other written agreement by and between the Executive and the Company) by Executive;

(vi) repeated insolent or abusive conduct in the workplace, including but not limited to, harassment of others of a racial or sexual nature; or

(vii) engaging in any act of material self-dealing without prior notice to and consent by the Board.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean the occurrence of any one or more of the following events without the Executive's prior written consent, unless the Company fully corrects the circumstances constituting Good Reason (provided such circumstances are capable of correction) as provided below:

(i) The Company has breached any material term(s) or material condition(s) of this Agreement;

(ii) A requirement imposed by the Company on the Executive that Executive's principal place of employment be anywhere other than within a 75 mile radius of the Executive's Principal Location, and the relocation results in a material change to the geographic location at which the Executive performs services;

(iii) A material reduction in the Executive's Base Salary or Target Bonus as then in effect, other than in connection with an across-the-board reduction affecting other similarly situated executives of the Company or as otherwise contemplated by Section 3(d)(i); or

(iv) The Company has assigned duties and responsibilities to Executive that are materially inconsistent with Executive's position, duties or responsibilities as set forth in this Agreement, such that there occurs a material reduction in Executive's duties, responsibilities or authority as set forth in this Agreement, other than as contemplated by Section 3(d)(i).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive will not be deemed to have resigned for Good Reason unless (1) the Executive provides the Company with written notice setting forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed by the Executive to constitute Good Reason within ninety (90) days after the date of the occurrence of any event that the Executive knows or should reasonably have known to constitute Good Reason, (2) the Company fails to cure such acts or omissions within thirty (30) days following its receipt of such notice, and (3) the effective date of the Executive's termination for Good Reason occurs no later than thirty (30) days after the expiration of the Company's cure period.

(d) Notice of Suspension or Termination.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event of the Executive's arrest or indictment for a felony, crime or misdemeanor described in Section 3(b)(iii), the Company shall have the right (but not obligation) to suspend the Executive without compensation of any kind until such time as either (A) a court of competent jurisdiction makes a final determination as to the Executive's guilt or innocence or (B) the Executive pleads nolo contendere to such alleged such felony or crime; provided that, if the court makes a final determination that the Executive should be acquitted of such felony or crime, the Company shall either (x) reinstate the Executive and pay to the Executive the amount of Base Salary that was withheld pursuant to this Section 3(d)(i) within 30 days following such reinstatement, or (y) terminate the Executive's employment pursuant to Section 3(b) and pay any severance required in accordance with Section 4. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company retains the right to terminate the Executive's employment with the Company at any time during or following such period of suspension pursuant to Section 3(b).

(ii) Any termination by the Company for Cause, or by the Executive for Good Reason, shall be communicated by a Notice of Termination to the other parties hereto given in accordance with Section 13(d) hereof. For purposes of this Agreement, a "Notice of Termination" means a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon, (ii) sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Executive's employment under the provision so indicated and (iii) if the Date of Termination (as defined below) is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the termination date (which date shall be not more than thirty (30) days after the giving of such notice). The failure by the Executive or the Company to set forth in the Notice of Termination any fact or circumstance which contributes to a showing of Good Reason or Cause shall not waive any right of the Executive or the Company, respectively, hereunder or preclude the Executive or the Company, respectively, from asserting such fact or circumstance in enforcing the Executive's or the Company's rights hereunder.

(e) Termination of Offices and Directorships; Return of Property. Upon termination of the Executive's employment for any reason, unless otherwise specified in a written agreement between the Executive and the Company, the Executive shall be deemed to have resigned from all offices, directorships, and other employment positions if any, then held with the Company, and shall take all actions reasonably requested by the Company to effectuate the foregoing. In addition, upon the termination of the Executive's employment for any reason, the Executive agrees to return to the Company all documents of the Company and its affiliates (and all copies thereof) and all other Company or Company affiliate property that the Executive has in his or her possession, custody or control. Such property includes, without limitation: (i) any materials of any kind that the Executive knows contain or embody any proprietary or confidential information of the Company or an affiliate of the Company (and all reproductions thereof), (ii) computers (including, but not limited to, laptop computers, desktop computers and similar devices) and other portable electronic devices (including, but not limited to, tablet computers), cellular phones/smartphones, credit cards, phone cards, entry cards, identification badges and keys, and (iii) any correspondence, drawings, manuals, letters, notes, notebooks, reports, programs, plans, proposals, financial documents, or any other documents concerning the customers, business plans, marketing strategies, products and/or processes of the Company or any of its affiliates and any information received from the Company or any of its affiliates regarding third parties.

4. Obligations of the Company upon Termination. Upon a termination of the Executive's employment for any reason, the Executive shall be entitled to receive, in a single lump-sum payment, (i) the aggregate amount of the Executive's earned but unpaid Base Salary, (ii) any unpaid Annual Bonus earned by Executive for the year prior to the year in which the Date of Termination occurs, (iii) reimbursement of expenses to which Executive is entitled and (iv) any other benefits to which Executive is legally entitled (collectively, the "Accrued Obligations").

(a) Without Cause, For Good Reason or Due to Company Non-Extension. If the Executive's employment with the Company is terminated (1) during the Employment Period (x) by the Company without Cause (other than by reason of the Executive's death or Disability) or due to the Company's non-extension of the Employment Period or (y) by the Executive for Good Reason or (2) at the end of the Employment Period due to the Company's non-extension of the Employment Period (in either case, a "Qualifying Termination"), then following the date of such termination of employment (such date, the "Date of Termination"), in addition to the Accrued Obligations:

(i) Target Compensation Continuation. The Company shall continue to pay to the Executive an amount equal to 50% of the sum of the Executive's (1) Base Salary and (2) Target Bonus in effect as of the Date of Termination (the amount of such sum, the "Total Target Compensation"), but not to exceed a maximum amount of two times the lesser of: (x) the Code § 401(a)(17) compensation limit for the year in which the Date of Termination occurs; or (y) the sum of Executive's annualized compensation based upon the annual rate of pay for services provided to the Company for the calendar year prior to the calendar year in which the Date of Termination occurs (adjusted for any increase during that year that was expected to continue indefinitely) (the "Target Compensation Continuation Amount"). Such Target Compensation Continuation Amount shall be paid during the period beginning on the Date of Termination and ending on the six (6) month anniversary of the Date of Termination in installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll practices as of the Date of Termination, provided that to the extent any portion of such payment is delayed pursuant to Section 4(a)(v), such portion shall be paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following the 60th day following the Date of Termination. The Company and the Executive intend the payments under this Section 4(a)(i) to constitute a "separation pay plan due to involuntary separation from service" pursuant to Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii).

(ii) Potential Make-Up Payment. In the event that the Target Compensation Continuation Amount is reduced under Section 4(a)(i) from 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Date of Termination by application of clause (x) or (y) thereof, then the Company shall make an additional lump sum payment to the Executive equal to the difference between (x) 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Date of Termination, and (y) the amount to be paid to the Executive under Section 4(a)(i) as a result of the application of clause (x) or (y) thereof. Such payment will be paid to the Executive on the Company's first regular payroll after the Executive executes and delivers to the Company the Release (as defined below) and after the expiration of an applicable revocation period, if any, but in no event later than 75 days after the Date of Termination. The Company and Executive intend the payments under this Section 4(a)(ii) to be a "short-term deferral" under Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(4).

(iii) Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation. The Company will pay to Executive an additional amount equal to 100% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Date of Termination (the "Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation Amount"). Such Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation Amount shall be paid to Executive in equal installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll schedule, commencing on the first regular payroll date of the Company that occurs following completion of all payments under Section 4(a)(i) (and in any event commencing no earlier than the first day of the seventh month after the Date of Termination) and continuing for twelve (12) months. The Company and Executive intend the payments under this Section 4(a)(iii) to be deferred compensation payable either in accordance with the "short-term deferral" exception under Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(4) or in compliance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code.

(iv) COBRA. During the period beginning on the Date of Termination and ending on the eighteen (18) month anniversary of the Date of Termination (or, if shorter, during the period commencing on the date of Executive's Qualifying Termination and ending on the date on which Executive becomes eligible for coverage under any group health plan of a subsequent employer or otherwise) (in any case, the "Benefits Continuation Period"), subject to the Executive's valid election to continue healthcare coverage under Section 4980B of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations thereunder (together, the "Code"), the Company shall continue to provide the Executive and the Executive's eligible dependents with coverage under its group health plans at the same levels and the same cost to the Executive as would have applied if the Executive's employment had not been terminated based on the Executive's elections in effect on the Date of Termination (the "COBRA Payments"), provided, however, that (A) if any plan pursuant to which such benefits are provided is not, or ceases prior to the expiration of the period of continuation coverage to be, exempt from the application of Section 409A (as defined below) under Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(a)(5), or (B) the Company is otherwise unable to continue to cover the Executive under its group health plans without incurring penalties (including without limitation, pursuant to Section 2716 of the Public Health Service Act or the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act), then, in either case, an amount equal to each remaining Company subsidy shall thereafter be paid to the Executive in substantially equal monthly installments over the Benefits Continuation Period (or the remaining portion thereof).

(v) Release. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be a condition to the Executive's right to receive the amounts provided for in Sections 4(a) hereof, as applicable, that the Executive continue to comply with Executive's obligations under Sections 7 through 9 hereof and execute and deliver to the Company an effective release of claims in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Release") within twenty-one (21) days (or, to the extent required by law, forty-five (45) days) following the Date of Termination and that the Executive not revoke such Release during any applicable revocation period.

(b) For Cause, Without Good Reason or Other Terminations. If the Company terminates the Executive's employment for Cause, the Executive terminates the Executive's employment without Good Reason, or the Executive's employment terminates for any other reason not enumerated in Sections 4(a) or 4(b) hereof, in any case, during the Employment Period, or if the Executive's employment with the Company is terminated due to the Executive's non-extension of the Employment Period, then, in any case, the Company shall pay to the Executive the Accrued Obligations in cash within thirty (30) days after the Date of Termination (or by such earlier date as may be required by applicable law), and the Executive shall have no further rights hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the Executive's termination is by reason of the Executive's death or Disability, Executive will be entitled, subject to the timely execution and non-revocation of a Release (as described above), Executive will be entitled to receive apro-rated portion (based on the number of days Executive was employed by the Company during the calendar year in which the date of Executive's termination occurs) of the Annual Bonus that Executive would have earned had Executive remained employed through the end of the calendar year in which Executive's Date of Termination occurs, as determined by the Board in good faith. If and to the extent earned, such pro-rated Annual Bonus shall be paid out at the same time annual bonuses are paid generally to other executives of the Company for the relevant year, less applicable withholdings and deductions (but in no event later than the end of the calendar year following the calendar year to which such Annual Bonus relates).

(c) Exclusive Benefits. Except as expressly provided in this Section 4 and subject to Section 5 hereof, the Executive shall not be entitled to any additional payments or benefits upon or in connection with the Executive's termination of employment.

5. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. Amounts which are vested benefits or which the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan, policy, practice or program of or any contract or agreement with the Company at or subsequent to the Date of Termination shall be payable in accordance with such plan, policy, practice or program or contract or agreement except as explicitly modified by this Agreement.

6. Excess Parachute Payments, Limitation on Payments.

(a) Best Pay Cap. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in the event that any payment or benefit received or to be received by the Executive (including any payment or benefit received in connection with a termination of the Executive's employment, whether pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement) (all such payments and benefits, including the payments and benefits under Section 4 hereof, being hereinafter referred to as the "Total Payments") constitute parachute payments within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code and would be subject (in whole or part), to the excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax"), then, after taking into account any reduction in the Total Payments provided by reason of Section 280G of the Code in such other plan, arrangement or agreement, the cash payments under this Agreement shall first be reduced, and the noncash payments hereunder shall thereafter be reduced, to the extent necessary so that no portion of the Total Payments is subject to the Excise Tax but only if (i) the net amount of such Total Payments, as so reduced (and after subtracting the net amount of federal, state and local income taxes on such reduced Total Payments and after taking into account the phase out of itemized deductions and personal exemptions attributable to such reduced Total Payments) is greater than or equal to (ii) the net amount of such Total Payments without such reduction (but after subtracting the net amount of federal, state and local income taxes on such Total Payments and the amount of Excise Tax to which the Executive would be subject in respect of such unreduced Total Payments and after taking into account the phase out of itemized deductions and personal exemptions attributable to such unreduced Total Payments).

(b) Certain Exclusions. For purposes of determining whether and the extent to which the Total Payments will be subject to the Excise Tax, (i) no portion of the Total Payments the receipt or enjoyment of which the Executive shall have waived at such time and in such manner as not to constitute a "payment" within the meaning of Section 280G(b) of the Code shall be taken into account; (ii) no portion of the Total Payments shall be taken into account which, in the written opinion of an independent, nationally recognized accounting or consulting firm (the "Independent Advisors") selected by the Company, does not constitute a "parachute payment" within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code (including by reason of Section 280G(b)(4)(A) of the Code) and, in calculating the Excise Tax, no portion of such Total Payments shall be taken into account which, in the opinion of the Independent Advisors, constitutes reasonable compensation for services actually rendered, within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(4)(B) of the Code, in excess of the "base amount" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code) allocable to such reasonable compensation; and (iii) the value of any non-cash benefit or any deferred payment or benefit included in the Total Payments shall be determined by the Independent Advisors in accordance with the principles of Sections 280G(d)(3) and (4) of the Code.

7. Restrictive Covenants and Confidentiality. The parties acknowledge and agree that (a) the provisions and covenants contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof (i) are material to this Agreement, (ii) are provided for, among other things, the protection of the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships, goodwill and reputation (which is an honest and just purpose), (iii) are reasonable in geographic and temporal scope and (iv) do not impose a greater restriction or restraint than is necessary to protect the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships and contacts, goodwill, reputation and other legitimate business interests, (b) the Executive (i) is employed by the Company, (ii) has been and/or will be provided with confidential and commercially-sensitive information regarding the Company and its business during his or her employment and/or service with the Company, and (iii) provides special, unique and extraordinary services to the Company, (c) the provisions of Sections 7 through 9 hereof do not adversely affect the Executive's ability to earn a living in any capacity, stifle the Executive's ability to use his or her inherent skills and experience, or otherwise impose undue hardship or oppression on the Executive, and (d) the Executive's continuation of employment under this Agreement, and the compensation and benefits described in this Agreement, constitute sufficient consideration for all of the Executive's covenants contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof.

(a) Except as permitted by the Board, during the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and at all times thereafter, the Executive shall not divulge, furnish or make accessible to anyone or use in any way other than in the ordinary course of the business of the Company, any confidential, proprietary or secret knowledge or information of the Company or any of its affiliates, whether developed by the Executive or others, including but not limited to (i) trade secrets, (ii) confidential and proprietary plans, developments, research, processes, designs, methods or material (whether or not patented or patentable), (iii) customer and supplier lists, (iv) strategic or other business, marketing or sales plans, (v) financial data and plans and (vi) Proprietary Information. "Proprietary Information" is defined as (i) the name, address and/or contact information of any customer, supplier or affiliate of the Company or any information concerning the transactions or relations of any customer, supplier or affiliate of the Company or any of its shareholders; (ii) any information concerning any product, service, technology or procedure offered or used by the Company or any of its affiliates, or under development by or being considered for use by the Company or any of its affiliates; (iii) any information relating to marketing or pricing plans or methods, capital structure, or any business or strategic plans of the Company or any of its affiliates; (iv) any inventions, innovations, trade secrets or other items covered by Section 8 below; and (v) any other information which the Company or any of its affiliates has determined and communicated to the Executive in writing to be proprietary information for purposes hereof; provided, however, that "Proprietary Information" shall not include any information that is or becomes generally known to the public other than through actions of the Executive in violation of the restrictive covenants set forth in Sections 7 through 9 hereof. The Executive acknowledges that the above-described knowledge and information constitute unique and valuable assets of the Company and represent a substantial investment of time and expense by the Company, and that any disclosure or other use of such knowledge or information other than for the sole benefit of the Company would be wrongful and would cause irreparable harm to the Company. During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company, the Executive shall refrain from any acts or omissions that would reduce the value of such knowledge or information to the Company. The foregoing obligations of confidentiality shall not apply to any knowledge or information that (x) is now or subsequently becomes generally publicly known for reasons other than the Executive's violation of this Agreement, (y) is independently made available to the Executive in good faith by a third party who has not violated a confidential relationship with the Company, or (z) is required to be disclosed by legal process, other than as a direct or indirect result of the breach of this Agreement by the Executive.

(b) If, during the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company, the Executive is engaged in or associated with the planning or implementing of any project, program or venture involving the Company, all rights in such project, program or venture shall belong to the Company, as applicable. Except as approved in writing by the Board, the Executive shall not be entitled to any interest in any such project, program or venture or to any commission, finder's fee or other compensation in connection therewith. The Executive shall have no interest, direct or indirect, in any customer or supplier that conducts business with the Company, provided that a passive investment of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any customer or supplier listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this sentence.

8. Inventions and Proprietary Rights.

(a) All right, title and interest in all discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that the Executive shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others during the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company (i) that are directly related to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or that results from any work performed by the Executive for the Company, (ii) for which any equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and/or (iii) which was not developed entirely on the Executive's own time, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark ("Protectable Material"), shall be the property of the Company and are hereby assigned by the Executive to the Company (and the Executive agrees to assign all Protectable Material to the Company in the future), along with ownership of any and all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights in the Protectable Material. Upon request and without further compensation therefor, but at no expense to the Executive, the Executive shall execute any and all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the Company to obtain and register patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights on the Protectable Materials in any and all countries. Where applicable, works of authorship created by the Executive for the Company in performing the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be considered "works made for hire," as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act.

(b) All trade secret information conceived or originated by the Executive that arises during the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and out of the performance of the Executive's duties and responsibilities to the Company or any related material or information shall be the property of the Company, and all rights therein are hereby assigned by the Executive to the Company.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive understands that this Agreement does not require assignment of any invention to the extent such invention qualifies for protection under Section 181.78 of the 2015 Minnesota Statutes, as may be amended from time to time, and the current text of which is attached hereto as Annex 1 to Exhibit B. The Executive hereby acknowledges that the Company has provided him or her with the notification set forth on Exhibit B (and the annex attached thereto) on the date hereof and the Executive shall sign such notification as soon as reasonably practicable after the date hereof.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive understands that pursuant to the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, the Executive shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (A) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

9. Non-Compete; Non-Solicitation; Non-Disparagement.

(a) During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and during the24-month period following the date of termination thereof (the "Restricted Period"), regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise) in any Company Business (as defined below) in the Territory (as defined below). For purposes of Sections 7 through 9 hereof, (i) "Company" means Life Time Group Holdings, Inc. and any parent, affiliated, related and/or direct or indirect subsidiary entity thereof, (ii) "Company Business" means (1) the design, development, operation, management, advertisement, promotion, solicitation, marketing or sale of health and fitness clubs or health and fitness club memberships, (2) any services, products or programs offered by health and fitness clubs, including but not limited to personal training, nutritional supplements; health testing or health assessments; wellness services or programs (whether direct to consumer or business to business); weight loss services or programs; kids activities; salons, spas, and medical spas; restaurants or cafes; athletic events and related services (including race timing and registration), and (3) any other product or service that grows into a material business for the Company (or is under development and is projected to grow into a material business for the Company) as of the Executive's Date of Termination, and (iii) "Territory" means the United States, Canada and any other country in which the Company is then doing Company Business as of the Executive's Date of Termination. Ownership by the Executive, as a passive investment, of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any corporation listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this Section 9(a).

(b) During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, the Executive shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, hire, engage or solicit for the purpose of employing or otherwise engaging any person who is then an employee of the Company or who was an employee of the Company as of the Executive's date of termination or at any time in the six-month period prior to such hiring, engagement or solicitation.

(c) During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, the Executive shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, solicit, request, advise or induce any current or potential customer, member, supplier or other business contact of the Company to cancel, curtail or otherwise change its relationship with the Company.

(d) The Executive will not malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of the Company or any of its affiliates, or the reputation or character of the Company's or any of its affiliates' directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents, provided that nothing in this Section 9(d) shall be construed to limit or restrict Executive from taking any action that Executive in good faith reasonably believes is necessary to fulfill Executive's fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter. The Company shall instruct its then-current executive officers and directors as of the Executive's date of termination not to malign, defame or disparage the reputation or image of Executive, provided that nothing in this Section 9(d) shall be construed to limit or restrict such officers and directors from taking any action that they in good faith reasonably believes is necessary to fulfill their fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter.

(e) The Executive shall inform any prospective or future employer of any and all restrictions contained in this Agreement and provide such employer with a copy of such restrictions (but no other terms of this Agreement) prior to the commencement of that employment.

10. Enforcement. If the duration of, the scope of or any business activity covered by any provision of Sections 7 through 9 hereof is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be in excess of what is valid and enforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be construed to cover only that duration, scope or activity that is valid and enforceable, and all other provisions of Sections 7 through 9 shall remain in full force and effect. The Executive hereby acknowledges that Sections 7 through 9 hereof shall be given the construction that renders the provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent, not exceeding their express terms, possible under applicable law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the foregoing sentences of this Section 10 shall in no event apply to the extent their application would render Sections 7 through 9 hereof (or any portion thereof) unenforceable under applicable law. The Executive acknowledges that the provisions of Sections 7 through 9 hereof are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, and that any violation of those provisions by the Executive would cause real, immediate, substantial and irreparable harm to the Company to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefor. Therefore, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of Sections 7 through 9 hereof, the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies it may have, be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief to enforce such provisions and to restrain the Executive from violating or continuing to violate such provisions, and such relief may be granted without the necessity of proving actual monetary damages or posting bond. The Executive agrees that the Restricted Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which he or she is in violation of the terms of Section 9(a), 9(b) or 9(c), in order that the Company and its affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. No breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company, or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of the Executive's employment and/or service relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish the Executive's obligation to comply with Sections 7 through 9 hereof. The Company (including, without limitation, its affiliates) are third party beneficiaries under this Agreement and shall have the right to enforce all of the Executive's obligations to the Company under this Agreement, including without limitation pursuant to Sections 7 through 9 hereof, and the Company shall be entitled to assign its rights under Sections 7 through 9 hereof without the Executive's consent and any such assignees shall have the right to enforce all of the Executive's obligations to comply with Sections 7 through 9 hereof. The Executive covenants and agrees that he or she has received adequate consideration for his or her obligations contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof, and will not take the position that the covenants contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof are void for lack of consideration. The Executive will be responsible for any and all attorneys' fees and costs the Company incurs in enforcing the Executive's obligations contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof.

11. Representations. The Executive hereby represents and warrants to the Company that (a) the Executive is entering into this Agreement voluntarily and that the performance of the Executive's obligations hereunder will not violate any agreement between the Executive and any other person, firm, organization or other entity, and (b) the Executive is not bound by the terms of any agreement with any previous employer or other party to refrain from competing, directly or indirectly, with the business of such previous employer or other party that would be violated by the Executive's entering into this Agreement and/or providing services to the Company pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

12. Successors. This Agreement is personal to the Executive and, without the prior written consent of the Company, shall not be assignable by the Executive otherwise than by will or the laws of descent and distribution. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Executive's legal representatives. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and its successors and assigns.

13. Miscellaneous.

(a) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Minnesota, without reference to principles of conflict of laws. The captions of this Agreement are not part of the provisions hereof and shall have no force or effect.

(b) Compensation Recovery Policy. Executive acknowledges and agrees that, to the extent the Company adopts any claw-back or similar policy pursuant to the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act or otherwise, and any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, he or she shall take all action necessary or appropriate to comply with such policy (including, without limitation, entering into any further agreements, amendments or policies necessary or appropriate to implement and/or enforce such policy with respect to past, present and future compensation, as appropriate).

(c) Whistleblower Protections and Trade Secrets. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, nothing in this Agreement prohibits Executive from reporting possible violations of federal law or regulation to any United States governmental agency or entity in accordance with the provisions of and rules promulgated under Section 21F of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 806 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, or any other whistleblower protection provisions of state or federal law or regulation (including the right to receive an award for information provided to any such government agencies). Furthermore, in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 1833, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement: (i) Executive shall not be in breach of this Agreement, and shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law (A) for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official or to an attorney solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law, or (B) for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal; and (ii) if Executive files a lawsuit for retaliation by the Company for reporting a suspected violation of law, Executive may disclose the trade secret to Executive's attorney, and may use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if Executive files any document containing the trade secret under seal, and does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

or to such other address as either party shall have furnished to the other in writing in accordance herewith. Notice and communications shall be effective when actually received by the addressee.

(e) Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if the Company determines, in its good faith judgment, that any transfer or deemed transfer of funds hereunder is likely to be construed as a personal loan prohibited by Section 13(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Exchange Act"), then such transfer or deemed transfer shall not be made to the extent necessary or appropriate so as not to violate the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(f) Section 409A of the Code.

(i) To the extent applicable, this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with Section 409A of the Code and Department of Treasury regulations and other interpretive guidance issued thereunder (together, "Section 409A"). Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Company determines that any compensation or benefits payable under this Agreement may be subject to Section 409A, the Company shall work in good faith with the Executive to adopt such amendments to this Agreement or adopt other policies and procedures (including amendments, policies and procedures with retroactive effect), or take any other actions, that the Company determines are necessary or appropriate to avoid the imposition of taxes under Section 409A, including without limitation, actions intended to (i) exempt the compensation and benefits payable under this Agreement from Section 409A, and/or (ii) comply with the requirements of Section 409A; provided, however, that this Section 13(f) shall not create an obligation on the part of the Company to adopt any such amendment, policy or procedure or take any such other action, nor shall the Company have any liability for failing to do so.

(ii) Any right to a series of installment payments pursuant to this Agreement is to be treated as a right to a series of separate payments. To the extent permitted under Section 409A, any separate payment or benefit under this Agreement or otherwise shall not be deemed "nonqualified deferred compensation" subject to Section 409A to the extent provided in the exceptions in Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(4), Section 1.409A-1(b)(9) or any other applicable exception or provision of Section 409A. Any payments subject to Section 409A that are subject to execution of a waiver and release which may be executed and/or revoked in a calendar year following the calendar year in which the payment event (such as termination of employment) occurs shall commence payment only in the calendar year in which the consideration period or, if applicable, release revocation period ends, as necessary to comply with Section 409A. All payments of nonqualified deferred compensation subject to Section 409A to be made upon a termination of employment under this Agreement may only be made upon Employee's Separation from Service (as defined below) from the Company.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no compensation or benefits, including without limitation any severance payments or benefits payable under Section 4 hereof, shall be paid to the Executive during the six (6)-month period following the Executive's "separation from service" from the Company (within the meaning of Section 409A, a "Separation from Service") if the Company determines that at the time of Executive's Separation from Service that Executive is a "specified employee" for purposes of Section 409A and paying such amounts at the time or times indicated in this Agreement would be a prohibited distribution under Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code. If the payment of any such amounts is delayed as a result of the previous sentence, then on the first day of the seventh month following the date of Separation from Service (or such earlier date upon which such amount can be paid under Section 409A without resulting in a prohibited distribution, including as a result of the Executive's death), the Company shall pay the Executive a lump-sum amount equal to the cumulative amount that would have otherwise been payable to the Executive during such period.

(iv) To the extent that any payments or reimbursements provided to the Executive under this Agreement are deemed to constitute compensation to the Executive to which Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-3(i)(1)(iv) would apply, such amounts shall be paid or reimbursed reasonably promptly, but not later than December 31 of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred. The amount of any such payments eligible for reimbursement in one year shall not affect the payments or expenses that are eligible for payment or reimbursement in any other taxable year, and the Executive's right to such payments or reimbursement of any such expenses shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for any other benefit.

(g) Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

(h) Withholding. The Company may withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement such federal, state, local or foreign taxes as shall be required to be withheld pursuant to any applicable law or regulation.

(i) No Waiver. The Executive's or the Company's failure to insist upon strict compliance with any provision of this Agreement or the failure to assert any right the Executive or the Company may have hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such provision or right or any other provision or right of this Agreement.

(j) Entire Agreement. As of the Effective Date, this Agreement constitutes the final, complete and exclusive agreement between the Executive and the Company with respect to the subject matter hereof and replaces and supersedes any and all other agreements, offers or promises, whether oral or written, by any member of the Company and its subsidiaries or affiliates, or representative thereof, including without limitation the Prior Agreement; provided that nothing herein replaces or supersedes any non -disclosure,non-competition, non-solicitation or other similar agreement between the Company (or any subsidiaries thereof) and the Executive in effect on the Effective Date, each of which shall remain in full force and effect.

(k) Amendment. No amendment or other modification of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

(l) Counterparts. This Agreement and any agreement referenced herein may be executed simultaneously in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. A facsimile, PDF (or any electronic signature complying with the U.S. federal ESIGN Act of 2000, e.g. www.docusign.com) or any other type of copy of an executed version of this Agreement signed by a party is binding upon the signing party to the same extent as the original of the signed agreement.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

THIS EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), entered into as of September 13, is made by and between Life Time Group Holdings, Inc. ("Life Time", and together with any of its subsidiaries and affiliates as may employ Executive from time to time, and any successor(s) thereto, the "Company" (except as set forth in Section 9(a)) and Jeffrey G. Zwiefel (the "Executive") (collectively referred to herein as the "Parties"). This Agreement shall be effective as of the date of closing of the initial public offering of the Company (or such other date mutually agreed in writing between the parties) (such date, the "Effective Date"). If the initial public offering of the Company does not occur on or prior to January 1, 2022, this Agreement will be void ab initio.

WHEREAS, the Executive is currently employed by the Company as its President & Chief Operating Officer pursuant to the terms of that certain Executive Employment Agreement by and between the Parties, dated as of March 2017, as subsequently amended (the "Prior Agreement");

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the Company to continue to assure itself of the services of Executive following the Effective Date upon the terms and conditions of this Agreement, which replaces and supersedes the Prior Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Executive desires to provide services to the Company on the terms herein provided.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and the mutual agreements and covenants contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by the Company and Executive, the parties agree as follows:

1. Employment Period. Subject to the provisions for earlier termination hereinafter provided, the initial term of the Executive's employment hereunder shall be for a term (the "Initial Employment Period") commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the third anniversary of the Effective Date. The Initial Employment Period shall automatically be extended for successive one-year periods (each, an "Extension Employment Period" and, together with the Initial Employment Period, the "Employment Period"), unless either Party gives written notice ofnon-extension to the other no later than ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the then-applicable Employment Period, in which case Executive's employment will terminate at the end of the then-applicable Employment Period, subject to earlier termination as provided in Section 3 below.

2. Terms of Employment.

(a) Position and Duties.

(i) Role and Responsibilities. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall serve as President & Chief Operating Officer of Life Time, and shall perform such employment duties as are usual and customary for such positions (subject to Section 3(d)(i)). The Executive shall report directly to the Chief Executive Officer of Life Time (or his or her designee). Executive will use Executive's best efforts to promote the interests, prospects and condition (financial and otherwise) and welfare of the Company and shall perform Executive's fiduciary duties and responsibilities to the Company to the best of Executive's ability in a diligent, trustworthy, businesslike and efficient manner. Executive agrees that Executive will observe and comply with the Company's rules and policies as adopted by the Company and in effect from time to time. At the Company's request, the Executive shall serve the Company and/or its subsidiaries and affiliates in other capacities in addition to the foregoing, consistent with the Executive's position as President & Chief Operating Officer of Life Time. In the event that the Executive, during the Employment Period, serves in any one or more of such additional capacities, the Executive's compensation shall not be increased beyond that specified in Section 2(b) hereof. In addition, in the event the Executive's service in one or more of such additional capacities is terminated, the Executive's compensation, as specified in Section 2(b) hereof, shall not be diminished or reduced in any manner as a result of such termination provided that the Executive otherwise remains employed under the terms of this Agreement.

(ii) Exclusivity. During the Employment Period, and excluding any periods of vacation and sick leave to which the Executive may be entitled, the Executive agrees to devote his or her full business time and attention to the business and affairs of the Company. Executive shall not engage in outside business activities (including serving on outside boards or committees) without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors of Life Time (the "Board") (which shall not be unreasonably withheld);provided that Executive shall be permitted to (i) manage Executive's personal, financial and legal affairs, (ii) participate in trade associations and charitable and community affairs and (iii) serve on one outside board of directors or advisory board, subject to the prior written consent of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, in each case, to the extent such actions do not result in any violation of Sections 7 through 9.

(iii) Principal Location. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall perform the services required by this Agreement at the Company's principal offices located in Chanhassen, Minnesota or such other location mutually agreed upon by the Company and the Executive (the "Principal Location"), except for travel to other locations as may be necessary or appropriate to fulfill the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder.

(b) Compensation, Benefits, Etc. Subject to Section 3(d)(i):

(i) Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall receive a base salary (the "Base Salary") of $900,000 per annum. The Base Salary shall be subject to review from time to time by the Board or its delegate in its discretion. The Base Salary shall be paid in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices.

(ii) Annual Cash Bonus. In addition to the Base Salary, the Executive shall be eligible to earn, for each fiscal year of the Company ending during the Employment Period commencing in fiscal year 2022, a discretionary cash performance bonus (an "Annual Bonus") under the Company's bonus plan or program applicable to senior executives. The Executive's target Annual Bonus shall be set at 67% of the Base Salary actually paid for such year (the "Target Bonus"). The actual amount of any Annual Bonus shall be determined by reference to the attainment of Company performance metrics and/or individual performance objectives, in each case, as determined by the Board or the Compensation Committee or similar committee in its discretion, and may be greater or less than the Target Bonus. Subject to Section 4(a) hereof, payment of any Annual Bonus(es), to the extent any Annual Bonus(es) become payable, will be made at the same time bonuses are paid to other similarly-situated executives of the Company generally, contingent upon the Executive's continued employment through the applicable payment date.

(iii) Benefits. During the Employment Period, the Executive (and the Executive's spouse and/or eligible dependents to the extent provided in the applicable plans and programs) shall be eligible to participate in and be covered under the health and welfare benefit plans and programs maintained by the Company for the benefit of its employees from time to time, subject to the terms of such plans and programs including any medical and dental insurance plans and programs. In addition, during the Employment Period, Executive shall be eligible to participate in any retirement, savings and other employee benefit plans and programs maintained from time to time by the Company for the benefit of its senior executive officers generally. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained in this Section 2(b)(iii) shall create or be deemed to create any obligation on the part of the Company to adopt or maintain any health, welfare, retirement or other benefit plan or program at any time or to create any limitation on the Company's ability to modify or terminate any such plan or program.

(iv) Expenses. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable business expenses incurred by the Executive in accordance with the policies, practices and procedures of the Company.

(v) Vacation. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be entitled to paid vacation in accordance with the plans, policies, programs and practices of the Company applicable to its senior executives in effect from time to time.

(vi) Equity Awards. During the Employment Period, Executive will be eligible to participate in the Company's equity incentive plan then in effect and receive equity awards thereunder, as determined by the Board or the Compensation Committee (or similar committee) of the Board in its sole discretion and subject to the terms of the Company's equity incentive plan then in effect and an applicable award agreement.

3. Termination of Employment.

(a) Death or Disability. The Executive's employment shall terminate automatically upon the Executive's death during the Employment Period. Either the Company or the Executive may terminate the Executive's employment in the event of the Executive's Disability during the Employment Period. For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" shall mean: Executive's inability to perform on a full-time basis the duties and responsibilities of Executive's employment with the Company by reason of Executive's illness or other physical or mental impairment or condition, as determined by a physician mutually acceptable to Executive and the Company, if such inability continues for an uninterrupted period of 90 days or more during any 365-day period. A period of inability shall be "uninterrupted" unless and until Executive returns to full-time work from the above-referenced leave for a continuous period of at least 180 days, excluding vacation days or sick days taken for reasons unrelated to the illness or other physical or mental impairment or condition necessitating the above-referenced leave.

(b) Termination by the Company. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment during the Employment Period for Cause or without Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" shall mean the occurrence of any one or more of the following events unless, to the extent capable of correction, the Executive fully corrects the circumstances constituting Cause within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Notice of Termination (as defined below):

(i) repeated and willful or grossly negligent failure to perform the Executive's material duties on behalf of the Company;

(ii) the Executive's willful or grossly negligent violation of any material Company rule, procedure or policy, or breach of any non-disclosure, non-competition, non-solicitation or other similar agreement between the Company (or any subsidiaries thereof) and the Executive;

(iii) the Executive's plea of nolo contendere to, or conviction of a felony, a crime of moral turpitude or a misdemeanor involving fraud or dishonesty (other than minor traffic violations or similar offenses) or that could reasonably be expected to result in material harm, whether business, financial, reputational or otherwise, to the Company or its subsidiaries;

(iv) the perpetration of any act of fraud, embezzlement or material dishonesty against or affecting the Company, any of its subsidiaries, or any customer, agent or employee thereof;

(v) material breach of fiduciary duty or material breach of this Agreement (or any other written agreement by and between the Executive and the Company) by Executive;

(vi) repeated insolent or abusive conduct in the workplace, including but not limited to, harassment of others of a racial or sexual nature; or

(vii) engaging in any act of material self-dealing without prior notice to and consent by the Board.

(c) Termination by the Executive. The Executive's employment may be terminated by the Executive for any reason, including with Good Reason or by the Executive without Good Reason. For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean the occurrence of any one or more of the following events without the Executive's prior written consent, unless the Company fully corrects the circumstances constituting Good Reason (provided such circumstances are capable of correction) as provided below:

(i) The Company has breached any material term(s) or material condition(s) of this Agreement;

(ii) A requirement imposed by the Company on the Executive that Executive's principal place of employment be anywhere other than within a 75 mile radius of the Executive's Principal Location, and the relocation results in a material change to the geographic location at which the Executive performs services;

(iii) A material reduction in the Executive's Base Salary or Target Bonus as then in effect, other than in connection with an across-the-board reduction affecting other similarly situated executives of the Company or as otherwise contemplated by Section 3(d)(i); or

(iv) The Company has assigned duties and responsibilities to Executive that are materially inconsistent with Executive's position, duties or responsibilities as set forth in this Agreement, such that there occurs a material reduction in Executive's duties, responsibilities or authority as set forth in this Agreement, other than as contemplated by Section 3(d)(i).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive will not be deemed to have resigned for Good Reason unless (1) the Executive provides the Company with written notice setting forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed by the Executive to constitute Good Reason within ninety (90) days after the date of the occurrence of any event that the Executive knows or should reasonably have known to constitute Good Reason, (2) the Company fails to cure such acts or omissions within thirty (30) days following its receipt of such notice, and (3) the effective date of the Executive's termination for Good Reason occurs no later than thirty (30) days after the expiration of the Company's cure period.

(d) Notice of Suspension or Termination.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event of the Executive's arrest or indictment for a felony, crime or misdemeanor described in Section 3(b)(iii), the Company shall have the right (but not obligation) to suspend the Executive without compensation of any kind until such time as either (A) a court of competent jurisdiction makes a final determination as to the Executive's guilt or innocence or (B) the Executive pleads nolo contendere to such alleged such felony or crime; provided that, if the court makes a final determination that the Executive should be acquitted of such felony or crime, the Company shall either (x) reinstate the Executive and pay to the Executive the amount of Base Salary that was withheld pursuant to this Section 3(d)(i) within 30 days following such reinstatement, or (y) terminate the Executive's employment pursuant to Section 3(b) and pay any severance required in accordance with Section 4. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company retains the right to terminate the Executive's employment with the Company at any time during or following such period of suspension pursuant to Section 3(b).

(ii) Any termination by the Company for Cause, or by the Executive for Good Reason, shall be communicated by a Notice of Termination to the other parties hereto given in accordance with Section 13(d) hereof. For purposes of this Agreement, a "Notice of Termination" means a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon, (ii) sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Executive's employment under the provision so indicated and (iii) if the Date of Termination (as defined below) is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the termination date (which date shall be not more than thirty (30) days after the giving of such notice). The failure by the Executive or the Company to set forth in the Notice of Termination any fact or circumstance which contributes to a showing of Good Reason or Cause shall not waive any right of the Executive or the Company, respectively, hereunder or preclude the Executive or the Company, respectively, from asserting such fact or circumstance in enforcing the Executive's or the Company's rights hereunder.

(e) Termination of Offices and Directorships; Return of Property. Upon termination of the Executive's employment for any reason, unless otherwise specified in a written agreement between the Executive and the Company, the Executive shall be deemed to have resigned from all offices, directorships, and other employment positions if any, then held with the Company, and shall take all actions reasonably requested by the Company to effectuate the foregoing. In addition, upon the termination of the Executive's employment for any reason, the Executive agrees to return to the Company all documents of the Company and its affiliates (and all copies thereof) and all other Company or Company affiliate property that the Executive has in his or her possession, custody or control. Such property includes, without limitation: (i) any materials of any kind that the Executive knows contain or embody any proprietary or confidential information of the Company or an affiliate of the Company (and all reproductions thereof), (ii) computers (including, but not limited to, laptop computers, desktop computers and similar devices) and other portable electronic devices (including, but not limited to, tablet computers), cellular phones/smartphones, credit cards, phone cards, entry cards, identification badges and keys, and (iii) any correspondence, drawings, manuals, letters, notes, notebooks, reports, programs, plans, proposals, financial documents, or any other documents concerning the customers, business plans, marketing strategies, products and/or processes of the Company or any of its affiliates and any information received from the Company or any of its affiliates regarding third parties.

4. Obligations of the Company upon Termination. Upon a termination of the Executive's employment for any reason, the Executive shall be entitled to receive, in a single lump-sum payment, (i) the aggregate amount of the Executive's earned but unpaid Base Salary, (ii) any unpaid Annual Bonus earned by Executive for the year prior to the year in which the Date of Termination occurs, (iii) reimbursement of expenses to which Executive is entitled and (iv) any other benefits to which Executive is legally entitled (collectively, the "Accrued Obligations").

(a) Without Cause, For Good Reason or Due to Company Non-Extension. If the Executive's employment with the Company is terminated (1) during the Employment Period (x) by the Company without Cause (other than by reason of the Executive's death or Disability) or due to the Company's non-extension of the Employment Period or (y) by the Executive for Good Reason or (2) at the end of the Employment Period due to the Company's non-extension of the Employment Period (in either case, a "Qualifying Termination"), then following the date of such termination of employment (such date, the "Date of Termination"), in addition to the Accrued Obligations:

(i) Target Compensation Continuation. The Company shall continue to pay to the Executive an amount equal to 50% of the sum of the Executive's (1) Base Salary and (2) Target Bonus in effect as of the Date of Termination (the amount of such sum, the "Total Target Compensation"), but not to exceed a maximum amount of two times the lesser of: (x) the Code § 401(a)(17) compensation limit for the year in which the Date of Termination occurs; or (y) the sum of Executive's annualized compensation based upon the annual rate of pay for services provided to the Company for the calendar year prior to the calendar year in which the Date of Termination occurs (adjusted for any increase during that year that was expected to continue indefinitely) (the "Target Compensation Continuation Amount"). Such Target Compensation Continuation Amount shall be paid during the period beginning on the Date of Termination and ending on the six (6) month anniversary of the Date of Termination in installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll practices as of the Date of Termination, provided that to the extent any portion of such payment is delayed pursuant to Section 4(a)(v), such portion shall be paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following the 60th day following the Date of Termination. The Company and the Executive intend the payments under this Section 4(a)(i) to constitute a "separation pay plan due to involuntary separation from service" pursuant to Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii).

(ii) Potential Make-Up Payment. In the event that the Target Compensation Continuation Amount is reduced under Section 4(a)(i) from 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Date of Termination by application of clause (x) or (y) thereof, then the Company shall make an additional lump sum payment to the Executive equal to the difference between (x) 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Date of Termination, and (y) the amount to be paid to the Executive under Section 4(a)(i) as a result of the application of clause (x) or (y) thereof. Such payment will be paid to the Executive on the Company's first regular payroll after the Executive executes and delivers to the Company the Release (as defined below) and after the expiration of an applicable revocation period, if any, but in no event later than 75 days after the Date of Termination. The Company and Executive intend the payments under this Section 4(a)(ii) to be a "short-term deferral" under Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(4).

(iii) Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation. The Company will pay to Executive an additional amount equal to 100% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Date of Termination (the "Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation Amount"). Such Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation Amount shall be paid to Executive in equal installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll schedule, commencing on the first regular payroll date of the Company that occurs following completion of all payments under Section 4(a)(i) (and in any event commencing no earlier than the first day of the seventh month after the Date of Termination) and continuing for twelve (12) months. The Company and Executive intend the payments under this Section 4(a)(iii) to be deferred compensation payable either in accordance with the "short-term deferral" exception under Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(4) or in compliance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code.

(iv) COBRA. During the period beginning on the Date of Termination and ending on the eighteen (18) month anniversary of the Date of Termination (or, if shorter, during the period commencing on the date of Executive's Qualifying Termination and ending on the date on which Executive becomes eligible for coverage under any group health plan of a subsequent employer or otherwise) (in any case, the "Benefits Continuation Period"), subject to the Executive's valid election to continue healthcare coverage under Section 4980B of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations thereunder (together, the "Code"), the Company shall continue to provide the Executive and the Executive's eligible dependents with coverage under its group health plans at the same levels and the same cost to the Executive as would have applied if the Executive's employment had not been terminated based on the Executive's elections in effect on the Date of Termination (the "COBRA Payments"), provided, however, that (A) if any plan pursuant to which such benefits are provided is not, or ceases prior to the expiration of the period of continuation coverage to be, exempt from the application of Section 409A (as defined below) under Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(a)(5), or (B) the Company is otherwise unable to continue to cover the Executive under its group health plans without incurring penalties (including without limitation, pursuant to Section 2716 of the Public Health Service Act or the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act), then, in either case, an amount equal to each remaining Company subsidy shall thereafter be paid to the Executive in substantially equal monthly installments over the Benefits Continuation Period (or the remaining portion thereof).

(v) Release. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be a condition to the Executive's right to receive the amounts provided for in Sections 4(a) hereof, as applicable, that the Executive continue to comply with Executive's obligations under Sections 7 through 9 hereof and execute and deliver to the Company an effective release of claims in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Release") within twenty-one (21) days (or, to the extent required by law, forty-five (45) days) following the Date of Termination and that the Executive not revoke such Release during any applicable revocation period.

(b) For Cause, Without Good Reason or Other Terminations. If the Company terminates the Executive's employment for Cause, the Executive terminates the Executive's employment without Good Reason, or the Executive's employment terminates for any other reason not enumerated in Sections 4(a) or 4(b) hereof, in any case, during the Employment Period, or if the Executive's employment with the Company is terminated due to the Executive's non-extension of the Employment Period, then, in any case, the Company shall pay to the Executive the Accrued Obligations in cash within thirty (30) days after the Date of Termination (or by such earlier date as may be required by applicable law), and the Executive shall have no further rights hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the Executive's termination is by reason of the Executive's death or Disability, Executive will be entitled, subject to the timely execution and non-revocation of a Release (as described above), Executive will be entitled to receive apro-rated portion (based on the number of days Executive was employed by the Company during the calendar year in which the date of Executive's termination occurs) of the Annual Bonus that Executive would have earned had Executive remained employed through the end of the calendar year in which Executive's Date of Termination occurs, as determined by the Board in good faith. If and to the extent earned, such pro-rated Annual Bonus shall be paid out at the same time annual bonuses are paid generally to other executives of the Company for the relevant year, less applicable withholdings and deductions (but in no event later than the end of the calendar year following the calendar year to which such Annual Bonus relates).

(c) Exclusive Benefits. Except as expressly provided in this Section 4 and subject to Section 5 hereof, the Executive shall not be entitled to any additional payments or benefits upon or in connection with the Executive's termination of employment.

5. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. Amounts which are vested benefits or which the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan, policy, practice or program of or any contract or agreement with the Company at or subsequent to the Date of Termination shall be payable in accordance with such plan, policy, practice or program or contract or agreement except as explicitly modified by this Agreement.

6. Excess Parachute Payments, Limitation on Payments.

(a) Best Pay Cap. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in the event that any payment or benefit received or to be received by the Executive (including any payment or benefit received in connection with a termination of the Executive's employment, whether pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement) (all such payments and benefits, including the payments and benefits under Section 4 hereof, being hereinafter referred to as the "Total Payments") constitute parachute payments within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code and would be subject (in whole or part), to the excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax"), then, after taking into account any reduction in the Total Payments provided by reason of Section 280G of the Code in such other plan, arrangement or agreement, the cash payments under this Agreement shall first be reduced, and the noncash payments hereunder shall thereafter be reduced, to the extent necessary so that no portion of the Total Payments is subject to the Excise Tax but only if (i) the net amount of such Total Payments, as so reduced (and after subtracting the net amount of federal, state and local income taxes on such reduced Total Payments and after taking into account the phase out of itemized deductions and personal exemptions attributable to such reduced Total Payments) is greater than or equal to (ii) the net amount of such Total Payments without such reduction (but after subtracting the net amount of federal, state and local income taxes on such Total Payments and the amount of Excise Tax to which the Executive would be subject in respect of such unreduced Total Payments and after taking into account the phase out of itemized deductions and personal exemptions attributable to such unreduced Total Payments).

(b) Certain Exclusions. For purposes of determining whether and the extent to which the Total Payments will be subject to the Excise Tax, (i) no portion of the Total Payments the receipt or enjoyment of which the Executive shall have waived at such time and in such manner as not to constitute a "payment" within the meaning of Section 280G(b) of the Code shall be taken into account; (ii) no portion of the Total Payments shall be taken into account which, in the written opinion of an independent, nationally recognized accounting or consulting firm (the "Independent Advisors") selected by the Company, does not constitute a "parachute payment" within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code (including by reason of Section 280G(b)(4)(A) of the Code) and, in calculating the Excise Tax, no portion of such Total Payments shall be taken into account which, in the opinion of the Independent Advisors, constitutes reasonable compensation for services actually rendered, within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(4)(B) of the Code, in excess of the "base amount" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code) allocable to such reasonable compensation; and (iii) the value of any non-cash benefit or any deferred payment or benefit included in the Total Payments shall be determined by the Independent Advisors in accordance with the principles of Sections 280G(d)(3) and (4) of the Code.

7. Restrictive Covenants and Confidentiality. The parties acknowledge and agree that (a) the provisions and covenants contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof (i) are material to this Agreement, (ii) are provided for, among other things, the protection of the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships, goodwill and reputation (which is an honest and just purpose), (iii) are reasonable in geographic and temporal scope and (iv) do not impose a greater restriction or restraint than is necessary to protect the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships and contacts, goodwill, reputation and other legitimate business interests, (b) the Executive (i) is employed by the Company, (ii) has been and/or will be provided with confidential and commercially-sensitive information regarding the Company and its business during his or her employment and/or service with the Company, and (iii) provides special, unique and extraordinary services to the Company, (c) the provisions of Sections 7 through 9 hereof do not adversely affect the Executive's ability to earn a living in any capacity, stifle the Executive's ability to use his or her inherent skills and experience, or otherwise impose undue hardship or oppression on the Executive, and (d) the Executive's continuation of employment under this Agreement, and the compensation and benefits described in this Agreement, constitute sufficient consideration for all of the Executive's covenants contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof.

(a) Except as permitted by the Board, during the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and at all times thereafter, the Executive shall not divulge, furnish or make accessible to anyone or use in any way other than in the ordinary course of the business of the Company, any confidential, proprietary or secret knowledge or information of the Company or any of its affiliates, whether developed by the Executive or others, including but not limited to (i) trade secrets, (ii) confidential and proprietary plans, developments, research, processes, designs, methods or material (whether or not patented or patentable), (iii) customer and supplier lists, (iv) strategic or other business, marketing or sales plans, (v) financial data and plans and (vi) Proprietary Information. "Proprietary Information" is defined as (i) the name, address and/or contact information of any customer, supplier or affiliate of the Company or any information concerning the transactions or relations of any customer, supplier or affiliate of the Company or any of its shareholders; (ii) any information concerning any product, service, technology or procedure offered or used by the Company or any of its affiliates, or under development by or being considered for use by the Company or any of its affiliates; (iii) any information relating to marketing or pricing plans or methods, capital structure, or any business or strategic plans of the Company or any of its affiliates; (iv) any inventions, innovations, trade secrets or other items covered by Section 8 below; and (v) any other information which the Company or any of its affiliates has determined and communicated to the Executive in writing to be proprietary information for purposes hereof; provided, however, that "Proprietary Information" shall not include any information that is or becomes generally known to the public other than through actions of the Executive in violation of the restrictive covenants set forth in Sections 7 through 9 hereof. The Executive acknowledges that the above-described knowledge and information constitute unique and valuable assets of the Company and represent a substantial investment of time and expense by the Company, and that any disclosure or other use of such knowledge or information other than for the sole benefit of the Company would be wrongful and would cause irreparable harm to the Company. During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company, the Executive shall refrain from any acts or omissions that would reduce the value of such knowledge or information to the Company. The foregoing obligations of confidentiality shall not apply to any knowledge or information that (x) is now or subsequently becomes generally publicly known for reasons other than the Executive's violation of this Agreement, (y) is independently made available to the Executive in good faith by a third party who has not violated a confidential relationship with the Company, or (z) is required to be disclosed by legal process, other than as a direct or indirect result of the breach of this Agreement by the Executive.

(b) If, during the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company, the Executive is engaged in or associated with the planning or implementing of any project, program or venture involving the Company, all rights in such project, program or venture shall belong to the Company, as applicable. Except as approved in writing by the Board, the Executive shall not be entitled to any interest in any such project, program or venture or to any commission, finder's fee or other compensation in connection therewith. The Executive shall have no interest, direct or indirect, in any customer or supplier that conducts business with the Company, provided that a passive investment of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any customer or supplier listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this sentence.

8. Inventions and Proprietary Rights.

(a) All right, title and interest in all discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that the Executive shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others during the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company (i) that are directly related to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or that results from any work performed by the Executive for the Company, (ii) for which any equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and/or (iii) which was not developed entirely on the Executive's own time, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark ("Protectable Material"), shall be the property of the Company and are hereby assigned by the Executive to the Company (and the Executive agrees to assign all Protectable Material to the Company in the future), along with ownership of any and all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights in the Protectable Material. Upon request and without further compensation therefor, but at no expense to the Executive, the Executive shall execute any and all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the Company to obtain and register patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights on the Protectable Materials in any and all countries. Where applicable, works of authorship created by the Executive for the Company in performing the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be considered "works made for hire," as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act.

(b) All trade secret information conceived or originated by the Executive that arises during the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and out of the performance of the Executive's duties and responsibilities to the Company or any related material or information shall be the property of the Company, and all rights therein are hereby assigned by the Executive to the Company.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive understands that this Agreement does not require assignment of any invention to the extent such invention qualifies for protection under Section 181.78 of the 2015 Minnesota Statutes, as may be amended from time to time, and the current text of which is attached hereto as Annex 1 to Exhibit B. The Executive hereby acknowledges that the Company has provided him or her with the notification set forth on Exhibit B (and the annex attached thereto) on the date hereof and the Executive shall sign such notification as soon as reasonably practicable after the date hereof.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive understands that pursuant to the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, the Executive shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (A) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

9. Non-Compete; Non-Solicitation; Non-Disparagement.

(a) During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and during the24-month period following the date of termination thereof (the "Restricted Period"), regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise) in any Company Business (as defined below) in the Territory (as defined below). For purposes of Sections 7 through 9 hereof, (i) "Company" means Life Time Group Holdings, Inc. and any parent, affiliated, related and/or direct or indirect subsidiary entity thereof, (ii) "Company Business" means (1) the design, development, operation, management, advertisement, promotion, solicitation, marketing or sale of health and fitness clubs or health and fitness club memberships, (2) any services, products or programs offered by health and fitness clubs, including but not limited to personal training, nutritional supplements; health testing or health assessments; wellness services or programs (whether direct to consumer or business to business); weight loss services or programs; kids activities; salons, spas, and medical spas; restaurants or cafes; athletic events and related services (including race timing and registration), and (3) any other product or service that grows into a material business for the Company (or is under development and is projected to grow into a material business for the Company) as of the Executive's Date of Termination, and (iii) "Territory" means the United States, Canada and any other country in which the Company is then doing Company Business as of the Executive's Date of Termination. Ownership by the Executive, as a passive investment, of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any corporation listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this Section 9(a).

(b) During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, the Executive shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, hire, engage or solicit for the purpose of employing or otherwise engaging any person who is then an employee of the Company or who was an employee of the Company as of the Executive's date of termination or at any time in the six-month period prior to such hiring, engagement or solicitation.

(c) During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, the Executive shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, solicit, request, advise or induce any current or potential customer, member, supplier or other business contact of the Company to cancel, curtail or otherwise change its relationship with the Company.

(d) The Executive will not malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of the Company or any of its affiliates, or the reputation or character of the Company's or any of its affiliates' directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents, provided that nothing in this Section 9(d) shall be construed to limit or restrict Executive from taking any action that Executive in good faith reasonably believes is necessary to fulfill Executive's fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter. The Company shall instruct its then-current executive officers and directors as of the Executive's date of termination not to malign, defame or disparage the reputation or image of Executive, provided that nothing in this Section 9(d) shall be construed to limit or restrict such officers and directors from taking any action that they in good faith reasonably believes is necessary to fulfill their fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter.

(e) The Executive shall inform any prospective or future employer of any and all restrictions contained in this Agreement and provide such employer with a copy of such restrictions (but no other terms of this Agreement) prior to the commencement of that employment.

10. Enforcement. If the duration of, the scope of or any business activity covered by any provision of Sections 7 through 9 hereof is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be in excess of what is valid and enforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be construed to cover only that duration, scope or activity that is valid and enforceable, and all other provisions of Sections 7 through 9 shall remain in full force and effect. The Executive hereby acknowledges that Sections 7 through 9 hereof shall be given the construction that renders the provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent, not exceeding their express terms, possible under applicable law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the foregoing sentences of this Section 10 shall in no event apply to the extent their application would render Sections 7 through 9 hereof (or any portion thereof) unenforceable under applicable law. The Executive acknowledges that the provisions of Sections 7 through 9 hereof are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, and that any violation of those provisions by the Executive would cause real, immediate, substantial and irreparable harm to the Company to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefor. Therefore, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of Sections 7 through 9 hereof, the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies it may have, be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief to enforce such provisions and to restrain the Executive from violating or continuing to violate such provisions, and such relief may be granted without the necessity of proving actual monetary damages or posting bond. The Executive agrees that the Restricted Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which he or she is in violation of the terms of Section 9(a), 9(b) or 9(c), in order that the Company and its affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. No breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company, or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of the Executive's employment and/or service relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish the Executive's obligation to comply with Sections 7 through 9 hereof. The Company (including, without limitation, its affiliates) are third party beneficiaries under this Agreement and shall have the right to enforce all of the Executive's obligations to the Company under this Agreement, including without limitation pursuant to Sections 7 through 9 hereof, and the Company shall be entitled to assign its rights under Sections 7 through 9 hereof without the Executive's consent and any such assignees shall have the right to enforce all of the Executive's obligations to comply with Sections 7 through 9 hereof. The Executive covenants and agrees that he or she has received adequate consideration for his or her obligations contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof, and will not take the position that the covenants contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof are void for lack of consideration. The Executive will be responsible for any and all attorneys' fees and costs the Company incurs in enforcing the Executive's obligations contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof.

11. Representations. The Executive hereby represents and warrants to the Company that (a) the Executive is entering into this Agreement voluntarily and that the performance of the Executive's obligations hereunder will not violate any agreement between the Executive and any other person, firm, organization or other entity, and (b) the Executive is not bound by the terms of any agreement with any previous employer or other party to refrain from competing, directly or indirectly, with the business of such previous employer or other party that would be violated by the Executive's entering into this Agreement and/or providing services to the Company pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

12. Successors. This Agreement is personal to the Executive and, without the prior written consent of the Company, shall not be assignable by the Executive otherwise than by will or the laws of descent and distribution. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Executive's legal representatives. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and its successors and assigns.

13. Miscellaneous.

(a) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Minnesota, without reference to principles of conflict of laws. The captions of this Agreement are not part of the provisions hereof and shall have no force or effect.

(b) Compensation Recovery Policy. Executive acknowledges and agrees that, to the extent the Company adopts any claw-back or similar policy pursuant to the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act or otherwise, and any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, he or she shall take all action necessary or appropriate to comply with such policy (including, without limitation, entering into any further agreements, amendments or policies necessary or appropriate to implement and/or enforce such policy with respect to past, present and future compensation, as appropriate).

(c) Whistleblower Protections and Trade Secrets. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, nothing in this Agreement prohibits Executive from reporting possible violations of federal law or regulation to any United States governmental agency or entity in accordance with the provisions of and rules promulgated under Section 21F of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 806 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, or any other whistleblower protection provisions of state or federal law or regulation (including the right to receive an award for information provided to any such government agencies). Furthermore, in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 1833, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement: (i) Executive shall not be in breach of this Agreement, and shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law (A) for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official or to an attorney solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law, or (B) for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal; and (ii) if Executive files a lawsuit for retaliation by the Company for reporting a suspected violation of law, Executive may disclose the trade secret to Executive's attorney, and may use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if Executive files any document containing the trade secret under seal, and does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

(d) Notices. All notices and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given by hand delivery to the other party or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

If to the Executive: at the Executive's most recent address on the records of the Company.

If to the Company:

(e) Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if the Company determines, in its good faith judgment, that any transfer or deemed transfer of funds hereunder is likely to be construed as a personal loan prohibited by Section 13(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Exchange Act"), then such transfer or deemed transfer shall not be made to the extent necessary or appropriate so as not to violate the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(f) Section 409A of the Code.

(i) To the extent applicable, this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with Section 409A of the Code and Department of Treasury regulations and other interpretive guidance issued thereunder (together, "Section 409A"). Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Company determines that any compensation or benefits payable under this Agreement may be subject to Section 409A, the Company shall work in good faith with the Executive to adopt such amendments to this Agreement or adopt other policies and procedures (including amendments, policies and procedures with retroactive effect), or take any other actions, that the Company determines are necessary or appropriate to avoid the imposition of taxes under Section 409A, including without limitation, actions intended to (i) exempt the compensation and benefits payable under this Agreement from Section 409A, and/or (ii) comply with the requirements of Section 409A; provided, however, that this Section 13(f) shall not create an obligation on the part of the Company to adopt any such amendment, policy or procedure or take any such other action, nor shall the Company have any liability for failing to do so.

(ii) Any right to a series of installment payments pursuant to this Agreement is to be treated as a right to a series of separate payments. To the extent permitted under Section 409A, any separate payment or benefit under this Agreement or otherwise shall not be deemed "nonqualified deferred compensation" subject to Section 409A to the extent provided in the exceptions in Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(4), Section 1.409A-1(b)(9) or any other applicable exception or provision of Section 409A. Any payments subject to Section 409A that are subject to execution of a waiver and release which may be executed and/or revoked in a calendar year following the calendar year in which the payment event (such as termination of employment) occurs shall commence payment only in the calendar year in which the consideration period or, if applicable, release revocation period ends, as necessary to comply with Section 409A. All payments of nonqualified deferred compensation subject to Section 409A to be made upon a termination of employment under this Agreement may only be made upon Employee's Separation from Service (as defined below) from the Company.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no compensation or benefits, including without limitation any severance payments or benefits payable under Section 4 hereof, shall be paid to the Executive during the six (6)-month period following the Executive's "separation from service" from the Company (within the meaning of Section 409A, a "Separation from Service") if the Company determines that at the time of Executive's Separation from Service that Executive is a "specified employee" for purposes of Section 409A and paying such amounts at the time or times indicated in this Agreement would be a prohibited distribution under Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code. If the payment of any such amounts is delayed as a result of the previous sentence, then on the first day of the seventh month following the date of Separation from Service (or such earlier date upon which such amount can be paid under Section 409A without resulting in a prohibited distribution, including as a result of the Executive's death), the Company shall pay the Executive a lump-sum amount equal to the cumulative amount that would have otherwise been payable to the Executive during such period.

(iv) To the extent that any payments or reimbursements provided to the Executive under this Agreement are deemed to constitute compensation to the Executive to which Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-3(i)(1)(iv) would apply, such amounts shall be paid or reimbursed reasonably promptly, but not later than December 31 of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred. The amount of any such payments eligible for reimbursement in one year shall not affect the payments or expenses that are eligible for payment or reimbursement in any other taxable year, and the Executive's right to such payments or reimbursement of any such expenses shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for any other benefit.

(g) Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

(h) Withholding. The Company may withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement such federal, state, local or foreign taxes as shall be required to be withheld pursuant to any applicable law or regulation.

(i) No Waiver. The Executive's or the Company's failure to insist upon strict compliance with any provision of this Agreement or the failure to assert any right the Executive or the Company may have hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such provision or right or any other provision or right of this Agreement.

(j) Entire Agreement. As of the Effective Date, this Agreement constitutes the final, complete and exclusive agreement between the Executive and the Company with respect to the subject matter hereof and replaces and supersedes any and all other agreements, offers or promises, whether oral or written, by any member of the Company and its subsidiaries or affiliates, or representative thereof, including without limitation the Prior Agreement; provided that nothing herein replaces or supersedes any non -disclosure,non-competition, non-solicitation or other similar agreement between the Company (or any subsidiaries thereof) and the Executive in effect on the Effective Date, each of which shall remain in full force and effect.

(k) Amendment. No amendment or other modification of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

(l) Counterparts. This Agreement and any agreement referenced herein may be executed simultaneously in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. A facsimile, PDF (or any electronic signature complying with the U.S. federal ESIGN Act of 2000, e.g. www.docusign.com) or any other type of copy of an executed version of this Agreement signed by a party is binding upon the signing party to the same extent as the original of the signed agreement.

THIS EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), entered into as of September 13, is made by and between Life Time Group Holdings, Inc. ("Life Time", and together with any of its subsidiaries and affiliates as may employ Executive from time to time, and any successor(s) thereto, the "Company" (except as set forth in Section 9(a)) and Ritadhwaja Jebens (RJ) Singh (the "Executive") (collectively referred to herein as the "Parties"). This Agreement shall be effective as of the date of closing of the initial public offering of the Company (or such other date mutually agreed in writing between the parties) (such date, the "Effective Date"). If the initial public offering of the Company does not occur on or prior to January 1, 2022, this Agreement will be void ab initio.

WHEREAS, the Executive is currently employed by the Company as its Executive Vice President & Chief Digital Officer;

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the Company to continue to assure itself of the services of Executive following the Effective Date upon the terms and conditions of this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Executive desires to provide services to the Company on the terms herein provided.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and the mutual agreements and covenants contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged by the Company and Executive, the parties agree as follows:

1. Employment Period. Subject to the provisions for earlier termination hereinafter provided, the initial term of the Executive's employment hereunder shall be for a term (the "Initial Employment Period") commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the third anniversary of the Effective Date. The Initial Employment Period shall automatically be extended for successive one-year periods (each, an "Extension Employment Period" and, together with the Initial Employment Period, the "Employment Period"), unless either Party gives written notice ofnon-extension to the other no later than ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the then-applicable Employment Period, in which case Executive's employment will terminate at the end of the then-applicable Employment Period, subject to earlier termination as provided in Section 3 below.

2. Terms of Employment.

(a) Position and Duties.

(i) Role and Responsibilities. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall serve as Executive Vice President & Chief Digital Officer of Life Time, and shall perform such employment duties as are usual and customary for such positions (subject to Section 3(d)(i)). The Executive shall report directly to the Chief Executive Officer of Life Time (or his or her designee). Executive will use Executive's best efforts to promote the interests, prospects and condition (financial and otherwise) and welfare of the Company and shall perform Executive's fiduciary duties and responsibilities to the Company to the best of Executive's ability in a diligent, trustworthy, businesslike and efficient manner. Executive agrees that Executive will observe and comply with the Company's rules and policies as adopted by the Company and in effect from time to time. At the Company's request, the Executive shall serve the Company and/or its subsidiaries and affiliates in other capacities in addition to the foregoing, consistent with the Executive's position as Executive Vice President & Chief Digital Officer of Life Time. In the event that the Executive, during the Employment Period, serves in any one or more of such additional capacities, the Executive's compensation shall not be increased beyond that specified in Section 2(b) hereof. In addition, in the event the Executive's service in one or more of such additional capacities is terminated, the Executive's compensation, as specified in Section 2(b) hereof, shall not be diminished or reduced in any manner as a result of such termination provided that the Executive otherwise remains employed under the terms of this Agreement.

(ii) Exclusivity. During the Employment Period, and excluding any periods of vacation and sick leave to which the Executive may be entitled, the Executive agrees to devote his or her full business time and attention to the business and affairs of the Company. Executive shall not engage in outside business activities (including serving on outside boards or committees) without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors of Life Time (the "Board") (which shall not be unreasonably withheld);provided that Executive shall be permitted to (i) manage Executive's personal, financial and legal affairs, (ii) participate in trade associations and charitable and community affairs and (iii) serve on one outside board of directors or advisory board, subject to the prior written consent of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, in each case, to the extent such actions do not result in any violation of Sections 7 through 9.

(iii) Principal Location. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall perform the services required by this Agreement at the Company's principal offices located in Chanhassen, Minnesota or such other location mutually agreed upon by the Company and the Executive (the "Principal Location"), except for travel to other locations as may be necessary or appropriate to fulfill the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder.

(b) Compensation, Benefits, Etc. Subject to Section 3(d)(i):

(i) Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall receive a base salary (the "Base Salary") of $600,000 per annum. The Base Salary shall be subject to review from time to time by the Board or its delegate in its discretion. The Base Salary shall be paid in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices.

(ii) Annual Cash Bonus. In addition to the Base Salary, the Executive shall be eligible to earn, for each fiscal year of the Company ending during the Employment Period commencing in fiscal year 2022, a discretionary cash performance bonus (an "Annual Bonus") under the Company's bonus plan or program applicable to senior executives. The Executive's target Annual Bonus shall be set at 67% of the Base Salary actually paid for such year (the "Target Bonus"). The actual amount of any Annual Bonus shall be determined by reference to the attainment of Company performance metrics and/or individual performance objectives, in each case, as determined by the Board or the Compensation Committee or similar committee in its discretion, and may be greater or less than the Target Bonus. Subject to Section 4(a) hereof, payment of any Annual Bonus(es), to the extent any Annual Bonus(es) become payable, will be made at the same time bonuses are paid to other similarly-situated executives of the Company generally, contingent upon the Executive's continued employment through the applicable payment date.

(iii) Benefits. During the Employment Period, the Executive (and the Executive's spouse and/or eligible dependents to the extent provided in the applicable plans and programs) shall be eligible to participate in and be covered under the health and welfare benefit plans and programs maintained by the Company for the benefit of its employees from time to time, subject to the terms of such plans and programs including any medical and dental insurance plans and programs. In addition, during the Employment Period, Executive shall be eligible to participate in any retirement, savings and other employee benefit plans and programs maintained from time to time by the Company for the benefit of its senior executive officers generally. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained in this Section 2(b)(iii) shall create or be deemed to create any obligation on the part of the Company to adopt or maintain any health, welfare, retirement or other benefit plan or program at any time or to create any limitation on the Company's ability to modify or terminate any such plan or program.

(iv) Expenses. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for all reasonable business expenses incurred by the Executive in accordance with the policies, practices and procedures of the Company.

(v) Vacation. During the Employment Period, the Executive shall be entitled to paid vacation in accordance with the plans, policies, programs and practices of the Company applicable to its senior executives in effect from time to time.

(vi) Equity Awards. During the Employment Period, Executive will be eligible to participate in the Company's equity incentive plan then in effect and receive equity awards thereunder, as determined by the Board or the Compensation Committee (or similar committee) of the Board in its sole discretion and subject to the terms of the Company's equity incentive plan then in effect and an applicable award agreement.

3. Termination of Employment.

(a) Death or Disability. The Executive's employment shall terminate automatically upon the Executive's death during the Employment Period. Either the Company or the Executive may terminate the Executive's employment in the event of the Executive's Disability during the Employment Period. For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" shall mean: Executive's inability to perform on a full-time basis the duties and responsibilities of Executive's employment with the Company by reason of Executive's illness or other physical or mental impairment or condition, as determined by a physician mutually acceptable to Executive and the Company, if such inability continues for an uninterrupted period of 90 days or more during any 365-day period. A period of inability shall be "uninterrupted" unless and until Executive returns to full-time work from the above-referenced leave for a continuous period of at least 180 days, excluding vacation days or sick days taken for reasons unrelated to the illness or other physical or mental impairment or condition necessitating the above-referenced leave.

(b) Termination by the Company. The Company may terminate the Executive's employment during the Employment Period for Cause or without Cause. For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" shall mean the occurrence of any one or more of the following events unless, to the extent capable of correction, the Executive fully corrects the circumstances constituting Cause within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Notice of Termination (as defined below):

(i) repeated and willful or grossly negligent failure to perform the Executive's material duties on behalf of the Company;

(ii) the Executive's willful or grossly negligent violation of any material Company rule, procedure or policy, or breach of any non-disclosure, non-competition, non-solicitation or other similar agreement between the Company (or any subsidiaries thereof) and the Executive;

(iii) the Executive's plea of nolo contendere to, or conviction of a felony, a crime of moral turpitude or a misdemeanor involving fraud or dishonesty (other than minor traffic violations or similar offenses) or that could reasonably be expected to result in material harm, whether business, financial, reputational or otherwise, to the Company or its subsidiaries;

(iv) the perpetration of any act of fraud, embezzlement or material dishonesty against or affecting the Company, any of its subsidiaries, or any customer, agent or employee thereof;

(v) material breach of fiduciary duty or material breach of this Agreement (or any other written agreement by and between the Executive and the Company) by Executive;

(vi) repeated insolent or abusive conduct in the workplace, including but not limited to, harassment of others of a racial or sexual nature; or

(vii) engaging in any act of material self-dealing without prior notice to and consent by the Board.

(c) Termination by the Executive. The Executive's employment may be terminated by the Executive for any reason, including with Good Reason or by the Executive without Good Reason. For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean the occurrence of any one or more of the following events without the Executive's prior written consent, unless the Company fully corrects the circumstances constituting Good Reason (provided such circumstances are capable of correction) as provided below:

(i) The Company has breached any material term(s) or material condition(s) of this Agreement;

(ii) A requirement imposed by the Company on the Executive that Executive's principal place of employment be anywhere other than within a 75 mile radius of the Executive's Principal Location, and the relocation results in a material change to the geographic location at which the Executive performs services;

(iii) A material reduction in the Executive's Base Salary or Target Bonus as then in effect, other than in connection with an across-the-board reduction affecting other similarly situated executives of the Company or as otherwise contemplated by Section 3(d)(i); or

(iv) The Company has assigned duties and responsibilities to Executive that are materially inconsistent with Executive's position, duties or responsibilities as set forth in this Agreement, such that there occurs a material reduction in Executive's duties, responsibilities or authority as set forth in this Agreement, other than as contemplated by Section 3(d)(i).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive will not be deemed to have resigned for Good Reason unless (1) the Executive provides the Company with written notice setting forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed by the Executive to constitute Good Reason within ninety (90) days after the date of the occurrence of any event that the Executive knows or should reasonably have known to constitute Good Reason, (2) the Company fails to cure such acts or omissions within thirty (30) days following its receipt of such notice, and (3) the effective date of the Executive's termination for Good Reason occurs no later than thirty (30) days after the expiration of the Company's cure period.

(d) Notice of Suspension or Termination.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event of the Executive's arrest or indictment for a felony, crime or misdemeanor described in Section 3(b)(iii), the Company shall have the right (but not obligation) to suspend the Executive without compensation of any kind until such time as either (A) a court of competent jurisdiction makes a final determination as to the Executive's guilt or innocence or (B) the Executive pleads nolo contendere to such alleged such felony or crime; provided that, if the court makes a final determination that the Executive should be acquitted of such felony or crime, the Company shall either (x) reinstate the Executive and pay to the Executive the amount of Base Salary that was withheld pursuant to this Section 3(d)(i) within 30 days following such reinstatement, or (y) terminate the Executive's employment pursuant to Section 3(b) and pay any severance required in accordance with Section 4. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company retains the right to terminate the Executive's employment with the Company at any time during or following such period of suspension pursuant to Section 3(b).

(ii) Any termination by the Company for Cause, or by the Executive for Good Reason, shall be communicated by a Notice of Termination to the other parties hereto given in accordance with Section 13(d) hereof. For purposes of this Agreement, a "Notice of Termination" means a written notice which (i) indicates the specific termination provision in this Agreement relied upon, (ii) sets forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for termination of the Executive's employment under the provision so indicated and (iii) if the Date of Termination (as defined below) is other than the date of receipt of such notice, specifies the termination date (which date shall be not more than thirty (30) days after the giving of such notice). The failure by the Executive or the Company to set forth in the Notice of Termination any fact or circumstance which contributes to a showing of Good Reason or Cause shall not waive any right of the Executive or the Company, respectively, hereunder or preclude the Executive or the Company, respectively, from asserting such fact or circumstance in enforcing the Executive's or the Company's rights hereunder.

(e) Termination of Offices and Directorships; Return of Property. Upon termination of the Executive's employment for any reason, unless otherwise specified in a written agreement between the Executive and the Company, the Executive shall be deemed to have resigned from all offices, directorships, and other employment positions if any, then held with the Company, and shall take all actions reasonably requested by the Company to effectuate the foregoing. In addition, upon the termination of the Executive's employment for any reason, the Executive agrees to return to the Company all documents of the Company and its affiliates (and all copies thereof) and all other Company or Company affiliate property that the Executive has in his or her possession, custody or control. Such property includes, without limitation: (i) any materials of any kind that the Executive knows contain or embody any proprietary or confidential information of the Company or an affiliate of the Company (and all reproductions thereof), (ii) computers (including, but not limited to, laptop computers, desktop computers and similar devices) and other portable electronic devices (including, but not limited to, tablet computers), cellular phones/smartphones, credit cards, phone cards, entry cards, identification badges and keys, and (iii) any correspondence, drawings, manuals, letters, notes, notebooks, reports, programs, plans, proposals, financial documents, or any other documents concerning the customers, business plans, marketing strategies, products and/or processes of the Company or any of its affiliates and any information received from the Company or any of its affiliates regarding third parties.

4. Obligations of the Company upon Termination. Upon a termination of the Executive's employment for any reason, the Executive shall be entitled to receive, in a single lump-sum payment, (i) the aggregate amount of the Executive's earned but unpaid Base Salary, (ii) any unpaid Annual Bonus earned by Executive for the year prior to the year in which the Date of Termination occurs, (iii) reimbursement of expenses to which Executive is entitled and (iv) any other benefits to which Executive is legally entitled (collectively, the "Accrued Obligations").

(a) Without Cause, For Good Reason or Due to Company Non-Extension. If the Executive's employment with the Company is terminated (1) during the Employment Period (x) by the Company without Cause (other than by reason of the Executive's death or Disability) or due to the Company's non-extension of the Employment Period or (y) by the Executive for Good Reason or (2) at the end of the Employment Period due to the Company's non-extension of the Employment Period (in either case, a "Qualifying Termination"), then following the date of such termination of employment (such date, the "Date of Termination"), in addition to the Accrued Obligations:

(i) Target Compensation Continuation. The Company shall continue to pay to the Executive an amount equal to 50% of the sum of the Executive's (1) Base Salary and (2) Target Bonus in effect as of the Date of Termination (the amount of such sum, the "Total Target Compensation"), but not to exceed a maximum amount of two times the lesser of: (x) the Code § 401(a)(17) compensation limit for the year in which the Date of Termination occurs; or (y) the sum of Executive's annualized compensation based upon the annual rate of pay for services provided to the Company for the calendar year prior to the calendar year in which the Date of Termination occurs (adjusted for any increase during that year that was expected to continue indefinitely) (the "Target Compensation Continuation Amount"). Such Target Compensation Continuation Amount shall be paid during the period beginning on the Date of Termination and ending on the six (6) month anniversary of the Date of Termination in installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll practices as of the Date of Termination, provided that to the extent any portion of such payment is delayed pursuant to Section 4(a)(v), such portion shall be paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following the 60th day following the Date of Termination. The Company and the Executive intend the payments under this Section 4(a)(i) to constitute a "separation pay plan due to involuntary separation from service" pursuant to Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii).

(ii) Potential Make-Up Payment. In the event that the Target Compensation Continuation Amount is reduced under Section 4(a)(i) from 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Date of Termination by application of clause (x) or (y) thereof, then the Company shall make an additional lump sum payment to the Executive equal to the difference between (x) 50% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Date of Termination, and (y) the amount to be paid to the Executive under Section 4(a)(i) as a result of the application of clause (x) or (y) thereof. Such payment will be paid to the Executive on the Company's first regular payroll after the Executive executes and delivers to the Company the Release (as defined below) and after the expiration of an applicable revocation period, if any, but in no event later than 75 days after the Date of Termination. The Company and Executive intend the payments under this Section 4(a)(ii) to be a "short-term deferral" under Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(4).

(iii) Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation. The Company will pay to Executive an additional amount equal to 100% of Executive's Total Target Compensation as of the Date of Termination (the "Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation Amount"). Such Supplemental Target Compensation Continuation Amount shall be paid to Executive in equal installments in accordance with the Company's regular payroll schedule, commencing on the first regular payroll date of the Company that occurs following completion of all payments under Section 4(a)(i) (and in any event commencing no earlier than the first day of the seventh month after the Date of Termination) and continuing for twelve (12) months. The Company and Executive intend the payments under this Section 4(a)(iii) to be deferred compensation payable either in accordance with the "short-term deferral" exception under Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-1(b)(4) or in compliance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code.

(iv) COBRA. During the period beginning on the Date of Termination and ending on the eighteen (18) month anniversary of the Date of Termination (or, if shorter, during the period commencing on the date of Executive's Qualifying Termination and ending on the date on which Executive becomes eligible for coverage under any group health plan of a subsequent employer or otherwise) (in any case, the "Benefits Continuation Period"), subject to the Executive's valid election to continue healthcare coverage under Section 4980B of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations thereunder (together, the "Code"), the Company shall continue to provide the Executive and the Executive's eligible dependents with coverage under its group health plans at the same levels and the same cost to the Executive as would have applied if the Executive's employment had not been terminated based on the Executive's elections in effect on the Date of Termination (the "COBRA Payments"), provided, however, that (A) if any plan pursuant to which such benefits are provided is not, or ceases prior to the expiration of the period of continuation coverage to be, exempt from the application of Section 409A (as defined below) under Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(a)(5), or (B) the Company is otherwise unable to continue to cover the Executive under its group health plans without incurring penalties (including without limitation, pursuant to Section 2716 of the Public Health Service Act or the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act), then, in either case, an amount equal to each remaining Company subsidy shall thereafter be paid to the Executive in substantially equal monthly installments over the Benefits Continuation Period (or the remaining portion thereof).

(v) Release. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be a condition to the Executive's right to receive the amounts provided for in Sections 4(a) hereof, as applicable, that the Executive continue to comply with Executive's obligations under Sections 7 through 9 hereof and execute and deliver to the Company an effective release of claims in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Release") within twenty-one (21) days (or, to the extent required by law, forty-five (45) days) following the Date of Termination and that the Executive not revoke such Release during any applicable revocation period.

(b) For Cause, Without Good Reason or Other Terminations. If the Company terminates the Executive's employment for Cause, the Executive terminates the Executive's employment without Good Reason, or the Executive's employment terminates for any other reason not enumerated in Sections 4(a) or 4(b) hereof, in any case, during the Employment Period, or if the Executive's employment with the Company is terminated due to the Executive's non-extension of the Employment Period, then, in any case, the Company shall pay to the Executive the Accrued Obligations in cash within thirty (30) days after the Date of Termination (or by such earlier date as may be required by applicable law), and the Executive shall have no further rights hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the Executive's termination is by reason of the Executive's death or Disability, Executive will be entitled, subject to the timely execution and non-revocation of a Release (as described above), Executive will be entitled to receive apro-rated portion (based on the number of days Executive was employed by the Company during the calendar year in which the date of Executive's termination occurs) of the Annual Bonus that Executive would have earned had Executive remained employed through the end of the calendar year in which Executive's Date of Termination occurs, as determined by the Board in good faith. If and to the extent earned, such pro-rated Annual Bonus shall be paid out at the same time annual bonuses are paid generally to other executives of the Company for the relevant year, less applicable withholdings and deductions (but in no event later than the end of the calendar year following the calendar year to which such Annual Bonus relates).

(c) Exclusive Benefits. Except as expressly provided in this Section 4 and subject to Section 5 hereof, the Executive shall not be entitled to any additional payments or benefits upon or in connection with the Executive's termination of employment.

5. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. Amounts which are vested benefits or which the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan, policy, practice or program of or any contract or agreement with the Company at or subsequent to the Date of Termination shall be payable in accordance with such plan, policy, practice or program or contract or agreement except as explicitly modified by this Agreement.

6. Excess Parachute Payments, Limitation on Payments.

(a) Best Pay Cap. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in the event that any payment or benefit received or to be received by the Executive (including any payment or benefit received in connection with a termination of the Executive's employment, whether pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement) (all such payments and benefits, including the payments and benefits under Section 4 hereof, being hereinafter referred to as the "Total Payments") constitute parachute payments within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code and would be subject (in whole or part), to the excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax"), then, after taking into account any reduction in the Total Payments provided by reason of Section 280G of the Code in such other plan, arrangement or agreement, the cash payments under this Agreement shall first be reduced, and the noncash payments hereunder shall thereafter be reduced, to the extent necessary so that no portion of the Total Payments is subject to the Excise Tax but only if (i) the net amount of such Total Payments, as so reduced (and after subtracting the net amount of federal, state and local income taxes on such reduced Total Payments and after taking into account the phase out of itemized deductions and personal exemptions attributable to such reduced Total Payments) is greater than or equal to (ii) the net amount of such Total Payments without such reduction (but after subtracting the net amount of federal, state and local income taxes on such Total Payments and the amount of Excise Tax to which the Executive would be subject in respect of such unreduced Total Payments and after taking into account the phase out of itemized deductions and personal exemptions attributable to such unreduced Total Payments).

(b) Certain Exclusions. For purposes of determining whether and the extent to which the Total Payments will be subject to the Excise Tax, (i) no portion of the Total Payments the receipt or enjoyment of which the Executive shall have waived at such time and in such manner as not to constitute a "payment" within the meaning of Section 280G(b) of the Code shall be taken into account; (ii) no portion of the Total Payments shall be taken into account which, in the written opinion of an independent, nationally recognized accounting or consulting firm (the "Independent Advisors") selected by the Company, does not constitute a "parachute payment" within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code (including by reason of Section 280G(b)(4)(A) of the Code) and, in calculating the Excise Tax, no portion of such Total Payments shall be taken into account which, in the opinion of the Independent Advisors, constitutes reasonable compensation for services actually rendered, within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(4)(B) of the Code, in excess of the "base amount" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code) allocable to such reasonable compensation; and (iii) the value of any non-cash benefit or any deferred payment or benefit included in the Total Payments shall be determined by the Independent Advisors in accordance with the principles of Sections 280G(d)(3) and (4) of the Code.

7. Restrictive Covenants and Confidentiality. The parties acknowledge and agree that (a) the provisions and covenants contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof (i) are material to this Agreement, (ii) are provided for, among other things, the protection of the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships, goodwill and reputation (which is an honest and just purpose), (iii) are reasonable in geographic and temporal scope and (iv) do not impose a greater restriction or restraint than is necessary to protect the Company's trade secrets, confidential and commercially-sensitive information, client and customer relationships and contacts, goodwill, reputation and other legitimate business interests, (b) the Executive (i) is employed by the Company, (ii) has been and/or will be provided with confidential and commercially-sensitive information regarding the Company and its business during his or her employment and/or service with the Company, and (iii) provides special, unique and extraordinary services to the Company, (c) the provisions of Sections 7 through 9 hereof do not adversely affect the Executive's ability to earn a living in any capacity, stifle the Executive's ability to use his or her inherent skills and experience, or otherwise impose undue hardship or oppression on the Executive, and (d) the Executive's continuation of employment under this Agreement, and the compensation and benefits described in this Agreement, constitute sufficient consideration for all of the Executive's covenants contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof.

(a) Except as permitted by the Board, during the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and at all times thereafter, the Executive shall not divulge, furnish or make accessible to anyone or use in any way other than in the ordinary course of the business of the Company, any confidential, proprietary or secret knowledge or information of the Company or any of its affiliates, whether developed by the Executive or others, including but not limited to (i) trade secrets, (ii) confidential and proprietary plans, developments, research, processes, designs, methods or material (whether or not patented or patentable), (iii) customer and supplier lists, (iv) strategic or other business, marketing or sales plans, (v) financial data and plans and (vi) Proprietary Information. "Proprietary Information" is defined as (i) the name, address and/or contact information of any customer, supplier or affiliate of the Company or any information concerning the transactions or relations of any customer, supplier or affiliate of the Company or any of its shareholders; (ii) any information concerning any product, service, technology or procedure offered or used by the Company or any of its affiliates, or under development by or being considered for use by the Company or any of its affiliates; (iii) any information relating to marketing or pricing plans or methods, capital structure, or any business or strategic plans of the Company or any of its affiliates; (iv) any inventions, innovations, trade secrets or other items covered by Section 8 below; and (v) any other information which the Company or any of its affiliates has determined and communicated to the Executive in writing to be proprietary information for purposes hereof; provided, however, that "Proprietary Information" shall not include any information that is or becomes generally known to the public other than through actions of the Executive in violation of the restrictive covenants set forth in Sections 7 through 9 hereof. The Executive acknowledges that the above-described knowledge and information constitute unique and valuable assets of the Company and represent a substantial investment of time and expense by the Company, and that any disclosure or other use of such knowledge or information other than for the sole benefit of the Company would be wrongful and would cause irreparable harm to the Company. During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company, the Executive shall refrain from any acts or omissions that would reduce the value of such knowledge or information to the Company. The foregoing obligations of confidentiality shall not apply to any knowledge or information that (x) is now or subsequently becomes generally publicly known for reasons other than the Executive's violation of this Agreement, (y) is independently made available to the Executive in good faith by a third party who has not violated a confidential relationship with the Company, or (z) is required to be disclosed by legal process, other than as a direct or indirect result of the breach of this Agreement by the Executive.

(b) If, during the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company, the Executive is engaged in or associated with the planning or implementing of any project, program or venture involving the Company, all rights in such project, program or venture shall belong to the Company, as applicable. Except as approved in writing by the Board, the Executive shall not be entitled to any interest in any such project, program or venture or to any commission, finder's fee or other compensation in connection therewith. The Executive shall have no interest, direct or indirect, in any customer or supplier that conducts business with the Company, provided that a passive investment of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any customer or supplier listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this sentence.

8. Inventions and Proprietary Rights.

(a) All right, title and interest in all discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that the Executive shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others during the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company (i) that are directly related to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or that results from any work performed by the Executive for the Company, (ii) for which any equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and/or (iii) which was not developed entirely on the Executive's own time, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark ("Protectable Material"), shall be the property of the Company and are hereby assigned by the Executive to the Company (and the Executive agrees to assign all Protectable Material to the Company in the future), along with ownership of any and all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights in the Protectable Material. Upon request and without further compensation therefor, but at no expense to the Executive, the Executive shall execute any and all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the Company to obtain and register patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights on the Protectable Materials in any and all countries. Where applicable, works of authorship created by the Executive for the Company in performing the Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be considered "works made for hire," as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act.

(b) All trade secret information conceived or originated by the Executive that arises during the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and out of the performance of the Executive's duties and responsibilities to the Company or any related material or information shall be the property of the Company, and all rights therein are hereby assigned by the Executive to the Company.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive understands that this Agreement does not require assignment of any invention to the extent such invention qualifies for protection under Section 181.78 of the 2015 Minnesota Statutes, as may be amended from time to time, and the current text of which is attached hereto as Annex 1 to Exhibit B. The Executive hereby acknowledges that the Company has provided him or her with the notification set forth on Exhibit B (and the annex attached thereto) on the date hereof and the Executive shall sign such notification as soon as reasonably practicable after the date hereof.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive understands that pursuant to the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, the Executive shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (A) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

9. Non-Compete; Non-Solicitation; Non-Disparagement.

(a) During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and during the24-month period following the date of termination thereof (the "Restricted Period"), regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise) in any Company Business (as defined below) in the Territory (as defined below). For purposes of Sections 7 through 9 hereof, (i) "Company" means Life Time Group Holdings, Inc. and any parent, affiliated, related and/or direct or indirect subsidiary entity thereof, (ii) "Company Business" means (1) the design, development, operation, management, advertisement, promotion, solicitation, marketing or sale of health and fitness clubs or health and fitness club memberships, (2) any services, products or programs offered by health and fitness clubs, including but not limited to personal training, nutritional supplements; health testing or health assessments; wellness services or programs (whether direct to consumer or business to business); weight loss services or programs; kids activities; salons, spas, and medical spas; restaurants or cafes; athletic events and related services (including race timing and registration), and (3) any other product or service that grows into a material business for the Company (or is under development and is projected to grow into a material business for the Company) as of the Executive's Date of Termination, and (iii) "Territory" means the United States, Canada and any other country in which the Company is then doing Company Business as of the Executive's Date of Termination. Ownership by the Executive, as a passive investment, of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any corporation listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this Section 9(a).

(b) During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, the Executive shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, hire, engage or solicit for the purpose of employing or otherwise engaging any person who is then an employee of the Company or who was an employee of the Company as of the Executive's date of termination or at any time in the six-month period prior to such hiring, engagement or solicitation.

(c) During the term of the Executive's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Executive, the Executive shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, solicit, request, advise or induce any current or potential customer, member, supplier or other business contact of the Company to cancel, curtail or otherwise change its relationship with the Company.

(d) The Executive will not malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of the Company or any of its affiliates, or the reputation or character of the Company's or any of its affiliates' directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents, provided that nothing in this Section 9(d) shall be construed to limit or restrict Executive from taking any action that Executive in good faith reasonably believes is necessary to fulfill Executive's fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter. The Company shall instruct its then-current executive officers and directors as of the Executive's date of termination not to malign, defame or disparage the reputation or image of Executive, provided that nothing in this Section 9(d) shall be construed to limit or restrict such officers and directors from taking any action that they in good faith reasonably believes is necessary to fulfill their fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter.

(e) The Executive shall inform any prospective or future employer of any and all restrictions contained in this Agreement and provide such employer with a copy of such restrictions (but no other terms of this Agreement) prior to the commencement of that employment.

10. Enforcement. If the duration of, the scope of or any business activity covered by any provision of Sections 7 through 9 hereof is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be in excess of what is valid and enforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be construed to cover only that duration, scope or activity that is valid and enforceable, and all other provisions of Sections 7 through 9 shall remain in full force and effect. The Executive hereby acknowledges that Sections 7 through 9 hereof shall be given the construction that renders the provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent, not exceeding their express terms, possible under applicable law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the foregoing sentences of this Section 10 shall in no event apply to the extent their application would render Sections 7 through 9 hereof (or any portion thereof) unenforceable under applicable law. The Executive acknowledges that the provisions of Sections 7 through 9 hereof are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, and that any violation of those provisions by the Executive would cause real, immediate, substantial and irreparable harm to the Company to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefor. Therefore, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of Sections 7 through 9 hereof, the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies it may have, be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief to enforce such provisions and to restrain the Executive from violating or continuing to violate such provisions, and such relief may be granted without the necessity of proving actual monetary damages or posting bond. The Executive agrees that the Restricted Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which he or she is in violation of the terms of Section 9(a), 9(b) or 9(c), in order that the Company and its affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. No breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company, or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of the Executive's employment and/or service relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish the Executive's obligation to comply with Sections 7 through 9 hereof. The Company (including, without limitation, its affiliates) are third party beneficiaries under this Agreement and shall have the right to enforce all of the Executive's obligations to the Company under this Agreement, including without limitation pursuant to Sections 7 through 9 hereof, and the Company shall be entitled to assign its rights under Sections 7 through 9 hereof without the Executive's consent and any such assignees shall have the right to enforce all of the Executive's obligations to comply with Sections 7 through 9 hereof. The Executive covenants and agrees that he or she has received adequate consideration for his or her obligations contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof, and will not take the position that the covenants contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof are void for lack of consideration. The Executive will be responsible for any and all attorneys' fees and costs the Company incurs in enforcing the Executive's obligations contained in Sections 7 through 9 hereof.

11. Representations. The Executive hereby represents and warrants to the Company that (a) the Executive is entering into this Agreement voluntarily and that the performance of the Executive's obligations hereunder will not violate any agreement between the Executive and any other person, firm, organization or other entity, and (b) the Executive is not bound by the terms of any agreement with any previous employer or other party to refrain from competing, directly or indirectly, with the business of such previous employer or other party that would be violated by the Executive's entering into this Agreement and/or providing services to the Company pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

12. Successors. This Agreement is personal to the Executive and, without the prior written consent of the Company, shall not be assignable by the Executive otherwise than by will or the laws of descent and distribution. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be enforceable by the Executive's legal representatives. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Company and its successors and assigns.

13. Miscellaneous.

(a) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Minnesota, without reference to principles of conflict of laws. The captions of this Agreement are not part of the provisions hereof and shall have no force or effect.

(b) Compensation Recovery Policy. Executive acknowledges and agrees that, to the extent the Company adopts any claw-back or similar policy pursuant to the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act or otherwise, and any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, he or she shall take all action necessary or appropriate to comply with such policy (including, without limitation, entering into any further agreements, amendments or policies necessary or appropriate to implement and/or enforce such policy with respect to past, present and future compensation, as appropriate).

(c) Whistleblower Protections and Trade Secrets. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, nothing in this Agreement prohibits Executive from reporting possible violations of federal law or regulation to any United States governmental agency or entity in accordance with the provisions of and rules promulgated under Section 21F of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 806 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, or any other whistleblower protection provisions of state or federal law or regulation (including the right to receive an award for information provided to any such government agencies). Furthermore, in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 1833, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement: (i) Executive shall not be in breach of this Agreement, and shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law (A) for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official or to an attorney solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law, or (B) for the disclosure of a trade secret that is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal; and (ii) if Executive files a lawsuit for retaliation by the Company for reporting a suspected violation of law, Executive may disclose the trade secret to Executive's attorney, and may use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if Executive files any document containing the trade secret under seal, and does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

(d) Notices. All notices and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given by hand delivery to the other party or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed as follows:

If to the Company:

or to such other address as either party shall have furnished to the other in writing in accordance herewith. Notice and communications shall be effective when actually received by the addressee.

(e) Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if the Company determines, in its good faith judgment, that any transfer or deemed transfer of funds hereunder is likely to be construed as a personal loan prohibited by Section 13(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Exchange Act"), then such transfer or deemed transfer shall not be made to the extent necessary or appropriate so as not to violate the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(f) Section 409A of the Code.

(i) To the extent applicable, this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with Section 409A of the Code and Department of Treasury regulations and other interpretive guidance issued thereunder (together, "Section 409A"). Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if the Company determines that any compensation or benefits payable under this Agreement may be subject to Section 409A, the Company shall work in good faith with the Executive to adopt such amendments to this Agreement or adopt other policies and procedures (including amendments, policies and procedures with retroactive effect), or take any other actions, that the Company determines are necessary or appropriate to avoid the imposition of taxes under Section 409A, including without limitation, actions intended to (i) exempt the compensation and benefits payable under this Agreement from Section 409A, and/or (ii) comply with the requirements of Section 409A; provided, however, that this Section 13(f) shall not create an obligation on the part of the Company to adopt any such amendment, policy or procedure or take any such other action, nor shall the Company have any liability for failing to do so.

(ii) Any right to a series of installment payments pursuant to this Agreement is to be treated as a right to a series of separate payments. To the extent permitted under Section 409A, any separate payment or benefit under this Agreement or otherwise shall not be deemed "nonqualified deferred compensation" subject to Section 409A to the extent provided in the exceptions in Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(4), Section 1.409A-1(b)(9) or any other applicable exception or provision of Section 409A. Any payments subject to Section 409A that are subject to execution of a waiver and release which may be executed and/or revoked in a calendar year following the calendar year in which the payment event (such as termination of employment) occurs shall commence payment only in the calendar year in which the consideration period or, if applicable, release revocation period ends, as necessary to comply with Section 409A. All payments of nonqualified deferred compensation subject to Section 409A to be made upon a termination of employment under this Agreement may only be made upon Employee's Separation from Service (as defined below) from the Company.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no compensation or benefits, including without limitation any severance payments or benefits payable under Section 4 hereof, shall be paid to the Executive during the six (6)-month period following the Executive's "separation from service" from the Company (within the meaning of Section 409A, a "Separation from Service") if the Company determines that at the time of Executive's Separation from Service that Executive is a "specified employee" for purposes of Section 409A and paying such amounts at the time or times indicated in this Agreement would be a prohibited distribution under Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code. If the payment of any such amounts is delayed as a result of the previous sentence, then on the first day of the seventh month following the date of Separation from Service (or such earlier date upon which such amount can be paid under Section 409A without resulting in a prohibited distribution, including as a result of the Executive's death), the Company shall pay the Executive a lump-sum amount equal to the cumulative amount that would have otherwise been payable to the Executive during such period.

(iv) To the extent that any payments or reimbursements provided to the Executive under this Agreement are deemed to constitute compensation to the Executive to which Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-3(i)(1)(iv) would apply, such amounts shall be paid or reimbursed reasonably promptly, but not later than December 31 of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred. The amount of any such payments eligible for reimbursement in one year shall not affect the payments or expenses that are eligible for payment or reimbursement in any other taxable year, and the Executive's right to such payments or reimbursement of any such expenses shall not be subject to liquidation or exchange for any other benefit.

(g) Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

(h) Withholding. The Company may withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement such federal, state, local or foreign taxes as shall be required to be withheld pursuant to any applicable law or regulation.

(i) No Waiver. The Executive's or the Company's failure to insist upon strict compliance with any provision of this Agreement or the failure to assert any right the Executive or the Company may have hereunder shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such provision or right or any other provision or right of this Agreement.

(j) Entire Agreement. As of the Effective Date, this Agreement constitutes the final, complete and exclusive agreement between the Executive and the Company with respect to the subject matter hereof and replaces and supersedes any and all other agreements, offers or promises, whether oral or written, by any member of the Company and its subsidiaries or affiliates, or representative thereof; provided that nothing herein replaces or supersedes any non -disclosure, non-competition, non-solicitation or other similar agreement between the Company (or any subsidiaries thereof) and the Executive in effect on the Effective Date, each of which shall remain in full force and effect.

(k) Amendment. No amendment or other modification of this Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing and signed by the parties hereto.

(l) Counterparts. This Agreement and any agreement referenced herein may be executed simultaneously in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. A facsimile, PDF (or any electronic signature complying with the U.S. federal ESIGN Act of 2000, e.g. www.docusign.com) or any other type of copy of an executed version of this Agreement signed by a party is binding upon the signing party to the same extent as the original of the signed agreement.

The foregoing obligations of confidentiality shall not apply to any knowledge or information that (x) is now or subsequently becomes generally publicly known for reasons other than the Employee's violation of this Agreement, (y) is independently made available to the Employee in good faith by a third party who has not violated a confidential relationship with the Company, or (z) is required to be disclosed by legal process, other than as a direct or indirect result of the breach of this Agreement by the Employee.

(b) If, during the Employee's employment and/or service with the Company, the Employee is engaged in or associated with the planning or implementing of any project, program or venture involving the Company, all rights in such project, program or venture shall belong to the Company, as applicable. 2. Inventions and Proprietary Rights.

(a) All right, title and interest in all discoveries, inventions, improvements, innovations and other material that the Employee shall conceive or originate individually or jointly or commonly with others during the term of the Employee's employment and/or service with the Company (i) that are directly related to the business of the Company or to the Company's actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, or that results from any work performed by the Employee for the Company, (ii) for which any equipment, supplies, facility or trade secret information of the Company was used and/or (iii) which was not developed entirely on the Employee's own time, whether or not patentable, copyrightable, or registrable as a trademark ("Protectable Material"), shall be the property of the Company and are hereby assigned by the Employee to the Company (and the Employee agrees to assign all Protectable Material to the Company in the future), along with ownership of any and all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights in the Protectable Material. Upon request and without further compensation therefor, but at no expense to the Employee, the Employee shall execute any and all papers and perform all other acts necessary to assist the Company to obtain and register patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property rights on the Protectable Materials in any and all countries. (c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Employee understands that this Agreement does not require assignment of any invention to the extent such invention qualifies for protection under Section 181.78 of the 2015 Minnesota Statutes, as may be amended from time to time, and the current text of which is attached hereto as Annex 1 to Exhibit A. The Employee hereby acknowledges that the Company has provided him with the notification set forth on Exhibit A (and the annex attached thereto) on the date hereof and the Employee shall sign such notification as soon as reasonably practicable after the date hereof.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Employee understands that pursuant to the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, the Employee shall not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that (A) is made (i) in confidence to a federal, state, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

3. Non-Compete; Non-Solicitation; Non-Disparagement.

(a) During the term of the Employee's employment and/or service with the Company and until the later of (i) the36-month anniversary of the Company's initial public offering or (ii) the 24-month anniversary of the date of termination of the Employee's employment with the Company (the "Restricted Period"), regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Employee, the Employee shall not, directly or indirectly, engage in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise) in any Company Business (as defined below) in the Territory (as defined below). For purposes of Sections 1 through 3 hereof, (i) "Company" means Life Time Group Holdings, Inc. and any parent, affiliated, related and/or direct or indirect subsidiary entity thereof, (ii) "Company Business" means (1) the design, development, operation, management, advertisement, promotion, solicitation, marketing or sale of health and fitness clubs or health and fitness club memberships, (2) any services, products or programs offered by health and fitness clubs, including but not limited to personal training, nutritional supplements; health testing or health assessments; wellness services or programs (whether direct to consumer or business to business); weight loss services or programs; kids activities; salons, spas, and medical spas; restaurants or cafes; athletic events and related services (including race timing and registration), and (3) any other product or service that grows into a material business for the Company (or is under development and is projected to grow into a material business for the Company) as of the Employee's termination of services date, and (iii) "Territory" means the United States, Canada and any other country in which the Company is then doing Company Business as of the Employee's Termination of Services Date. Ownership by the Employee, as a passive investment, of less than 2.5% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of any corporation listed on a national securities exchange or publicly traded in the over-the-counter market shall not constitute a breach of this Section 3(a).

(b) During the term of the Employee's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Employee, the Employee shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, hire, engage or solicit for the purpose of employing or otherwise engaging any person who is then an employee of the Company or who was an employee of the Company as of the Employee's date of termination or at any time in the six-month period prior to such hiring, engagement or solicitation.

(c) During the term of the Employee's employment and/or service with the Company and during the Restricted Period, regardless of the reason for such termination and regardless of whether the termination is initiated by the Company or Employee, the Employee shall not, in any manner or capacity (including without limitation as a proprietor, owner, principal, agent, partner, officer, director, stockholder, employee, member of any association, consultant or otherwise), directly or indirectly, solicit, request, advise or induce any current or potential customer, member, supplier or other business contact of the Company to cancel, curtail or otherwise change its relationship with the Company.

(d) The Employee will not malign, defame or disparage the reputation, character, image, products or services of the Company or any of its affiliates, or the reputation or character of the Company's or any of its affiliates' directors, officers, employees, shareholders or agents, provided that nothing in this Section 3(d) shall be construed to limit or restrict Employee from taking any action that Employee in good faith reasonably believes is necessary to fulfill Employee's fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter. Life Time shall instruct its then-current executive officers and directors as of the Employee's date of termination not to malign, defame or disparage the reputation or image of Employee, provided that nothing in this Section 3(d) shall be construed to limit or restrict such officers and directors from taking any action that they in good faith reasonably believes is necessary to fulfill their fiduciary obligations to the Company, or from providing truthful information in connection with any legal proceeding, government investigation or other legal matter.

(e) The Employee shall inform any prospective or future employer of any and all restrictions contained in this Agreement and provide such employer with a copy of such restrictions (but no other terms of this Agreement) prior to the commencement of that employment.

4. Enforcement.

(a) If the duration of, the scope of or any business activity covered by any provision of Sections 1 through 3 hereof is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be in excess of what is valid and enforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be construed to cover only that duration, scope or activity that is valid and enforceable, and all other provisions of Sections 1 through 3 shall remain in full force and effect. The Employee hereby acknowledges that Sections 1 through 3 hereof shall be given the construction that renders the provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent, not exceeding their express terms, possible under applicable law. The Parties agree that any such court or arbitral authority is expressly authorized to modify any unenforceable provision of this Agreement instead of severing the unenforceable provision from this Agreement in its entirety, whether by rewriting the offending provision, deleting any or all of the offending provision, adding additional language to this Agreement, or by making any other modifications it deems warranted to carry out the intent and agreement of the Parties as embodied in this Agreement to the maximum extent permitted by law. The Parties expressly agree that this Agreement as so modified by the court shall be binding upon and enforceable against each of them. Should one or more of the provisions of this Agreement be held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any respect, that invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall not affect any other provisions of this Agreement, and if such provision or provisions are not modified as provided above, this Agreement shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provisions had not been set forth in this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the foregoing sentences of this Section 4 shall in no event apply to the extent their application would render Sections 1 through 3 hereof (or any portion thereof) unenforceable under applicable law.

(b) The Employee acknowledges that the provisions of Sections 1 through 3 hereof are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, and that any violation of those provisions by the Employee would cause real, immediate, substantial and irreparable harm to the Company to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy therefor. Therefore, in the event of any actual or threatened breach of any provision of Sections 1 through 3 hereof, the Company shall, in addition to any other remedies it may have, be entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief to enforce such provisions and to restrain the Employee from violating or continuing to violate such provisions, and such relief may be granted without the necessity of proving actual monetary damages or posting bond. The Employee agrees that the Restricted Period shall be tolled, and shall not run, during any period of time in which he or she is in violation of the terms of Section 3(a), 3(b) or 3(c), in order that the Company and its affiliates shall have all of the agreed-upon temporal protection recited herein. No breach of any provision of this Agreement by the Company, or any other claimed breach of contract or violation of law, or change in the nature or scope of the Employee's employment and/or service relationship with the Company, shall operate to extinguish the Employee's obligation to comply with Sections 1 through 3 hereof. The Company (including, without limitation, its affiliates) are third party beneficiaries under this Agreement and shall have the right to enforce all of the Employee's obligations to the Company under this Agreement, including without limitation pursuant to Sections 1 through 3 hereof, and the Company shall be entitled to assign its rights under Sections 1 through 3 hereof without the Employee's consent and any such assignees shall have the right to enforce all of the Employee's obligations to comply with Sections 1 through 3 hereof. The Employee covenants and agrees that he or she has received adequate consideration for his or her obligations contained in Sections 1 through 3 hereof, and will not take the position that the covenants contained in Sections 1 through 3 hereof are void for lack of consideration. The Employee will be responsible for any and all attorneys' fees and costs the Company incurs in enforcing the Employee's obligations contained in Sections 1 through 3 hereof.

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to in any way terminate, supersede, undermine, or otherwise modify the"at-will" status of the employment relationship between the Company and the Employee, pursuant to which either the Company or the Employee may terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without cause, and with or without notice.

5. Successors and Assigns. To the extent permitted by state law, the Company may assign this Agreement to any subsidiary or corporate affiliate, or to any successor or assign (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business or assets of the Company. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of the Company and permitted successors and assigns. This Agreement is personal to the Employee and, without the prior written consent of the Company, shall not be assignable by the Employee.

6. Representations. The Employee hereby represents and warrants to the Company that (a) the Employee has been represented by legal counsel in connection with the negotiation and execution of this Agreement, (b) the Employee is entering into this Agreement voluntarily and that the performance of the Employee's obligations hereunder will not violate any agreement between the Employee and any other person, firm, organization or other entity, and (c) the Employee is not bound by the terms of any agreement with any previous employer or other party to refrain from competing, directly or indirectly, with the business of such previous employer or other party that would be violated by the Employee's entering into this Agreement and/or providing services to the Company pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

7. Choice of Law and Forum Selection. This Agreement, and all matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement, whether sounding in contract, tort, or statute, are governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Minnesota, without giving effect to the conflict of laws provisions thereof to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Minnesota to apply. Any action or proceeding by either Party to enforce this Agreement shall be brought only in any state or federal court located in the state of Minnesota, county of Carver. The Parties hereby irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts and waive the defense of inconvenient forum to the maintenance of any such action or proceeding in such venue.

8. Entire Agreement. Unless specifically provided herein, this Agreement contains all the understandings and representations between the Employee and the Company pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous understandings, agreements, representations, and warranties, both written and oral, with respect to such subject matter; provided that nothing herein supersedes or modifies the terms and conditions of the Offer Letter or any existing agreements in respect of equity awards previously granted to you.

9. Modification and Waiver. No provision of this Agreement may be amended or modified unless the amendment or modifications is agreed to in writing and signed by the Employee and an authorized officer of the Company, following approval by the Board or the Compensation Committee. No waiver by either Party of any breach of any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by the other Party shall be deemed a waiver of any other provision or condition at the same or any prior or subsequent time, nor shall the failure of or delay by either Party in exercising any right, power, or privilege under this Agreement operate as a waiver to preclude any other or further exercise of any right, power, or privilege.

10. Severability. Without limiting Section 4, should any provision of this Agreement be held by a court or arbitral authority of competent jurisdiction to be enforceable only if modified, or if any portion of this Agreement shall be held as unenforceable and thus stricken, that holding shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this Agreement, the balance of which shall continue to be binding on the Parties with any modification to become a part of and treated as though originally set forth in this Agreement.

11. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument. A facsimile, PDF (or any electronic signature complying with the U.S. federal ESIGN Act of 2000, e.g. www.docusign.com) or any other type of copy of an executed version of this Agreement signed by a party is binding upon the signing party to the same extent as the original of the signed agreement.

INDEMNIFICATION AND ADVANCEMENT AGREEMENT

This Indemnification and Advancement Agreement (this "Agreement") is made as of , 20 by and between Life Time Group Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and , [a member of the Board of Directors/an officer/an employee/an agent/a fiduciary] of the Company ("Indemnitee"). This Agreement supersedes and replaces any and all previous Agreements between the Company and Indemnitee covering indemnification and advancement.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") believes that highly competent persons have become more reluctant to serve publicly-held corporations as directors, officers, or in other capacities unless they are provided with adequate protection through insurance or adequate indemnification and advancement of expenses against inordinate risks of claims and actions against them arising out of their service to and activities on behalf of the corporation;

WHEREAS, the Board has determined that, in order to attract and retain qualified individuals, the Company will attempt to maintain on an ongoing basis, at its sole expense, liability insurance to protect persons serving the Company and its subsidiaries from certain liabilities. Although the furnishing of such insurance has been a customary and widespread practice among United States-based corporations and other business enterprises, the Company believes that, given current market conditions and trends, such insurance may be available to it in the future only at higher premiums and with more exclusions. At the same time, directors, officers, and other persons in service to corporations or business enterprises are being increasingly subjected to expensive and time-consuming litigation relating to, among other things, matters that traditionally would have been brought only against the Company or business enterprise itself. The Amended and Restated Bylaws (the "Bylaws") and the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the "Certificate of Incorporation") of the Company require indemnification of the officers and directors of the Company. Indemnitee may also be entitled to indemnification pursuant to the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL"). The Bylaws, the Certificate of Incorporation, and the DGCL expressly provide that the indemnification provisions set forth therein are not exclusive, and thereby contemplate that contracts may be entered into between the Company and members of the board of directors, officers and other persons with respect to indemnification and advancement of expenses;

WHEREAS, the uncertainties relating to such insurance, to indemnification, and to advancement of expenses may increase the difficulty of attracting and retaining such persons;

WHEREAS, the Board has determined that the increased difficulty in attracting and retaining such persons is detrimental to the best interests of the Company and its stockholders and that the Company should act to assure such persons that there will be increased certainty of such protection in the future;

WHEREAS, it is reasonable, prudent and necessary for the Company contractually to obligate itself to indemnify, and to advance expenses on behalf of, such persons to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law so that they will serve or continue to serve the Company free from undue concern that they will not be so indemnified;

WHEREAS, this Agreement is a supplement to and in furtherance of the Bylaws, the Certificate of Incorporation and any resolutions adopted pursuant thereto, and is not a substitute therefor, nor diminishes or abrogates any rights of Indemnitee thereunder; and

WHEREAS, Indemnitee does not regard the protection available under the Bylaws, Certificate of Incorporation, DGCL and insurance as adequate in the present circumstances, and may not be willing to serve or continue to serve as [a/an] [director/officer/employee/agent/fiduciary] of the Company without adequate additional protection, and the Company desires Indemnitee to serve or continue to serve in such capacity. Indemnitee is willing to serve, continue to serve and to take on additional service for or on behalf of the Company on the condition that Indemnitee be so indemnified and be advanced expenses.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the covenants contained herein, the Company and Indemnitee do hereby covenant and agree as follows:

Section 1. Services to the Company. Indemnitee agrees to serve as [a/an] [director/officer/employee/agent/fiduciary] of the Company. Indemnitee may at any time and for any reason resign from such position (subject to any other contractual obligation or any obligation imposed by operation of law). This Agreement does not create any obligation on the Company to continue Indemnitee in such position and is not an employment contract between the Company (or any of its subsidiaries or any Enterprise) and Indemnitee.

Section 2. Definitions. As used in this Agreement:

(a) "Affiliate" shall have the meaning set forth in Rule 405 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (as in effect on the date hereof).

(b) "Agent" means any person who is authorized by the Company or an Enterprise to act for or represent the interests of the Company or an Enterprise, respectively.

(c) A "Change in Control" occurs upon the earliest to occur after the date of this Agreement of any of the following events:

i. Acquisition of Stock by Third Party. Any Person (as defined below), other than the Principal Stockholders and their Related Parties, is or becomes the Beneficial Owner (as defined below), directly or indirectly, of securities of the Company representing fifteen percent (15%) or more of the combined voting power of the Company's then outstanding securities unless the change in relative beneficial ownership of the Company's securities by any Person results solely from a reduction in the aggregate number of outstanding shares of securities entitled to vote generally in the election of directors;

ii. Change in Board of Directors. During any period of two (2) consecutive years (not including any period prior to the execution of this Agreement), individuals who at the beginning of such period constitute the Board, and any new director (other than a director designated by a person who has entered into an agreement with the Company to effect a transaction described in Sections 2(b)(i), 2(b)(iii) or 2(b)(iv)) whose election by the Board or nomination for election by the Company's stockholders was approved by a vote of at least two-thirds of the directors then still in office who either were directors at the beginning of the period or whose election or nomination for election was previously so approved, cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the members of the Board;

iii. Corporate Transactions. The effective date of a merger or consolidation of the Company with any other entity, other than a merger or consolidation which would result in the voting securities of the Company outstanding immediately prior to such merger or consolidation continuing to represent (either by remaining outstanding or by being converted into voting securities of the surviving entity) more than 50% of the combined voting power of the voting securities of the surviving entity outstanding immediately after such merger or consolidation and with the power to elect at least a majority of the board of directors or other governing body of such surviving entity;

iv. Liquidation. The approval by the stockholders of the Company of a complete liquidation of the Company or an agreement for the sale or disposition by the Company of all or substantially all of the Company's assets; and

v. Other Events. There occurs any other event of a nature that would be required to be reported in response to Item 6(e) of Schedule 14A of Regulation 14A (or a response to any similar item on any similar schedule or form) promulgated under the Exchange Act (as defined below), whether or not the Company is then subject to such reporting requirement.

vi. For purposes of this Section 2(b), the following terms have the following meanings:

1 "Exchange Act" means the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended from time to time.

2 "Person" has the meaning as set forth in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act; provided, however, that Person excludes (i) the Company, (ii) any trustee or other fiduciary holding securities under an employee benefit plan of the Company, and (iii) any corporation owned, directly or indirectly, by the stockholders of the Company in substantially the same proportions as their ownership of stock of the Company.

3 "Beneficial Owner" has the meaning given to such term in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act; provided, however, that Beneficial Owner excludes any Person otherwise becoming a Beneficial Owner by reason of the stockholders of the Company approving a merger of the Company with another entity.

(d) "Corporate Status" describes the status of a person who is or was acting as a director, officer, employee, fiduciary, or Agent of the Company or an Enterprise.

(e) “Disinterested Director” means a director of the Company who is not and was not a party to the Proceeding in respect of which indemnification is sought by Indemnitee.

(f) “Enterprise” means any other corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other entity for which Indemnitee is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee, or Agent.

(g) “Expenses” includes all reasonable attorneys’ fees, retainers, court costs, transcript costs, fees of experts and other professionals, witness fees, travel expenses, duplicating costs, printing and binding costs, telephone charges, postage, delivery service fees, any federal, state, local or foreign taxes imposed on Indemnitee as a result of the actual or deemed receipt of any payments under this Agreement, ERISA excise taxes and penalties, and all other disbursements or expenses of the types customarily incurred in connection with prosecuting, defending, preparing to prosecute or defend, investigating, being or preparing to be a witness in, or otherwise participating in, a Proceeding. Expenses also include (i) Expenses incurred in connection with any appeal resulting from any Proceeding, including without limitation the premium, security for, and other costs relating to any cost bond, supersedeas bond, or other appeal bond or its equivalent, and (ii) for purposes of Section 14(d) only, Expenses incurred by Indemnitee in connection with the interpretation, enforcement or defense of Indemnitee’s rights under this Agreement, by litigation or otherwise. Expenses, however, do not include amounts paid in settlement by Indemnitee or the amount of judgments or fines against Indemnitee, or fees, salaries, wages or benefits owed to Indemnitee.

(h) “Independent Counsel” means a law firm, or a member of a law firm, that is experienced in matters of corporation law and neither presently is, nor in the past five years has been, retained to represent: (i) the Company or Indemnitee in any matter material to either such party (other than with respect to matters concerning the Indemnitee under this Agreement, or of other indemnitees under similar indemnification agreements), or (ii) any other party to the Proceeding giving rise to a claim for indemnification hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the term “Independent Counsel” does not include any person who, under the applicable standards of professional conduct then prevailing, would have a conflict of interest in representing either the Company or Indemnitee in an action to determine Indemnitee’s rights under this Agreement.

(i) The term “Proceeding” includes any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, claim, counterclaim, cross claim, arbitration, mediation, alternate dispute resolution mechanism, investigation, inquiry, administrative hearing or any other actual, threatened or completed proceeding, whether brought in the right of the Company or otherwise and whether of a civil, criminal, administrative, legislative, or investigative (formal or informal) nature, including any appeal therefrom, in which Indemnitee was, is or will be involved as a party, potential party, non-party witness or otherwise by reason of Indemnitee’s Corporate Status or by reason of any action taken by Indemnitee (or a failure to take action by Indemnitee) or of any action (or failure to act) on Indemnitee’s part while acting pursuant to Indemnitee’s Corporate Status, in each case whether or not serving in such capacity at the time any liability or Expense is incurred for which indemnification, reimbursement, or advancement of Expenses can be provided under this Agreement. A Proceeding also includes a situation the Indemnitee believes in good faith may lead to or culminate in the institution of a Proceeding.

(j) "Related Parties" means collectively, with respect to any Person, (i) any controlling stockholder, controlling member, general partner, subsidiary, spouse or immediate family member (in the case of an individual) of such Person, (ii) any estate, trust, corporation, partnership or other entity, the beneficiaries, stockholders, partners or owners of which consist solely of one or more of the Principal Stockholder Entities (as defined below) and their respective Affiliates (other than the Company and its subsidiaries, if applicable) and Related Parties and/or such other Persons referred to in the immediately preceding clause (i), or (iii) any executor, administrator, trustee, manager, director or other similar fiduciary of any Person referred to in the immediately preceding clause (ii), acting solely in such capacity.

(k) "Principal Stockholder Entities" means funds affiliated with or advised by LifeCo LLC, Leonard Green & Partners, L.P., LNK Partners, MSD Capital, L.P., Partners Group (USA) Inc. and TPG Global, LLC.

Section 3. Indemnity in Third-Party Proceedings. The Company will indemnify Indemnitee in accordance with the provisions of this Section 3 if Indemnitee is, or is threatened to be made, a party to or a participant in any Proceeding, other than a Proceeding by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor. Pursuant to this Section 3, the Company will indemnify Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law against all Expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement (including all interest, assessments and other charges paid or payable in connection with or in respect of such Expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee or on Indemnitee's behalf in connection with such Proceeding or any claim, issue or matter therein, if Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company and, in the case of a criminal Proceeding had no reasonable cause to believe that Indemnitee's conduct was unlawful.

Section 4. Indemnity in Proceedings by or in the Right of the Company. The Company will indemnify Indemnitee in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4 if Indemnitee is, or is threatened to be made, a party to or a participant in any Proceeding by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor. Pursuant to this Section 4, the Company will indemnify Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law against all Expenses actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee or on Indemnitee's behalf in connection with such Proceeding or any claim, issue or matter therein, if Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company. The Company will not indemnify Indemnitee for Expenses under this Section 4 related to any claim, issue or matter in a Proceeding for which Indemnitee has been finally adjudged by a court to be liable to the Company, unless, and only to the extent that, the Delaware Court of Chancery or any court in which the Proceeding was brought determines upon application by Indemnitee that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, Indemnitee is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification.

Section 5. Indemnification for Expenses of a Party Who is Wholly or Partly Successful. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Company will indemnify Indemnitee against all Expenses actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection with any Proceeding to the extent that Indemnitee is successful, on the merits or otherwise. If Indemnitee is not wholly successful in such Proceeding but is successful, on the merits or otherwise, as to one or more but less than all claims, issues or matters in such Proceeding, the Company will indemnify Indemnitee against all Expenses actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee or on Indemnitee's behalf in connection with or related to each successfully resolved claim, issue or matter to the fullest extent permitted by law. For purposes of this Section 5 and without limitation, the termination of any claim, issue or matter in such a Proceeding by dismissal, with or without prejudice, will be deemed to be a successful result as to such claim, issue or matter.

Section 6. Indemnification For Expenses of a Witness. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Company will indemnify Indemnitee against all Expenses actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee or on Indemnitee's behalf in connection with any Proceeding to which Indemnitee is not a party but to which Indemnitee is a witness, deponent, interviewee, or otherwise asked to participate.

Section 7. Partial Indemnification. If Indemnitee is entitled under any provision of this Agreement to indemnification by the Company for some or a portion of Expenses, but not, however, for the total amount thereof, the Company will indemnify Indemnitee for the portion thereof to which Indemnitee is entitled.

Section 8. Additional Indemnification. Notwithstanding any limitation in Sections 3, 4, or 5, the Company will indemnify Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (including but not limited to, the DGCL and any amendments to or replacements of the DGCL adopted after the date of this Agreement that expand the Company's ability to indemnify its officers and directors) if Indemnitee is a party to or threatened to be made a party to any Proceeding (including a Proceeding by or in the right of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor).

Section 9. Exclusions. Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement, the Company is not obligated under this Agreement to make any indemnification payment to Indemnitee in connection with any Proceeding:

(a) for which payment has actually been made to or on behalf of Indemnitee under any insurance policy or other indemnity provision, except to the extent provided in Section 16(b) and except with respect to any excess beyond the amount paid under any insurance policy or other indemnity provision; or

(b) for (i) an accounting of profits made from the purchase and sale (or sale and purchase) by Indemnitee of securities of the Company within the meaning of Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act (as defined in Section 2(b) hereof) or similar provisions of state statutory law or common law, (ii) any reimbursement of the Company by the Indemnitee of any bonus or other incentive-based or equity-based compensation or of any profits realized by the Indemnitee from the sale of securities of the Company, as required in each case under the Exchange Act (including any such reimbursements that arise from an accounting restatement of the Company pursuant to Section 304 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the "Sarbanes-Oxley Act"), or the payment to the Company of profits arising from the purchase and sale by Indemnitee of securities in violation of Section 306 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act) or (iii) any reimbursement of the Company by Indemnitee of any compensation pursuant to any compensation recoupment or clawback policy adopted by the Board or the compensation committee of the Board, including but not limited to any such policy adopted to comply with stock exchange listing requirements implementing Section 10D of the Exchange Act; or

(c) initiated by Indemnitee, including any Proceeding (or any part of any Proceeding) initiated by Indemnitee against the Company or its directors, officers, employees or other indemnitees, unless (i) the Proceeding or part of any Proceeding is to enforce Indemnitee's rights to indemnification or advancement of Expenses under this Agreement, including a Proceeding (or any part of any Proceeding) initiated pursuant to Section 14 of this Agreement, (ii) the Board authorized the Proceeding (or any part of any Proceeding) prior to its initiation or (iii) the Company provides the indemnification, in its sole discretion, pursuant to the powers vested in the Company under applicable law.

Section 10. Advances of Expenses.

(a) The Company will advance, to the extent not prohibited by law, the Expenses incurred by Indemnitee in connection with any Proceeding (or any part of any Proceeding) not initiated by Indemnitee or any Proceeding (or any part of any Proceeding) initiated by Indemnitee if (i) the Proceeding or part of any Proceeding is to enforce Indemnitee's rights to indemnification or advancement of Expenses under this Agreement, including a proceeding initiated pursuant to Section 14 or (ii) the Board authorized the Proceeding (or any part of any Proceeding) prior to its initiation. The Company will advance the Expenses within forty-five (45) days after the receipt by the Company of a statement or statements requesting such advances from time to time, whether prior to or after final disposition of any Proceeding.

(b) Advances will be unsecured and interest free. Indemnitee undertakes to repay the amounts advanced (without interest) to the extent that it is ultimately determined that Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company, thus Indemnitee qualifies for advances upon the execution of this Agreement and delivery to the Company. No other form of undertaking is required other than the execution of this Agreement. The Company will make advances without regard to Indemnitee's ability to repay the Expenses and without regard to Indemnitee's ultimate entitlement to indemnification under the other provisions of this Agreement. This Section 10 shall not apply to any claim made by Indemnitee for which indemnity is excluded pursuant to Section 9.

Section 11. Procedure for Notification of Claim for Indemnification or Advancement.

(a) Indemnitee will notify the Company in writing of any Proceeding with respect to which Indemnitee intends to seek indemnification or advancement of Expenses hereunder as soon as reasonably practicable following the receipt by Indemnitee of written notice thereof. Indemnitee will include in the written notification to the Company a description of the nature of the Proceeding and the facts underlying the Proceeding and provide such documentation and information as is reasonably available to Indemnitee and is reasonably necessary to determine whether and to what extent Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification following the final disposition of such Proceeding. Indemnitee's failure to notify the Company will not relieve the Company from any obligation it may have to Indemnitee under this Agreement, and any delay in so notifying the Company will not constitute a waiver by Indemnitee of any rights under this Agreement. The Secretary of the Company will, promptly upon receipt of such a request for indemnification or advancement, advise the Board in writing that Indemnitee has requested indemnification or advancement.

(b) The Company will be entitled to participate in the Proceeding at its own expense.

Section 12. Procedure Upon Application for Indemnification.

(a) Unless a Change of Control has occurred, the determination of Indemnitee's entitlement to indemnification will be made:

i. by a majority vote of the Disinterested Directors, even though less than a quorum of the Board;

ii. by a committee of Disinterested Directors designated by a majority vote of the Disinterested Directors, even though less than a quorum of the Board;

iii. if there are no such Disinterested Directors or, if such Disinterested Directors so direct, by written opinion provided by Independent Counsel selected by the Board; or

iv. if so directed by the Board, by the stockholders of the Company.

(b) If a Change in Control has occurred, the determination of Indemnitee's entitlement to indemnification will be made by written opinion provided by Independent Counsel selected by Indemnitee (unless Indemnitee requests such selection be made by the Board).

(c) The party selecting Independent Counsel pursuant to subsection (a)(iii) or (b) of this Section 12 will provide written notice of the selection to the other party. The notified party may, within ten (10) days after receiving written notice of the selection of Independent Counsel, deliver to the selecting party a written objection to such selection; provided, however, that such objection may be asserted only on the ground that the Independent Counsel so selected does not meet the requirements of "Independent Counsel" as defined in Section 2 of this Agreement, and the objection will set forth with particularity the factual basis of such assertion. Absent a proper and timely objection, the person so selected will act as Independent Counsel. If such written objection is so made and substantiated, the Independent Counsel so selected may not serve as Independent Counsel unless and until such objection is withdrawn or the Delaware Court has determined that such objection is without merit. If, within thirty (30) days after the later of submission by Indemnitee of a written request for indemnification pursuant to Section 11(a) hereof and the final disposition of the Proceeding, Independent Counsel has not been selected or, if selected, any objection to has not been resolved, either the Company or Indemnitee may petition the Delaware Court for the appointment as Independent Counsel of a person selected by such court or by such other person as such court designates. Upon the due commencement of any judicial proceeding pursuant to Section 14(a) of this Agreement, Independent Counsel will be discharged and relieved of any further responsibility in such capacity (subject to the applicable standards of professional conduct then prevailing).

(d) Indemnitee will cooperate with the person, persons or entity making the determination with respect to Indemnitee's entitlement to indemnification, including providing to such person, persons or entity upon reasonable advance request any documentation or information which is not privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure and which is reasonably available to Indemnitee and reasonably necessary to such determination. The Company will advance and pay any Expenses incurred by Indemnitee in so cooperating with the person, persons or entity making the indemnification determination irrespective of the determination as to Indemnitee's entitlement to indemnification and the Company hereby indemnifies and agrees to hold Indemnitee harmless therefrom. The Company promptly will advise Indemnitee in writing of the determination that Indemnitee is or is not entitled to indemnification, including a description of any reason or basis for which indemnification has been denied and providing a copy of any written opinion provided to the Board by Independent Counsel.

(e) If it is determined that Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification, the Company will make payment to Indemnitee within forty-five (45) days after such determination.

Section 13. Presumptions and Effect of Certain Proceedings.

(a) In making a determination with respect to entitlement to indemnification hereunder, the person or persons or entity making such determination will, to the fullest extent not prohibited by law, presume Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification under this Agreement if Indemnitee has submitted a request for indemnification in accordance with Section 11(a) of this Agreement, and the Company will, to the fullest extent not prohibited by law, have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption. Neither the failure of the Company (including by its directors or Independent Counsel) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of any action pursuant to this Agreement that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because Indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct, nor an actual determination by the Company (including by its directors or Independent Counsel) that Indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, will be a defense to the action or create a presumption that Indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

(b) If the determination of the Indemnitee's entitlement to indemnification has not made pursuant to Section 12 within sixty (60) days after the later of (i) receipt by the Company of Indemnitee's request for indemnification pursuant to Section 11(a) and (ii) the final disposition of the Proceeding for which Indemnitee requested Indemnification (the "Determination Period"), the requisite determination of entitlement to indemnification will, to the fullest extent not prohibited by law, be deemed to have been made and Indemnitee will be entitled to such indemnification, absent (i) a misstatement by Indemnitee of a material fact, or an omission of a material fact necessary to make Indemnitee's statement not materially misleading, in connection with the request for indemnification, or (ii) a prohibition of such indemnification under applicable law. The Determination Period may be extended for a reasonable time, not to exceed an additional thirty (30) days, if the person, persons or entity making the determination with respect to entitlement to indemnification in good faith requires such additional time for the obtaining or evaluating of documentation and/or information relating thereto; and provided, further, the Determination Period may be extended an additional fifteen (15) days if the determination of entitlement to indemnification is to be made by the stockholders pursuant to Section 12(a)(iv) of this Agreement.

(c) The termination of any Proceeding or of any claim, issue or matter therein, by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, will not (except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement) of itself adversely affect the right of Indemnitee to indemnification or create a presumption that Indemnitee did not act in good faith and in a manner which Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company or, with respect to any criminal Proceeding, that Indemnitee had reasonable cause to believe that Indemnitee's conduct was unlawful.

(d) For purposes of any determination of good faith, Indemnitee will be deemed to have acted in good faith if Indemnitee acted based on the records or books of account of the Company, its subsidiaries, or an Enterprise, including financial statements, or on information supplied to Indemnitee by the directors or officers of the Company, its subsidiaries, or an Enterprise in the course of their duties, or on the advice of legal counsel for the Company, its subsidiaries, or an Enterprise or on information or records given or reports made to the Company, its subsidiaries or an Enterprise by an independent certified public accountant or by an appraiser, financial advisor or other expert selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the Company, its subsidiaries, or an Enterprise. Further, Indemnitee will be deemed to have acted in a manner "not opposed to the best interests of the Company," as referred to in this Agreement if Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan. The provisions of this Section 13(d) are not exclusive and do not limit in any way the other circumstances in which the Indemnitee may be deemed to have met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in this Agreement.

(e) The knowledge and/or actions, or failure to act, of any director, officer, trustee, partner, managing member, fiduciary, agent or employee of the Enterprise may not be imputed to Indemnitee for purposes of determining Indemnitee's right to indemnification under this Agreement.

Section 14. Remedies of Indemnitee.

(a) Indemnitee may commence litigation against the Company in the Delaware Court of Chancery to obtain indemnification or advancement of Expenses provided by this Agreement in the event that (i) a determination is made pursuant to Section 12 of this Agreement that Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification under this Agreement, (ii) the Company does not advance Expenses pursuant to Section 10 of this Agreement, (iii) the determination of entitlement to indemnification is not made pursuant to Section 12 of this Agreement within the Determination Period, (iv) the Company does not indemnify Indemnitee pursuant to Section 5 or 6 or the second to last sentence of Section 12(d) of this Agreement within forty-five (45) days after receipt by the Company of a written request therefor, (v) the Company does not indemnify Indemnitee pursuant to Section 3, 4, 7, or 8 of this Agreement within forty-five (45) days after a determination has been made that Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification, or (vi) in the event that the Company or any other person takes or threatens to take any action to declare this Agreement void or unenforceable, or institutes any litigation or other action or Proceeding designed to deny, or to recover from, the Indemnitee the benefits provided or intended to be provided to the Indemnitee hereunder. Indemnitee must commence such Proceeding seeking an adjudication within one hundred and eighty (180) days following the date on which Indemnitee first has the right to commence such Proceeding pursuant to this Section 14(a); provided, however, that the foregoing clause does not apply in respect of a Proceeding brought by Indemnitee to enforce Indemnitee's rights under Section 5 of this Agreement. The Company will not oppose Indemnitee's right to seek any such adjudication.

(b) If a determination is made pursuant to Section 12 of this Agreement that Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification, any judicial proceeding commenced pursuant to this Section 14 will be conducted in all respects as a de novo trial on the merits and Indemnitee may not be prejudiced by reason of that adverse determination. In any judicial proceeding commenced pursuant to this Section 14 the Company will have the burden of proving Indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification or advancement of Expenses, as the case may be, and will not introduce evidence of the determination made pursuant to Section 12 of this Agreement.

(c) If a determination is made pursuant to Section 12 of this Agreement that Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification, the Company will be bound by such determination in any judicial proceeding commenced pursuant to this Section 14, absent (i) a misstatement by Indemnitee of a material fact, or an omission of a material fact necessary to make Indemnitee's statement not materially misleading, in connection with the request for indemnification, or (ii) a prohibition of such indemnification under applicable law.

(d) The Company is, to the fullest extent not prohibited by law, precluded from asserting in any judicial proceeding commenced pursuant to this Section 14 that the procedures and presumptions of this Agreement are not valid, binding and enforceable and will stipulate in any such court that the Company is bound by all the provisions of this Agreement.

(e) It is the intent of the Company that, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the Indemnitee not be required to incur legal fees or other Expenses associated with the interpretation, enforcement or defense of Indemnitee's rights under this Agreement by litigation or otherwise because the cost and expense thereof would substantially detract from the benefits intended to be extended to the Indemnitee hereunder. The Company, to the fullest extent permitted by law, will (within forty-five (45) days after receipt by the Company of a written request therefor) advance to Indemnitee such Expenses which are incurred by Indemnitee in connection with any action concerning this Agreement, Indemnitee's right to indemnification or advancement of Expenses from the Company, or concerning any directors' and officers' liability insurance policies maintained by the Company, and will indemnify Indemnitee against any and all such Expenses unless the court determines that each of the Indemnitee's claims in such action were made in bad faith or were frivolous or are prohibited by law.

Section 15. Non-exclusivity; Survival of Rights; Insurance; Subrogation.

(a) The rights to indemnification and advancement of Expenses provided by this Agreement are not exclusive of any other rights to which Indemnitee may at any time be entitled under applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation, the Bylaws, any agreement, a vote of stockholders or a resolution of directors, or otherwise. The indemnification and advancement of Expenses provided by this Agreement may not be limited or restricted by any amendment, alteration or repeal of this Agreement in any way with respect to any action taken or omitted by Indemnitee in Indemnitee's Corporate Status occurring prior to any amendment, alteration or repeal of this Agreement. To the extent that a change in Delaware law, whether by statute or judicial decision, permits greater indemnification or advancement of Expenses than would be afforded currently under the Bylaws, Certificate of Incorporation, or this Agreement, it is the intent of the parties hereto that Indemnitee enjoy by this Agreement the greater benefits so afforded by such change. No right or remedy herein conferred is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every other right and remedy is cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, will not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other right or remedy.

(b) The Company hereby acknowledges that Indemnitee may have certain rights to indemnification, advancement of Expenses and/or insurance provided by one or more other Persons with whom or which Indemnitee may be associated (including, without limitation, any Principal Stockholder Entities). The relationship between the Company and such other Persons, other than an Enterprise, with respect to the Indemnitee's rights to indemnification, advancement of Expenses, and insurance is described by this subsection, subject to the provisions of subsection (d) of this Section 15 with respect to a Proceeding concerning Indemnitee's Corporate Status with an Enterprise.

i. The Company hereby acknowledges and agrees:

1) the Company is the indemnitor of first resort with respect to any request for indemnification or advancement of Expenses made pursuant to this Agreement concerning any Proceeding;

2) the Company is primarily liable for all indemnification and indemnification or advancement of Expenses obligations for any Proceeding, whether created by law, organizational or constituent documents, contract (including this Agreement) or otherwise;

3) any obligation of any other Persons with whom or which Indemnitee may be associated (including, without limitation, any Principal Stockholder Entities) to indemnify Indemnitee and/or advance Expenses to Indemnitee in respect of any proceeding are secondary to the obligations of the Company's obligations;

4) the Company will indemnify Indemnitee and advance Expenses to Indemnitee hereunder to the fullest extent provided herein without regard to any rights Indemnitee may have against any other Person with whom or which Indemnitee may be associated (including, without limitation, any Principal Stockholder Entities) or insurer of any such Person; and

ii. the Company irrevocably waives, relinquishes and releases (A) any other Person with whom or which Indemnitee may be associated (including, without limitation, any Principal Stockholder Entities) from any claim of contribution, subrogation, reimbursement, exoneration or indemnification, or any other recovery of any kind in respect of amounts paid by the Company to Indemnitee pursuant to this Agreement and (B) any right to participate in any claim or remedy of Indemnitee against any Person (including, without limitation, any Principal Stockholder Entities), whether or not such claim, remedy or right arises in equity or under contract, statute or common law, including, without limitation, the right to take or receive from any Person (including, without limitation, any Principal Stockholder Entities), directly or indirectly, in cash or other property or by set-off or in any other manner, payment or security on account of such claim, remedy or right.

iii. In the event any other Person with whom or which Indemnitee may be associated (including, without limitation, any Principal Stockholder Entities) or their insurers advances or extinguishes any liability or loss for Indemnitee, the payor has a right of subrogation against the Company or its insurers for all amounts so paid which would otherwise be payable by the Company or its insurers under this Agreement. In no event will payment by any other Person with whom or which Indemnitee may be associated (including, without limitation, any Principal Stockholder Entities) or their insurers affect the obligations of the Company hereunder or shift primary liability for the Company's obligation to indemnify or advance Expenses to any other Person with whom or which Indemnitee may be associated (including, without limitation, any Principal Stockholder Entities).

iv. Any indemnification or advancement of Expenses provided by any other Person with whom or which Indemnitee may be associated (including, without limitation, any Principal Stockholder Entities) is specifically in excess over the Company's obligation to indemnify and advance Expenses or any valid and collectible insurance (including but not limited to any malpractice insurance or professional errors and omissions insurance) provided by the Company.

(c) To the extent that the Company maintains an insurance policy or policies providing liability insurance for directors, officers, employees, or agents of the Company, the Company policy or policies will cover Indemnitee to the maximum extent of the coverage available for any such director, officer, employee or agent under such policy or policies, including coverage in the event the Company does not or cannot, for any reason, indemnify or advance Expenses to Indemnitee as required by this Agreement. If, at the time of the receipt of a notice of a claim pursuant to this Agreement, the Company has director and officer liability insurance in effect, the Company will give prompt notice of such claim or of the commencement of a Proceeding, as the case may be, to the insurers in accordance with the procedures set forth in the respective policies. The Company will thereafter take all necessary or desirable action to cause such insurers to pay, on behalf of the Indemnitee, all amounts payable as a result of such Proceeding in accordance with the terms of such policies. Indemnitee agrees to assist the Company efforts to cause the insurers to pay such amounts and will comply with the terms of such policies, including selection of approved panel counsel, if required.

(d) The Company's obligation to indemnify or advance Expenses hereunder to Indemnitee for any Proceeding concerning Indemnitee's Corporate Status with an Enterprise will be reduced by any amount Indemnitee has actually received as indemnification or advancement of Expenses from such Enterprise. The Company and Indemnitee intend that any such Enterprise (and its insurers) be the indemnitor of first resort with respect to indemnification and advancement of Expenses for any Proceeding related to or arising from Indemnitee's Corporate Status with such Enterprise. The Company's obligation to indemnify and advance Expenses to Indemnitee is secondary to the obligations the Enterprise or its insurers owe to Indemnitee. Indemnitee agrees to take all reasonably necessary and desirable action to obtain from an Enterprise indemnification and advancement of Expenses for any Proceeding related to or arising from Indemnitee's Corporate Status with such Enterprise.

(e) In the event of any payment made by the Company under this Agreement, the Company will be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all of the rights of recovery of Indemnitee from any Enterprise or insurance carrier. Indemnitee will execute all papers required and take all action necessary to secure such rights, including execution of such documents as are necessary to enable the Company to bring suit to enforce such rights.

Section 16. Duration of Agreement. This Agreement continues until and terminates upon the later of: (a) ten (10) years after the date that Indemnitee ceases to have a Corporate Status or (b) one (1) year after the final termination of any Proceeding then pending in respect of which Indemnitee is granted rights of indemnification or advancement of Expenses hereunder and of any Proceeding commenced by Indemnitee pursuant to Section 14 of this Agreement relating thereto. The indemnification and advancement of Expenses rights provided by or granted pursuant to this Agreement are binding upon and be enforceable by the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns (including any direct or indirect successor by purchase, merger, consolidation or otherwise to all or substantially all of the business or assets of the Company), continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company or of any other Enterprise, and inure to the benefit of Indemnitee and Indemnitee's spouse, assigns, heirs, devisees, executors and administrators and other legal representatives.

Section 17. Severability. If any provision or provisions of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever: (a) the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement (including without limitation, each portion of any Section of this Agreement containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that is not itself invalid, illegal or unenforceable) will not in any way be affected or impaired thereby and remain enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law; (b) such provision or provisions will be deemed reformed to the extent necessary to conform to applicable law and to give the maximum effect to the intent of the parties hereto; and (c) to the fullest extent possible, the provisions of this Agreement (including, without limitation, each portion of any Section of this Agreement containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that is not itself invalid, illegal or unenforceable) will be construed so as to give effect to the intent manifested thereby.

Section 18. Interpretation. Any ambiguity in the terms of this Agreement will be resolved in favor of Indemnitee and in a manner to provide the maximum indemnification and advancement of Expenses permitted by law. The Company and Indemnitee intend that this Agreement provide to the fullest extent permitted by law for indemnification and advancement in excess of that expressly provided, without limitation, by the Certificate of Incorporation, the Bylaws, vote of the Company stockholders or disinterested directors, or applicable law.

Section 19. Enforcement.

(a) The Company expressly confirms and agrees that it has entered into this Agreement and assumed the obligations imposed on it hereby in order to induce Indemnitee to serve as a director or officer of the Company, and the Company acknowledges that Indemnitee is relying upon this Agreement in serving or continuing to serve as a director or officer of the Company.

(b) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, oral, written and implied, between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof; provided, however, that this Agreement is a supplement to and in furtherance of the Certificate of Incorporation, the Bylaws and applicable law, and is not a substitute therefor, nor to diminish or abrogate any rights of Indemnitee thereunder.

Section 20. Modification and Waiver. No supplement, modification or amendment of this Agreement is binding unless executed in writing by the parties hereto. No waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement will be deemed or constitutes a waiver of any other provisions of this Agreement nor will any waiver constitute a continuing waiver.

Section 21. Notice by Indemnitee. Indemnitee agrees promptly to notify the Company in writing upon being served with any summons, citation, subpoena, complaint, indictment, information or other document relating to any Proceeding or matter which may be subject to indemnification or advancement of Expenses covered hereunder. The failure of Indemnitee to so notify the Company does not relieve the Company of any obligation which it may have to the Indemnitee under this Agreement or otherwise.

Section 22. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement will be in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given if (a) delivered by hand to the other party, (b) sent by reputable overnight courier to the other party or (c) sent by facsimile transmission or electronic mail, with receipt of oral confirmation that such communication has been received:

(a) If to Indemnitee, at the address indicated on the signature page of this Agreement, or such other address as Indemnitee provides to the Company.

(b) If to the Company to:

or to any other address as may have been furnished to Indemnitee by the Company.

Section 23. Contribution. To the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, if the indemnification provided for in this Agreement is unavailable to Indemnitee for any reason whatsoever, the Company, in lieu of indemnifying Indemnitee, will contribute to the amount incurred by Indemnitee, whether for judgments, fines, penalties, excise taxes, amounts paid or to be paid in settlement and/or for Expenses, in connection with any claim relating to an indemnifiable event under this Agreement, in such proportion as is deemed fair and reasonable in light of all of the circumstances of such Proceeding in order to reflect (i) the relative benefits received by the Company and Indemnitee as a result of the event(s) and/or transaction(s) giving cause to such Proceeding; and/or (ii) the relative fault of the Company (and its directors, officers, employees and agents) and Indemnitee in connection with such event(s) and/or transaction(s).

Section 24. Applicable Law and Consent to Jurisdiction. This Agreement and the legal relations among the parties are governed by, and construed and enforced in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to its conflict of laws rules. The Company and Indemnitee hereby irrevocably and unconditionally (i) agree that any action or Proceeding arising out of or in connection with this Agreement may be brought only in the Delaware Court of Chancery and not in any other state or federal court in the United States of America or any court in any other country, (ii) consent to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Delaware Court for purposes of any action or Proceeding arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, (iii) waive any objection to the laying of venue of any such action or Proceeding in the Delaware Court, and (iv) waive, and agree not to plead or to make, any claim that any such action or Proceeding brought in the Delaware Court has been brought in an improper or inconvenient forum.

Section 25. Identical Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which will for all purposes be deemed to be an original but all of which together constitutes one and the same Agreement. Only one such counterpart signed by the party against whom enforceability is sought needs to be produced to evidence the existence of this Agreement.

Section 26. Headings. The headings of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and do not constitute part of this Agreement or affect the construction thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be signed as of the day and year first above written.
